A Mercy College Education

Mercy College is a private, nonprofit institution, providing an engaging learning experience for students and offering more than 90 undergraduate and graduate degree and certificate programs within five schools: Business, Education, Health and Natural Sciences, Liberal Arts, and Social and Behavioral Sciences. The main campus is located just outside of New York City in Dobbs Ferry, on 66 acres of land overlooking the picturesque Hudson River, with additional campus locations in the Bronx, Manhattan and Yorktown Heights. Proud to be ranked as one of the most affordable, nonprofit private institutions in the country, Mercy College is committed to preparing students for rewarding, in-demand careers. The College’s rigorous programs and comprehensive support services provide students with a strong foundation for academic and future success. The Mercy College faculty is dedicated to advancing student learning and engagement through excellence in teaching, mentorship and cultivating a love of learning. Mercy College professors include Fulbright Scholars, published authors and national authorities in their fields.

Mission Statement
Mercy College is committed to providing motivated students the opportunity to transform their lives through higher education by offering liberal arts and professional programs in personalized and high-quality learning environments, thus preparing students to embark on rewarding careers, to continue learning throughout their lives and to act ethically and responsibly in a changing world.

Mercy College History
Founded as a junior college in 1950 under the auspices of the Sisters of Mercy, Mercy College became a four-year college offering programs leading to the baccalaureate degree in 1961. The College received full accreditation from the Middle States Commission on Higher Education by the end of that decade. In the next half-decade, Mercy boldly set a course for its future with a series of actions which included declaring itself independent, non-sectarian, and co-educational, doubling the size of the existing physical plant, and initiating the first of many community outreach efforts to non-traditional student populations through the establishment of a Spanish bilingual program.

Mercy’s innovative spirit soared in the 1970s when it established extension centers and branch campuses throughout communities in Westchester County and New York City, and it positioned itself on the leading edge of the adult student market with flexible scheduling, multiple and convenient locations, and accelerated degree completion programs. New populations of students, many of whom were the first in their families to pursue higher education including veterans, police officers, fire fighters and immigrants, found a home at Mercy. Mercy College became a pioneer in online education more than 25 years ago, offering courses as well as entire degrees online.

By the early 1980s, Mercy was granted authority to offer its first graduate program. Throughout the next two decades, the College expanded its portfolio of graduate programs. Today, Mercy offers 35 graduate programs to thousands of students, primarily in teacher education, health professions and business. In 2006, Mercy was granted the authority to offer its first doctoral degree program in physical therapy.

Mercy College is known for its high-quality education, personalized experience, talented faculty, proximity to New York City and affordability. Students study on the main campus located on 66 acres overlooking the beautiful Hudson River, at campuses in the Bronx, Manhattan, Yorktown Heights or online.

As part of the College’s commitment to preparing students for their future, the Personalized Achievement Contract (PACT) Program was founded in 2009. Professional mentors help students navigate their college career from the moment they are accepted until graduation.

In 2012, Mercy unveiled a state of the art athletic turf field on the Dobbs Ferry campus, where the College’s Division II soccer, lacrosse, baseball and field hockey teams practice and compete. The multi-purpose field was awarded the New York American Council of Engineering Companies’ Excellence Silver Award.

After renting classroom space at Our Lady of Victory Academy for more than 30 years, Mercy College purchased the former high school building and grounds from the Sisters of Mercy in January 2013. The building became home to experiential learning spaces for Mercy students in many disciplines. The School of Liberal Arts relocated the television and music studios, as well as the computer art labs to Victory Hall. In 2013, the School of Business opened a state of the art simulated Wall Street trading room and, the following year, the School of Health and Natural Sciences opened a highly interactive exercise science suite for students to apply key concepts and gain valuable experience in a real-life setting.

The College embarked on the construction of a new 350-bed residence hall and student commons in September 2014. The complex will include a fitness center, coffee shop and an outdoor quad; foot paths will connect the residence hall to Victory, Main and Mercy Halls. The project will improve living facilities on campus and create a more enriching environment.

Mercy College is committed to developing engaged citizens and instilling the values contained in the Mercy College seal, Inserviendo Consumere (consumed in service). The College has a rich tradition of service through the “Mercy Gives Back” initiative, which encourages students to participate in, and lead, service opportunities. On-campus events and international travel experiences, such as medical missions to Central and South America, help students discover and appreciate cultures far from home.

Throughout its history, Mercy College has remained dedicated to its mission–to make available the transformational power of a college education. Mercy’s commitment to quality, student support and affordability–as well as innovation–remains as strong today as ever.

Commitment to Student Learning

Grounded in the Mercy College mission to provide motivated students with the opportunity to transform their lives through education, our mission regarding educational assessment is to guide and support faculty and staff in their efforts to improve the quality of courses, programs and the student learning experience by clarifying expectations and using reliable and valid measures of learning achievement to determine the impact of pedagogical and support strategies. All academic programs have learning outcomes which provide expectations for student learning, and are published on the program websites.

Pre-Professional Preparation Programs

Mercy College provides strong opportunities for students to take the first step toward a professional career. A broad scope of disciplines from the arts, humanities and sciences are offered to form the academic preparation for the competitive admissions tests required for law school, medical school, dental school and other professional training. Students are encouraged to contact the respective dean’s office (Social and Behavioral Sciences for pre-law; Health and Natural Sciences for medical dental, and allied health professions) to schedule an appointment with a pre-professional faculty advisor.

Campuses and Online

The main campus of Mercy College is located in Dobbs Ferry with additional campus locations in the Bronx, Manhattan and Yorktown Heights, making the educational process convenient and accessible to students throughout the New York metropolitan area.

Mercy Online (www.mercy.edu/mercyonline) offers students an accessible and convenient way to learn. No matter where students are located, they may take courses, or complete entire degrees, online. At Mercy College, there is no distinction between the expectations of traditionally taught classes and online classes.

Benefits of online learning include:

1. Affordability. Eliminate transportation time and expenses.
2. Flexibility. You set your schedule for success.
3. 24/7 Accessibility. Study anywhere at any time.

Mercy Online currently offers more than 40 undergraduate and graduate degrees entirely online. Students also may satisfy their General Education curriculum requirements online.

Libraries

The Mercy College libraries serve students, faculty, staff and alumni of the College. The main library at the Dobbs Ferry Campus holds the majority of collections and supplements those at three branch campus libraries (Bronx, Manhattan and Yorktown Heights) through a timely shipping and delivery system. All library facilities afford space for collaborative or concentrated learning and easy accessibility to library holdings and services. Librarians are available to provide research assistance, consultations and information literacy instruction. Library resources are available in many formats, including traditional print books, e-books, journals, newspapers and audiovisual resources. Desktop computers, laptops and wireless network provide access to the libraries’ online catalogs, electronic databases and Internet resources to support the College’s on-site and online programs. Off-site users have access to the libraries’ online catalogs, e-books and databases through the Mercy College libraries’ website at https://www.mercy.edu/academics/libraries/.
Information resources are selected for quality and their ability to support the total curriculum and selected research areas. The libraries’ total collection includes over 147,000 combined book and e-book titles. Library databases and e-journal subscriptions provide 24/7 access to over 22,000 journals and their full text articles. The libraries’ resources are cataloged using OCLC, the major international bibliographic utility, and Sierra, the libraries’ integrated online library system. The collection is arranged according to the Library of Congress classification system. The libraries have in place resource sharing arrangements for electronic and print resources with other libraries and library systems, principally through WALDO (Westchester Academic Library Directors Organization) and METRO (Metropolitan New York Library Council). Materials at other libraries can be requested through Interlibrary Loan; most arrive in a week to ten days, free of charge. Comments from students, faculty and other library users are encouraged and useful to the libraries as they continue to enhance the services, systems, and collection of physical and electronic resources.

Center for Academic Excellence and Innovation (Learning Centers)
The Center for Academic Excellence and Innovation at Mercy College is designed to support and enhance the teaching and learning process at the College. The primary goal of the Learning Centers is to help students become self-sufficient, lifelong learners by offering academic support in efficient, effective and convenient ways. The services are open to all Mercy College students who want to improve or enhance their learning skills (not only to those who are having difficulties). Learning Centers are available at all campuses. For further information, please call 914-674-7402.

Center for Global Engagement
The Center for Global Engagement (CGE)—launched in 2010—acts as a hub for students, faculty, and staff to engage with global issues on campus, in New York’s international context—especially with the United Nations—and around the world. The Center supports a wide range of initiatives to facilitate exchange of knowledge across international boundaries—through interdisciplinary and experiential global learning opportunities, faculty-led study abroad programs, public events of global interest and speaker series on international topics, forums for interaction with international students and faculty, engagement with local community-based groups with international focus, opportunities for faculty exchanges, and research collaborations with international scholars.

Computer Resources
Mercy College has an ongoing commitment to excellence in technology and continues to improve both the technology infrastructure and services to its community. The Mercy College website, http://www.mercy.edu, includes a secure online Admissions application. The College has 27 student computer labs and computer classrooms that provide a foundation for technology-based instruction. Each lab has approximately 20 computers.

Wireless Internet access is available at all Mercy College campuses and in the residence halls. Resident students should be aware that the use of personal wireless routers is not permitted.
The Mercy College intranet, Mercy Connect, provides access to online learning, email, discussion list, chat and Web-based services such as registration, advising, grades, tuition payment, financial aid and degree audit. Upon admission, all students are assigned a college email address and are expected to use both their email and the Web-based services as an integral part of their college experience. Many official communications from Mercy College are sent via email.

College Communication

Mercy College considers the College’s email system, along with the United States Postal Service, as an official means of communication. Mercy College will consider employees and students to be duly informed and in receipt of notifications and correspondences sent by a college administrator, staff or faculty member when delivered to an employee’s Exchange (@mercy.edu) or a student’s Mercy Mavericks (@mercymavericks.edu) college email account. It is recommended that employees and students frequently access their college-assigned email account for official information. Students may choose to have their @mercymavericks.edu email accounts forwarded to an off-campus account. Such individuals, however, are responsible for managing their disk quota such that there is room for new mail to arrive and for forwarding their Mercy email account to a functioning alternative email address. The College is not responsible for delivery problems to non-official email accounts.

Institutional Review Board
(Research Involving Human Participants)

Mercy College is committed to the ethical treatment of human participants engaged in research. All Mercy College faculty, students and employees wishing to engage in research are responsible for compliance with the College’s Institutional Review Board (IRB) policies. The Mercy College IRB reviews each research proposal and consent process in order to safeguard the rights and welfare of human participants. The IRB must determine that each study conforms to ethical standards, including a reasonable balance of risks and anticipated benefits; adequate provisions for informed consent; and equitable selection of participants. Copies of the "Guidelines for Submitting A Proposal For Research Projects Involving Human Participants" may be obtained online through Mercy Connect. Information and resources regarding the IRB Guidelines are available at the Reserve Reading Desk of the Dobbs Ferry Campus library and online. All research proposals must be submitted to the IRB chairperson by the first of the month. For further information, please contact the chairperson by email at mcirb@mercy.edu.

Dual Degree in BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (B.S./MBA)

In five years of full-time study, students earn a B.S. in Business Administration with specialization in General Business and an MBA. The program admission is competitive and it is focused on highly motivated freshman and eligible transfers who have maintained a 3.0 GPA (or equivalent) in both high school and college. Students who are admitted to this program must meet with the Undergraduate Business Administration Chair before enrolling in courses since the program requires a prescribed course sequencing in order to complete the program in five years.

This program is designed to allow students to enter Mercy College as an undergraduate, and by following a very specific curriculum, graduate in summer of the fourth year with a B.S. in Business Administration degree. With an additional year of prescribed graduate study, students will be able to earn an MBA. This is accomplished by following a prescribed sequence of courses in the undergraduate B.S. in Business Administration degree program, which waives the 24-credit MBA general business core. Twelve graduate credits in the M.B.A. program count toward both the B.S. and MBA degrees.

The following pairs of undergraduate courses, if completed successfully, will waive the MBA course listed:

Admission Requirements:
Highly motivated freshman and eligible transfers who have maintained a 3.0 GPA (or equivalent) in both high school and college may apply for the program. In the fall of their fourth year, students in the B.S./MBA program will be evaluated by the Graduate and Undergraduate Business Administration Chairs for a review of their continued qualifications and matriculation to the MBA program. Students must have a 3.0 overall and major GPA to matriculate to the MBA program in the fourth year spring quarter. Those students who do not meet the GPA requirement will complete 12 credits of open electives in the fourth year spring semester and exit the B.S./MBA program and graduate with a B.S. in Business Administration with specialization in General Business degree in May of the fourth year.

Dual Degree in PUBLIC ACCOUNTING (B.S./M.S.)

Purpose
The 150-hour Combined B.S./M.S. in Public Accounting Program is for highly qualified students who wish to enter the profession of Public Accountancy. The Combined B.S./M.S. in Public Accounting is the only 150-credit-hour CPA licensure-qualifying program commencing at the undergraduate level at Mercy College. Upon completion of the Combined Program, students will meet the academic requirements for admission to the CPA Examination in New York State and will satisfy the licensure requirements with one year of professional experience.

Objectives
Graduates of the Combined Program are prepared for employment in a dynamic profession. Undergraduate students are equipped with a strong liberal arts foundation, and a professional accounting and business curriculum. Graduate students experience an integration of advanced accounting research and studies in graduate business courses, which provide depth and breadth to the learning experience.

Admission Requirements
Requirements for matriculation and admission into the Combined B.S./M.S. in Public Accounting:

A. Undergraduate Program Admission:
1. Undergraduate students enroll in the B.S. Public Accounting Program.
2. Students must maintain an overall and accounting GPA of 3.0 or higher throughout their undergraduate studies.
3. After completion of the 300-level Accounting courses, students who meet the 3.0 GPA requirement may be eligible to switch majors to the Combined B.S./M.S. in Public Accounting Program after an interview with and the written permission of the Accounting Department Chairperson.
4. Accounting credits more than five years old may not be accepted in transfer in fulfillment of the major; they may only be used for elective credits. Foreign accounting transfer credits are generally not accepted. Contact the Accounting Department Chairperson for more information.

B. Graduate Program Admission:
1. During the last year of undergraduate study, students who have an overall and Accounting GPA of 3.0 or higher meet with the Accounting Department Chairperson to switch majors to the Combined B.S./M.S. Public Accounting degree. Students who meet graduate admission criteria will matriculate into the graduate portion of the Combined B.S./M.S. Public Accounting Program. Program continuation will be granted to candidates who show promise of success in graduate studies. An interview with the Accounting Department Chairperson is required.

The Accounting Program

Certified Management Accountant (CMA) Professional Examination
Candidates holding any accounting baccalaureate degree generally meet the educational requirements to take the CMA Examination. Students can prepare for the CMA Examination by enrolling in any one of the Accounting B.S. Degree Programs (General, Management, or Public Accounting).

Certified Public Accountant (CPA) Professional Examination
The Combined B.S./M.S. in Public Accounting is a 150-hour CPA licensure-qualifying program. Students who complete this program are eligible to sit for the CPA examination and become licensed in New York State with one year of appropriate professional experience.

The faculty recommends that students earn at least a grade of C+ in all accounting courses before continuing.

Accounting Program policy prohibits making any exceptions to corequisite or prerequisite requirements, except upon written application to the Accounting Department Chairman from non-matriculated students with relevant experience.

Because of the nature of the subject and the availability of advance schedules, tutorials are not offered for accounting courses.

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

B.S. and M.S. Program
The Bachelor of Science and Master of Science Degree Program is an academic program that allows students interested in the teaching profession as a career choice to earn both a bachelor’s degree and a master’s degree in an accelerated venue. Through this special program, qualified students who major in psychology or behavioral science can receive teacher certification in Early Childhood or Childhood Education, and students who major in biology, English, mathematics, or social studies can receive teacher certification in Adolescence Education as well as Early Childhood or Childhood Education.

A key feature of this program allows students to take up to 15 graduate education credits during their junior and senior years, and these credits can be used toward satisfying their bachelor’s as well as their master’s degree requirements. Combining undergraduate and graduate degree programs streamlines the teacher preparation program and enables students to achieve teacher certification on an accelerated basis, reducing the time and cost needed to earn a master’s degree. In addition, the multiple career options offer students the opportunity to acquire skills and credentials in several teaching specialization areas, thus increasing their employment potential in schools that need teachers to fill multiple and flexible roles.

Teaching Certification in New York State
In order to become certified as a teacher in New York State, candidates are required to achieve qualifying scores on the Academic Literacy Test (ALST), the Educating All Students test (EAS), and the Content Specialty Tests (CST), in the area of each certificate being requested. A final exam, the edTPA is developed and submitted as part of the student teaching experience. Although five-year candidates are not required to take these tests prior to admission into the graduate program, interested applicants may contact the School of Education for additional clarification regarding this process.

Admissions Requirements
To be accepted into the B.S. and M.S. Education program, a student must:

- Be a high school graduate who has earned a New York State Regents Diploma with an 85 average or better.

  or

- Be a high school graduate with a score of 500 or better on the verbal portion of the SAT and 500 or better on the math portion of the SAT or corresponding ACT.

- Place at ENGL 111 and MATH 115 on the Mercy College Placement Exam.

Students must have an earned associate degree in Liberal Arts with an overall GPA of 3.0. Students must maintain a GPA of 3.0 each semester at Mercy College to remain in the Five-Year Program, and must adhere to the above requirements. An interview is also required.
If students do not qualify under the above admission criteria, they may still apply to the program upon completion of the 60-credit General Education requirement and completion of at least 15 credits in their major field of study with a GPA of 3.0 or better. Thirty credits must be taken in residency at Mercy College.

To remain in the Five-Year Program, a student must:

- Maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 each semester at Mercy College.
- Register for an introductory 3-credit graduate education course in the second semester of their junior year, or upon completion of 70-75 undergraduate credits with a B or better average.
- Register for 12 credits in graduate education courses in the senior year.

Please note that all graduate course descriptions as well as specific teacher certification parameters can be found in the Mercy College Graduate Catalog.

Additionally, all matriculated Mercy College students are required to demonstrate an appropriate level of achievement in each of the six college competencies to ascertain that they can communicate clearly and effectively both orally and in writing. They must also demonstrate their ability to use critical thinking and established methods of computation and use of contemporary technology. This early identification of potential areas of weakness enables students to monitor their progress in developing these skills. As part of this process, students have available to them the full resources of the College’s academic support services, including the Learning Center, Career Planning and Placement, and one-on-one tutorials with faculty.

Dual Degree B.S. + M.S. Program
The Bachelor of Science/Master of Science Dual Degree Program is an academic program that allows students interested in the teaching profession as a career choice to earn both a bachelor’s degree and a master’s degree in an accelerated format. Through this special program, qualified students who major in biology can receive teacher certification in Middle Childhood or Adolescence Education as well as Early Childhood or Childhood Education. A key feature of this program allows students to take up to 15 graduate education credits during their upper junior and senior years, and these can be used toward satisfying their bachelor’s as well as their master’s degree requirements.

Please see the School of Education section of this catalog for program and course details.

COMMUNICATION DISORDERS

Helen Buhler, Ph.D., Program Director

COMMUNICATION DISORDERS
The Undergraduate Program offers a B.S. degree in communication disorders (CD). This degree is comparable to an undergraduate degree in speech-language pathology / audiology. Upon completion of the degree, graduates demonstrate proficiencies in speech-language pathology, speech and hearing science, and audiology in preparation for graduate study. The major goal of the program is to provide a scientific/clinically based curriculum as preparation for graduate studies. A master's degree is mandatory as entry level into the profession of speech-language pathology (SLP).* As of 2007, the entry level for Audiology is the doctorate degree. In addition to the professions noted above, the CD undergraduate degree is also useful for students continuing their graduate studies in education, special education, and teachers of the deaf and hearing impaired, psychology, social work, and recreational therapy.

Major Requirements:
Students planning to major in communication disorders must demonstrate the following: completion of at least 48 credits of the General Education curriculum with a GPA of at least 2.75; a grade of at least B in ENGL 112 or its equivalent; and a grade of at least B in SPCM 110. Students must complete six credits of a foreign language (six credits can be in American Sign Language), BIOL 110 Introduction to Human Biology and one of the following courses (PHYS 110, CHEM 110) as part of their General Education requirements. In addition, students must complete BHSC 370, Statistics for the Behavioral and Social Sciences.

Proficiency in oral and written communication will be assessed during the student’s first semester. Basic competencies are continuously assessed throughout the student’s tenure as a communication disorders major. Competency in both oral and written communication is required in order to obtain a degree in communication disorders. Students who require additional assistance in oral and written communication skills will be directed to the appropriate sources including courses, the Learning Center or the Speech and Hearing Center.

Students planning to enter the major must contact the Mercy College Communication Disorders Undergraduate Coordinator at 914-674-7741 for an eligibility interview. All students are assigned to a faculty advisor in Communication Disorders and are required to see the advisor each semester. To maintain satisfactory academic standing as a major, students must maintain a minimum GPA of 2.75 in the major. A student who receives a grade below C in any major course will be required to repeat the course. Students may repeat a major course once. Any exceptions to Department guidelines require approval by the department director.
All students who are accepted in the program must present proof of a current physical (within the past year), MMR, PPD, Hepatitis B and Meningitis immunization. Proof of immunization is to be given prior to enrollment in CMDS 498.

Students who choose the major concentration in nursing must have:
1. An associate degree in nursing from an accredited Nursing Program or a diploma in nursing.
   • Students who completed their nursing degree outside of the U.S. must complete a WES evaluation
2. Passed the NCLEX licensure exam.
3. A valid state license to practice as a registered nurse.
4. A GPA of 2.75.
   • Students will be considered for matriculation with GPAs 2.5-2.70.
   • Students will meet with Nursing Program Undergraduate Coordinator.

* Lower Division Nursing requirements are accepted in transfer from an Associate Degree in Nursing

Eligibility for Admission to Nursing Courses NURS 361 and above
To be admitted to these nursing courses, the student must have passed the NCLEX exam and hold a valid license to practice as a registered nurse in the U.S.

Transfer Credit
Previously earned college credit in the liberal arts and sciences may be accepted in transfer by Mercy College. Additional academic credits can be earned by passing RCE or CLEP examinations.

Lower division nursing requirements may be fulfilled as follows:
   Anatomy and Physiology II
       New York State Regents Examination (RCE)
   Chemistry
       Earned by credit only Microbiology
       College Level Examination Program (CLEP) or National League for Nursing Achievement Exam (NLN)
   Introduction to Psychology and Introduction to Sociology
       College Level Examination Program (CLEP)

Matriculation in the nursing major is required to earn credit for the lower division nursing (30 credits).

Organization of the Program
This program has been designed for the part-time or full-time student. A student may enroll for 3-16 credits a semester. Courses are scheduled for a combination of evenings, days, weekends (general education classes) and/or online. A variety of schedule patterns and teaching and learning methods are utilized. Nursing courses are offered at the Dobbs Ferry, Bronx, select off-campus locations and Online Campuses. General education courses can be taken at any of the branch campuses in the Bronx, Manhattan or Yorktown Heights. Upon acceptance to the nursing major, the student will be assigned an academic advisor from the nursing faculty.

Admissions Procedure
1. Obtain an application form and general information regarding your eligibility for the nursing program from the Admissions Office at the main campus, any of the branch campuses or online. If you have any questions, faculty in the Nursing Program will be happy to talk with you via phone or in person by appointment.
2. All applicants for the Nursing Program must submit the following to the Office of Admissions:
   a. An application for Admission, accompanied by the $40 application fee. (The application fee will be waived for students who are presently matriculated at Mercy College.)
   b. An official transcript of record from each diploma school, college, or university previously attended.
   c. Evidence of current licensure as a registered nurse.
3. Upon receipt of transcripts by the Admissions Office, all applicants must arrange an appointment with the transfer counselor for a pre-admission interview and the Undergraduate Nursing Student Coordinator for program planning.
4. Qualified applicants will be admitted to the nursing major based upon available space in clinical nursing courses at the time of projected student’s eligibility.
5. Upon acceptance to the nursing major, the student will be assigned an academic advisor from the nursing faculty.

Additional Nursing Science Requirements
1. Anatomy and Physiology II (transfer credit or NYS Regents exam) *
2. Microbiology (transfer credit, College Level Examination Program [CLEP], or National League of Nursing Achievement Exam [NLN]) *

UPPER DIVISION NURSING COURSES
- NURS 361 Contemporary Concepts in Professional Nursing
- NURS 362 Transcultural Nursing
- NURS 363 Research for Evidence Based Professional Nursing
- NURS 364 Nursing Informatics
- NURS 365 Introduction to Health Policy
- NURS 366 Leadership and Management (cc)
- NURS 367 Pathophysiology and Clinical Reasoning for Nursing
- NURS 368 Health Assessment and Health Promotion
- NURS 370 Capstone Project in Nursing and Health Care *
- NURS 371 Statistics for Nurses

NURS 370 will only be available to students who have successfully completed NURS 369 prior to summer 2013.

- NURS 401A Community Health Nursing: Advocacy for Population Health

*These courses fulfill General Education Requirements
Undergraduate Nursing Program Goals

The major concentration in nursing provides an upper division B.S. degree program for registered nurses with a diploma or an associate degree education in nursing. The nursing major is designed to prepare a professional practitioner who is:

- A provider of safe care who evaluates client changes and progress over time.
- A designer/manager/coordinator of care who participates on the interprofessional team, identifies system issues, manages care transitions, and delegates, prioritizes and oversees care.
- A member of the nursing profession through the process of evaluating one’s practice and supporting the profession.
- Prepared for graduate study in nursing.

Expectations of the Graduate

Graduates of the Mercy College Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing will be expected to do the following:

1. Integrate concepts from liberal arts and sciences as the basis for nursing education and the practice of professional nursing.

2. Demonstrate leadership strategies that promote quality improvement, client safety, and organizational effectiveness that promotes health.

3. Understand the levels of evidence that guide scholarship and evidence based practice in professional nursing.

4. Explore ethical management of data, information, knowledge, and technology to facilitate professional nursing care.

5. Investigate health care policies and practices, finances, costs and regulations that influence professional nursing and the general population while promoting advocacy and social justice particularly for the vulnerable.

6. Examine the implications of interprofessional communication and collaboration in improving health outcomes.

7. Examine the impact of clinical prevention on health promotion and disease prevention on population health.

8. Integrate the core values characteristic of professional nursing.

9. Integrate and apply knowledge, skills, and attitudes that lead to the improvement in health outcomes while recognizing the diversity of culture, spirituality, ethnicity, socio-economic status, gender and sexual orientation of all clients.

RN-B.S.-M.S.

RNAs with 3.0 GPAs from an associate degree program are eligible to apply for the accelerated RN-B.S.-M.S. program. In this program, up to nine graduate credits are substituted for undergraduate credits. After 123 credits, a student earns a bachelor’s degree in nursing and is able to enter either the Master in Nursing Education or Master in Nursing Administration track.
Requirements for progression in the RN-B.S.-M.S. courses:

- Undergraduate GPA 3.0.
- Completion of a minimum of 60 general education credits.
- Undergraduate nursing courses NURS 361, NURS 363, and NURS 371.
- Meet with faculty advisor in the undergraduate program to activate program plan.
- Faculty advisor to notify the undergraduate coordinator for approval.

Upon completion of the above requirements, the student will take NURS 514 (Philosophical and Theoretical Foundations of Nursing) in lieu of NURS 361. The student must receive a B or above to be considered for the progression into the master’s program and to progress to the additional two graduate courses (NURS 502; 503).

Substitution courses are as follows:
NURS 514 in lieu of NURS 361
NURS 503 in lieu of NURS 365
NURS 502 in lieu of NURS 364

Admission requirements for the RN-B.S.-M.S. Program:
Students admitted into the RN-B.S.-M.S. program must complete all of their undergraduate requirements. Pending undergraduate graduation, the graduate application is initiated. The following information must be in evidence:

- Undergraduate GPA 3.0.
- NURS 514 (Grade: B or above).
- Completed graduate application.
- Approval from Director and/or Associate Director of Nursing Program.

Before entering into the M.S. component of the RN-B.S.-M.S. program, student must graduate from the RN-B.S. program.

The Occupational Therapy Assistant (OTA) Program is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE) of the American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA). ACOTE contact information is: ACOTE, c/o Accreditation Department, American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA), 4720 Montgomery Lane, Suite 200, Bethesda, MD 20814-3449. Phone number is 301-652-2862 and fax number is 301-652-7711. ACOTE’s website is www.acoteonline.org and email is accred@aota.org. Graduates of the program are eligible to sit for the national certification examination of the occupational therapy assistant administered by the National Board of Certification in Occupational Therapy (NBCOT). After successful completion of this exam, the individual will be a Certified Occupational Therapy Assistant, (COTA). Passing the NBCOT examination is currently required in order to obtain a license and practice as an Occupational Therapy Assistant in most states (including New York, New Jersey and Connecticut). Please refer to the "Practice Acts" of each state for the licensure requirement of a particular state.

NOTE: All Occupational Therapy Assistant students are required to complete all Level II Fieldwork within 18 months following completion of academic coursework. All required coursework and fieldwork must be completed within five years from the initiation of coursework in the major concentration of occupational therapy.

NOTE: A felony conviction may affect a graduate’s ability to sit for the NBCOT certification examination or attain state licensure.

Admission Criteria/Procedure:
To take the program on a full-time or part-time basis, all candidates must:
1. First be admitted into Mercy College.
2. Submit official transcripts from all high schools and colleges attended to the Mercy College Admission Office.
   a) Transfer credit will be granted only for those prerequisite courses with a grade of C or higher.
   b) Anatomy and Physics prerequisite courses must have been taken within the last five years.
3. Have a minimum GPA of 2.75 in order to be interviewed or accepted into the program.
4. Place at the English 111 level.
5. Complete a personal interview with the OTA Program Director or OTA designee.
6. Complete the OTA Program Application and a written on-site essay at the time of the interview.
7. Submit the three "Recommendation Forms" that are distributed at the time of the interview. These forms serve as references (no separate written reference letters are required). Preferably, the "Recommendation Forms" will be completed by an Occupational Therapy Assistant or a Registered Occupational Therapist, Work Supervisor or from an instructor of a prerequisite course. The recommendations must be recent (not over six months old). All "Recommendation Forms" must be submitted in a sealed envelope with the reference’s signature over the seal. Any file that does not have the Recommendation Forms completed by the end of the application period will be considered "incomplete" and will not be reviewed by the Admissions Committee.

Deadlines for applications into the Program:
   a) March 31 for the fall semester.
   b) October 31 for the spring semester.

Interviews will be arranged as applications are reviewed for the fall and spring semesters.

Each applicant's record will be reviewed by the Admission Committee of the Program. The final admission decision is based on a cumulative scoring of the candidate's GPA, interview, references and the written essay. Decision letters will be sent out approximately within one month of the close of the application deadline.

Essential Performance Standards

The program has an "Essential Performance Standards" form that outlines the necessary affective skills and professional behaviors, communication/interpersonal skills, psychomotor skills, cognitive skills and self-care skills deemed essential for completion of the program and performance as a competent occupational therapy assistant. This form is signed by the student stating they either are or are not capable of performing the skills and abilities that are listed.

Occupational Therapy Assistant Program Requirements:

1. Students must earn a grade of C or better in all general education prerequisite courses and all occupational therapy assistant core courses (those with the prefix "OCTR").

2. Any student who receives a grade of C- or below in any OTA core course (prefix "OCTR") must repeat the course.

3. Any student who receives a grade of C- or below in two or more OTA core courses (prefix "OCTR") will automatically be dismissed from the program.

4. If a student is placed on academic probation as per college policy, the student is required to meet with their OTA faculty advisor in order to develop an educational plan.

5. Students must take all courses in the sequence according to the curriculum design of the Program.

6. If a student must repeat a course for any reason, they must wait to do so until the course is offered the following academic year.

7. A grade of F in any occupational therapy assistant course may be grounds for dismissal. The faculty will discuss the situation and will make the final decision regarding whether dismissal from the program is warranted, depending on the reason for the failure.

8. Students who receive a rating of “Unsatisfactory” in any category in the Fieldwork I Experience during any semester will have their records reviewed by the Occupational Therapy Assistant faculty. The faculty will decide if the student may repeat the experience, or if the student will be permitted to repeat the entire major module course. In either case, the student will receive an educational plan that is designed by the faculty that addresses the student’s particular issues.

9. Students may not take any Fieldwork II experiences until they have successfully completed all Fieldwork I experiences.

10. Should a student fail a Fieldwork II experience, the faculty will discuss the reasons for the failure and a decision will be made as to whether the student will be given an opportunity to repeat the fieldwork experience. Reasons for the decision will be shared with the student during a face-to-face or telephone meeting with the Academic Fieldwork Coordinator and the program director (or designee). An "Educational Contract" for the repeated FW II assignment will be written by the Academic Fieldwork Coordinator and signed by the student and also the program director prior to the student repeating the failed experience. Failure to uphold the specifications of the educational contract will result in failure of the repeated fieldwork placement and automatic dismissal from the program. The student must register and pay tuition for any repeated Fieldwork course (OCTR 209 or 210).

11. Failure in any two Fieldwork experiences, Fieldwork I or II, will result in dismissal from the program.

12. Students are evaluated by the faculty and their peers (anonymously) throughout the Program.

13. During clinical fieldwork experiences, student work schedules may not interfere with the hours they spend at the fieldwork site.

There is a 15-credit residency requirement in the major concentration of Veterinary Technology.

*Students must complete these courses as part of their General Education Requirements.
Students in the Veterinary Technology Program must earn a minimum letter grade of C or better in all veterinary technology and natural science courses and in MATH 116 College Algebra. Students must maintain a 2.5 cumulative index in veterinary technology courses for admittance into clinical courses VETC 241, VETC 241A, VETC 247, VETC 247A, VETC 260, VETC 395, VETC 396, VETC 399 and VETC 445.

Students enrolled in the undecided – veterinary technology, undecided – pre-veterinary medicine, veterinary technology major or the veterinary technology major with the pre-veterinary medicine specialization may not repeat a course required in the curriculum more than once.

Students enrolled in the undecided – veterinary technology, undecided – pre-veterinary medicine, veterinary technology major or the veterinary technology major with the pre-veterinary medicine specialization program are fully responsible for compliance with all requirements, policies and procedures contained in the Technology Program Student Handbook.

Students should anticipate taking the didactic portion of VETC 260 Principles of Large Animal Medicine course online during the spring semester followed by a one-week, hands-on portion at SUNY-Delhi in the summer. No other Veterinary Technology courses are offered in the summer semester.

NOTE: A felony conviction may affect a graduate’s ability to attain state licensure.

The Veterinary Technology Program is accredited by the Committee on Veterinary Technician Education and Activities (CVTEA) of the American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA) located in Schaumburg, Illinois.

Graduates of the Mercy College Veterinary Technology Program are eligible to sit for the Veterinary Technician National Examination (VTNE) administered by the American Association of Veterinary State Boards (AAVSB). Successful completion of this examination is required for licensure as a veterinary technician by the New York State Education Department (NYSED). Licensure information can be found at http://www.op.nysed.gov/prof/vetmed/vtlic.htm.

Veterinary Technology Program Admission Criteria

• Admittance to Mercy College.

• Placement at the English 111 and Math 116 levels.

• Satisfactory completion of VETC 101 Introduction to Veterinary Science, ENGL 111 Written English and Literary Studies I and Math 116 College Algebra with a grade of C or better. VETC 101 may not be repeated more than once.

• Please note: prior to satisfactory completion of VETC 101 Introduction to Veterinary Science with a grade of C or better and admission into the Program, students will be enrolled with a major concentration in undecided-veterinary technology.

Veterinary Technology Major Concentration Standards

• Students must earn a minimum letter grade of C or better in all veterinary technology and natural science courses and MATH 116 College Algebra.
Students must maintain a 2.5 cumulative index in veterinary technology courses in order to be admitted into clinical courses VETC 241, VETC 241A, VETC 247, VETC 247A, VETC 260, VETC 395, VETC 396, VETC 399 and VETC 445.

Students may not repeat a course required in the curriculum more than once.

Any student who earns a C- or below in a course required in the curriculum must repeat the course the next semester it is offered in order to progress to any course for which it is a prerequisite.

Any student who receives a C- or below in a course required in the curriculum more than once will automatically be dismissed from the Program.

Students who receive an unsatisfactory evaluation in any category, including but not limited to professional and ethical behavior, or required skill in clinical courses VETC 241, VETC 241A, VETC 247, VETC 247A, VETC 260, VETC 395, VETC 396 or VETC 445, or who are dismissed from any externship site, will have their records reviewed by the Veterinary Technology Faculty. The faculty will determine if the student will be given the opportunity to repeat the experience in a future semester, and/or be placed on probation, or be dismissed by the Program.

Minimal Technical Standards
The following technical standards, which serve to protect the student and patient and are deemed essential for performance as a competent veterinary technologist, are required for admission, continuation and graduation from the Mercy College Veterinary Technology Program:

ESSENTIAL REQUIREMENTS
a. Capable of frequently lifting and/or carrying up to 50 pounds from floor to waist level.

b. Ability to tolerate walking and standing for sustained periods of time.

c. Capable of handling, positioning and restraining live animals.

d. Capable of using hands and arms to handle, install, position and move materials.

e. Auditory ability sufficient to monitor and assess health needs, including auscultatory sounds, alarms, animal vocalizations, cries for help and warning sounds from animals and humans. Ability to perceive and understand the natural or amplified human voice when lips, facial expressions and/or other visual clues are not able to be seen.

f. Tactile ability sufficient for physical assessment and to perform nursing duties.

g. Eyesight capable of viewing small visual images and reading instrumentation.

h. Amenable to learning the safe handling and restraint of all Program-required species of domestic and exotic animals without a level of fear that interferes with satisfactory performance.

i. Capacities to read, hear, understand and quickly execute complex verbal and written instructions given in English.

j. Willingness to assist with or perform a wide variety of medical, surgical and diagnostic procedures in the veterinary setting, including humane euthanasia.
k. Ability to act in a professional and ethical manner.

l. Ability to respond promptly and appropriately in emergency situations.

m. Ability to speak English and be understood by others who speak English.

n. Ability to handle and/or be exposed to a wide variety of animal species and their environments without adverse medical consequences (e.g., allergic reaction).

There is a 15-credit residency requirement in the major concentration of veterinary technology.

*Students must complete these courses as part of their General Education Requirements.
Students in the Veterinary Technology Program with a Specialization in Pre-Veterinary Medicine must earn a minimum grade of B or better in all natural science and veterinary technology courses, ENGL 111 Written English and Literary Studies I and MATH 116 College Algebra. The student must maintain a 3.2 cumulative index in natural science and veterinary technology courses for admittance into clinical courses. Recommendations and/or evaluations will not be considered for pre-veterinary medicine majors with a minimum cumulative index of less than 3.2 in Veterinary Technology and Natural Science courses.

Students enrolled in the veterinary technology major or the veterinary technology major with the pre-veterinary medicine specialization may not repeat a course required in the curriculum more than once. Any student who earns a B- or below in a course required in the curriculum must repeat the course the next semester it is offered in order to progress to any course for which it is a prerequisite.

* Students must complete MATH 116 (rather than MATH 115) as part of their General Education requirements.

 These courses fulfill 15 credits of the General Education requirements.

* To complete major concentration, corequisite lab courses must be taken.

 Students who have not taken Regents High School Biology and obtained a score of 75 or higher are advised to take BIOL 122 prior to BIOL 160.
There is a 15-credit residency requirement in the major concentration of biology that must be completed with courses numbered BIOL 230 and above. CHEM 354 may also be used to meet this requirement.

Students enrolling in natural science courses must earn at least a letter grade of C in all prerequisite courses. It is recommended that students be at the level of English 111 when enrolling in all natural science courses. Students in the biology major may not repeat a course more than once.

At the completion of the Biology concentration, students are expected to:

- synthesize and explain core concepts demonstrating a broad and in-depth knowledge of the biological sciences;
- utilize the scientific method to formulate hypotheses and conduct experiments;
- apply quantitative analysis to interpret experimental results;
- select and critique information from scientific sources;
- articulate their understanding of science through written and oral communication;
- demonstrate an ability to work collaboratively, perform a wide array of laboratory techniques, and use safe practices in the laboratory;
- exhibit knowledge of careers in the biological sciences;
- explain the importance of ethical behavior in science;
- provide examples of how science could be used to solve complex real-life problems.

CLINICAL INTERNSHIP

| BIOL 431 Clinical Laboratory Internship I |
| BIOL 432 Clinical Laboratory Internship II |
| BIOL 433 Clinical Laboratory Internship III |

* Students must complete MATH 116 (rather than MATH 115) as part of their General Education Requirements.

 These courses fulfill 21 credits of the General Education requirements.

* To complete major concentration, corequisite lab courses must be taken.
There is a 15-credit residency requirement in the major concentration of clinical laboratory science that must be completed with courses numbered BIOL 230 and above. BIOL 431–BIOL 433, which are off-campus courses, cannot be used to meet this requirement. CHEM 354 may also be used to meet this requirement.

Students enrolling in natural science courses must earn at least a letter grade of C in all prerequisite courses. It is recommended that students be at the level of English 111 when enrolling in all natural science courses. Students in the clinical laboratory science major may not repeat a course more than once.

Students attend Mercy College for three years and complete a minimum of 95 credits. The fourth year of the program consists of a twelve-month hospital-based clinical internship. The three-year sequence of college-based courses prepares students for the clinical internship, but also overlaps substantially with the requirements for a degree in biology.

During the third year, under the auspices of Mercy College, students apply for admission to a hospital-based clinical-academic program. Students must attend a twelve-month Medical Technology (Clinical Laboratory Science) Program, accredited by the National Accrediting Agency for Clinical Laboratory Sciences (NAACLS). Mercy College is affiliated with New York Methodist Hospital School of Clinical Laboratory Science in Brooklyn, NY and the Atlantic Health System School of Medical Laboratory Science, which is primarily based in Morristown, NJ. Students may also apply to any NAACLS-accredited school of Medical Technology.

Acceptance into the clinical internship is conditional upon hospital requirements, college performance, practical experience and space availability. Students must have a minimum GPA of 2.5 overall and in science to be eligible for these programs. Students cannot present D grades in science courses.

Once accepted by the hospital clinical program, students must register for BIOL 431–433. The Clinical Internship will consist of thirty-seven and one-half-hours per week of didactic and corresponding laboratory instruction during the twelve-month clinical period. Students pay the College a fee equivalent to the cost of two credits for the summer semester and three credits each for the fall and spring semesters as well as registration fees. Some hospitals charge tuition. Students should pay this to the College, which will remit it to the hospital program.

Upon written notification of the successful completion of the Clinical Laboratory Internship, Mercy College will award students 30 credits. At the completion of all other graduation requirements, students will be awarded the Bachelor of Science in Clinical Laboratory Science. The American Society for Clinical Pathology (ASCP) Board of Certification administers certifying examinations and awards certification. Clinical Laboratory Technology is now a licensed profession in New York State and Mercy College’s program in Clinical Laboratory Science is registered with the New York State Education Department as a licensure-qualifying program. Graduates who intend to work in New York State must file an application for licensure with the New York State Education Department Office of the Professions to begin the application process. Although licensure requirements include passing the ASCP Board of Certification examination, graduates who apply for a limited permit (valid for one year) may begin work immediately upon graduation.
A student considering the program in Clinical Laboratory should note that acceptance by an approved hospital school is required for program completion. Although Mercy College assists students in the application process and our affiliations provide students with a preferential review of their application, the College cannot guarantee such acceptance.

At the completion of the Clinical Laboratory Science concentration, students are expected to:

• Master the requisite core concepts and competencies necessary for clinical laboratory science.
• Comprehend, analyze, integrate and synthesize scientific and clinical information or data to guide clinical, professional and scientific decision-making.
• Communicate intra- and inter-professionally within the scientific community.
• Employ professional and ethical conduct while working in a clinical setting.

EXERCISE SCIENCE

Astrid Mel, Ph.D., HFS, CISSN, CSCS, Program Head 914-674-7874
amel@mercy.edu

The Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise Science offers a comprehensive curriculum grounded in scientific principles and their practical application to maintaining health through fitness and nutrition, training and performance, rehabilitation, and wellness. The Exercise Science program supports preparation for academic advancement into graduate health professions and other related areas such as biomechanics, exercise physiology, sports psychology and athletic training. Students interested in entering the work force upon graduating with the B.S. degree in Exercise Science will also be prepared to apply for positions within the wellness and fitness industry.

All Exercise Science students take the same core curriculum and specialize in one area of concentration. Both tracks prepare students for certifications such as the ACSM Health and Fitness Specialist (HFS), and the NSCA Certified and Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) exams.

Clinical Track – Focus on Graduate School Preparation
This track has a strong sciences foundation and prepares students for entry into Graduate health profession programs (physical therapy, exercise physiology, etc).

Performance Track – Focus on Fitness
This track prepares students for work in a variety of high demand fields, including but not limited to: strength and conditioning, personal training, weight loss management, and performance coaching.

HEALTH SCIENCE

Irina Ellison, Ph.D., Program Head

The baccalaureate degree in health science provides a foundation in liberal arts and sciences required for professional practice and graduate study. The major builds on the 60-credit general education requirement and includes 33 additional credits in the Natural Sciences, the Social Sciences and the Health Sciences. Students preparing to enter graduate programs in the Health Professions should coordinate their plan of study with their advisor.

General Education Requirements ....................... 60 credits
Major Concentration
Health Sciences ............................................. 33 credits
Open Electives ............................................. 27 credits
Total .................................................................. 120 credits

Students who choose the major concentration in health science must complete:

Students who select specific career paths to PT, PA and OT must meet with their mentor. Students that do not gain acceptance into one of Mercy College’s graduate health professions programs should complete the Health Science Capstone.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS
1. Students that have selected a pre-professional track (pre-OT, PT, PA) must maintain a minimum GPA of 2.75 to maintain matriculation within the major. If a student’s cumulative GPA falls below a 2.75, they will be placed on probation and will have one semester to restore their matriculating major status by raising their cumulative GPA above 2.75.
2. Pre-professional track students must achieve a grade of B or better in ENGL 112 or equivalent and MATH 116 or equivalent.
3. Any student who receives a grade below a C in a major course will be required to retake the course. Major courses may be retaken once. Any exceptions to program guidelines require approval by the Program Head.

GENERAL EDUCATION CHEMISTRY/PHYSICS COURSES
One course selected from the following (3-4 credits)*:
CHEM 160  General Chemistry I
CHEM 160A General Chemistry I lab
PHYS 120  Physics of the Human Body
PHYS 160  Physics for the Life Sciences I

- BHSC 276 Advanced Computers for the Social and Behavioral Sciences
- BHSC 370 Statistics for the Social and Behavioral Sciences

MAJOR ELECTIVES
Nine additional credits selected from the following:
- Any Biology, Chemistry or Physics course numbered 160 or above.
- Any Health Science course numbered 200 or above.

Concentration
Six credits selected in consultation with program director or advisor.

There is an 18-credit residency requirement in the major concentration of health sciences.

* These courses fulfill General Education requirements.
 Recommended for the General Health Sciences Major.

The prephysician’s assistant health science student may apply to Mercy’s Physician’s Assistant Program after 90 credits have been completed as long as all prerequisite criteria have been met. Criteria include: Biology I and II, Chemistry I and II, Human Physiology for Biomedical Sciences, Microbiology, Elements of Biochemistry, Statistics for the Social and Behavioral Sciences, Upper level biology course (317 or higher), 500 hours of volunteer or work experience in the field, 15 credit minor as well as general education requirements.

At the completion of the health science major concentration, students are expected to:

- Master the foundational core concepts and competencies necessary for preparation for the role of a health care professional.

- Demonstrate professional behaviors that encompass strong interpersonal/inter-professional skills, cultural competence, ethical practice and a commitment to diversity.

- Apply professional/scientific literature and materials to support professional decision making related to clinical practice and health care issues.

- Acquire knowledge of the current health care system as well as challenges and changes in the delivery and funding of health care regionally and globally.

Dual Degree B.S. + M.S. Program
The Bachelor of Science / Master of Science Dual Degree Program is an academic program that allows students interested in the teaching profession as a career choice to earn both a bachelor’s degree and a master’s degree in an accelerated format. Through this special program, qualified students who major in English, history, mathematics, or Spanish can receive teacher certification in Middle Childhood or Adolescence Education as well as Early Childhood or Childhood Education. A key feature of this program allows students to take up to 15 graduate education credits during their upper junior and senior years, and these can be used toward satisfying their bachelor’s as well as their master’s degree requirements.

Please see the School of Education Section of this catalog for program and course details.

OPEN ELECTIVES (SIX CREDITS)

Open electives may be fulfilled with approved transfer credits from another institution or courses from any other Mercy College program. It is highly recommended that majors take courses in the cognate programs of Media Studies, Music Industry and Technology, and Computer Information Systems.

REQUIREMENTS

In order to be admitted into the Computer Arts major, students must submit a portfolio of art work and essay to be reviewed by the Portfolio Review Admission Committee.

Contact the program for information and procedures for the portfolio review. Students who are not prepared to submit a portfolio may enroll in CART 200 with permission of the program head. Work from this course may be used to complete the portfolio review. Students will not be allowed to take additional CART courses until the portfolio review has been satisfactorily completed.

Students must maintain an overall GPA of 2.5 in all attempted and completed major courses. If the GPA in the major is less than 2.5, the student will be subject to a formal assessment of his/her aptitude for the subject matter and standing in the program and may be dismissed from the major.

There is a 21-credit residency requirement in the major concentration of Computer Arts and Design.

- Some courses are offered once a year. Please check with the department for the current course offering schedule.

- Undergraduate students may take a maximum of two graduate level courses (other than IASP 585) to fulfill the major elective requirement.

- Students in B.S. program can apply for B.S. + M.S. dual degree during their junior or senior year. To get the benefit of dual degree, students should use their open electives to take as many graduate courses as possible. Students in the dual degree program may apply a maximum of twelve credits taken at the graduate level (other than IASP 585) to fulfill the requirements of their undergraduate degree.

* These courses fulfill part of the General Education requirements. The total of major concentration is 16 courses or 48 credits.

 This course can be transferred into if students have current security+ certificate.

Students can choose to have a minor in cybersecurity (refer to the requirement in this catalog). We suggest students consider taking the following among the five necessary courses: IASP 230, IASP 330 and IASP 420.

The Music Industry and Technology Program is offered in a dedicated recording studio complex exclusively at the Dobbs Ferry campus.

The program is designed to prepare students for careers in the music professions and related media industries with an emphasis on music production, recording engineering, electronic music synthesis and music composition and sound design for visual media. Additional courses in concert and theatre sound and audio system design and installation are offered as electives.

Students are encouraged to take courses in related fields such as game development, animation and video production to expand career possibilities and better understand the industries that employ audio & music specialists.

Admission Requirements:
- In addition to applying for general admission to the College, applicants must apply separately to and be formally accepted by the Music Industry and Technology Program.
- Applicants must submit both a musical instrument audition video and an essay describing their experience and skills with music production and technology.
- Admission procedures are available at the department website www.mercy.edu/cda.

General Requirements:
- Students must demonstrate a fundamental understanding of music notation, OR complete MUSI 101 Elements of Music before enrolling in the required MUSI 103 Theory & Musicianship I.
- Students must achieve a minimum grade of C in any major course for it to apply towards the degree.
- Students must maintain an overall GPA of 2.5 in all attempted and completed major courses. If the GPA in the major is less than 2.5, the student will be subject to a formal assessment of his/her aptitude for the subject matter and standing in the program and may be dismissed from the major.
- Students may be required to repeat or take additional courses to achieve the required GPA.
- Students must pass a final comprehensive department proficiency exam, and complete an approved portfolio to be eligible for graduation.
- There is a 24-credit residency requirement for the concentration in music industry and technology.
- Students should enroll in MUSI 101, MTEC 101 & MTEC 110, their first fall semester.

Additional Academic Opportunities

Dual Degree B.S. + M.S. Program
The Bachelor of Science / Master of Science Dual Degree Program is an academic program that allows students interested in the teaching profession as a career choice to earn both a bachelor’s degree and a master’s degree in an accelerated format. Through this special program, qualified students who major in Behavioral Sciences or Psychology can receive teacher certification in Early Childhood or Childhood Education. A key feature of this program allows students to take up to 15 graduate education credits during their senior years. These can be used toward satisfying their bachelor’s as well as their master’s degree requirements.

Please see the School of Education Section of this catalog for program and course details.
CASAC-T Credentialed Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Counselor

CASAC-T Credentialed Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Counselor Standardized 350-Hour Education and Training Program Mercy College CASAC-T Program is an OASAS Certified Education Training Program. The courses have been approved by the New York State Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services (OASAS), satisfying the educational requirements for state certification. With the competitive market for counselors and mental health providers, your CASAC-T Certification paves the way for both direct patient care and supervisory positions in the area of substance abuse and addiction. The intensive program at Mercy College will specifically prepare you for the five domains for CASAC preparation including assessment, counseling, case management, client, family and community education, and professional responsibility. Mercy College students receive the professional training and ethical knowledge base which will enable them to provide alcoholism and substance abuse counseling in one of the most progressive fields.

Additional Academic Opportunities

Dual Degree in Psychology and Education Program (B.S. in Psychology + M.S. in Education)

The Bachelor of Science/Master of Science Dual Degree Program is an academic program that allows students interested in the teaching profession as a career choice to earn both a bachelor’s degree and a master’s degree in an accelerated format. Through this special program, qualified students who major in psychology can receive teacher certification in Early Childhood or Childhood Education. A key feature of this program allows students to take up to 15 graduate education credits during their senior years. These can be used toward satisfying their bachelor’s as well as their master’s degree requirements.

Requirements for Dual Degree

Psychology students planning to complete the Dual Degree and receive the teaching certification in Early Childhood or Childhood Education must complete the 36 credits required for the undergraduate psychology major as described above, including Child Psychology (PSYN 254). They may take 3 graduate education credits in their upper junior semester and an additional 12 credits in their senior year. In addition, they must maintain at least a 3.0 GPA. Students may apply in their senior year for admissions to the M.S. Graduate Education Program.

Please see the School of Education Section of this catalog for program and course details.
Suggested Courses for Dual Degree
It is further suggested that students complete several elective courses from the following list:

- Psychology of Learning
- Cognitive Psychology
- Psychological Tests and Measurements
- Psychology of the Exceptional Child
- Psychological Disorders of Childhood and Adolescence

Four Plus One Program
(B.S. in Psychology + M.S. in Psychology)
Qualified undergraduate psychology students have an opportunity to complete the M.S. psychology degree in one year. Students can complete the 36-credit degree by taking three graduate credits each semester of their senior year (for a total of six credits), which will apply toward the graduate and undergraduate degree. Once the B.S. is completed, they can complete the M.S. degree within a single academic year.

Requirements for the Four Plus One Program
Student must meet the admissions criteria for the M.S. degree in psychology including: at least a 3.0 GPA, a grade of B or higher in statistics (PSYN 370), and completion of 90 undergraduate credits. Students may apply in their junior year to the M.S. psychology Program.

See Graduate Catalog for specific requirements for M.S. psychology degree and Four-Plus-One Degree.

CASAC-T Credentialed Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Counselor
Students may also participate in the CASAC-T Credentialed Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Counselor Standardized 350-Hour Education and Training Program.

Requirements for CASAC-T
Interested students should contact Deborah Day Aikens Ph.D., L.M.S.W.. CASAC-G at daikens@mercy.edu. In addition, see School of Social and Behavioral Sciences CASAC-T Credentialed Alcoholism and Substance Abuse section above.

PSYN 101  Introduction to Psychology
SOCL 101  Introduction to Sociology
CISC 120  Introduction to Computers and Application Software
SOWK/BEH/201 Introduction to Social Work (recommended)

A minor concentration in social work is also offered, composed of 15 credits of Social Work Theory with no more than three credits in social work Practice.

The following course should be taken unless already preceded by completion of another science course:

BIOL 110 Introduction to Human Biology

Students majoring in social work should consult with their social work advisor regarding the proper sequencing of courses and the selection of electives to meet major requirements. Students must maintain a 2.8 GPA in major courses and achieve a grade of B- or better in the Field Practicum in order to continue in the social work major.
There is a 24-credit residency requirement in the major concentration of social work. There is a five-year statute of limitations on required social work courses. Exceptions may be approved by the director of the program.

Admission to the Major

Students who plan to major in social work or who want to explore their interest in this field are encouraged to consult with the director of the social work Program.

Students must apply for admission to the social work major by the end of their sophomore year. They should contact the director of the Social Work Program for information and application procedures for admission to the major. Transfer students are encouraged to contact the Social Work Program for application materials at the same time they are applying for admission to the College. Freshmen and sophomores intending to apply for admission to the Social Work Program should declare Pre-Social Work as their major. Students should have a 2.6 GPA or better for admission to the major, but students may be admitted provisionally at the discretion of the program director. Students usually enter the Social Work Program at the beginning of their junior year, in the fall semester, following completion of the application process and acceptance for admission to the program.

Accreditation

Mercy College offers a B.S.W. degree in social work that is approved by the New York State Department of Education. The Social Work Program has been accredited by the Council on Social Work Education.

Before being awarded a degree, all students are expected to demonstrate an appropriate level of competence in the essential skills of a college graduate. Assessments will occur in courses within the General Education curriculum — including the Critical Inquiry course and the Junior Seminar.

General education is the foundation for academic and career success and is intended to develop the skills and attitudes that Mercy’s faculty believes every educated person should possess. The courses provide the transferable skills that are required of students to be successful within their major study. General Education courses stimulate understanding of personal, social and civic values as well as scientific principles and ethics. The courses lead to the appreciation of diverse cultures and mastery of multiple modes of inquiry. They teach effective analysis and communication, and promote the importance of creativity to the human spirit. Through General Education, students acquire breadth of knowledge, gain competence to be lifelong learners and develop an awareness of how their entire college coursework shapes the quality of their lives.

The essential skills, as determined by the faculty of Mercy College, are:

1. Written communication
2. Oral communication
3. Critical thinking
4. Critical reading
5. Quantitative reasoning
6. Information literacy

The pursuit of competence in these areas is a process of intellectual and personal growth.

Through regular assessment, students will come to recognize both their strengths and weaknesses, and learn to build on their achievements while improving the areas in which they are deficient.

Assessment begins with placement tests for freshmen that evaluate the student’s current level of accomplishment and indicate the appropriate initial course placement.

As freshmen, students register for a section of the Critical Inquiry course. In this course, students are introduced to the critical thinking, critical reading and information literacy competencies. Each course section focuses on a particular topic through which these competencies are achieved. Students analyze assigned readings, prepare and respond to arguments related to that topic, and complete projects that require research and assessment of relevant print and online sources. Many students in the Critical Inquiry course have the opportunity to express themselves through digital storytelling and the development of e-portfolios. The Critical Inquiry course helps students learn how to engage effectively with the learning environment and how to best grow academically through their Mercy education.
In their junior year (and after successfully completing the Critical Inquiry course and other prerequisites), students register for the Junior Seminar General and Education capstone course. Junior Seminar helps ensure that students have achieved an acceptable level of performance, and practical application, of the competencies covered across the General Education curriculum. Topics for Junior Seminar sections are diverse, and students may choose their section according to their major, area of concentration or general interests. The course is conducted in intensive seminar format; students research various aspects of the seminar topic and give multiple presentations in written and oral form. Students also have the opportunity to express themselves through digital storytelling and the development of e-portfolios in the Junior Seminar course.

Formative assessment continues throughout the students’ undergraduate experience. The process enables all students to monitor their progress in learning each skill. The College’s academic support services are available to assist students in their skill development, including the libraries, the Learning Centers, Career Planning and Placement, etc.

Written Communication

Written communication involves the ability to communicate clearly and effectively through written communication. Students are expected to demonstrate the following skills:

- Choose and narrow a subject.
- Identify a purpose and formulate an appropriate thesis statement.
- Organize ideas effectively and develop them within a logical paragraph structure.
- Support points clearly with specific and adequate evidence.
- Demonstrate command of English sentence structure and grammar.
- Revise and edit according to Standard English practice, including attention to punctuation and appropriate vocabulary.
- Acknowledge all sources by documenting research according to a recognized format.

Oral Communication

Oral communication involves the ability to comprehend and to speak in American English with precision and clarity. Students are expected to demonstrate the following skills:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the responsibilities of the listening audience.
- Listen, hear, interpret and evaluate information and accurately respond to instructions.
- Express information orally, extemporaneously in natural, energetic and vocally varied phrases.
• Incorporate the responses of listeners into the oral communication process.

• Speak in phrases that conform to the conventions of accurate English pronunciation, articulation (diction), grammar and syntax.

• Employ appropriate non-verbal face and body movements, posture, dress, and visual aids to reinforce the oral/verbal message.

• Select and narrow a subject plus clarify a purpose/objective.

• Structure information into purposeful, recognizable units (opening, body, closing) and support ideas using appropriate data and referenced documentation.

Critical Thinking

Critical thinking involves the ability to analyze and interpret a subject insightfully and in depth. Students are expected to demonstrate the following skills:

• Place subject matter in context.

• Identify patterns and relationships.

• Identify positive and negative aspects of an issue.

• Explain the significance of an issue.

• Provide evidence for positions taken by using relevant data accurately.

• Support these positions with arguments that are clear, precise, logical and carefully qualified.

• Identify the assumptions, reasoning and conclusions of different positions on an issue.

• Recognize strengths and weaknesses in opposing positions.

Critical Reading

Critical reading involves the ability to read and understand primary and secondary sources. Students are expected to demonstrate the following skills:

• Demonstrate an understanding of basic vocabulary pertaining to a subject.

• Recognize and distinguish main ideas from supporting ideas in various printed materials.

• Outline and summarize the content of printed material.

• Distinguish facts, interpretations and opinions in printed material.

• Analyze and evaluate the value and validity of printed material.

• Draw conclusions and make inferences based on content of printed material.
Quantitative Reasoning
Quantitative reasoning involves the ability to use established methods of computation and contemporary technology to analyze issues and answer questions germane to their environment. Students are expected to demonstrate the following skills:

- Apply quantification as a problem-solving strategy to real world situations.
- Perform arithmetic computations necessary to solve common mathematical problems.
- Critically evaluate information presented in tabular and graphic form.
- Demonstrate computer literacy through the use of software applications.
- Recognize the reasonableness of numeric answers.
- Employ quantification and quantitative techniques both in generalization from data or observed facts, and in deriving predictions from generalizations.
- Demonstrate an understanding of sampling and its validity in statistical claims.

Information Literacy
Information literacy involves the ability to identify, retrieve, evaluate, organize, cite properly and use a wide range of resources including print, graphic and electronic for independent learning and practical problem solving. Students are expected to develop an appreciation for the role of information literacy in fostering lifelong learning, and to demonstrate the following skills:

- Recognize and articulate the need for information.
- Access information from appropriate sources.
- Critically analyze and evaluate information and its sources.
- Organize, synthesize and integrate information.
- Apply information to the development of a specific purpose using effective and creative decision-making.
- Generate and effectively communicate information and knowledge.
- Apply information technology skills.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the ethical, legal and sociopolitical aspects of information and information technology.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the role of information literacy in fostering lifelong learning.
A student may meet the requirements of the general education curriculum through a combination of several approaches.

1. Courses. The student earns credits by achieving a passing grade in the individual courses designated in the general education curriculum.

2. Honors Courses. The student earns credits by achieving a passing grade in designated Honors courses that fulfill general education requirements:

3. Credit-Bearing Exams. With the approval of individual schools, a student may earn credit for general education courses by successfully passing a standardized examination (for example, the Advanced Placement examination).

4. Departmental Waiver. Departments responsible for general education courses may waive their general education courses for students who demonstrate exceptional skill or achievement according to departmental placement tests or other criteria established by the department.

5. Transfer Courses. The student earns credits in the general education curriculum by transferring approved courses with a grade of C or better from accredited institutions of higher education.

6. Associate’s Degrees. Mercy College recognizes an associate’s degree with 48 credits in the liberal arts and sciences from an accredited institution of higher education, and with an average grade of C or better, as equivalent to complete the requirements of the Mercy College general education curriculum. Exceptions may include ENGL 111 and 112 SPCM 110 and any general education course set out as a prerequisite for a student’s major field of study.

7. Bachelor’s Degrees. Mercy College recognizes a bachelor’s degree with 48 credits in the liberal arts and sciences from an accredited institution of higher education, and with an average grade of C or better, as equivalent to completion of the requirements of the Mercy College general education curriculum. Exceptions may include ENGL 111 and 112 SPCM 110 and any general education course set out as a prerequisite for a student’s major field of study.

8. Learning on Location. This course is offered by different academic disciplines in various topics.

For example, ARTT 199: Learning on Location: Metropolitan Museum

This course for general education credit is intended for students to take advantage of the rich opportunities for learning beyond the classroom presented in the New York Metropolitan area. Significant portion of class time will be spent at the actual location(s) around which the topic will be explored; examples are the courts, museums, the theater, the environment, ethnic neighborhoods, etc. Classroom time will cover preparation, critical reviews, writing and oral discussion as well as evaluation of student work. Prerequisites: ENGL 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 250 Cost Accounting
Reviews the fundamentals of management accounting, cost accounting terms and uses; new topics include cost-volume-profit (CVP) analysis, job-order and process costing systems; activity based costing (ABC); flexible budgets and variance analysis; allocation of costs related to department and factory overhead; joint products and by-products; use of accounting information to value inventories and determine net income; and use of cost information in decision making. Prerequisite: ACCT 121. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 261 Computer Applications for Accountants
Introduces Microsoft Excel as the accountant’s productivity tool. Basic spreadsheet concepts will be emphasized; graphs, charts, pivot tables, and macros will be explored as well as other Excel features. Basic Windows file management will be reviewed. This course is taught hands-on in a computer classroom. Prerequisite: ACCT 241 and CISC/MATH 120 or the equivalent. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Note: register early, classroom space limited.

ACCT 320 Governmental, Not-for-Profit and Other Special Topics
Explores the following topics: accounting for employees’ benefits and leases. Introduces accounting for not-for-profit organizations, principles of fund accounting, accounting for state and local governmental units and non-government non-business organizations subject to FASB or GASB accounting standards. Prerequisite: ACCT 241. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
ACCT 330 Advanced Accounting
Discusses the accounting theory and practice involving the following financial accounting and reporting areas: business combinations, consolidated financial statements, foreign currency transactions, translation of financial statements of foreign affiliates and partnerships. Prerequisite: ACCT 241. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 340 Introduction to Federal Income Taxation
Studies the basic principles and concepts of federal income taxation and their applications to individual income tax returns; determination of the federal income tax liability of individuals, including determination of gross income, exclusions, deductions, credits, property transactions, and calculation of tax. Includes tax planning, tax research and a written tax research project. Prerequisite: ACCT 240. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 341 Advanced Federal Income Taxation
Advanced applications of the basic principles and concepts of federal income taxation to individuals, partnerships, corporations, trusts and estates; the principles and concepts of federal taxation as applied to estates, trusts, and specifically taxed corporations; applications of basic tax planning and research techniques to more complex situations. Prerequisite: ACCT 340. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 380–381 Workplace Experience in Accounting I, II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in Accounting include CPA firms, corporations, small businesses and non-profit organizations. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Career Services department approval required. Open Elective credit only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 410 Accounting Information Systems
Examines the definition and documentation of accounting information systems using data flow diagrams. A business process approach to examining transaction cycles is employed. Covers internal controls for information technology environments and the avoidance of computer crime through the application of controls and ethical behavior. Studies the techniques used in auditing computerized accounting information systems including test data, general audit software and automated work paper software. Real world cases and accounting software is used to enhance applications of the covered topics. Prerequisite: ACCT 261. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 420 Auditing and Assurance Services
Explains the generally accepted auditing standards and procedures employed by CPAs in their independent audits of corporate financial statements; the nature, importance, and use of internal controls; techniques and procedures used to gather audit evidence; computer auditing techniques; form, content, and meaning of the independent auditor’s report in published financial statements; assurance services; the AICPA Code of Professional Conduct and the legal liabilities of CPAs. Integrated audit cases are used to help students apply auditing concepts. An oral presentation is required. Prerequisites: ACCT 410 and ECON 125. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 430 Topics from Professional Examinations in Accounting
Bridges the gap between academic courses and the accounting-specific parts of the CPA professional examination by providing in-depth review of highly tested material; updating students on recent developments and important changes; and developing approaches to answering multiple choice, other objective format, essay, and (long) computational questions under simulated professional examination conditions. Prerequisites: ACCT 250, ACCT 330. Corequisite: ACCT 320. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
ACCOUNTING GRADUATE COURSES

ACCT 510 Global Financial Statement Analysis
Approaches International Accounting Standards (IAS) and Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) prepared financial statements from a user perspective. Discusses the concepts necessary to interpret domestic and international corporate financial statements. Analytic techniques and valuation models are used to assess profitability, cash flows, and quality of earnings. A comprehensive real-world financial statement analysis project helps students to apply learned techniques. Prerequisite: ACCT 241. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 520 Contemporary Issues in Auditing
Based on contemporary issues in auditing, comprehensive factual scenarios are used to discuss the professional roles of Independent Auditors. Topics examined include: internal control issues, use of analytical procedures and audit planning, auditing high-risk accounts, large-scale earnings manipulations schemes, coping with complex or unique client transactions, ethics, auditor independence and legal liability issues. Requires students to address actual situations that auditing practitioners have coped with in the past. Extensive research, group projects, oral presentations and an audit risk analysis project are required. Prerequisite: ACCT 420. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 530 Advanced Accounting Theory and Applications
This capstone course provides students with a solid foundation in accounting theory and research to enable them to function more effectively in their employment situations, make meaningful contributions to the accounting profession, and meet the challenges of lifelong learning. The course begins with an in-depth study of accounting theory, moves on to the instruction of accounting research sources and methodologies including the Financial Accounting Research System (FARS), and applies both theory and structure to a variety of current applications in financial reporting. Application of appropriate research tools and methodologies aide in the completion of written case assignments and a research paper. Prerequisite: ACCT 240. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 540 Advanced Business Entity Taxation
Provides the students with a working knowledge of advanced business entity taxation. Students will be able to apply sophisticated tax principles in employment situations as well as communicate this information to their clients and the public. The Internal Revenue Code and Tax Regulations are applied to a research project involving current tax matters. Utilizes research tools to apply critical thinking skills used to discuss and interpret tax issues. Provide a working knowledge of international and entity tax issues along with the termination issues facing businesses. State compliance issues such as multi-state taxation and sales and use taxes will be covered as well as succession planning and exempt entity taxation. Prerequisite: ACCT 341. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 550 Cost Management for Controllership
Focuses on current approaches to management accounting by examining strategic cost management, activity-based management, strategic-based control, quality cost management, productivity measurement and control, measurement and control of environmental costs, inventory management, and international issues in cost management. Encourages students to increase their understanding of the relationship between controllership theory and practice. Requires students to complete independent research projects. Prerequisite: ACCT 240 and ACCT 250. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ACCT 560 Fraud Examination
This course helps students better understand the significant of fraud in the modern Accounting world. Students are prepared to identify, detect and prevent financial fraud. Some topics include the discussion of financial statement, e-business, consumer and tax frauds. Students will use Financial Statement Fraud Standards, including SAS99 and Sarbanes-Oxley. Research based case projects and presentations are required. Prerequisite: ACCT 241 and ACCT 240. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE

AMSL 115 Introduction to American Sign Language
Introduction to American Sign Language is designed to introduce the fundamentals of American Sign Language (ASL) with particular attention to the grammar of the language and the culture of American deaf persons. It is a course for students with little or no previous knowledge of ASL. This course will create a foundation of basic conversational skills and a command of the essential grammatical practices of the language. Not open to students with native or near native fluency. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

AMSL 116 Intermediate Sign Language
Intermediate American Sign Language is designed to develop the student’s expressive and receptive abilities with regard to signing and finger spelling, extended signing vocabulary, and foster fluency, to aid manual communication both quantitatively and qualitatively with the deaf population. Prerequisite: AMSL 115. Not open to students with native or near native fluency. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ARABIC

ARAB 115 Introduction to Arabic
Introduction to the Arabic Language is designed to introduce the fundamentals of Arabic (ARAB), with particular attention to the grammar of the language and cultures of the Arabic speaking world. It is a course for students with little or no previous knowledge of Arabic. This course will create a foundation of basic conversational skills and a command of the essential grammatical practices of the language. Not open to students with native or near native fluency. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ARAB 116 Intermediate Arabic
This course is a continuation of ARAB 115 and is designed to further the progress made by students who will continue to learn the basic elements of the Arabic language structure and vocabulary necessary for an ability to communicate in this language. The main emphasis of the course is on speaking and understanding Arabic as it is spoken today in the Arabic speaking. Prerequisite: ARAB 115. Not open to students with native or near native fluency. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ARAB 295 Special topics in Literature and Linguistics
Offered in response to particular interests of students and faculty. Intensive study of a major work, author, genre, theme, literary period, or specialized language/9 topic. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

LITERATURE (OFFERED IN ARABIC)

ARAB 397 Independent Study in Arabic:
The life and works of an outstanding author; guided readings and discussion of the works of the author chosen by the student after consultation with the seminar director; a presentation of the results of such study required. Prerequisites: ARAB 116 or permission of instructor. 3 crs.

ART

ARTT 107 Art and Culture
A one-semester survey of the history of art from cave painting to the modern era; the understanding and appreciation of style; the social, religious, political and literary conditions influencing artistic trends. Lectures, discussions, films, slides. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ARTT 144 (SPCM 144) Understanding Movies
A basic overview of the historical development of film with an emphasis upon the aesthetic elements of cinema, its particular terminology and interrelationships with other arts. Students will discover how to read films through selected readings, screenings, and written reports. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
ARTT 190 Honors History of Art I
This course will study issues in the history of art in a more detailed and in-depth fashion than in the usual ARTT 107. The class will take full advantage of our proximity to New York City, planning several museum trips as part of the curriculum. Students will understand art as a vital part of history that links our modern culture with earlier eras. We will emphasize the sociological, historical, religious, and other cultural meanings of art as well as focusing on the formal aspects. Admission by permission of instructor. May replace General Education course ARTT 107. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ARTT 191 Honors History of Art II
Particular topics of specialized interest in the history of art will be the main material of the course. Students will participate in a series of museum trips and will be expected to make connections between material learned in other Honors courses and the information presented in this one. Students will get an enriched experience in understanding art as part of a wider world view. Admission by permission of instructor. May replace General Education course ARTT 107. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ARTT 215 (CART 215) History of Art I
This course is the first half of a yearlong survey of the history of art, with specific emphasis on the examination of the representation of ideas in terms of the science of interpretation (hermeneutics) and the language of signs (semiotics). This examination is specifically geared to those for whom the study of the history of art is a prelude to a life of design. The course also covers the history of the development of style, from early cave paintings to the beginnings of the Renaissance. Students develop a visual vocabulary and an acute awareness of style as a function of historical conditions; they also learn to decode images in a way that enables them to be more sophisticated designers of visual communication material. Prerequisite: ENGL 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ARTT 216 (CART 216) History of Art II
This course is the second half of a yearlong survey of the history of art, with specific emphasis on the examination of the representation of ideas in terms of the science of interpretation (hermeneutics) and the language of signs (semiotics). This examination is specifically geared to those for whom the study of the history of art is a prelude to a life of design. The course also covers the history of the development of style, from the early Renaissance to the modern era. Students develop a visual vocabulary and an acute awareness of style as a function of historical conditions; they learn to decode images in a way that will enable them to be more sophisticated designers of visual communication material. Prerequisites: ENGL 110 and CART / ARTT 215. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ARTT 244 (MEDA 244) Topics in Film
The study of selected film topics through viewing, in-class analysis, and discussion. Topics range from significant directors, producers, and cultural issues reflected in various films, to historical periods and special film genres. Prerequisite: Placement at ENGL 111 level. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ARTT 245 (SPCM 245) Film and Videotape Production
A practical course in filmmaking; introduction to the techniques and vocabulary of film production. Each student produces, directs, and edits a short film of his or her own design. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ARTT 275 (MEDA 275) Photojournalism
This course consists of two principal components: a historical or topical survey of approaches to photojournalism in newspapers and magazines from the time of the perfection of the halftone process to the present; field assignments involving coverage of local events and, where possible or appropriate, part-time work on a local newspaper or magazine. Students must supply their own digital cameras. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE

BHSC 120 (PSYN 120, SOCL 120) Career and Life Planning
This course is designed to assist students in matching their college experience to their personal and professional development. Topics range from guidance in selecting a college curriculum to choosing and getting a job. Through processes and group interaction, students learn to assess their workplace competency and are encouraged in their pursuit of career and life planning. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Elective credit only.) However, this course may be taken for major credit in the Behavioral Science major ONLY.

PSYN 101, SOCL 101 or the equivalent is a prerequisite for all Behavioral Science courses numbered 121 or above.

BHSC 201 (SOWK 201) Introduction to Social Work
This course is an introductory survey of the social work profession. It provides an overview of principal social work values, codes of ethics, practice and research methods, fields of social work practice, and social welfare policy issues. The course emphasizes the unique experiences of diverse and at-risk population groups facing various social challenges. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 202 (SOCL 202) Ethics and the Family
A philosophical examination of the rights and responsibilities of parents and children, and of the rights and responsibilities of the state toward both, drawing on legal and non-legal case materials, as well as on classic and contemporary philosophical sources, and including a consideration of child abuse, foster care and adoption, divorce and women’s liberation and its effect on the family. Not open to students who have taken PSYN/SOCL 222 Family in Transition. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 215 (CRJU 215, SOCL 215) The Juvenile Justice System
Origins, philosophy and objectives of the juvenile justice system, measures of delinquency, theoretical perspectives on delinquency, legal processes, roles of the actors and current trends within the juvenile justice system. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 226 (PSYN 226, SOCL 226) Computers for the Social and Behavioral Sciences
An introduction to computers as a professional tool in the social and behavioral sciences. Topics include data collection, data description and data analysis (with statistical software, e.g., SPSS for Windows), presentation packages, use of the Internet, use of online professional databases, computers in teaching and learning, and computerized techniques in psychological testing. Prerequisite: CISC/MATH 120 or equivalent. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 228 (PSYN 228) the Psychology of the Preschool Child
A study of the child between birth and six years of age. Topics will include physical and perceptual development, cognition and language, social relationships, and day care as it affects the developmental processes. (Previously numbered: PSYN/EDUC 129) Not open to students who have taken PSYN 254 Child Psychology or the equivalent. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 244 (PSYN 244, SOCL 244) Social Psychology
A study of behavior, attitudes, and emotions shaped by interpersonal influences and social structures, race, and gender. Topics include aggression, altruism, persuasion, leadership, the self, conformity, human relations and group processes. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 249 (SOCL 249) Race, Culture, and Ethnicity
This course examines the historical development of ethnic and race-based cultural complexes, the emergence and persistence of stereotypes, the character of ethnic, racial and religious beliefs, and current problems in groups in American society. There is an emphasis on understanding individual attitudes and behaviors in relation to the structure of social institutions. 3 sem., hrs. 3 crs.
BHSC 254 (PSYN 254) Child Psychology
Consideration of theories and research findings with respect to physical growth, sensorimotor, emotional and intellectual development, and cultural influences in the individual prior to adolescence. Developmental, psychoanalytic, and cognitive theories are emphasized. Not open to students who have taken PSYN/EDUC 228 or the equivalent. (Previously numbered PSYN 130.) Not open to students who took PSYN 233 or 228 or equivalent. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 262 (SOCL 262, PSYN 262) Alcohol, Drugs, and Behavior
Principles of pharmacology, neural transmission, behavior, and psychological assessment will be discussed. Specific psychopharmacologic issues will be presented with sedative-hypnotic, benzodiazepine, opiate, stimulant, and antipsychotic drugs as primary examples. Other discussion areas include behavioral toxicology, inhalant drugs, drugs and schoolchildren, nutritional and legal aspects to drug use, cigarette smoking, and the effects of drugs on the developing organism (e.g., fetal alcohol syndrome). 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 267 (SOCL 267, PSYN 267) Strategies for Child Care Providers (cc)
An introduction to the challenges and opportunities involved in the delivery of child care services in the community and in institutional settings. Emphasis is placed on stimulating awareness, interest and inquiry into the historical trends, issues, controversies and realities of providing meaningful programs for children. Attention will be given to the following issues: cultural diversity, bioethics, interdisciplinary teams in child care settings, case management, family relationships, functional assessment, client abuse, and environmental impact on functional capacity in work with this population. (Previously numbered: BHSC/PSYN/SOCL 323.) Prerequisite: PSYN 228 The Psychology of the Preschool Child or PSYN 254 Child Psychology. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 269 (SOCL 269) Strategies for Alcohol/Substance Abuse Providers (cc)
An introduction to the challenges and opportunities involved in the delivery of substance abuse services in the community and in institutional settings. Emphasis is placed on stimulating awareness, interest and inquiry into the historical trends, issues, controversies and realities of providing meaningful programs for substance clients. Attention will be given to the following issues: cultural diversity, bioethics, interdisciplinary teams in substance abuse settings, case management, family relationships, functional assessment, client abuse and environmental impact on functional capacity in work with this population. (Previously numbered: BHSC/PSYN/SOCL 324.) Prerequisite: BHSC 262 Alcohol, Drugs and Behavior. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 271 (SOCL 271) Medical Sociology: Health Care in the Modern Society
This course aims to provide the student with an understanding of the ways in which American society promotes (or fails to promote) health as well as copes with illness. The course will examine the following topics: the interaction of social and cultural factors (such as gender, ethnicity, race, and social class) with health and illness; illness (disability) as a social issue; careers in health care; settings in which health care services are delivered; financing health care services; comparisons with the health care services of other countries; and uses and applications of computers/microcomputers in the health field. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 280 (PSYN 280, SOCL 280) Philosophy and the Social Sciences
This course examines the nature of explanation in the social sciences; objectivity and value judgments, human behavior and actions; methods of investigation and the construction of theories about the human world. This course emphasizes the role of organizations in society. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 282 (SOCL 282) Perspectives on Aging
An introduction to the challenges and opportunities involved in the delivery of geriatric services in the community and in institutional settings. Emphasis is placed on stimulating awareness, interest and inquiry into the historical trends, issues, controversies and realities of providing meaningful programs for elderly clients. Attention will be given to the following issues: cultural diversity, bioethics, interdisciplinary teams in geriatric settings, case management, family relationships, functional assessment, client abuse, and environmental impact on functional capacity in work with this population. (Previously numbered: BHSC/PSYN/SOCL 325.) Prerequisite: PSYN 239 Personality Development in Adulthood or PSYN 315 Aging and Mental Health. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 295 (PSYN 295, SOCL 295, SOWK 295) Contemporary Issues
An analysis of current questions in behavioral science, psychology, sociology and social work. Specific topics are announced each semester by the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 308 (SOCL 308) Health Care Management
This course is designed to provide the student with an understanding of the management process within the context of the health care organization. Topics include study of the environment of the organization, environmental scanning and strategic planning, goal setting, issues of health care financing and reimbursement, the management process, program review and evaluation. Particular emphasis will be placed on issues of organizational effectiveness in an environment of cost containment. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 345 (LAWS 345) Employment Law
This course will explore the legislation that impacts employer/employee relationships in our society. Emphasis will be placed on the regulatory environment applicable to employment law and will focus on understanding the principles of the most commonly litigated issues such as: discrimination, sexual harassment, whistle blowing/employer retaliation and the impact of these lawsuits in the workplace. Prerequisite: LAWS 120 or permission of Chair. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 348 (SOCL 348) Methodology for the Social and Behavioral Sciences
An introduction to the process of doing research in the social and behavioral sciences; literature review, hypothesis formation, research design, techniques of data collection, data analysis, and report writing. Students learn to use the scientific method as a tool to both answer questions and solve problems in the social sciences, social work practice, health services and education. Course includes qualitative and quantitative approaches to research, computer applications at all stages of the research process, statistical analysis of data, and particular attention to issues of doing research in a multicultural context — e.g. ethical concerns (including rights of participants), formulation of questions, and use of findings. Prerequisite: permission of Chair. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 366 (SOCL 366) Medical Ethics
An examination of ethical questions that arise in health care and in the relationship between health care professionals and those they serve, including: the rights of individuals to self-determination and the obligations of health care professionals both to the individuals they serve and to society at large; life as a value and such issues as abortion, euthanasia, and suicide; the questions of mental health and mental illness and the rights of the mentally ill; eugenic programs and the possibilities of genetic engineering; the cost of health care and the delivery of health care as a social and political issue. (Previously numbered: BHSC/PSYN/ SOCL 266.) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 370 (PSYN 370, SOCL 370) Statistics for the Social and Behavioral Sciences
A review of the major statistical methods used in summarizing, understanding, and interpreting numerical data and research use of the computer. The course covers a full range of descriptive and inferential statistics including: frequency distributions; measures of central tendency and variability; probability theory; the normal curve model; correlation; and a wide range of statistical tests such as the T test, F test, analysis of variance and Chi-square. Prerequisites: MATH 105 or placement at the MATH 115 or MATH 116 level or equivalent. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 380–381 Workplace Experience in Behavioral Science I, II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in Behavioral Science include residential centers, after school programs, shelters, substance abuse programs and hospitals. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Career Services department approval required. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BHSC 399 (PSYN 399, SOCL 399) Internship in the Social and Behavioral Sciences
Practice experience, program planning and/or research provide the student with an opportunity to interact with children, adolescents, adults, and the elderly and become acquainted with the complexities of administering programs in the human service professions. Field placements will be available in a wide variety of locations such as preschools, day care centers, residential and outpatient drug treatment centers, social service agencies, senior centers, nursing homes, municipal housing projects, community outreach services and hospitals. A minimum of 120 hours of fieldwork for the semester is required for six credits. A maximum of 12 credits of fieldwork is allowed toward degree program. Students meet in small groups with faculty on a regular basis.

BHSC 426 (PSYN 426, SOCL 426) Classics in the Social and Behavioral Sciences
A guided reading seminar in the social and behavioral sciences utilizing primary source material with critical analysis of such authors as: Allport, Durkheim, Freud, James, Jung, Marx, Skinner and Weber. Prerequisite: PSYN 210 or BHSC/PSYN/SOCL 348 or must have completed 12 credits in the major. (Previously numbered BHSC/PSYN/SOCL 326.) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIOLOGY

BIO 110 Introduction to Human Biology
A study of the basic biological concepts and scientific methodology as exemplified in the human organism. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIO 111 Introduction to Human Genetics
A study of the basic biological concepts and scientific methodology as exemplified in the study of the mechanisms of human heredity including structure, function, and transmission of genetic information; genetic diseases; genetic counseling; and genetic engineering. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIO 112 Environmental Science
A study of the basic biological concepts and scientific methodology as exemplified in the study of the present-day environmental problems such as air and water pollution, food control and population, and their effects on humans. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIO 113 Evolution
A study of the basic biological concepts and scientific methodology as exemplified in the study of the processes of evolution and the factors that cause evolutionary change. Influences and ramifications on the human population are also discussed. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIO 116 Plants and People
A study of the basic biological concepts and scientific methodology as exemplified in the study of the plant kingdom and characteristics unique to plants. Special emphasis is given to the specific uses and benefits we derive from plants, with practical input on growing plants. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIO 117 Nutrition
A study of the basic biological concepts and scientific methodology as exemplified in the study of the materials comprising the human diet: energy sources, vitamins, minerals, and other essential molecules, and how dietary needs reflect physiological conditions ranging from aging to exercise to disease. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
BIOL 122 Foundations of Biology
One-semester lecture and critical scientific analysis course designed for the preparation of students who are planning to enroll in General Biology I (BIOL 160) but lack sufficient background in the biological sciences. The course aims to develop the mathematical and quantitative skills of these students, and introduce them to the scientific method and the philosophy of science. The students will develop proficiency in hypothesis testing, mathematical applications of biological data, and develop an understanding of biologically relevant molecules and their functions in the cell. Students will develop critical reasoning and problem-solving skills with the addition of mandatory skills seminars offered by the Science Learning Center and department faculty members. BIOL 122 may be used as the General Education requirement for Scientific Perspective or as an open elective for the Biology Major. Corequisite: MATH 116 or equivalent. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIOL 130 Human Anatomy and Physiology I Lecture
This course is designed to provide students a comprehensive introduction to the structures of the human body and how the various organ systems function. The course first provides a working knowledge of chemistry, animal cells and tissues, and then details the structure and function of the integumentary, skeletal, muscular, and nervous systems. The integration of body systems and how they influence one another as well as the effects of disease on human physiology will be considered throughout the course. Prerequisites: MATH 116 and ENGL 110. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

BIOL 130A Human Anatomy and Physiology I Laboratory
Laboratory observations, demonstrations, dissections, and experiments designed to give students a working knowledge of anatomy and physiology. Topics covered include the cell, tissues, and the integumentary, skeletal, muscular and nervous systems. Laboratories materials used include microscopic specimens, cat specimens, models, charts, illustrations and sample analysis kits. Prerequisites: MATH 116 and ENGL 110 3 hrs. lab. 1 cr.

BIOL 131 Human Anatomy and Physiology II Lecture
This course is designed to provide students a comprehensive introduction to the structure and function of human systems. The organization of the body is studied at the molecular and cellular level as well as the tissue, organ, and systems levels. The course focuses on the following organ systems: endocrine, cardiovascular, lymphatic, respiratory, digestive, and reproductive. Clinical applications of the material will be discussed and many diseases will be considered. Prerequisites: BIOL 130/130A, MATH 116 and ENGL 110. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

BIO 131A Human Anatomy and Physiology II Laboratory
This course is designed to provide students a comprehensive introduction to the organization and function of the following organ systems: endocrine, cardiovascular, lymphatic, respiratory, digestive, and reproductive. Laboratories will utilize a variety of specimens and resources including microscopic specimens, sheep hearts, cat specimens, models, charts, illustrations, and sample analysis kits. Prerequisites: BIOL 130/130A, MATH 116 and ENGL 110. 3 hrs. lab. 1 cr.

BIOL 160 General Biology I Lecture
This course is an introduction to contemporary biology, covering the chemical basis of biology, cell structure and function, cell division, genetics, and basic molecular biology. Prerequisite: Placement at MATH 116 level and ENGL 110 or the equivalent. 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab. 4 cr.

BIOL 160A General Biology I Laboratory
This laboratory course is designed to complement concepts taught in the BIOL 160 lecture course. Students will gain proficiency in light microscopy, spectrometry, pipetting and experimentation. This course also has a recitation session devoted to advanced genetic problems. Prerequisite: Placement at MATH 116 level and ENGL 110 or the equivalent. 3 hrs. lab. 1 crs.

BIOL 161 General Biology II Lecture
A study of the structure and function of living organisms with primary emphasis on multicellular organisms and their interactions. Prerequisite: BIOL 160. 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab. 3 crs.
BIOL 161A General Biology II Laboratory
This laboratory course is designed to complement concepts taught in the BIOL 161 lecture course. Corequisite: BIOL 161. Prerequisites: BIOL 160/160A. 3 hrs. lab. 1 crs.

BIOL 190 Honors Biology
A seminar approach to basic biological concepts and scientific methodology. Topics range from current trends in biotechnology to human evolution and environmental issues. Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIOL 200 Medical Terminology
Introduction to the specific language of medicine, including of medicine, including concepts and terms used to describe disease, to analyze tests and test results and to describe the structures and function of the body. 2 sem. hrs. 2 crs.

BIOL 222 Pathophysiology
This course provides an in-depth study of human pathological processes and their effects on homeostasis. Topics covered include the physical signs and prognosis of common human diseases, as well as their etiology, underlying causes, clinical progression, and management. The role of genetics in disease and the molecular and cellular basis of common diseases will be considered throughout the course. Prerequisites: BIOL 130/130A and BIOL 131/131A, or BIOL 160/160A and BIOL 161/161A. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

BIOL 226 Elements of Biochemistry
An introduction to the different biological molecules: proteins, nucleic acids, vitamins, lipids, and carbohydrates in terms of their structure, transformation and function. Their role in normal physiology and pathophysiology are highlighted. The consequences of deficiencies and toxicities are also discussed. Prerequisites: BIOL 160/160A, BIOL 161/161A, CHEM 160/160A and CHEM 161/161A. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Not applicable for major credit.)

BIOL 244 Ecology
An introduction to ecology, the study of interactions between organisms and between organisms and their environment. The laboratory component includes natural history field trips as well as exercises involving experimental design, data collection, and statistical analysis. 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. lab. 4 cr.

BIOL 252 Plant Biology
An introduction to the basics of plant biology including plant diversity, structure, physiology, metabolism, reproduction, evolution and ecology. The laboratory components include exercises devoted to plant anatomy, growth and physiology. Prerequisites: BIOL 160/160A and BIOL 161/161A, or permission of the Instructor. 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. lab. 4 crs.

BIOL 265 Microbiology Laboratory Lecture
A study of the classification, morphology, metabolism, genetics, and ecology of microorganisms, with emphasis on bacteria. Discussion of aspects concerning control, disease and immunity will be presented. Corequisite: BIOL 265A. Prerequisites: BIOL 130/130A and BIOL 131/131A or BIOL 160/160A and BIOL 161/161A. 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. lab. 3 crs.

BIOL 265A Microbiology Laboratory
This laboratory course is designed to complement concepts taught in the BIOL 265 lecture course by providing students with laboratory exercises to develop techniques for culturing, handling and identifying microorganisms. Corequisite: BIOL 265. Prerequisites: BIOL 130/130A and BIOL 131/131A or BIOL 160/160A and BIOL 161/161A. 3 hrs. 1 crs.
BIOL 275 Cell Biology
This course is designed to provide a comprehensive introduction to how cells function and how. This course is designed to provide a comprehensive introduction to how cells function and how cells are maintained and studied in the laboratory. The lecture portion of the course emphasizes central cell biology topics including: the structure and function of cellular organelles, the structure and function of the plasma membrane and membrane components, protein sorting and transport, the cytoskeleton and cell movement, cell-cell and cell-matrix interactions, cell signaling, and cellular reproduction and cancer. Laboratories methods practiced include transfection of cultured cells with DNA, immunocytochemistry, and fluorescence microscopy. Research articles related to lecture material are presented by groups of students in journal club discussions. Prerequisites: ENGL 111; BIOL 160 and 160A and BIOL 161 and 161A; CHEM 160/161. 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. lab. 4 crs.

BIOL 280 Histology
A microscopic study of the fundamental tissues of the animal body and the fundamentals of histological techniques. Impacts of disease on tissue structure and function will be discussed. Prerequisites: BIOL 160/160A and BIOL 161/161A. 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. lab. 4 crs.

BIOL 295 Topics in Biology
An analysis of current questions in biology. The course offering will vary term to term, allowing for the coverage of new subject matter or the opportunity to make available an instructor’s special expertise. Specific topics to be covered will be announced by the department. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIOL 303 Human Anatomy with Cadaver Lecture: A Study of the Human Body
This course provides an in-depth study of structures of the body with emphasis on structures involved in movement. A detailed study of the skeletal and muscular systems will be followed by consideration of the neurovascular system. Prerequisites: BIOL 130/130A and BIOL 131/131A or BIO 160/160A and BIO 161/161A. Students must have achieved a cumulative grade point average of 2.75 on a 4.0 scale. Students seeking special permission that have not met the prerequisite requirements must submit their request and rationale in writing to the instructor and department for possible approval. Corequisite: BIOL 303A must be taken concurrently with BIOL 303. In the event that a student must withdraw from BIOL 303, they must also withdraw from BIOL 303A. Students who wish to take the lecture component alone will require department authorization. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

Note: Students that have not earned a grade of B or better in the prerequisite coursework are highly advised to take/re-take BIOL 130/130A and/or BIOL 131/131A.

BIOL 303A Human Anatomy with Cadaver Laboratory: A Study of the Human Body
This course complements material learned in BIOL 303 and provides students an in-depth knowledge of structures of the human body through cadaver dissection. Prerequisites: BIOL 130/130A and BIO 131/131A or BIO 160/160A and BIO 161/161A with grades of B or better in the course sequence. Students must have achieved a cumulative grade point average of 2.75 on a 4.0 scale. Students seeking special permission that have not met the prerequisite requirements must submit their request and rationale in writing to the instructor and department for possible approval. Corequisite: BIOL 303A must be taken concurrently with BIOL 303. In the event that a student must withdraw from BIOL 303, they must also withdraw from BIOL 303A. 3 hrs. lab. 1 crs.

Note: Students that have not earned a grade of B or better in the prerequisite coursework are highly advised to take/re-take BIOL 130/130A and/or BIOL 131/131A.

BIOL 309 Human Physiology for the Biomedical Sciences
This course provides an in-depth integrative understanding of human physiology. Beginning with cellular physiology and the regulation of the intercellular environment, the course takes a systemic approach to understanding control systems: the nervous and endocrine systems, systems of maintenance and defense: blood, lymphatic and cardiovascular; systems... of metabolism, acid-base balance and elimination: respiratory, digestive and urinary systems and reproduction. Integration of all systems in the well being of the organism is emphasized. Prerequisite: BIOL 160/160A, BIOL 161/161A or BIOL 130/130A, BIOL 131/131A, CHEM 160/160A and CHEM 161/161A. 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. lab. 4 crs.

BIOL 310 Immunology
A study of the immunological mechanisms of the vertebrate body including antigen structure and types, antibody structure and formation, and antigen/antibody reactions. Discussion of tolerance, autoimmunity, cellular and humoral immunity, hypersensitivity and suppression. Prerequisites: CHEM 160/160A, CHEM 161/161A and BIOL 265/265A. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIOL 317 Clinical Neuroscience
This course will enable the student to be conversant in the structure and function of the nervous system, with emphasis on development and vulnerability, cognition, memory, sensorimotor mechanisms and homeostasis. The approach is integrative and multidisciplinary using a molecular, cellular and a systems approach to understand the types and consequences of nervous system lesions and their behavioral consequences. The causes and consequences of neurodegenerative processes, affective disorders, physical impairment, and intervention will also be discussed. Prerequisites: BIOL 160/160A, BIOL 161/161A or BIOL 130/130A, BIOL 131/131A, CHEM 160/160A and CHEM 161/161A. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

BIOL 355 Molecular Biology of the Cell
The study of how cells function with an emphasis on the ultra structural aspects of cells and their underlying macromolecular structures and mechanisms of cellular processes. Emphasis is on nucleic acids as informational molecules and proteins as catalytic and regulatory molecules and molecular machines. Topics include genomics, proteomics, nucleic acid structure, chemistry, and metabolism, recombinant DNA technology and genetic engineering, membrane structure, membrane transport, protein sorting, vesicular traffic and cellular communication. Experimental techniques in cell culture, immunology, microscopy and biochemistry are emphasized in the lecture, creating a foundation for laboratory experiments in molecular and cell biology. Prerequisite: CHEM 354/354A, CHEM 260/260A, CHEM 261/261A, and BIOL 275. (Offered spring semester only) 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. lab. 4 crs.

BIOL 360 Genetics
A study of fundamental principles of heredity and variations as applied to eukaryotes, prokaryotes, and viruses. The course will cover classical Mendelian Genetics, Population Genetics, Molecular Genetics, and Cytogenetics, with equal emphasis on the molecular aspects of gene structure, function, mutation, and regulation. Prerequisites: CHEM 160/161 and BIOL 275. 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. lab. 4 crs.

BIOL 366 Developmental Biology
A morphological and genetic study of developmental stages of organisms, including cell differentiation, gametogenesis, fertilization, gastrulation and organogenesis. Prerequisites: CHEM 160/161 and BIOL 275. 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. lab. 4 crs.

BIOL 380 Workplace Experience in Biology I, II (Natural Science)
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in Biology include corporations, hospitals, medical facilities and research organizations. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Career Services department and approval of Chair required. Prerequisite: BIOL 160/160A, BIOL 161/161A or BIOL 130/130A, BIOL 131/131A. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIOL 397 Independent Study in Biology
In depth readings and research undertaken in a specific area of biology under the direction of a faculty member. Registration with the permission of the instructor and the chairperson of the department. Prerequisites: BIOL 160/160A, BIOL 161/161A and BIOL 275. 1–3 crs.
BIOL 430 Seminar in Current topics in Biology
Reading of the scientific literature and discussions in a current topic in biology. Topics vary by semester and include cancer biology, stem cell biology, regenerative medicine, . 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Prerequisites: BIOL 160/160A, BIOL 161/161A, BIOL 275, and BIOL 360.

BIOL 431–433 Clinical Laboratory Internship I–III
Theory and laboratory practice in such areas as blood bank/transfusion medicine, phlebotomy, hematology, clinical microscopy, clinical chemistry, diagnostic immunology, clinical microbiology, urinalysis, and laboratory management; completed in residence in a NAACLS-accredited hospital school of Medical Technology. Prerequisites: Completion of all pre-clinical requirements; acceptance into an approved hospital and approval by the department. 6 crs. summer semester (BIOL 431), 12 crs. fall (BIOL 432) and spring (BIOL 433) semesters.

BIOL 460 Coordinating Seminar in Biology
A seminar required of all majors in their senior year. In depth research of topic in biology through readings, reports, and discussion. Completed under direction of the faculty. Prerequisites: Completion of a minimum of 15 credits in Biology courses numbered 230 and above, including CHEM 354/354A. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BUSINESS LAW

BLAW 240 Business Law I
An introduction to the legal system and the basic legal concepts pertinent to the structure, management and operation of businesses. This course will also examine current trends and issues relevant to the legal and ethical responsibilities of business. Prerequisite: placement at ENGL 110 or higher. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BLAW 340 Business Law II
A continuation of the study of legal concepts pertinent to the business environment. This course covers sales and lease contracts, negotiable instruments, secured transactions as well as laws and concepts related to investor protection. It specifically examines legal issues in the Accounting profession and introduces the student to international and world trade law. Prerequisite: BLAW 240. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CHEMISTRY

Students enrolling in chemistry courses must earn at least a letter grade of C or higher in all prerequisite courses required for their major. It is recommended that students be at the level of English 111 when enrolling in all natural science courses. Students in the biology major may not repeat a course required for their major more than once.

CHEM 110 Introduction to Chemistry
This course is an introduction to the principles of chemistry and chemical reactivity for non-majors and allied health students. It is a study of the basic scientific methodology as exemplified by fundamental physical and chemical concepts and illustrated through theory and practical applications. Topics include: atomic and molecular structures, nuclear chemistry, bonding, phases of matter, chemical reactions, acid-base chemistry, organic chemistry and biochemistry. Relevance of chemistry to biology, technology, the environment and society will be presented. 3 hr. lect. 3 crs.

CHEM 122 Foundations in Chemistry
This one-semester course is designed to provide students with the basic foundational skills needed to complete the General Chemistry sequence. This course concentrates on basic concepts and principles of chemistry using a mathematical and quantitative approach. It is not intended for non-science majors. Topics include scientific method, measurement, atomic structure, periodicity, nomenclature, formulas and equations, stoichiometry, bonding, phases of matter, solutions, acids and bases, and redox reactions. By attaining a grade of C or better in this course, a student will be admitted to CHEM 160 without taking the placement exam. CHEM 122 may not be applied for major credit. Prerequisite: MATH 116 with a grade of C or higher. 3 hrs. lect., 3 crs.

CHEM 160 General Chemistry I Lecture
A systematic development of the fundamental laws and theories of modern chemistry and the application of these principles to the chemistry of the elements and their compounds. Topics include: atomic structure, the periodic table and properties of elements, chemical bonding, stoichiometric relationships, thermochemistry, and states of matter. Prerequisites: MATH 116 with a grade of C or higher. Corequisite: CHEM 160A.

CHEM 160A General Chemistry Laboratory
The laboratory introduces basic synthetic and analytical techniques, including gravimetric analysis, qualitative analysis, small-scale calorimetry, and the use of computers for data collection and analysis. Prerequisites: MATH 116. with a grade of C or higher. Corequisite: CHEM 160. 3 hrs. lab. 1 crs.

CHEM 161 General Chemistry II Lecture
This course is a continuation of general chemistry I and is designed to provide students an understanding of solutions, acids and bases, thermodynamics, electrochemistry, and kinetics. Prerequisites: CHEM 160/160A. Corequisite: CHEM 161A. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

CHEM 161A General Chemistry II Laboratory
The laboratory emphasizes analytical techniques associated with lecture topics. Computers are used in laboratories for data collection and analysis. Prerequisites: CHEM 160/160A. Corequisite: CHEM 161. 3 hrs. lab. 1 crs.

CHEM 260 Organic Chemistry I Lecture
Survey of the major types of aliphatic and aromatic compounds including structure, properties, class reactions, and mechanisms. Corequisite: CHEM 260A. Prerequisites: CHEM 160/160A, CHEM 161/161A. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

CHEM 260A Organic Chemistry I Laboratory
Laboratory experiments involving use of modern techniques. Corequisites: CHEM 260. Prerequisites: CHEM 160/160A and CHEM 161/161A. 3 hrs. lab. 1 crs.

CHEM 261 Organic Chemistry II Lecture
Survey of the major types of aliphatic and aromatic compounds including structure, properties, class reactions, and mechanisms. Corequisites: CHEM 261A. Prerequisites: CHEM 260/260A. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

CHEM 261A Organic Chemistry II Laboratory
Laboratory experiments involving use of modern techniques. Corequisites: CHEM 261. Prerequisites: CHEM 260/260A. 3 hrs. lab. 1 crs.

CHEM 354 Biochemistry
COMMUNICATION DISORDERS

CMDS 210 Clinical Process I (eci)
An introduction to the clinical process that focuses on supervised observations and issues relating to the clinical experience as well as clinical assessments. 3 sem. hrs. 2 hr. lect. 1 hr. clinic lab. 3 crs. Offered Fall Semester

CMDS 215 Clinical Process II
Continuation of the clinical process that focuses on therapeutic methods, report writing, and the clinician-client relationship. Prerequisite: CMDS 210. 3 sem. hrs. 2 hr. lect. 1 hr. clinic lab. 3 crs. Offered Spring Semester

CMDS 220 Multicultural Issues in Communication Disorders
This course addresses the impact of cultural, ethnic and linguistic diversity on communication development, communication patterns, and communication disorders. It is an introduction to cultural and linguistic diversity (CLD) among individuals with communication disorders and differences. Special emphasis is placed on African American, Latino, Asian and Middle Eastern backgrounds. The class provides students with a framework for developing an understanding of the many issues related to the provision of clinical services to the multicultural population in the U.S. Prerequisite: CMDS 498. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Offered Spring Semester

CMDS 230 (SPCM 230) Speaking for Success
Study and practice of the skills needed for control of voice production and diction, (articulation, pronunciation, intonation, prosody). Emphasis will be placed on phonetics and ear. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CMDS 240 Phonetics
Detailed analysis of the production of the sounds of the English language; basic intonation patterns and linguistic rules; extensive practice in phonetic transcription with emphasis on ear training. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Offered Fall & Summer Semesters

CMDS 256 Anatomy and Physiology of Speech and Hearing Mechanisms
Structure and function of the speech mechanism; muscular and neural control of the speech organs; respiration, phonation, resonation and articulation. (With Cadaver) Prerequisite: BIOL 110. Additional course fee may apply. 4 sem. hrs. 3 hr. lect. 1 hr. lab. 4 crs. Offered Spring Semester

CMDS 257 Introduction to Audiology
This course provides a general study of the science of hearing assessment with emphasis on terminology, physics of sound, anatomy and physiology of the hearing mechanism, audiological evaluation and screening, hearing loss types and degrees, and audiometric interpretation. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Offered Fall & Spring Semesters

CMDS 258 Introduction to Communication Disorders
This course is an introduction to the study of the professional interests of speech-language pathology and audiology with specific attention to the general recognition and classification of disorders of speech, language, and hearing, and general trends in rehabilitation 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Offered Fall and Spring Semesters

CMDS 264 Normal Speech and Language Development
A study of normal language development in children including phonological, morphological, syntactic, semantic, and pragmatic features; exploration of the cognitive linguistic communicative relationship, language/cognitive/play development milestones, gender, cultural, and dialectal differences will also be addressed. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Limited to CMDS Majors and QSPM Prerequisites only.) Offered Fall and Summer Semesters
CMDS 270 Speech and Hearing Science
A study of the psychological and acoustical aspects of speech production and perception; principles of the physics of sound; psychoacoustics and acoustic phonetics. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Offered Spring Semester

CMDS 300 Language Disorders
The nature of language disorders relative to normal speech and language development and the impact on the ability to communicate in the environment. Prerequisites: CMDS 258 and CMDS 264. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Offered Spring Semester

CMDS 310 Communication Disorders — Organic
A study of speech disorders caused by physical disability with special attention given to problems associated with cleft palate, cerebral palsy, aphasia, and organically based voice disorders. Prerequisites: CMDS 256; CMDS 258. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Offered Fall Semester

CMDS 340 Aural Rehabilitation
A study of the effects of hearing loss on the speech, language, academic, and communication abilities of children and adults; principles and techniques of rehabilitation, including the use of counseling, hearing aids, cochlear implants, lip-reading, and auditory training; and implications for educational and vocational development. Prerequisite: CMDS 257. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Offered Spring and Summer Semesters

CMDS 355 Introduction to Linguistics
This course will familiarize students with the way in which linguistics relates to speech-language pathology. Course content is designed to introduce students to the five levels of natural languages: phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, and pragmatics. Additional topics (second language acquisition, bilingualism, sociolinguistics, bidialectalism, American Sign Language linguistics, neurolinguistics and psycholinguistics) will be incorporated into the course. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Offered Spring Semester

CMDS 498 Clinical Process III
A preliminary clinical experience in the Mercy Speech and Hearing Center. Students will be selected to either treat a client with a communication disorder or be a participant observer assigned to a client with a communication disorder. Course topics will include a review of communication disorders, professional report writing, session planning, standardized test review. Other topics will include therapeutic hierarchy, peer review, session planning, multicultural issues and family counseling (Previously titled CMDS 498 Clinical Practicum.) Prerequisites: CMDS 210 and CMDS 215. Additional course fee may apply. 2 sem. hrs. 2 crs. (Enrollment in this course requires proof of immunization.) Offered Fall Semester

COMMUNICATION STUDIES

COMM 154 (MEDA 154) Publicity Writing
This course covers the variety of persuasive writing forms and techniques used by the public relations professional to invite media coverage of corporate/client events and activities, to promote awareness and use of products and services, and to encourage consumer/audience support of corporate issues. Students will learn how to prepare press releases, pitch letters, press kits, public service announcements and copy for brochures and promotional materials. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

COMM 200 (SPCM 200) Interpersonal Communication
What are the different challenges of communicating one-on-one as well as within large groups? What does our nonverbal language — our styles and body language — really express to the outside world? Students will develop an intrapersonal perspective to critically evaluate their interpersonal communications and relationships, as well as the various issues surrounding human interaction. An emphasis will be placed on the functions of human communication, the development of the “self,” conversation dynamics and skills, relationship development, conflict management strategies, and other subjects. Prerequisites: ENGL 111, SPCM 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
COMM 220 Intercultural Communication
This course examines the role of culture in understanding human communication. Students will become aware of their own cultural influences as they consider the culture, language, tradition, and experiences of diverse groups. Through class discussion and experiential exercises, students will gain the tools necessary to make a valuable contribution to communication across all cultures. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

COMM 225 Visual Communication
This course introduces students to the principles of graphic design, provides an overview of visual communication tools (color, typography, photography, packaging, illustration, etc.), and helps students understand the role of signs, symbols and images in human communication. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

COMM 266 (ENGL 266) Writing for the Web
This course prepares students to develop, manage and evaluate meaningful and functional text for organizational websites and intranets. The unique character and physical nature of website usage will be covered, the development of Web-friendly text will be practiced, formatting and layout as a function of Web Communication will be included, and the use of Web copy as a marketing tool and human resource function will be discussed. Prerequisites: CISC/MATH 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

COMM 295 Topics in Communication Studies
Examines topical issues in the field of communications or in response to particular interests of students. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

COMM 330 Communication Law and Ethics
This course examines the scope of legal and ethical issues that arise when preparing written and nonverbal communications for an employer or client. By examining case studies, reviewing current laws and statutes, and discussing common challenges to ethical practice in communications, the student will better understand the ramifications of behavior and the consequences of actions when serving as the spokesperson for a company or client. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

COMM 365 Practicum: Newsletter Preparation
This course will produce professional quality newsletters or similar material, either for units of Mercy College or for outside business. Students will learn how to design newsletters, write text, do layout, negotiate with printers, and develop mailing lists. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

COMM 370 (SPCM 370) Effective Presentations
This course focuses on the principles and techniques of preparing and delivering oral presentations. Students will practice a variety of speech forms and styles used in business and will have the opportunity to critique their own videotaped performance. The preparation and effective use of accompanying visuals will also be covered. Prerequisite: SPCM 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

COMM 398 Communications Research Methods
This course examines the use of research techniques, measurement tools and resources to inform corporate communication planning and programming decisions. The course focuses on types, sources and uses of primary and secondary data, examines methods of conducting research, and reviews processes used in the corporate communications profession to evaluate program success and performance. Prerequisites: ENGL 111; MATH 115 or MATH 116 or ECON/MATH 122. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

COMM 399 Internship in Corporate Communications Studies
An appropriate in-field experience arranged through the Program Head. Prerequisite: 18 credits in Communication Studies. 1–3 sem. hrs. 3–6 crs.

COMM 450 Studio: the Advanced Practice of Public Relations
This course introduces the student to professional public relations agency work: planning and preparing proposals, campaigns, collateral material, editorial layouts, advertising storyboards, radio and television spots on behalf of a client or company. Students will rotate agency roles such as account manager and creative director while practicing their knowledge of design, campaign development and execution, media relations, special event planning, and publicity writing to assist community businesses and organizations with their communications initiatives. Issues that arise from client cultivation and negotiation (pricing, work product, project management, copyright) will also be covered. Prerequisites: ENGL 112, PSYN 250, MEDA 385, COMM 398, COMM 220, COMM 330. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

COMPUTER ARTS + DESIGN

CART 110 Foundation I: Design Principles
An introduction to the basic principles and processes of drawing and two-dimensional visual composition. Prerequisite: Portfolio review admission into major or permission of the chair. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 120 Foundation I: Design + Digital Skills
An introduction to the basic vocabulary and principles of communication and media theory, including the various roles and digital tools, skills and techniques of the computer arts and design industry. Prerequisite: Portfolio review admission into major or permission of the chair. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 200 Drawing I
An introduction to basic principles and processes of drawing, with an emphasis on direct observation. Students work from still life, nature, and the imagination towards an understanding of the perceptual aspects of visual forms. Prerequisite: Portfolio review admission into major or permission of the chair. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 214 Drawing II
Further exploration and understanding of drawing elements with an emphasis on drawing process, pictorial structure, and personal expression. The course includes an introduction to drawing the human form. Prerequisites: CART 200. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 215 (ARTT 215) History of Art I
This course is the first half of a yearlong survey of the history of art, with specific emphasis on the examination of the representation of ideas in terms of the science of interpretation (hermeneutics) and the language of signs (semiotics). This examination is specifically geared to those for whom the study of the history of art is a prelude to a life of design. The course also covers the history of the development of style, from early cave paintings to the beginnings of the Renaissance. Students develop a visual vocabulary and an acute awareness of style as a function of historical conditions; they also learn to decode images in a way that enables them to be more sophisticated designers of visual communication material. Prerequisite: ENGL 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CART 216 (ARTT 216) History of Art II (cc)
This course is the second half of a yearlong survey of the history of art, with specific emphasis on the examination of the representation of ideas in terms of the science of interpretation (hermeneutics) and the language of signs (semiotics). This examination is specifically geared to those for whom the study of the history of art is a prelude to a life of design. The course also covers the history of the development of style, from the early Renaissance to the modern era. Students develop a visual vocabulary and an acute awareness of style as a function of historical conditions; they learn to decode images in a way that will enable them to be more sophisticated designers of visual communication material. Prerequisites: ENGL 110 and CART/ARTT 215. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CART 219 (CISC 219) Web Design I
This course presents an introduction to basic Web design and information architecture. It introduces concepts of good design and usability in theory and practice. Elements of page design, site design and structure are discussed, including color, typography, simple image manipulation, links, and site organization. The course has a strong hands-on component in which students will be introduced to elements of HTML and Web design using image manipulation software and Web authoring tools. Prerequisite: CISC/MATH 120 (Prospective students who have significant computer experience are encouraged to seek departmental approval for waiver of CISC/MATH 120). 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 225 Foundation II: Process, Composition, Color
The fundamentals of two-dimensional visual composition and three-dimensional form, structure, and concepts, including color theory and its application. The course will explore digital and non-digital production techniques for image and form construction. Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C+ in CART 110 and 120. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 240 Storyboarding
An introduction to time-based computer arts and design. Through an investigation of narrative structures, spatial compositions, and sound, students will explore the fundamental techniques and aesthetics of the moving image utilizing storyboarding, two-dimensional animation, and motion design as a means of communication. Research, critical analysis and concept development will be emphasized. Prerequisites: CART 225. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 245 Sound Design
An introduction to basic principles and production of audio as it applies to computer arts and design. The course explores the structural and conceptual relationships between sound and image. Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C+ in CART 110 and 120. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 250 Modeling for Digital Animation I
An introduction to modeling, texturing, and rendering for three-dimensional digital objects and environments. Topics include lighting and color, concepts of three-dimensional space, geometric transformation, and methods for smoothing. Working from concept art, students will be introduced to the modeling “pipeline” and the theory of, and methods for, compositing. Prerequisites: CART 214 and 225. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 255 Modeling for Digital Animation II
An introduction to modeling, texturing, and rendering for three-dimensional digital characters. Topics include character development and design, anatomy, and animation theory and methods utilizing rigging, articulation and kinematics. Prerequisites: CART 250. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 258 Fundamentals of Writing for Film and Television
This course is about the basic craft of storytelling for the screen; traditional dramatic structure in a visual medium. Issues addressed include the premise, dialogue, characterization, and narrative plot structure. Class work will include workshop discussion of short writing exercises, the examination of professional scripts, and discussion of exemplary professional films. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CART 259 (CISC 259) Web Design II
This course presents more advanced design techniques for website development and information architecture. The overall structure, flow, and organization of the website are discussed. The concepts and criteria introduced in Web Design I are utilized with added sophistication to page design, image manipulation, basic animation techniques, and the use of style sheets. The course has a strong hands-on component where, in addition to the software packages used in Web Design I, students will be introduced to DHTML, CSS, and Flash. Prerequisites: CART 219 or approval of instructor. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 260 Motion Graphics I
An introduction to broadcast design, film graphics, and the principles of motion graphics design. The animation process, theories of montage, timing principles, principles of composition, using color effectively, compositing, integrating type, and integrating still and moving imagery will be covered. Methods for analysis will be introduced, with an emphasis on understanding the relationship between graphics and motion. Students will further develop their own unique design and animation styles plus explore how time can transform visual language. Prerequisites: CART 240 Sequence, Time + Space and CART 370 Graphic Design I or permission from the Chair. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 262 (SPCM 262) Introduction to Acting
Students explore the basis of acting in the reality of doing. The course aims to facilitate an encounter between the student-actor and those personal impulses that happen within the collaborative framework of the classroom-theater. Emphasis is placed upon gaining an understanding of the actor's primary instrument for performance, himself, while developing a basic technique for working within the context of a theatrical performance. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CART 300 Drawing III: Figure Drawing
Advanced study of drawing with an emphasis on representation of the human figure, exploring anatomy, proportion, expression, and movement. Prerequisites: CART 214. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 315 Animation History
A study of historical and contemporary issues in Animation. Prerequisite: ENGL 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CART 316 Design History
A study of historical and contemporary issues in Visual Communication Design, Computer Graphics and Gaming. Prerequisite: ENGL 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CART 320 2D Animation
A study of animation as a means of storytelling through drawing, narrative and character development, character and scene design, and sound. Students will explore motion, expression and movement in both realistic and stylized drawing of animated shapes and forms, humans, and animals. Critical analysis and concept development will be emphasized. Prerequisites: CART 214 and 225. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 322 2D Animation
In this course students will learn and explore how to create memorable characters in moving stories. Some of the topics to be covered include story structure and storyboarding, setting up production schedules and lip synching. Methods for managing large projects will be analyzed and practiced. Copyright basics will be examined. Creating memorable visual characters will be more deeply explored. Students will further develop their own unique animation style. Prerequisites: CART 240 and CART 320 or permission from the chair. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 325 Video
Further exploration of visual narrative and the moving image utilizing digital video and audio. The course will cover basic camera techniques, editing, compositing, and visual effects. Critical analysis and concept development will be emphasized. Prerequisites: CART 240. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 330 Painting I
This course introduces students to the basic language, conventions and material concerns of representational painting and color theory. The emphasis is on drawing, accurate color mixing, and attention to surface. Prerequisites: CART 214. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 335 Visual Storytelling
A study of visual narrative, character development and design, color systems, and digital illustration as it relates to computer arts and design. Particular emphasis will be placed on illustrated sequences, story-line illustration, thematic series pictorials, and writing story treatments. With an aim towards visual literacy, students will investigate story with reference to style, content and interpretation. Concept development, and methods for analysis and production, will be emphasized. Prerequisites: CART 225 and 214. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.
CART 340 Digital Animation I
An introduction to the principles of 3D animation this course further develops on principles learned in 2D Animation. Students explore methods for analysis and production of animation through projects that will focus on character performance. Prerequisites: CART 250 and CART 320. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 345 Animation Production I (previously Digital Animation II)
Further exploration of the principles and methodologies associated with two- and three-dimensional digital animation. Topics and techniques will include rigging methodologies, character control, and character animation through project content that will focus on character performance and scene design. Methods for analysis and production of animation will continue to be emphasized. Prerequisites: CART 255 and 340. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 350 Digital Media + Interaction Design I
An introduction to the principles of interactivity, typography, and design for digital media, including the concepts of interface, information design, play, and an understanding of the relationship between image, typography, and sound. Students will explore the basic concepts surrounding the creation of time-based and interactive experiences, with an emphasis on how these experiences relate to design for games and the World Wide Web. Methods for analysis and production will be introduced. Prerequisite: CART 240. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 355 Digital Media + Interaction Design II
Further exploration of the principles and methodologies associated with digital media and interaction design, including complex multi-media presentations and applications for the World wide Web. Students will study human-factor variables of design. Utilizing time-based and interactive design processes, the course explores design as a social, political and cultural activity. Methods for analysis and production will continue to be emphasized. Prerequisite: CART 350. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 360 Game Design I
An introduction to the principles of game design, including an understanding of games as formal, social, and cultural systems. The course will emphasize rapid prototyping and play testing of game concepts, as well as introduce methods for game analysis and production. Prerequisite: CART 340. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 365 Game Design II
Further exploration of the principles and methodologies associated with the design of games. The course will cover concepts of narrative theory, social play, complexity, emergence, and designed interaction. Prototyping and playtesting will continue to be emphasized. Prerequisite: CART 360. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 370 Graphic Design I: Word and Image
An introduction to the principles of communication design problem solving while exploring visual semiotics—the interrelationships between form, function, content, and meaning. The fundamentals of typographic design and hierarchies are explored through practical and experimental print projects. Methods for analysis and production will be introduced, with an emphasis on understanding the relationship between words and images in developing a visual language. Prerequisite: CART 225. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 375 Graphic Design II: Grid and Identity
Further exploration of the principles and methodologies associated with communication and typographic design through the use of various design strategies. Utilizing visual identity, package and print design processes, the course explores graphic design as a social, political and cultural activity. Methods for analysis and production will continue to be emphasized. Students must receive a grade of C+ or better in the class to enroll in the next class in the sequence. Prerequisite: CART 370. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.
CART 395 Special Topics in Computer Arts
An investigation of special topics within the computer arts and design industry. The course may be repeated when topics vary, with permission of the chair. Prerequisites: variable depending on topic. Hours: variable depending upon topic. 3 crs.

CART 399 Internship in Computer Arts
A supervised internship of a minimum of 96 hours within the Computer Arts and Design industry. Prerequisites: Minimum of 36 credits and 3.0 GPA in the major, and permission of the CART Internship Coordinator. May be repeated up to a maximum of nine credits. 3 crs.

CART 425 Animation Techniques
An exploration of animation as a means of storytelling and communication using classical animation techniques and materials such as stop-motion, time-lapse, rotoscoping, puppets and claymation. Prerequisites: CART 240 and 300. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 440 Animation Production II (previously Digital Animation III)
Advanced study of two- and three-dimensional digital animation, focusing on post-production, dynamics, and compositing, through self-directed projects that are structured in such a way as to allow students to refine their personal creative process and develop the ability for critical analysis of their work. Prerequisite: CART 345. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 450 Digital Media + Interaction Design III
Advanced study of digital media and interaction design through self-directed projects that are structured in such a way as to allow students to refine their personal creative process and develop the ability for critical analysis of their work. Prerequisite: CART 355. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 460 Game Design III
Advanced study of game design through self-directed projects that are structured in such a way as to allow students to refine their personal creative process and develop the ability for critical analysis of their work. Prerequisite: CART 365. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 470 Graphic Design III: Complex Content Systems and Personal Voice
Advanced study of communication and typographic design utilizing complex design strategies through self-directed projects that are structured in such a way as to allow students to refine their personal creative process and develop the ability for critical analysis of their work. Students must receive a grade of C+ or better to enroll in CART 495 Senior Studio. Students who receive C or lower grades aren’t prepared to move forward in the course sequence and must repeat those classes. Prerequisite: CART375 Graphic Design II with a grade of B- or better. .3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 495 Senior Project I
A self-directed project including both visual and written components developed under faculty advisement. This course will focus on the ideation and pre-production stages of the student’s project, and should be taken in the last year of study. Formal presentations to faculty advisors are required. The course also covers interview skills, job search practices, and professional portfolio presentation as it relates to the computer arts and design industries. Students must pass with a minimum grade of B- in order to receive credit for this course. Prerequisite: completion of one of the following: CART 440, CART 450, CART 460 or CART 470, or permission of the Chair. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.

CART 496 Senior Project II
Completion of the self-directed project begun in CART 495, Senior Studio. This course will focus on the realization, visual production and written components of the project, and should be taken in the last semester of study. The final project will be exhibited and formally reviewed by faculty advisors. Students must pass with a minimum grade of B- in order to receive credit for this course. Prerequisite: CART 495. 3 sem. hrs. 1.5 hrs. studio/lab per week. 3 crs.
COMPUTER SCIENCE AND COMPUTER INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Students enrolling in all major courses must earn at least a letter grade of C in all prerequisite courses. MATH 116 requires a minimum grade of B in MATH 105 as a prerequisite. Prospective computer science, computer information systems or mathematics majors who have significant computer experience are encouraged to seek departmental approval for a waiver of CISC/MATH 120. Students enrolled in computer science and computer information systems majors may have to spend substantial time outside of class to complete their coursework. Students in these majors are required to take a programming proficiency test in CISC 231.

CISC/MATH 120 Introduction to Computers and Application Software
An introduction to computers and computing including the fundamentals of computer nomenclature, particularly with respect to personal computer hardware and software and the World Wide Web; develop an understanding of why computers are essential components in the business world and society in general; focus on the computer as a valuable productivity tool; present strategies for purchasing, and maintaining a personal computer system. This course has a wide-ranging hands-on lab component, which includes an introduction to and actual use of; word processing, spreadsheet, presentation, and Internet browser software. Prerequisites: MATH 105 or placement at MATH 115 or MATH 116 level and ENGL 109 level or departmental approval. Students passing a CISC 120 challenge exam may substitute a liberal arts elective for this course. 3 sem. hrs; 3 crs.

CISC 131 (MATH 131) Foundations of Computing I
An introduction to the fundamental concepts of object-oriented programming, including classes, objects, and basic program control flow statements. Using the programming language, Java, students are introduced to principles of software design and reuse. Prerequisites: CISC/MATH 120 and MATH 116 or departmental approval. 2 sem. hrs. 2 hrs. lab. 3 crs.

CISC 219 (CART 219) Web Design I
This course presents an introduction to basic Web design and information architecture. It introduces concepts of good design and usability in theory and practice by exploring and comparing existing sites. Elements of page and site design and structure are discussed, including color, typography, simple image manipulation, links, and site organization. The course has a strong hands-on component where students will be introduced to elements of HTML and use up-to-date image manipulation software and a Web-authoring tool. Prerequisite: CISC/MATH 120. (Prospective students who have significant computer experience are encouraged to seek departmental approval for waiver of CISC/MATH 120.) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 220 Database Applications
This course is a hands-on introduction to building a simple information management system using commercial relational database management software such as Microsoft Access. Students learn to build application systems using simple design tools and are exposed to database programming tools and the relational database model. Students design and build tables, forms, reports, queries and data access pages. Students complete a term project where they develop a functioning database application. Prerequisite: CISC/MATH 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Offered in fall semester only.)

CISC 231 (MATH 231) Foundations of Computing II
This course continues the exploration of fundamental concepts of object-oriented programming using the programming language, Java. Students are introduced to the principles of basic data structures, elementary file input/output, exception handling and GUI. Prerequisite: CISC/MATH 131 or departmental approval. 2 sem. hrs. 2 hrs. lab. 3 crs.

CISC 238 Graphical User Interface Application Development
The student is introduced to application development using a graphical user interface (GUI).
Topics include: graphics user interface design, properties of interface objects, attaching code to interface objects, developing and running entire applications using graphics and drawing, and building and updating databases. Prerequisite: CISC/MATH 131

CISC 257 Computer Network I
This course provides an introduction to fundamental concepts in the design and implementation of computer communication networks, their protocols, and applications. Topics to be covered include overview of internet technologies, network architecture, application layer, transport layer and network layer. A series of Lab activities are integral part of the course and will provide students practical experiences of networking. Prerequisite: CISC/MATH 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 259 (CART 259) Web Design II
This course presents advanced design techniques for website development and information architecture. The overall structure, flow, and organization of the website are discussed. The concepts and criteria introduced in Web Design I are utilized with added sophistication to page layout, image manipulation and typographical design. The use of tables and frames is described as well as several special effects, like rollovers and tweening, and elementary animation techniques. The course has a strong hands-on component where, in addition to the software packages used in Web Design I, students will be introduced to DHTML, CSS, and Flash. Prerequisite: CISC/CART 219 or approval of instructor. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 271 Web Programming
Students learn basic and advanced concepts of Web Programming. Applying modern software development principles, students design and implement projects extending their knowledge of programming techniques and concepts introduced in previous courses. Prerequisite: CISC 231. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 301 Information Systems within Organizations
A comprehensive introduction to the concepts and theories that explain and/or motivate methods and practices in the development and use of information systems (IS) in organizations. The concepts and theories will include systems, management and organization, information, quality and decision-making. The relationship of information systems to corporate planning and strategy and concepts relating information technology (IT) to competitive advantage and productivity are explored and explained. The concepts and practices underlying the use of information technology and systems in improving organizational performance, as well as the roles of management, users and Information Systems professionals are presented. Prerequisites: CISC/MATH 220 and ACCT 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 311 Data Structures
This course builds upon the Foundations of Computing courses and presents concepts and techniques essential for working in a modern software development environment. These include object-oriented programming, exception handling, algorithmic analysis, linear and nonlinear data structures, and data structure libraries. Software engineering and object-oriented design concepts are discussed using case studies and software projects. Prerequisites: CISC/MATH 231 and MATH 244. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 335 Computer Network II
The course continues the exploration of the fundamental concepts of Computer Networks. Topics to be covered include the Network Layer, Linked Layer and Local Area Network, Network Management, Wireless and Mobile Networks and Multimedia Networking. Network Security will be introduced. Lab Activities will provide students practical experiences in computer networking. It will be centered on implementation, configuration and troubleshooting of a LAN. Prerequisite: CISC 257. 3 sem. hr. 3 crs.

CISC 337 Database Management Systems
Introduction to the basic concepts of database management systems, including data representation, conceptual data modeling, entity relationship diagrams, the relational model, normalization, and database design and implementation. Concepts of data integrity, security, privacy, and concurrence control are introduced. Students implement a major database application project. Prerequisite: CISC 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 339 Artificial Intelligence
This course provides a broad technical introduction and a survey of core concepts of artificial intelligence (AI). Topics include history of AI, search (search space, uninformed and informed search, constraint satisfaction), logic reasoning (probabilistic models, uncertainty, Bayesian networks), machine learning (inductive learning, decision trees, reinforcement learning), and perception and cognition (natural language processing, computer vision, robotics). AI techniques have become an essential element in modern computer software and are thus essential for a successful career and advanced studies in computer science. Prerequisites: CISC 231, CISC 257 and CISC 337.

CISC 341 Computer Architecture
This course provides the basic knowledge necessary to understand the hardware operation of digital computers, introduces digital components and details the steps necessary to create a design for an elementary basic computer. The organization and architecture of the separate functional units of the digital computer, as well as the assembly level machine organization, are examined. Prerequisites: CISC/MATH 231 and MATH 244. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Non-liberal arts credit.)

CISC 359 Website Administration and Security
This course focuses on the server-side implementation of a website. It provides an overview of what is required to build and maintain a website, including hosting, server administration, security, user interactivity and database integration. The students will implement a server, develop user and file security policies, design the server configuration, and understand the server interaction with search engines. Given a previously designed GUI, the students will develop scripting programs that implement the appropriate business logic and interpret the user’s input in order to access the database. Prerequisite: CISC 231, CISC 257 and CISC 337. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 370 Systems Analysis and Design
Introduction to the steps required to complete an analysis and design of a computer information system with emphasis on mastering the methods and procedures used in structured systems analysis. These include various techniques of information requirements gathering, data flow diagrams, data dictionaries, process and program specifications. Working in teams, students learn the information systems development process by completing a significant term project. Prerequisite: CISC 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 371 Software Engineering I: Principles
Students will learn the principles of software engineering. Topics to be covered include software design and processes, requirements and specifications, software validation and testing strategies, software evolution, project management, documentation, and quality assurance. Upon completion of the course, students should have a fundamental understanding of the software life cycle and the processes involved in the design, development, implementation and maintenance of complex software systems, and the associated documentation of design, program and training materials, as well as an understanding and development of the interpersonal and communication skills required for a career in computer science. Prerequisite: CISC 311. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 380–381 Workplace Experience in CS/CIS I, II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in CS and CIS include corporations, small businesses, non-profit organizations and schools. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Career Services department approval required. Department approval required. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
CISC 385 Cryptography and Computer Security
Introduction to the concepts and applications of cryptography and computer security. Included are the basic building blocks of network security, such as conventional and public key encryption techniques, authentication and digital signatures. Important network security and Web security tools and applications, including S/MIME, IP security, Kerberos, SSL/TLS, and Secure Electronic Transactions (SET), as well as methodologies for countering hackers and computer viruses are explored. The language of modern cryptography is primarily number theory, and various tools of number theory, including modular arithmetic, primality, and hash functions are developed as needed. Prerequisites: CISC 257 and MATH 244. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 395 Special Topics in Computer Information Science
This course will introduce students to the future implications (both technical and social) of present trends in the computer science or data processing field. Presentations will be offered on such topics as cybernetics, Ada, and distributed processing. Prerequisites: Variable, depending upon topic. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Non-liberal arts credit.)

CISC 397 Independent Study in Computer Information Science
Individual projects or readings undertaken in a specific area of Computer Information Science. Registration with the permission of instructor, the school dean, and the associate dean for Academic Administration. 3 crs. (Non-liberal arts credit.)

CISC 411 Analysis of Algorithms
This course focuses on analysis of various algorithms learned in the data structure (CISC311). Prerequisites: CISC 311. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 421 Operating Systems
Process concepts, asynchronous concurrent processes, concurrent programming, deadlock, real storage, virtual storage organization, virtual storage management, job and processor scheduling, multiprocessing, disk scheduling, file and database systems, performance measurement, networks and security are covered. Prerequisite: CISC 231 and MATH 244. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Non-liberal arts credit.)

CISC 470 Information Systems Development and Implementation
In this capstone course for Computer Information Systems majors, students will apply techniques for analyzing, designing and implementing a computer information system. Systems development life cycle methodologies, CASE tools, project management techniques, and database development techniques will be used by project teams as they develop and implement a new computer information system. Prerequisites: CISC 337 and CISC 370. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CISC 471 Software Engineering II: Senior Capstone Project
This is the second course in the Software Engineering sequence. Students apply the principles of software engineering in real-world projects. In this capstone course for Computer Science majors, students will learn to work as a team in the development of small to medium-scale software systems. Prerequisite: CISC 371 with grade of C. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CORPORATE AND HOMELAND SECURITY

CHSC 120 Investigative techniques and Reporting
This course introduces the student to the complementary administrative and operational protocols for security related investigations as found in business, law enforcement, and national homeland security environments. The multidimensional presentation of material synthesizes investigative techniques for intelligence gathering, interviewing, crime scene preservation and incident report formatting. Within a framework of legal parameters and corporate objectives, the course will present practical applications, which are effective for the post-9/11 security environment. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
CHSC 140 Introduction to Homeland Security, Public Safety and Terrorism
This course introduces the organizational and programmatic initiatives for domestic security in the post-9/11 world. Topics include an overview of the terrorist threat; chemical, biological, and nuclear hazards; public safety and security; statutory authority; and measures for mitigation, preparedness, response and recovery. The course also explores the types and levels of impact that these developments have upon the national, local community, and corporate psyches of America. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Previously cross-listed with CRJU 140)

CHSC 235 Foundations of Risk Management
An introduction to fundamental probability and theoretical concepts of risk as it pertains to public and private sector environment. This course is designed to familiarize the student with identifying and responding to various risks, threats and vulnerabilities in the context of theoretical and real world scenarios. The course will explore proactive and reactive risk management theories as well as identification of and response to different levels of crisis. Prerequisite: MATH 116. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CHSC 245 Legal Aspects of Security Management
An analysis of current federal, state and local laws and regulations pertaining to security management. Discusses the powers of private security in regard to arrest, detention and interrogation, the duty to protect from third party crime, and the power and limits of civil tort law. The goals and objectives of corporate policies and procedures are examined in the context of the legal requirements of criminal justice procedure, contract law, administrative law and federal employment law. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CHSC 295 Religion and Terror
The course is designed to have the student understand working definitions of the terms terrorism and religion and how these are applied by groups using said terms for personal and group agendas often through violent means. The course further seeks to examine the various interpretations of religion within the major faiths and delve into perceived justifications for the use of terror. It will provide students with examples of organizations and terror groups that have and continue to employ religion as the basis for terrorist action through case study and determine the means for countering religious ideology as a pretext for violence. Prerequisite: CHSC 140. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CHSC 315 Terrorism
This course provides a comprehensive exploration of contemporary terrorism. It focuses on the theories and cases related to the causes, perpetration, and results of terrorist activities. It includes an analysis of religious terrorism, ideological terrorism, gender-focused political violence, criminal enterprises and terrorist violence. Among the specific issues to be covered are the changing definitions and perceptions of terrorism; the origins of terrorism; the impact of terrorism upon community and media; tactics and targets; and the major scholarly issues in the field of terrorism. Prerequisite: CHSC 140. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CHSC 325 Personnel and Physical Property Security
Introduces the concepts and methodologies of workplace security used by small, medium, and large corporations. Topics related to personnel security include pre-employment screening, training, employee security awareness, internal investigations, workplace violence, security officer operations, and executive protection. Physical property security topics include perimeter integrity, facility protection, access control, and countermeasures technology. Prerequisite: MGMT 225. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CHSC 345 Corporate Security for the national Infrastructure
An analysis of the security responsibilities and practices of the domestic corporations, which sustain the nation’s critical infrastructure. The course takes up the strategic and logistical aspects of large-scale corporate security efforts within the transportation, communications, energy, financial and other vital sectors of the national infrastructure, using economic, public safety and national security perspectives. Prerequisite: CHSC 140. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
CHSC 350 Security Crisis Management
An in-depth focus upon the strategies, programs and actions for mitigation, preparedness, response and recovery, which are available for the management of natural and man-made crises. Methods of cooperation, coordination and interaction with federal and state agencies, public and private institutions, citizen organizations, and volunteers are studied and the coordinating processes of the Homeland Security National Response Plan are considered for the corporate security environment. Prerequisite: CHSC 235. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CHSC 399 Internship in Corporate and Homeland Security I
By approval of the program director, a CHS major can augment classroom studies with practical experience through meaningful participation relating to Risk Management, Homeland Security or Information Assurance, in a corporate, government or law enforcement environment. Prerequisite: One half (12 credits) of upper level (300 and 400 level) Specialization Course Requirements completed at Mercy College and approval from program director. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CHSC 400 Internship in Corporate and Homeland Security II
This internship continues the practical objectives of CHSC 399, Internship in Corporate and Homeland Security I. Participants are encouraged to select a different working environment than was previously undertaken. However, requirements may be altered at the discretion of the program director on a case-by-case basis. Prerequisite: CHSC 399. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CHSC 435 Advanced Risk Management
Advanced probability analysis of contemporary corporate security and loss prevention issues, strategies and solutions. Comprehensive study includes advanced statistical and theoretical analysis of internal and external threats/vulnerabilities, business continuity planning, crisis intervention and response, impact assessment and risk insurability. This senior-level course is designed to provide an enhanced repertoire of knowledge to the future professional corporate risk manager. Prerequisite: CHSC 235. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CHSC 445 Homeland Defense Structures: the national Incident Management System
An advanced comprehensive review of homeland security organization and strategies. The course will focus on the National Response Plan (NRP) and the National Incident Management System (NIMS) and will include discussion of statutory authority, participant roles, operational concepts, incident management and emergency support functions. Prerequisite: CHSC 345. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

CRJU 102 Introduction to the Criminal Justice System
Students will be given an overview of the criminal justice system, commencing with a discussion of law, its sociology, its functions, etc.; then moving on into the historical origins of the system, current practices, and prognosis for the future of the criminal justice system. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CRJU 130 Security Management and Loss Control
A comprehensive survey of the various aspects in the field of private security. Included are the fundamentals of security management, loss control and prevention, and discussions of the various safety programs in business and industry. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

CRJU 132 Victimology

CRITICAL INQUIRY

CINQ 101 Critical Inquiry
This is a General Education Inquiry course in which reading, thinking, and information literacy competencies are introduced, reinforced and assessed. Each section of CINQ 101 focuses on a particular topic; students analyze assigned readings, prepare and respond to arguments related to the topic, and complete projects that require research and assessment of relevant print and online sources. This course is required of all entering freshmen and of transfer students with 30 credits or less. For students transferring in more than 30 credits, a liberal arts elective may be substituted for this course. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
CYBERSECURITY

IASP 230 Introduction to Cybersecurity
This course serves as an entry course to the Cybersecurity Program for undergraduate students. It will introduce basic terminology in information security, information assurance and related legal and ethical issues. The topics span various cybersecurity domains including access control, threats and vulnerabilities, risk management, firewall, intrusion detection and prevention, cryptography, physical and personnel security. Prerequisite: CISC 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

IASP 321 LINUX Administration
This course focuses on the administration of LINUX in a secured networked environment. Students will be introduced to the installation and configuration of LINUX, along with the use of command-line LINUX commands and scripting languages. Special emphasis will be placed on the installation and configuration of popular LINUX services such as SSH, HTTP, FTP, SMTP, Samba, MySQL, IPTABLES firewall, etc. Hardening of the LINUX kernel will also be discussed to make students aware how a LINUX system could be made more secure. Prerequisite: CISC 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

IASP 330 Disaster Recovery / Business Continuity
This course discusses the applied methodologies used to plan and recover systems and business processes when faced with various types of recovery scenarios. The course will cover how disaster preparedness directly correlates to the ability to then continue business operations. Prerequisite: CISC 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

IASP 380–381 Cybersecurity Workplace Experience I, II
This course is designed to link college with the world of work by assisting students to obtaining meaningful, academically relevant work experiences directly related to their career goals. Possible placement internship sites for students in Cybersecurity include corporations, small businesses, non-profit organizations and schools. Students' professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the work experience. Career Services department approval required. Division approval required. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. per sem.

IASP 395 Special Topics in Cybersecurity
This course will introduce students to the future implications (both technical and social) and the latest development in the cybersecurity field. Prerequisites: Variable, depending upon topic. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Non-liberal arts credit.)

IASP 397 Independent Study in Cybersecurity
Individual projects or readings undertaken in a specific area of Cybersecurity. Registration with the permission of instructor, the program head and the department chair or the school dean. 3 crs. (Non-liberal arts credit.)

IASP 420 Network Security
This course introduces students to fundamental network security principles and implementation. It covers types of network attacks, network infrastructure security, Web security, operational security, security management, cryptography and policies and procedures. In addition, it covers any recent development in network security areas. Prerequisite: CISC 257. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

IASP 430 Digital Forensics
This course introduces techniques required for conducting a forensic analysis on systems and data. The theories directly correlate to methods used to recover/restore data for various requirements, ranging from litigation to fraud based investigations. Prerequisite: CISC 257, CISC 337 and CISC 231. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

IASP 440 Security Policy and Procedures
This course reviews the critical skills and methodologies used to ensure compliance to public and private sector regulatory requirements. This course covers how to facilitate internal and external audit requirements, ensuring proper levels of controls, both IT and process level. Prerequisite: College Algebra-Math 116 and Statistics-Math/ECON 122. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
IASP 460 Wireless Network and Security
This course introduces various wireless network protocols, access modes, wireless devices, management tools and security risks. This course will give students technical background of wireless networks, and discuss the security risk and management tools. Prerequisite: CISC 257. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

IASP 470 System Security\(^{(co)}\)
This course introduces students to system security. It covers many security aspects in computer system and software programming ranging from basic topics to advanced topics. It includes more thoroughly discussion on risks, trusts, threat, attack, safe programming, operating system mechanisms, virtual machines, hardware security, personal and application security and latest development in system security. Hacking is discussed to ensure students know about the techniques used by malware developers. Prerequisite: Finish at least eight of 300-level and above major courses. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ECONOMICS

ECON 115 the Economy, jobs, and you
This course will introduce the student to the ways different economists view the free market economy of the American society and help solve its problems; and an understanding of the variety of economic policies and their impact on public policy issues. ENGL 301 Utopian Literature
This course is a study of literary utopias and dystopias from ancient times through the twentieth century. This course will examine imaginative descriptions of both ideal and nightmare societies and what makes them so. The course will explore various issues such as the function of groups and institutions, the role of technology, the place of art and culture, questions of ethics, and what happens to individuals in these societies. Some of the works that will be included are those by Sir Thomas More, Jonathan Swift, Ray Bradbury, and Eugene Ionesco. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
ENGL 305 Chaucer
An examination of Chaucer’s narrative art and poetic technique. Students explore the literary, cultural, linguistic, and rhetorical background to establish the context of Chaucer’s work. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 310 Renaissance Poetry and Prose
This course presents the achievements of sixteenth-century British literature with an understanding of its admixture of Medieval and High Renaissance elements. It enables students to understand the historical, religious, and sociological backgrounds of the period. (Previously titled: The Sixteenth Century.) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 315 Shakespeare
A critical reading of selected works. Students gain familiarity with the syntax and lexicon of Shakespeare’s language, and develop a basic understanding of the cultural and intellectual background in which Shakespeare lived and out of which he practiced his art. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 316 Shakespeare’s Tragedies
A study of Shakespeare’s major or representative tragedies such as Hamlet, Othello, King Lear, and Macbeth. The course will involve close textual readings of selected plays as well as viewings of film presentations of them. If possible, the class will attend a dramatic performance. The tragedies will be examined in the context of Shakespeare’s time and culture and the theatrical conventions particular to that time and culture. Prerequisite: ENGL 112. Credits: 3.

ENGL 317 Hemingway
This course follows Ernest Hemingway, through his writings, from his early days in Paris knocking on Gertrude Stein’s door to his final moments in Ketchum, Idaho. Readings will include some of his major novels, short stories, and non-fiction. Additionally, the course will consider the interrelated effects of Hemingway’s self-engineered celebrity status — as the rugged bearded world traveler — which coincided precisely with the rise of modern media technology, and exceeded his literary fame even within his lifetime. 3 hrs. Prerequisites: ENGL 112.

ENGL 320 Milton
An intensive study of Paradise Lost. Attention is given to the political, religious and intellectual influences of the period that bear upon the work. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 325 The Seventeenth Century: Poetry and Prose
A study of representative English literature written between 1600 and 1660. Students become familiar with the major literary modes of the period, and consider this literature in relation to the religious, political, social, and economic context of its time. Readings from Donne, Jonson, Marvell, Herbert, Locke, among others. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 330 The Eighteenth Century
Students analyze representative works of prose, poetry and drama written by authors of the period. They identify the neoclassical tenets of decorum, clarity, reason, and elegance by attention to the distinctive literary and poetic forms of the age. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 335 The Major English Romantics
A study of the achievements of the major Romantic poets and their contributions to literature and to the history of ideas. Students acquire an understanding of the period in England between 1798 and 1830 (approximately), particularly in terms of its aesthetic concerns. Attention is focused on how these concerns were shaped by the sociopolitical milieu. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 340 The Major Victorians
An examination of the major writers of poetry and prose in England during the nineteenth century. Students read poems and essays in terms of their style, their role in the history of English literature, and the ways in which they reflect the distinctive historical issues of the period. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
ENGL 352 Contemporary African Literature
This is an introductory, survey course that introduces students to major post-colonial writers from Modern Africa, including those north of the Sahara. Using multiple genres of works both in English and in English translation, this course examines a number of contemporary issues relevant to Africa. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 353 African-American Literature

The course will use a cross section of literary forms although the core will revolve around three novels: Naguib Mahfouz' Palace Walk, Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon and Gabriel Garcia Marquez' One Hundred Years of Solitude. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 360 American Colonial Writings
The earliest literary efforts on American soil, including diaries, poetry, autobiography and prose. This course studies the writings of Christopher Columbus, William Bradford, Ann Bradstreet, Mary Rowlandson, Sarah Kemble Knight, Benjamin Franklin, John and Abigail Adams, and others. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 365 American Romanticism
A study of the prominent works of nineteenth century American literature to see the shape of the European Romantic movement as it crosses the Atlantic and enters American culture. Students may discuss: the Puritan roots of the Transcendental movement; the Radical movement in America; the state of religion in antebellum America; the impact of growing industrialization on American society; the artist’s reaction to the nervousness and dislocation of the period. Texts include works by Poe, Emerson, Thoreau, Hawthorne, Melville, Whitman, and Dickinson. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 370 American Realism
A review of transcendentalism to prepare for contrasting with post-Civil War realism. Readings in Twain, James, Howells will be followed by a consideration of the impact of literary naturalism on the writings of Crane, Dreiser, Wharton. Newly reconsidered narratives are also examined, including those of Chopin, Jewett, Freeman, and American slaves. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 380–381 Workplace Experience in English, I and II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in English include corporations, non-profit organizations, magazines, radio and TV stations. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Career Services department approval required. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 385 Masterpieces of European Literature
This course examines a selection of representative works by European masters in translation. The specific content may vary with each instructor; the range from which works are selected spans the Middle Ages to the Post-Modern Era. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 397 Independent Study in Literature
A self-directed course to pursue some literary interest not included in existing English courses. Initiated, designed, and carried out by the student with the approval and guidance of a faculty member. 3 crs.
ENGL 400 Seminar in Literary Research and Writing
This course introduces students to the various schools of literary criticism, thereby enabling them to develop and refine their own critical approaches to literary texts. This course serves as a capstone course to be taken toward the end of the English major. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 402 Applied English Grammar
A comprehensive study of the way groups of words function to make meaning in the sentence. Emphasis is placed on learning grammatical constructions and sentence combining as strategies for clear and effective writing. Recommended for students in the dual English/Education master’s program. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 404 the Structure and Form of English
This course familiarizes students with the general concepts of descriptive linguistics, especially as applied to contemporary English. Students learn how linguistics aids in understanding and interpreting works of literature, and are introduced to varieties of English based on geography, ethnicity, and sex. Recommended for students in the dual degree English/Education master’s program. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs

ENTREPRENEURSHIP

ENTR 300: Introduction to Entrepreneurship:
This course is the foundation course in the Entrepreneurship specialization. It presents a progressive model of Entrepreneurship which emphasizes the need for entrepreneurs to test the viability of their innovative ideas prior to writing a formal business plan. Given today’s highly complex and dynamic global environment where resource scarcity is placing added time pressures on industries, markets and individuals, entrepreneurs are being asked to provide evidence of their product’s, services, and or technology’s ability to add value without requiring their investors to wade through formal, and often lengthy business plans.
Prerequisites: MGMT 225; MKTG 220; ENGL 112; SPCM 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENTR 310: Entrepreneurial Marketing
This course introduces the students to alternative approaches to marketing targeted at those who are interested in starting small companies. This course is interdisciplinary and covers topics ranging from strategic marketing to finance, operations, and leadership. The approach is built around seven core elements: obsession with opportunity, innovation, calculated risk-taking, resource leveraging, strategic balance, customer intimacy, and the leadership of creating industry change. A number of hands-on cases will be used to assess real world problems at the marketing-entrepreneurship interface. Students will also work in teams to create marketing inventions for existing businesses, conduct research outside of the class environment, and will deliver presentations as consulting teams. Prerequisites: MKTG 220; ENTR 300; ECON 210. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs

ENTR 320: Entrepreneurial Finance
This course explores finance from the perspective of an entrepreneur seeking financing for a start-up operation. Major topics include: financial projections for start-ups, assessing the funds required for a new venture, understanding various financing sources, and locating and negotiating debt and equity financing. Also covered is financial analysis and cash management for entrepreneurial ventures. Prerequisites: FINC 235; ENTR 300. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENTR 400: New Ventures I
This course focuses on the identification and evaluation of a new business venture opportunity. The aim of the course is to recognize a potential new product or service with an objective of how to create a new business enterprise surrounding that product/service to realize the value of the opportunity. Students will explore ways to evaluate the viability of opportunities by identifying market and competitive factors, and the targeted customer base, along with the creation of a business plan for approval. Students will gain a better understanding of an entrepreneurial environment, team building, and business development. Prerequisite: ENTR 320; 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
ENTR 410 - New Ventures II
This course builds upon the experience in New Ventures I and provides students with a culminating experience. Students will focus on management structures and challenges of a start-up operation, and the issues of people, resource, and customer relationship management. The course continues to build upon and develop an understanding of Entrepreneurship, management theory and key financial indicators through the sale of a product/service and realization of business plan objectives. Student teams will present their financial results to a panel of experts. Prerequisite: ENTR 400; Students must complete this course the term after completion of ENTR 400 and must remain in same campus cohort. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

EXERCISE SCIENCE

EXSC 105 Introduction to Athletic Training
This introductory course covers the educational and professional requirements necessary to become a Certified Athletic Trainer, as well as the professional responsibilities once certified. Topics of discussion will include current topics, the history and structure of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), requirements to sit for the Board of Certification examination, and the role of the athletic training professional in the sports medicine setting. The course also includes the use of basic therapeutic modalities and the practice of basic athletic taping and wrapping techniques. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. Offered fall and spring semesters

EXSC 110 Foundations of Exercise Science and Health
This is an introductory course to the systems and mechanisms regarding the human body’s response to exercise. A spectrum of careers will be addressed. Proper utilization of exercise science principles in relation to exercise and fitness will be discussed. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. Offered fall and spring semesters

EXSC 209 Emergency Care and Personal Safety: CPR/AED/First Aid
This course will provide students with essential life-saving skills necessary to act as first responders in emergency situations. First responders evaluate and treat patients, acting as transitional care givers until more advanced medical help arrives. In addition, this course will address psychological and ethical issues related to emergency medical care. Successful completion of this course will lead to CPR/ AED and First Aid certification by the American Red Cross. This course does not provide state licensure for ambulance personnel. 2 hrs. lect. 2 crs Offered fall and spring semesters.

EXSC 230 Applied Motor Learning
This course introduces the theoretical constructs involved in motor skill acquisition and motor control with emphasis on clinical application. Aspects of developing effective training regimes will be emphasized. Prerequisite: EXSC 110. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. Offered fall and spring semesters

EXSC 240 Sports Nutrition
This course focuses on the relationship between nutritional practices and physical performance with emphasis on appropriate diet and current use of ergogenic aids for athletic performance. Review of current literature, teaching resources and consumer publications, and nutritional recommendations for athletes throughout the life cycle will also be included. Prerequisite: BIOL 117 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. Offered spring semester

EXSC 250 Measurement and Evaluation in Exercise Science
This course is an introduction to measurement and evaluation in the health fitness and performance fields. Special emphasis is placed on choosing appropriate tests, calculation and interpretation of basic statistics, and practical application of measurement principles. Appropriate and professional presentation of research results is also incorporated into the course. Prerequisites: EXSC 110. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. Offered fall and spring semesters
EXSC 360 Exercise Kinesiology
This course provides the student with a strong, functional understanding of anatomy. A comprehensive study of structure and function with regard to joints, muscles/tendons, ligaments and application of basic physics principles are covered. Material will include osteokinematics, arthokinematics, static and dynamic stability, and muscle activity to facilitate the learner’s ability to analyze movement. Prerequisites: BIOL 130/131, Corequisite PHYS 160 or PHYS 120, EXSC 230. 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. Offered Fall semester

EXSC 370 Biomechanics
This course will examine the anatomical and mechanical concepts of human motion as they relate to performance. Description and assessment of human movement will be addressed. Special emphasis will be placed on applying the mechanical principles of human motion to sports performance and fitness activities. Prerequisites: EXSC 360. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. Offered Spring semester

EXSC 383 Concepts of Personal Training
This course will prepare students for employment within the performance and personal training job markets. Appropriate program design and progression principles, as well as certification and marketing will be emphasized. The course will further develop the student’s ability to instruct and guide people through fitness programs appropriately. This course will prepare the student for personal training national certifications offered by the NSCA, ACSM, and NASM. Prerequisites: EXSC 360. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. Offered spring semester

EXSC 385 Strength and Conditioning
This course will emphasize applying knowledge of anatomy and physiology to the design of and application of appropriate strength and conditioning programs. Emphasis will be placed on assessment, needs analyses, and designing weight training programs to enhance performance variables. The course will further your knowledge of exercise technique and the ability to instruct others appropriately. Upon completion of this course students will be prepared to sit for the NSCA CSCS certification. Prerequisites: EXSC 360. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. Offered fall semester.

EXSC 397 Independent Study in Exercise Science
Individual readings and research in areas of Exercise Science. Registration with permission of the instructor and the department chair. 1-3 crs.

EXSC 460 Exercise Physiology
An in-depth study of the human body’s physiological response to the stress of exercise. Emphasis is on acute changes to the respiratory, cardiovascular, and muscular systems as well as long-term training adaptations to these systems and the underlying mechanisms. Prerequisites: EXSC 360. Corequisite: EXSC 460 A must be taken concurrently with EXSC 460. In the event that a student must withdraw from EXSC 460, they must also withdraw from EXSC 460 A. Students that wish to take the lecture component alone will require program authorization. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. 1 crs. Offered Spring semester.

EXSC 460 A Exercise Physiology Lab
This course complements material learned in EXSC 460 and provides students in-depth application of exercise physiology concepts covered in lecture. Prerequisites: EXSC 360 Corequisite: EXSC 460 A must be taken concurrently with EXSC 460. In the event that a student must withdraw from EXSC 460, they must also withdraw from EXSC 460 A. 3 hrs. lab. 1 crs. Offered Spring semester.

EXSC 490 Exercise Testing and Prescription
This capstone course of the Exercise Science Program utilizes all knowledge gained in relevant previous coursework. Emphasis will be placed on functional tests most appropriate for exercise administration to accommodate the client’s needs ranging from exercise, to fitness, to high-level competitive athletics. Prerequisites: EXSC 460. Corequisite: EXSC 490 A must be taken concurrently with EXSC 460. In the event that a student must withdraw from EXSC 490, they must also withdraw from EXSC 490 A. Students that wish to take the lecture component alone will require program authorization. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. Offered fall semester.

EXSC 490 A Exercise Testing and Prescription Lab
This course complements material learned in EXSC 490 and provides students in-depth application of exercise testing and prescription concepts covered in lecture. Prerequisites: EXSC 360 Corequisite: EXSC 490 A must be taken concurrently with EXSC 490. In the event that a student must withdraw from EXSC 490, they must also withdraw from EXSC 490 A. 3 hrs. lab. 1 crs. Offered fall semester.

EXSC 492 Exercise Prescription for Special Populations
This course is designed to acquaint students with the principles of exercise testing and prescription for special populations (i.e. diabetes, cancer). The effects of exercise on the process of aging will also be examined. Selection and organization of activities for a range of ages and fitness levels are covered. Current research in the areas of exercise physiology and medicine will serve as the basis for development of safe and effective exercise programs for these populations. Prerequisites: EXSC 490. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. Offered Spring semester.

EXSC 495, 496, 497 Exercise Science Internship
This course is designed to give students the opportunity to acquire practical knowledge, under a qualified supervisor, in a selected work setting within the field of exercise science. This is a culminating educational field experience in which students apply content from coursework under careful observation and in cooperation with a skilled practitioner. (Three credits requires 150 hours.) Prerequisites: EXSC 460 and/or approval from program head. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. each.

FINANCE

FINC 235 Financial Management
A study of the major issues comprising financial management from the perspective of the business decision maker. Topics to be covered include: financial statement analysis; funds flow concepts; tax and other organizational considerations in forming business; current and long term asset management; types of instruments of corporate finance; capital markets and their regulation. An overview of international finance and global ethics in financial decisions will complete the course. Spreadsheets will be utilized in problem solving. Prerequisites: ACCT 120; placement at MATH 116 or higher. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FINC 295 Student Managed Investment Fund (SMIF)
This course is designed to enhance students’ academic pursuits in the study of finance by offering exposure and participation in investment research and analysis, portfolio management and strategy, and group decision-making. Students in the Finance Program will manage the SMIF, enrolled in a class specifically designed to further the management of an actual investment portfolio at the college. The Student Managed Investment Fund enriches the education of business students through a “hands on” approach. The intent is to mirror the investment process in place at leading investment management firms worldwide. Students will make specific recommendations to buy or sell particular securities and try to convince others of the merits of their recommendations. Prior to making investment decisions, students engage in economic analysis, research of specific economic and industry sectors, and analysis on specific companies that comprise the Standard & Poor’s 500. Students sharpen their leadership skills by working collaboratively to devise investment strategies and by presenting. Prerequisite: FINC 235. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Restricted to Business Honors students and approval from the Dean required.
FINC 330 Corporate Finance
A survey of the financial structure of the firm, its demand for funds to finance the acquisition of assets and the sources available to satisfy this demand. The course focuses on how companies invest in real assets, how they raise the funds to pay for these investments, and how these assets ultimately affect the value of the firm. Analysis of the firm’s capital structure and alternative short- and long-term financing sources and techniques will be covered. Major attention will be given to applications of time value, bond and stock valuation, working capital and cash flow management, capital budgeting project analysis, risk and return in investment decisions, and the dividend decisions of a corporation. It is a web-enhanced course emphasizing the study of the major areas of corporate finance from the perspective of the chief financial officer. Prerequisites: ACCT 120, CISC/MATH 120, FINC 235. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FINC 340 Information Sources and Systems
This course provides a working knowledge of information sources and systems and the Internet. Systems include financial accounting and database systems used by organizations. The course emphasizes the process of evaluating and integrating information from different sources from the purpose of effecting organizational change. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Opened only to Organizational Management Students)

FINC 345 Financial Statement Analysis
Practical application of the techniques of financial statement analysis; analytical methods used for various disclosures; interpretation and understanding of characteristics of financial statements; industry reporting standards; contemporary reporting and analysis problems; examination of actual published statements. Prerequisites: ACCT 120, ACCT 121; FINC 235; MATH 116. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FINC 380–381 Workplace Experience in Finance I and II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in Finance include financial services, business, health care, government and non-profit organizations. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Career Services department approval required. Open Elective credit only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FINC 399 (INBU 399, MGMT 399, MKTG 399, SPMG 399) Internship in Business
Students majoring in business are given an opportunity to supplement classroom learning with on-the-job experience. The school assists students in finding appropriate compensated opportunities and insuring that the actual work is a meaningful supplement to the classroom experience. Prerequisites: Completion of 60 credits, a minimum GPA in the major of 3.0 and the approval of the chair of undergraduate business. May not be used as a major-level business course. Open elective credit only. 3 crs.

FINC 442 Investment Management
The investment of funds by individuals, institutions, and investment bankers. Subjects covered include the analysis of types of investments, the mechanics of investing, and forecasting of market trends. Prerequisites: ACCT 120, ACCT 121 and FINC 320 or FINC 235. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FINC 450 Applied Research Analysis in Finance
Advanced Finance course, which intensively surveys financial techniques and decisions pertinent to the attainment of corporate financial policy objectives. Topics included are current and capital asset management, risk analysis, financing techniques, and dividend policy decision. The course will make extensive use of the case study method, decision simulation, and computerized analytical tools. Course should be taken in senior year. Prerequisites: ENGL 112; ECON 125; FINC 235; FINC 345; FINC 442; FINC 447, 449. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Students should have completed 3 of their specialization courses before registering for FINC 450.
FINC 442 Investment Management
The investment of funds by individuals, institutions, and investment bankers. Subjects covered include the analysis of types of investments, the mechanics of investing, and forecasting of market trends. Prerequisites: ACCT 120, ACCT 121 and FINC 320 or FINC 235. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FINC 449 Problems in Financial Management
Advanced Finance course, which intensively surveys financial techniques and decisions pertinent to the attainment of corporate financial policy objectives. Topics included are current and capital asset management, risk analysis, financing techniques, and dividend policy decision. The course will make extensive use of the case study method, decision simulation, and computerized analytical tools. Prerequisites: ENGL 112; ECON 125; CISC/MATH 120; research and thesis draft, revising and editing the thesis as suggested by their committee members. Students will also meet periodically with their advisor, committee members and other College Scholars, where appropriate, to share their findings and make proposals to strengthen each other's work. Open only to students selected as College Scholars. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FRENCH

APPLIED LINGUISTICS

FREN 115 French for Communication
A beginning French course designed to help develop listening and speaking skills in the French language. The course will help students deal with real everyday situations (identifying needs, shopping, seeking medical assistance, gathering information, etc.). The aim of the course is to enable students to understand basic spoken French within the limits of the topics presented in the course, including (but not limited to) business, travel, and social interaction. This course is not open to students who have studied French in high school for more than two semesters or to students who have native or near-native fluency in French. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FREN 116 Communicating in French
This course is a continuation of French 115 and is designed to further the progress made by students who will continue to learn the basic elements of French structure and vocabulary necessary for an ability in this language. The main emphasis of the course is on speaking and understanding French as it is spoken today in France and in over thirty countries throughout the world. Prerequisite: FREN 115 or the equivalent; two years of high school French; or approval of the Language program director. Please note that candidates for New York State Teacher Certification and Mercy College English Literature majors must take two courses (six credits) in a second language. These two courses must be in the same second language. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FREN 160 Translation Techniques
This course is designed for students who will be doing translations from French to English and from English to French. These translations can be both written and spoken. Translations can include business, commerce, health care, social work, legal, as well as literary topics. Prerequisites: FREN 116 or the equivalent. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FREN 265 Reading and Composition
Thorough review of essential points of grammar as well as an introduction to more idiomatic constructions leading to the mastery of the French language. Texts selected from short stories and literary writings will be utilized for a stylistic study of modern French. Prerequisite: FREN 116 or permission of instructor. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FREN 295 Special Topics in Literature and Linguistics
Offered in response to particular interests of students and faculty. Intensive study of a major work, author, genre, theme, literary period, or specialized language/9 topic. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
LITERATURE (OFFERED IN FRENCH)

FREN 397 Independent Study in French
The life and works of an outstanding author. Guided readings and discussion of the works of the author chosen by the student after consultation with a mentor; presentation of the results of such study required. Prerequisites: FREN 116 and FREN 265 or permission of instructor. 3 crs.

HEALTH SCIENCES

Students enrolling in health science courses must earn at least a letter grade of C or higher in all prerequisite courses required for their major. It is recommended that students be at the level of English 111 when enrolling in all natural science courses. Students in the health science major may not repeat a course required for their major more than once.

HLSC 102 Introduction to Health Professions
This course is designed to expose students to the details regarding and scopes of practice of various health care professions as well practitioners’ roles as part of the health care team. The historical and current U.S. health care system will be briefly discussed including policies, areas of reform, and reimbursement. Health care professions will be presented through discussion boards and lecture. Students’ knowledge will be further augmented via case studies, classroom assignments and group presentations. This course will enhance the ability of students to make decisions regarding future areas of professional study and increase their understanding of health care as a whole. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HLSC 200 Issues in Personal Health
The purpose of this online course is to promote the health of the students at Mercy College.
The learning modules in this course are: selection of health care providers, stress management, nutrition, advanced directives and physical fitness. The learning activities in this course include assessments, discussion questions, Internet activities, readings, and an annotated bibliography.
A Health Promotion Paper summarizes the health promotion activities used during this course and future health promotion plans. Prerequisite: ENGL 111, CISC 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HLSC 205 Standard Safety Precautions for the Health Care Professional
This course presents an overview of universal/standard precautions recommended by the Center for Disease Control (CDC), reviews the Office of Safety and Health Administration’s blood borne pathogen regulations, and covers prevention of transmission of various infectious diseases. Responding to emergency situations (fire, medical codes, chemical exposures, etc.) will be covered. 1 sem. hr. 1 cr.

HLSC 209 (EXSC 209) Emergency Care and Personal Safety
This course will provide students with essential life-saving skills necessary to act as first responders in emergency situations. First responders evaluate and treat patients, acting as transitional care givers until more advanced medical help arrives. In addition, this course will address psychological and ethical issues related to emergency medical care. Successful completion of this course will lead to CPR/AED and First Aid certification by the American Red Cross. This course does not provide state licensure for ambulance personnel. 2 hrs. lect. 2 crs.

HLSC 210 Overview of Occupational Therapy Practice
The role of occupational therapy within an interdisciplinary team and within different age groups and practice settings is introduced through observational experiences, lectures, videotapes, small group discussions, and assignments. Students will observe pediatric, adolescent, adult, and geriatric rehabilitation programs. Through classroom discussions and readings, they will develop a personal definition of occupational therapy, be introduced to the current literature in the field, professional organizations, and some current issues facing the practice of occupational therapy. 1 sem. hr. 1 cr.
HLSC 215 Cultural Competence in Health Care
This course will explore the influence cultural beliefs, values, and practices have on perspectives of health and illness and the provision of health care. An overview of various models to develop cultural competence will be presented and approaches to providing culturally competent care will be practiced through a variety of case scenarios and classroom activities. The course will enhance students' abilities to understand, evaluate, and provide culturally sensitive and competent human services to members of diverse groups. 3 sem. hr. 3 cr.

HLSC 225 Introduction to Health Professions' Literature and Scientific Writing
This course will cover the basics of professional literature searches and scientific writing including where and how to access peer reviewed scientific journals as well as the basic structure of scientific research articles. At the completion of the course the student will be able to locate various types of scientific articles in academic and peer reviewed publications by using multiple databases and search engines, and will be able to summarize the articles found in these publications in preparation for a complete literature review and synthesis.

HLSC 271 (BHSC 271 or SOCL 271) Medical Sociology: Health Care in the Modern Society
This course aims to provide the student with an understanding of the ways in which American society promotes (or fails to promote) health as well as copes with illness. The course will examine the following topics: the interaction of social and cultural factors (such as gender, ethnicity, race, and social class) with health and illness; illness (disability) as a social issue; careers in health care; settings in which health care services are delivered; financing health care services; comparisons with the health care services of other countries; and uses and applications of computers/microcomputers in the health field. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HLSC 295 Topics in Health Sciences
An analysis of the current theory, research or clinical practice issues in the health sciences. Specific topics such as complementary and alternative medicine, group work, and HIV/AIDS, are announced each semester by the Division. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HLSC 302 Pathology for Rehabilitation
This course examines the basis and effects of pathological conditions on individuals across the lifespan. Typical physiology is discussed along with pathology as it relates to the individual's rehabilitation potential. Disorders of the following systems are investigated: genetic, cardiovascular, respiratory, endocrine, genitourinary, renal, gastrointestinal, hepatic, immune, metabolic, integumentary, hematological, lymphatic, visual, and musculoskeletal systems. Students will investigate the etiology, epidemiology, clinical presentation, and medical and surgical management of individuals with pathologies of these systems and demonstrate a general understanding of their impact on rehabilitation management. Completion of online learning modules in Blackboard are required as part of this course. Offered Spring and Summer terms only. Prerequisites: BIOL 161/161A or BIOL 130/130A and BIOL 131/131A. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HLSC 308 (BHSC 308 or SOCL 308) Health Care Management
This course is designed to provide the student with an understanding of the management process within the context of the health care organization. Topics include study of the environment of the organization, environmental scanning and strategic planning, goal setting, issues of health care financing and reimbursement, the management process, program review and evaluation. Particular emphasis will be placed on issues of organizational effectiveness in an environment of cost containment. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HLSC 314 Clinical Kinesiology and Applied Physics
This course is designed to study and analyze human movement and principles of physics in a person-environment context. Principles and theoretical concepts of physics will be presented as they relate and impact movement and function. It will emphasize an understanding of movement when it is integrated into real-life activity and applied to individual environments.
Kinesiology of the upper and lower extremities and trunk will be examined, and will include clear explanations of both normal kinesiologic function and pathokinesiology of the upper extremity and trunk. Principles of physics and how they relate to human movement will be emphasized throughout the semester. Hands-on experience will give the student a practical experience for better understanding one component integral to occupation-human movement. Completion of online learning modules in Blackboard are required as part of this course. Offered Fall and Spring terms only. Prerequisite or Corequisite: BIOL 303 / 303A 4 sem. hrs. 4 crs.

HLSC 344 Group Process for Health Professionals
The course focuses on the application group process theory to work within professional groups, as well as to therapeutic client groups. Theory, research and behavioral process basic to all groups are identified and their application in the professional use in health care small groups is observed, analyzed and synthesized. Emphasis is on role development, leadership skills, and promotion of decision-making and accountability as a member of professional groups and leader of therapeutic groups. Group process issues that affect health care delivery are explored. Health promotion with clients in small groups is a central goal. Offered Fall and Spring terms only. Prerequisites: ENGL 112, SPCM 110, and PSYN 101. 3 crs.

HLSC 366 (BHSC 366 or SOCL 366) Medical Ethics
An examination of ethical questions that arise in health care and in the relationship between health care professionals and those they serve, including: the rights of individuals to self determination and the obligations of health care professionals both to the individuals they serve and to society at large; life as a value and such issues as abortion, euthanasia, and suicide; the questions of mental health and mental illness and the rights of the mentally ill; eugenic programs and the possibilities of genetic engineering; the cost of health care and the delivery of health care as a social and political issue. (Previously numbered: BHSC/PSYN/SOCL 266) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HLSC 380–381 Workplace Experience in Health Science, I and II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in Health Science include hospitals, medical facilities, small and large physical/occupational therapy practices. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the Workplace experience. Career Services department approval required. Open Elective credit only. Prerequisite: HLSC 102 or department approval. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. per sem.

HLSC 400 Health Sciences Capstone
This course explores the concept of health promotion and serves as a synthesis experience for the major. Students choose a topic in health care, review relevant literature, interview community members, and develop, implement and evaluate a health promotion project. Achievement is determined through an annotated bibliography, class presentations and a written summary of the health promotion project. Prerequisite: HLSC 295 or BHSC/HLSC 366. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HLSC 402 Scientific Writing
Health Care Practitioners need to become informed consumers of the scientific literature, with the ability to process and synthesize scientific information. They must be able to recognize factual information and logical arguments and apply critical analysis to other forms of acquiring knowledge such as authority, rationalization and intuition. Additionally, they need to understand research methods and their evaluation and application. The course is designed as an introduction to critical thinking and to allow the student to be able to search, summarize, synthesize and process the scientific literature. The course should help students to think more critically about evaluating research studies, the arguments of others and to understand logical and persuasive arguments in science. Offered Fall and Spring terms only. Prerequisites: ENGL 111, ENGL 112, Corequisite: HLSC 225 or permission of the instructor. 2 sem. hrs. 2 crs.
HLSC 410 Applied Neuroscience for the Rehabilitation Professional
This course will focus on the application of neuroscience theory and clinical principles of nervous system function to behavioral outcomes in sensation, movement, perception and cognition as typically seen by rehabilitation professionals. Anatomy and function of the human nervous systems will be taught with emphasis placed on its role in development, movement and motor learning, the sensory system, cognition, perception and behavior for the purpose of understanding rehabilitation principles and intervention. Components of normal function and impairments of the peripheral and central nervous systems will be reviewed from the perspective of the rehabilitation specialist. Nervous system components including the spinal cord, brainstem, cerebrum and the auditory, visual and vestibular systems will be reviewed. Primary roles and functions, knowledge of the physical structures involved and the neural pathways that link systems will be reviewed. This course will review health conditions and impairments of these systems and the impact of impairments on activity limitations and participation restrictions and the rehabilitative process. Application of concepts and knowledge will be linked to clinical problems and case studies from a therapist’s perspective through the study of the sensory systems, motor learning, neurobehavioral presentations and an introduction to neurological assessment. Case studies will be used both in class and in online discussions to facilitate the integration of neuroscience theory and clinical application of concepts. This course requires student participation and completion of assignments using the College’s distance learning technology. Offered Fall and Spring terms only. Prerequisite: BIOL 303/303A. 4 sem. hrs. 4 crs.

HLSC 420 Introduction to Occupational Therapy
This course introduces students to many of the general topics related to the scope of occupational therapy practice that will be revisited throughout the occupational therapy program. Students learn the impact of historical events and disability models on the development and current practice of occupational therapy. Students begin to explore how patterns of occupation across the lifespan provide a foundation from which to understand health and well-being as well as the effect of impairments, activity limitations or participation restrictions on occupational engagement. The importance of professional values and ethics in the development of a therapeutic sense of self and sensitivity to multicultural issues are introduced. The purposes and types of occupational therapy documentation along with the Occupational Therapy Framework for Practice, the Guide to Occupational Therapy Practice, medical terminology, and the structure of occupational therapy professional organizations are also presented. Students are oriented to the philosophy, structure and process of the problem based learning instructional method, strategies for self-directed learning through small group discussions, online components, lectures and assignments. Offered Spring and Summer terms only. Prerequisite: HLSC 210. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HISTORY

HIST 101 European History to 1500
An overview of European history from antiquity to 1500: the rise and fall of Greece and Rome; the Middle Ages; the Italian and Northern Renaissance; the beginning of the Reformation. Extensive map work is required. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

Extensive map work is required. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 105 American History through 1877
A general survey from the Age of first contact through the end of Reconstruction, covering such major developments as the emergence and growth of the 13 colonies; the founding and organization of the nation state; changing political, social, and economic patterns; and the origins and impact of the Civil War. Extensive map work is required 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
HIST 106 American History Since 1877
A general survey from the end of Reconstruction to the recent past. Major themes will be the development of American domestic politics; the nation’s emergence as a world power; changes in American society, economy, and culture; and the influence of past events on contemporary life. Extensive map work is required. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 117 Introduction to Asian History
An overview of the main periods of Asian history: ancient, traditional, and modern; exploration of political, social, economic, and cultural developments; emphasis on China, India and Japan. Prerequisite: ENGL 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 118 Introduction to African History
This course examines the rise of African civilizations, outside influences on African societies, the period of European colonization, the independence movements, and some of the challenges facing the continent today. Pre or Corequisite: ENGL 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 119 Introduction to Latin American History
An overview of Latin American history: the pre-Columbian past; European conquest and colonial rule; the independence movements; and subsequent internal and external challenges to nation building in the 19th and 20th centuries. Prerequisite: ENGL 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 195 Honors History
Selected historical occurrences are studied in terms of how they illuminate themes basic to an understanding of historical processes. Admission by permission of the director. May replace General Education History requirement. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 203 History and Culture of Victorian England
The history and culture of Victorian England will be examined and discussed from the time of the accession of Queen Victoria in 1837 to the turn of the century. We will be interested in more than political history, and will expand our view to the cultural and social history of England over the course of the entire nineteenth century. Major historical events will be placed in the context of the broader developments of the people and the nation as we seek to understand the things that make the English who they are and how they have influenced American culture. Prerequisite: ENGL 110; 6) : ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 239 (ENGL 239) American Studies I
An interdisciplinary approach to American character and culture, treating such themes as the frontier tradition; the American hero; the impact of popular culture; the significance of race, ethnicity, and gender; and national values and ideals. Prerequisite: ENGL 112. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 263 (ENGL 263) the Black Atlantic: Literature/History
This course examines the historical background of the Third World, the rise of nationalist movements, and the issues that face these nations today. The course follows an interdisciplinary approach that includes the study of Third-World literature. Prerequisite: ENGL 112. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Previously titled: Third World Cultures)

HIST 295 Topics in History
This offering will vary from term to term, allowing for the coverage of new subject matter or the opportunity to make available an instructor’s special knowledge. In other words, each time this course is offered, the subject matter will be different so a more specific course description is not possible here. Prerequisite: ENGL 111 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 301 the World of Antiquity
An examination of the significance of the cultures and societies of ancient Greece and Rome. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
HIST 304 Medieval Culture and Society
An examination of the elements that contributed to the formation of Western culture and society; the innovations and ideas of the “High Middle Ages”; and the interplay of popular culture and the critical spirit. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 307 Early Modern Europe
The transition of economics, institutions, society and culture, c.1300–c.1500; the “new monarchies”; reform and revolt, c.1500–c.1650; social patterns and popular culture; the “Scientific Revolution.” 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 308 Europe from the French Revolution to the Great War
The French Revolution and the Napoleonic Era; the rise of liberalism, Marxism, and other forms of socialism; Italian and German unification; imperialism; the background of the Great War. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 309 Europe in Upheaval: 1914 to the Present
The causes, course and results of the two world wars; the Russian Revolution; Hitler and Mussolini, the Cold War; Europe’s role in the contemporary world. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 310 The History of Central Europe
The vast area lying between the German border on the west and the Russian border on the east and extending north to Poland and south to the Balkans, has a unique and rich history, which, for the most part, has been ignored by traditional Western historians. Rather than approaching Central Europe as a collection of nation-states, this course will consider broad historical themes and patterns of conflict, cohabitation, and cooperation. The meeting ground between East and West, Central Europe provides a context for understanding current issues and worldwide conflicts. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 314 History of England
The history of England will be examined from the time of the first invasion of the Romans to the present day. We will be interested in politics, cultural and social history, and will place the major events of English history in the broader context of the development of the people as we see their progress over two thousand years. Prerequisites: ENGL 110 and ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 320 Historiography and Historical Method
An introduction to historiography and historical method through guided readings in primary sources and secondary literature. This course is organized around topics that will give the student experience in the recognition, critique, and writing of historical narrative. Use of the computer in historical research will be stressed. This required course for History majors is to be taken senior year. Prerequisite: ENGL 111, 112, program approval and satisfactory completion of at least 12 major credits in history. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 321 America in the Gilded Age and the Progressive Era: 1877–1920
This course is about the United States in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. The first part of the course will cover the settling of the Great Plains; the burgeoning industrial revolution; and the emergence of big business, taking into account the many opportunities and abuses which resulted from these developments. The period was also characterized by a high degree of domestic turmoil as the military suppressed the Indians; racist and xenophobic groups targeted minorities and immigrants; and workers and farmers fought for their causes. The second part of the course will focus on American expansionism, including the Spanish-American War, and on the reforms of the Progressive Era during the presidencies of Theodore Roosevelt, William Howard Taft and Woodrow Wilson. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
HIST 324 History of the United States Since 1941
An intensive study of the recent past. The course considers such subjects as America and World War II; the development of the Cold War and the Vietnam involvement; the nature of the Eisenhower era, the Kennedy years, and the protest period of the 1960s, and the difficulties of the Nixon-Ford-Carter administrations of the 1970s; the Reagan era of the 1980s and the aftermath. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 327 Modern Russia
The decline of Imperial Russia; the Russian Revolution; Leninism, Stalinism, World War II; the post-Stalin era; the breakup of the Soviet Union. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 331 History of Ancient Egypt
This course is a one-semester survey of the history and culture of ancient Egyptian civilization. We will take an archaeological approach, looking at ruins as well as documents to see how the people lived, thought, worshiped, what they ate and wore, and how they behaved. We will look at the buildings and the art they left behind. We will also try to sift fact from fiction. One of our tasks will be the historiography of this culture, in that we will observe the ways in which later cultures viewed the achievements of the Egyptians. Prerequisites: ENGL 110 and ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 332 China In History: From Antiquity to the Present
The history of China, including origins of its society and culture; the development of classical Chinese civilization during the age of feudalism; the development of China’s “super-power” status during the age of bureaucratic empire; the setbacks and struggles during the interregnum of the Western onslaught; and China’s reemergence as a superpower today. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 333 Asia in Revolution
A study of the gigantic upheavals in society and culture that comprise Asia’s ongoing response to the challenge of Western power. Highlighted will be Gandhian nonviolent resistance, Maoist guerilla warfare, Japanese militarism, and the subsequent economic counter-challenge of the Japanese-led Pacific rim. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 336 Africa: Colonialism and Independence
The composition of colonial rule and systems of administration; the rise of nationalist movements and the emergence of independent nations; the new nations of Africa and current social, political, and environmental problems. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 344 Slavery and the Civil War
The question of slavery; States’ Rights; the coming of war; Lincoln’s Presidency; the issues of Reconstruction and Republican policies. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 351 African-American History
The African origins and life of black people in America and their relationships to white society, from colonial slavery to contemporary movements in the black community. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 352 Latino American History
This course will examine the historical, social, political, economic and cultural experiences, as well as state of Latino Americans, the largest ethnic minority in the United States. The course will focus on the people who can trace their origins to Mexico, the Caribbean, and countries of Latin America. The main emphasis will be on the experiences of Mexican Americans, Puerto Ricans, and Cubans, the three largest United States Latino/Hispanic groups. In addition, attention will be given other Latino groups that have more recently arrived to United States, from other Spanish speaking Western Hemisphere nations. Extensive examination will focus on the impact these groups are collectively having on society, both in the United States and their countries of origin. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
HIST 354 Women Radicals and Reformers
The tradition of women radicals and reformers is long-standing. In the late eighteenth century, Abigail Adams in America and Mary Wollstonecraft in England argued for the rights of women, among other causes. In the nineteenth century, a remarkable cross section of women radicals emerged at the intersections of the campaigns for abolition, women’s suffrage, Indian rights, and temperance. This course will explore the causes that motivated them and the historical experiences that molded them. It will also trace their historical legacy to twentieth century radicals and reformers, such as Emma Goldman, Eleanor Roosevelt and Angela Davis and consider their value as contemporary role models. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 355 American Cultural and Intellectual History
This course examines life styles and values, attempting to discover both how common people coped with their everyday worlds and how intellectuals interpreted the American experience. Developments will be traced in social thought, religion, science, and cultural complexes such as Puritanism, Romanticism, Victorianism and Modernism. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 357 Women Rulers and Heads of State
This history course will consider the experience of women rulers in history. In patriarchal societies their legitimacy was seldom without challenge, and each had to find an acceptable way to justify and retain a position of authority. By examining the role of prominent monarchs and elected heads of governments, the course will explore issues regarding the qualities of effective leadership, nationalism, and gender. Through assigned readings, research papers, and class discussions, students will also be encouraged to consider the validity of traditional patriarchal historiography, which tends to frame the experience of women rulers, as well as women in general, as outside the norm. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 358 History of Women
A history of the roles played by women, the treatment accorded women, as those modes have changed in America. In some terms, women in other countries will also be studied. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 365 (POLS 365) the American Presidency
A review of the office and its occupants covering the legal, constitutional and political development of the Executive Branch, as well as the contributions of several major presidents. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 367 (POLS 367) American Foreign Policy
The development of the political, military, economic, and cultural relations of America with the rest of the world. How United States foreign policy is made. Traditional institutions and means of diplomacy and newer techniques. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs

HIST 379 History of the Family in America
This course will study the evolution of the family in America from Colonial times to the present. It will be concerned with such aspects as child rearing, husband-wife relationships, and the family unit as a social, cultural, and economic institution. As part of the required work, each student will write the history of his or her own family. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 380–381 Workplace Experience in History I and II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in History include federal, state and local government offices, museums and non-profit organizations. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Career Services department approval required. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 397 Independent Study in History
A course designed to take into account the individual student’s historical and/or governmental interests. Offered under the direction of a faculty advisor. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 crs.
HIST 399 Internship in History
The History and Government Programs are interested in making available learning experiences in non-classroom settings. Under the Intern Program, qualified juniors and seniors receive academic credit for work done in historical societies, archives, museums, and restorations. The programs assist students in finding appropriate opportunities and insuring that the actual work is a meaningful supplement to the undergraduate classroom experience. Prerequisite: ENGL 112.

I. Standards: 60 college credits, a minimum overall GPA of 2.75, a minimum GPA in the student’s major of 3.0, and at least six credits in History.

II. Credit Options: A) Internships in the local area require a supervisory faculty member and usually will be worth three credits B) A maximum of six credits may be applied toward a History major; and a maximum of three credits toward a History minor. Additional credits may be applied toward the general requirements in Social Science, or may count as Liberal Arts and Sciences electives, or as Open Electives.

III. Procedures: Interested students should contact the director of the History Program or the director of the History Intern Program. The application process requires a transcript, a letter of recommendation from a faculty member, the written consent of the student’s advisor, and a departmental interview. The decision of the Programs on whether to allow a student to hold an internship may be appealed to the Office of the Associate Dean of Academic Administration on procedural issues, but not on the matter of the Program’s judgment.

HIST 495 Senior Seminar in History
The Senior Seminar in History, a required course for History majors, is to be taken during the senior year. There are several aspects to this course: the comprehensive assessment of what has been learned in the major course of study, the writing of research papers under the supervision of a faculty mentor, and the discussion of research methods and results in a supportive collegial environment. (Previously numbered: HIST 395 Senior Seminar in History.) Prerequisite: ENGL 112; HIST 320. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs

HUMANITIES

These interdisciplinary, thematic courses are for non-English majors as well as for majors and may be taken as electives or as a minor concentration. Although literature predominates, other media, such as films, recordings, paintings and music are introduced.

ENGL 111 is a prerequisite for all Humanities courses numbered 200 and above.

HUMN 101 American Culture I
Students will read and discuss fiction and non-fiction concerning American life and institutions. Open to non-native speakers of English only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HUMN 102 American Culture II
The purpose of this course is to increase knowledge of American life and culture, through readings in modern American life, mores and social issues, to students who are non-native speakers of English. An understanding and knowledge of modern American culture will be based on the four competencies: writing, critical thinking, oral communication, and where possible, quantitative reasoning. Prerequisite: HUMN 101 unless placement into ESLA 151/ESLA 152 or ENLA 151/ENLA 152 level. Open only to non-native speakers of English. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HUMN 103 American Culture III
This course introduces students who are non-native speakers of English to everyday topics in modern American life through cross-cultural experience. Students will examine analytical readings of North American fiction. The purpose of the course is to develop active reading skills, and critical thinking skills. Prerequisite: HUMN 102 unless placement into ESLA 171 and ESLA 172. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
HUMN 104 Critical Reading and Analytical techniques
The goal of this course is to raise the reading efficiency and analytical ability of each student to a level that enables him/her to deal effectively with the complex material he/she encounters as a college student. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HUMN 216 Women: Myth and Reality
Concepts, images, myths, archetypes, and stereotypes pertaining to women in fiction and in theory. What men have said about women in contrast to what women have said about themselves. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HUMN 226 Business, Values, and Modern America
The emergence of modern forms of business and the relationship of business to society. The socialization process one undergoes upon entering a modern business or corporation. Especially recommended for business students. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HUMN 295 Topics in Humanities
Offered in response to particular interests of students and faculty. Intensive study of a theme or topic, which lends itself to a humanistic, interdisciplinary approach. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HUMN 320 Interdisciplinary Humanities
In the context of the ethical model presented in the earlier ethics course, this course examines human values revealed by works of art, literature, history and philosophy as applied to career/life assessment and organizational mission. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

INBU 250 International Business
Global decision making requires a framework for understanding international trade, investment, and cross-cultural interactions. This course discusses managerial challenges arising from different cultural, socioeconomic and political settings, modes of entering foreign markets and the rise of the global corporation. Prerequisites: ENGL 110 or higher. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

INBU 375 International Marketing
The international dimensions of marketing. Topics include: the international environment of international marketing, international market research, product adaptation, pricing strategies, promotion, channels of distribution, and marketing organization. Focus is first on export marketing and then on multinomial marketing. Prerequisites: MKTG 220, INBU 250. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

INBU 380–381 Workplace Experience in International Business, I and II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in International Business include corporations and small businesses. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Career Services department approval required. Open Elective credit only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

INBU 399 (FINC 399, MGMT 399, MKTG 399, SPMG 399) Internship in Business
Students majoring in business are given an opportunity to supplement classroom learning with on-the-job experience. The School assists students in finding appropriate compensated opportunities and insuring that the actual work is a meaningful supplement to the classroom experience. Prerequisites: Completion of 60 credits, a minimum GPA in the major of 3.0 and the approval of the chair of undergraduate business. This course may not be counted as a major level business course. Open elective credit only. 3 crs.
INBU 444 International Management
The international dimensions of management. Topics include: the environment of international management, strategic planning, managing political risk, organizing international operations, decision-making, control, human resource management, communication and motivation. Gives special treatment to the problems of intercultural management. Prerequisites: MGMT 225, INBU 250. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

INBU 447 International Finance
The international dimensions of finance. Topics include: the environment of international finance, foreign exchange markets, exchange rate determination, managing foreign exchange exposure, financing international trade, international cash management, multinational capital budgeting and long-term financing. Prerequisite: INBU 250. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

INBU 450 Applied Research Analysis in International Business
A research project to examine problems faced by companies wanting to export or to manufacture in foreign countries. Integrates marketing, management, and finance functions. Focuses on real-world situations giving students experience at dealing with problems they are likely to encounter in their careers. Prerequisites: ENGL 112; INBU 375, INBU 444, INBU 447. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Students should have completed 3 of their specialization courses before registering for INBU 450.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND DIPLOMACY

IRDP 110 (SOC 110) World Cultures: Diversity, Politics, and Tolerance
This is an introductory course to the anthropology and political aspects of cultural and linguistic difference. A spectrum of issues concerning human origins and expansion, regional and linguistic differences, and tolerance and diversity are addressed. Use of anthropological and linguistic understanding in relation to international affairs and diplomacy are discussed. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

IRDP 252 (SOCL 252) Globalization
This course is an introduction to the process of rapidly increasing globalization, its impact on the role of the state and the process of increasing inter-connectedness between societies — where events in one part of the world have increasing effects on people and societies far away. Advances in market integration, information technology, cultural diffusion and homogenization, and the growth of power among non-state actors have all contributed to the emergence of global communities, issues, and actions. The course focuses on shifting centers of power — changing roles of state institutions and interactions among states, individuals, the private sector, and civil society — and consequences for the world’s economic, social, and political structures and actors. A spectrum of issues is addressed, including perspectives on forces and dynamics underlying globalization — relative to governance, migration, and the environment — and the impact of globalization on the economy, culture, and society. The course explores globalization’s costs, benefits, and challenges on the levels of local communities and international relations. Prerequisite: SOCL 101 Introduction to Sociology. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

IRDP 295 Contemporary Issues in International Relations and Diplomacy
An analysis of current topics that vary from term to term allowing for the coverage of new subject matter of interest to students and faculty, or the opportunity to make available an instructor’s special expertise. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

IRDP 340 (POLS 340) The Art and Science of International Relations
This course is an introduction to the theory and practice of international relations. A spectrum of issues is addressed, including differing perspectives on international relations; the state, sovereignty, and the international system; international organizations and law; regional integration; conflict and cooperation; international finance, trade, and political economy; transnational issues and actors; interdependence and globalization; human rights; international development and environmental issues; and the role of diplomacy and foreign policy. This course emphasizes practical, tactical, and real-world approaches to international issues such as pollution, trade disputes, border clashes, humanitarian emergencies, global terrorism, global and public health crises, and weapons proliferation. Classes alternate being led by the instructor and by practicing professionals with diplomatic experience. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

IRDP 356 (POLS 356) International Negotiation and Diplomacy
This course provides an introduction to the core concepts, processes, and techniques of international negotiation and diplomacy, focusing on the nature of international conflict; negotiation in an international context, mediation, and arbitration; conflict management (rather than resolution); pre-negotiation scenarios; negotiation dynamics, strategy, and tactics; agreement implementation; and the role of economic and psychological incentives and constraints, and other factors like force, culture, and power. The course draws on exercises and simulations, as well as classroom discussions of readings and real-world cases. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

IRDP 372 (POLS 372) – International Organizations/Case Studies
A study of the United Nations and other international and transnational organizations through the analysis of selected cases. The focus on peacekeeping, economic development, human rights themes will enlarge the student’s understanding of global politics. Preparation for the Model UN conference begins in this course. The course will be offered in the fall semester and is a prerequisite for IRDP 373 (POLS 373) – International Organizations/Model UN. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

IRDP 373 (POLS 373) – International Organizations/Model UN
This course involves participation in the National Model United Nations. Each spring, colleges and universities send delegations of students to represent countries in a series of meetings modeled after those held by the United Nations. Preparation is extensive. It involves thorough studies of the country to be represented; the United Nations; delegate behavior; and, especially, the past actions of the delegations to be represented. The course culminates in a five-day stay in New York, during which time the Mercy delegation participates in meetings in or near U.N. headquarters. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Prerequisite: IRDP 372 (POLS 372)

IRDP 420 International Security: Risks, Crises, and Conflicts
This course is an introduction to international security problems, their root causes, and approaches to addressing those causes and the problems they bring about. The problems discussed include interstate and intrastate violence and conflict; terrorism; nuclear and arms proliferation; illicit trade and piracy; cybersecurity violations; human rights violations; displaced persons and refugees; and humanitarian emergencies. Root causes discussed include economic causes (developmental inequality and poverty), social and cultural causes (corruption; failed states; cultural and religious differences), and natural causes (water, food, and energy scarcity; global and public health challenges; environmental challenges). In addition to solutions designed to address root causes, a variety of traditional security measures are discussed, including risk assessment and intelligence; diplomacy and international governance; disarmament and arms control; military action; and peacekeeping. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

EXPERIENTIAL COMPONENT COURSES
International Relations and Diplomacy Experiential Component Courses are open only to students pursuing this major concentration. The ‘1’ or ‘2’ at the end of the course number indicates the fall or spring version of the course.

IRDP 431, IRDP 432 Experiential Component: Study Abroad
This course assigns credit in the International Relations and Diplomacy major for study abroad, and thereby satisfies the experiential learning requirement for the major. Students taking IRDP 431 or 432 pursue an approved course of study in a foreign-based institution of higher learning. Study abroad promotes global learning by building globalization knowledge, skills, and abilities. Students become global citizens through classroom experiences in a foreign university, and through daily exposure to a different culture. Over the course of their study abroad, students develop expertise on foreign perspectives on international relations and other domains. There are no prerequisite courses; however, students are required to seek approval at least one semester in advance of pursuing both (a) study abroad and (b) this option for fulfilling the experiential component requirement for the major. Credits are granted for this course in accordance with articulation designated by the instructor of record, in consultation with the student, the IRDP program director or SSBS Dean, the Registrar, any external party providing the experiential framework, and the Center for Global Engagement. Students are required to attend all classes for which they are registered, and the Mercy College attendance policy will apply to all such classes, except where there is a conflict with an external host institution, in which instance such conflicts will be resolved in consultation with the instructor, program director or SSBS dean, and registrar. 6 crs. (3 crs. each)

IRDP 441, IRDP 442 Experiential Component: Model UN
This course assigns credit in the International Relations and Diplomacy major for advanced structured participation in the Model UN team of Mercy College, and thereby satisfies the experiential learning requirement for the major. At Model UN conferences, student-delegates gain insight into the workings of the United Nations by assuming the roles of UN representatives and simulating the resolution of vital global issues. Students prepare for participation in a Model UN conference by conducting research on the nation they are representing and its foreign and international policies, crafting position papers, and training for debate in United Nations forums. The Model UN course builds knowledge, skills, and abilities for careers related to diplomacy and the work of non-governmental organizations. Students learn about the regional and global relations of the nations they represent, the dynamics of negotiation, and the arts of rhetoric and persuasion. In their participation on the Model UN team, students develop expertise on international relations from diplomatic perspectives and in the working context of international organizations. IRDP 372 / POLS 372 (International Organizations / Case Studies) and IRDP 373 (POLS 373) International Organizations / Model UN is a prerequisite for this course. Students are required to seek approval at least one semester in advance of pursuing this option for fulfilling the experiential component requirement for the major. Credits are granted for this course in accordance with articulation designated by the instructor, in consultation with the student and the IRDP program director or SSBS dean. 6 crs. (3 crs. each)

IRDP 451, IRDP 452 Experiential Component: University For Peace
This course assigns credit in the International Relations and Diplomacy major for study at the University for Peace (Costa Rica), and thereby satisfies the experiential learning requirement for the major. Students pursue an approved course of study at the University for Peace, a UN-chartered institution of higher learning. Study at the University for Peace promotes global learning by building globalization knowledge, skills, and abilities. Students become global citizens through classroom experiences in a foreign-based, international university, and through daily exposure to a different culture. Over the course of their study at the University for Peace, students develop expertise on global perspectives on international relations and other domains. There are no prerequisite courses; however, students are required to seek approval at least one semester in advance of pursuing both (a) study at the University for Peace and (b) this option for fulfilling the experiential component requirement for the major. Credits are granted for this course in accordance with articulation designated by the instructor, in consultation with the student, the IRDP program director or SSBS dean, the registrar, the University for Peace, and the Center for Global Engagement. Students will attend all classes for which they are registered, and the Mercy College attendance policy will apply to all such classes, except where there is a conflict with University for Peace policy, in which instance such conflicts will be resolved in consultation with the instructor, program director or SSBS dean, and registrar. 6 crs. (3 crs. each)

IRDP 461, IRDP 462 Experiential Component: Service Learning Externship
This course assigns credit in the International Relations and Diplomacy major for a service learning externship, and thereby satisfies the experiential learning requirement for the major. Students pursue an externship working with either local service organizations (for example, serving immigrant communities in the New York area) or non-governmental organizations with a global scope (such as Doctors Without Borders), coupled with traditional classroom instruction. This service learning experience promotes global learning in a local framework, by building knowledge, skills, and abilities relevant to a globalizing world. Students enhance their global understanding through practical work — either directly, with communities from other countries; or indirectly, through work with organizations focused on critical global issues. Over the course of their externship, students develop expertise on interactions across cultures and global problems, whether concerning international migration and integration or other issues of significance for international relations (such as health, education, resources, or human rights). Students gain a strong working understanding of the organizations where they pursue their externship, particularly as regards their mission, management practices, and relationships to communities, governments, and international organizations. Students are expected to evaluate the mission, service delivery, and overall success of their host organizations. There are no prerequisite courses; however, students are required to seek approval at least one semester in advance of pursuing this option for fulfilling the experiential component requirement for the major. Credits are granted for this course in accordance with articulation designated by the instructor of record, in consultation with the student, the IRDP program director or SSBS dean, the registrar, any external party providing the experiential framework, and the Center for Global Engagement. A minimum of 120 hours of fieldwork for the semester is required for 6 credits. A maximum of 12 credits of fieldwork is allowed toward degree program. Students meet in small groups with faculty on a regular basis. 6 crs. (3 crs. each)

IRDP 471, IRDP 472 Experiential Component Alternative: Capstone Project
This course is a capstone project for the International Relations and Diplomacy major, and serves as a substitute for the experiential learning component of the major. Students work with the instructor to design a capstone project that draws upon knowledge and skills that the students have attained throughout their International Relations and Diplomacy courses, and explore a new topic or synthesizes their understanding of the domain. The capstone project provides students with the opportunity to exhibit skills learned during their program of study, which may help them prepare for a career related to international relations. Students utilize critical thinking and communication skills in synthesizing previous course work and extending and developing original ideas. Over the course of the capstone project, students articulate insights from their courses in International Relations and demonstrate a capacity for independent research, critical analysis, or reflective assessment of a central issue in international relations or diplomacy studies. There are no prerequisite courses; however, students are required to seek approval at least one semester in advance of pursuing this option for satisfying the experiential component requirement. Credits are granted for this course as designated by the instructor, in consultation with the student and the IRDP program director or SSBS dean. 6 crs. (3 crs. each)

The managing of a sales force including sales organization; sales force recruitment, selection, and training; compensation, supervision, and motivation of the sales organization; sales planning; sales analysis and control. Prerequisites: MKTG 225; MKTG 220. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MKTG 380–381 Workplace Experience in Marketing, I and II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in Marketing include corporations, small businesses, non-profit organizations. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Career Services department approval required. Open Elective credit only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MKTG 399 (FINC 399, INBU 399, MGMT 399, MKTG 399, SPMG 399) Internship in Business
Students majoring in business are given an opportunity to supplement classroom learning with on-the-job experience. The School assists students in finding appropriate compensated opportunities and insuring that the actual work is a meaningful supplement to the classroom experience. Prerequisites: Completion of 60 credits, a minimum GPA in the major of 3.0 and the approval of the chair of undergraduate business. This course may not be used as a major level business course. Open elective credit only. 3 crs.
MKTG 440 Marketing Research
The design, implementation, and analysis used by marketing research is discussed. Market identification, surveys, sampling procedures, sales parameters, product and consumer information are topics that are investigated. Prerequisites: ECON 125; MGMT 225; MKTG 220. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MKTG 442 Marketing Management
This course is concerned with the theory and policy of the marketing manager and will include topics in promotion, distribution, pricing, and product management. Cases, together with a computer-based marketing simulation exercise, will be used to develop decision-making skills. Prerequisites: ENGL 125, ECON 125, MGMT 225, MKTG 220. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MKTG 445 Market Assessment
This course examines market structures and marketing research techniques that are used to identify and assess opportunities. Students use these techniques to assess markets, select products or services to meet the needs of targeted customers, and develop appropriate marketing strategies. The course emphasizes the value of making connections between fields in order to identify market trends. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Opened only to Organizational Management students.)

MKTG 450 Applied Research Analysis in Marketing
This senior-level course is the marketing capstone for those students specializing in marketing. The course examines market structures and marketing research techniques that are used to identify and assess opportunities. Students use these techniques to assess markets, select products or services, meet the needs of targeted customers, and develop appropriate marketing strategies. The course emphasizes the value of making connections between fields in order to identify market trends. Prerequisites: ENGL 112; MKTG 344; INBU 375; MKTG 348; MKTG 440. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Students should complete 3 of their specialization courses before registering for MKTG 450.

MATHEMATICS

Students enrolling in mathematics courses must earn at least a letter grade of C in all prerequisite courses except for MATH 115 and MATH 120. MATH 116 requires a minimum grade of B as a prerequisite.

Students taking MATH 120, 131, 231, 317, 327, and 329 will have to spend substantial time outside of class working with computers.

MATH 105 Mathematics Concepts and Applications
An introduction to the power and utility of mathematics; relating mathematics to the real world in a setting of problem-solving challenges. Practical applications of estimation and arithmetic, algebra, geometry, trigonometry, graphing, and introductory statistics. Calculators will be used. Prerequisite: Mathematics placement exams. 4 sem. hrs. 2 hrs. Math Lab per week. 4 crs.

MATH 113 Geometry for Graphic Design
Students will learn geometry concepts needed to understand computer graphics and to use intelligently the available software tools. They will learn how to fix the position of a pixel on the computer screen using the screen coordinate system, how to find the closest point to a given point, middle point of two given points, and the centroid of a set of points. The students will know how to describe the elementary geometrical shapes, rectangles, ovals, and polygons in two dimensions, and spheres and parallelepipeds in three dimensions. They will also be introduced to basic properties: center, area, surface area, and volume. The behavior of the graphic shapes under translation, rotation, reflection, and scaling will be explained. Students will learn how to draw shapes satisfying certain constraints, like making a picture the mirror image of another. Prerequisites: MATH 105 and CISC / MATH 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
MATH 115 Mathematics for the Liberal Arts
This course in an introduction to mathematical applications in the real world as they relate to the liberal arts, stressing logical thinking and problem solving. Topics include: mathematical ways of thinking, number sequences, functions and their graphs, counting methods, probability and statistics. Prerequisite: MATH 105 with a grade of C or better or by mathematics placement exams. 3 sem. hrs. 2 hrs. Math Lab per week. 3 crs.

MATH 116 College Algebra
This course is intended for business, computer, mathematics and science majors. Emphasis is placed on varied methods and manipulations. Algebraic techniques that have applications in the student’s anticipated area of specialization are studied. Topics will include: linear and quadratic equations; inequalities; graphing; polynomials; factoring; operations with rational and irrational expressions; systems of linear equations and others. Prerequisite: MATH 105, a minimum grade of B, mathematics placement exams or MATH 115. 3 sem. hrs. 2 hrs. Math Lab per week. 3 crs.

MATH 192 College Algebra
This course is the honor class version of MATH 116. It is intended for business, computer, mathematics and science majors. Emphasis is placed on varied methods and manipulations. Algebraic techniques that have applications in the student’s anticipated area of specialization are studied. Topics will include: linear and quadratic equations; inequalities; graphing; polynomials; factoring; operations with rational and irrational expressions; systems of linear equations and others like trigonometry. The exercises and labs are more comprehensive. Prerequisite: MATH 105, a minimum grade of B, mathematics placement exams. Students should consult honor program director, or their advisors, or math program head before enroll the class. 3 sem. hrs. 2 hrs. Math Lab per week. 3 crs.

MATH 120 (CISC 120) Introduction to Computers and Application Software
An introduction to computers and computing including the history of computers, the role of computers in a technological society, descriptions of computers and associated hardware, binary and hexadecimal number systems, and the use of a word processor, spreadsheet and database as tools in problem solving. Prerequisite: MATH 105 or placement at MATH 115 or MATH 116 level and ENGL 109 level or division approval. (There is a Division placement test for a waiver of this course.) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MATH 122 (ECON 122) Statistics
A survey of statistical material and techniques, with special reference to economic and business data. Methods of collecting, charting, and analyzing statistical data; frequency distributions; introduction to discrete probability; normal curve analysis; introduction to hypothesis testing and confidence intervals; linear regression and correlation; index numbers. Prerequisites: MATH 115 or 116, and CISC/MATH 120 and placement at the ENGL 109 level. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MATH 125 Mathematics for the Sciences
This course is an introduction to the mathematical applications used in chemistry and biology. It is required of students registered for General Chemistry I (CHEM 160) and Foundations of Chemistry (CHEM 122) unless they can demonstrate knowledge of this content by passing a placement exam. Topics include: exponential and logarithmic functions, significant figures, scientific notation, the SI system and metric conversions, the application of the quadratic formula to acid-base calculations, and graphical analysis of data using curve-fitting software. Statistical methods of data analysis used in chemistry and biology will be introduced. Methods of collecting, graphing and analyzing statistical data, normal curve analysis, use of confidence intervals, and linear regression analysis will be explored. Prerequisite: MATH 116 or the equivalent. 2 hrs. lect., 2 hrs. lab. 3 crs.

MATH 131 (CISC 131) Foundations of Computing I
An introduction to the fundamental concepts of object-oriented programming, including classes, objects, and basic program control flow statements. Using the programming language, Java, students are introduced to principles of software design and reuse. Prerequisites: CISC/MATH 120 and MATH 116 or departmental approval. 2 sem. hrs. 2 hrs. lab. 3 crs.
MATH 201 Precalculus
An introduction to real-valued functions and their graphs including polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic, and trigonometric functions. Functions will be represented symbolically, numerically, graphically, and verbally. Real-world applications will be used to introduce the concepts. Graphing calculators will be used throughout the course. Prerequisite: MATH 116 or a minimum grade of B in high school intermediate algebra. 2 sem. hrs. 2 hrs. lab, 3 crs.

MATH 212 Calculus for Business and the Life Sciences
A course in calculus for pharmacy, business, and social science majors. Analytic geometry, derivatives, the definite integral, exponential and logarithmic functions, applications. Students who wish to take MATH 260 and MATH 261 will need MATH 212. Prerequisite: MATH 201 or the equivalent. 4 sem. hrs. 4 crs.

MATH 231 (CISC 231) Foundations of Computing II
This course continues the exploration of fundamental concepts of object-oriented programming using the programming language, Java. Students are introduced to the principles of computer science, as well as elementary file input/output and exception handling and GUI. Prerequisite: MATH/CISC 131 or departmental approval. 2 sem. hrs. 2 hrs. lab. 3 crs.

MATH 244 Discrete Structures
Introduction to the mathematical foundation of computer science. Logic, set theory, switching circuits, Boolean algebra, finite state machines, induction, combinatorics, graphs and trees are some of the topics that will be covered. Prerequisite: MATH 201. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Offered in fall and summer semesters.)

MATH 248 Research Design and Statistics
An introduction to research design, experimental method and thesis development, including: the logic and nature of research design; the basic concepts in the experimental process, such as hypotheses, sampling, control and statistical analyses. Literature review and the statistical method are applied to independent projects, as are data collection, data description and data analysis (with statistical software, e.g., SPSS for Windows), presentation skills, use of on-line professional data-bases, and use of the Internet. Students are sensitized to the rights of participants in research. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Permission of McNair Scholars Program Director Required.

MATH 260 Calculus I
A review of elementary functions using numerical, graphical and algebraic techniques; limits; derivative and its definition; interpretation of derivatives and their application to problems of optimization. Particular emphasis is given to the use of technology to understand the concepts and to solve real-world problems. Prerequisite: MATH 201 or the equivalent. 4 sem. hrs. 4 crs. (Offered in fall and summer semesters.)

MATH 261 Calculus II
The definite integral, its definition and interpretation; antiderivatives; The Fundamental Theorem of Calculus; techniques of integration; numerical methods; improper integrals; applications of the integral to problems to real-world problems; a brief introduction to ordinary differential equations. Prerequisite: MATH 260. 4 sem. hrs. 4 crs. (Offered in spring semester.)

MATH 307 Number Theory
This course covers divisibility theory in the integers, prime numbers, congruences, some number theoretic functions, and Diophantine equations. The material is especially useful for students interested in teaching high school mathematics. Prerequisite: MATH 201. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Offered in spring semester.)

MATH 315 Linear Algebra
Vector spaces; matrices; algebra of matrices; systems of linear equations; linear transformations in vector spaces; characteristic vectors and roots; similarity; congruence; bilinear and quadratic forms. Prerequisite: MATH 260. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Offered in the fall semester.)
MATH 327 Computer Graphics
Introduction to the principles behind the science of computer graphics; fundamental graphics algorithms techniques with emphasis on algorithms suitable for raster display devices; representation and transformations of objects in two and three dimensions; clipping; projections; ray tracing; color and shading. Prerequisites: MATH 260 and MATH/CISC 231. 3 sem. hr. 3 crs. (Offered in spring semester.)

MATH 329 Numerical Analysis
Solutions of equations and systems; interpolation and approximation; numerical integration; curve fitting; solutions of ordinary differential equations; Monte Carlo methods; computer applications. Prerequisite: CISC/MATH 131. Corequisite: MATH 261. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Offered in spring semester.)

MATH 350 Probability: Theory and Applications
Combinatorial methods; discrete and continuous probability; probability distributions and densities; excepted value and moments; special probability distributions and densities. Prerequisite: MATH 261. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Offered in fall and summer semesters.)

MATH 351 Statistics: Theory and Applications
Descriptive statistics; sampling distributions; point and interval estimation; hypothesis testing, theory and applications; regression and correlation. Prerequisite: MATH 261; 350 or departmental approval. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Offered in spring semester.)

MATH 360 Calculus III
Functions of several variables; partial derivatives; multiple integrals; infinite series; vector calculus. Prerequisite: MATH 261. 4 sem. hrs. 4 crs. (Offered in fall semester.)

MATH 362 Differential Equations
An introduction to the study of ordinary differential equations. Topics include: first order linear equations, higher order equations, method of undetermined coefficients and variation of parameters, Laplace transform, power series solutions, Fourier Series and solution of partial differential equations by the method of separation of variables. Prerequisite: MATH 261. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Offered in fall semester.)

MATH 365 Algebraic Structures
This course introduces the student to the major topics of group theory and it also includes an introduction to rings and integral domains. Some of the group theory topics that are covered are permutations, cyclic groups, direct products, isomorphisms, normal subgroups and homomorphisms. Prerequisite: MATH 315. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Offered in spring semester.)

MATH 380–381 Workplace Experience in Mathematics I, II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in Math include corporations, small businesses, nonprofit organizations and schools. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Career Services department approval required. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MATH 395 Special topics in Mathematics
A special area of mathematics depending on student interest. Topics include applied mathematics; point-set topology; history of mathematics; complex variables, differential equations; number theory; geometry. Prerequisite: Variable depending on topic. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Offered in spring semester.)

MATH 397 Independent Study in Mathematics
Individual projects or readings undertaken in a specific area of Mathematics. Registration with the permission of the Instructor, the Department Chairperson, and the Associate Dean for Academic Administration. Prerequisite: Variable depending on topic. 3 crs.
MATH 417 Mathematical Modeling
This is the capstone course for the math majors. It integrates all the mathematical concepts learned in earlier courses to solve real-world problems. Aspects of model construction and selection will be taught along with the analysis of existing models. Topics may include: discrete dynamical systems; model fitting, simulation models; continuous optimization models; and probabilistic models. Prerequisites: CISC/MATH 231 and MATH 350 or MATH 360. (Offered in spring semester.)

MATH 460–461 Advanced Calculus I, II
A systematic, rigorous approach to calculus. Topics include: the real number system, limits, continuity, differentiability, integration theory, and point set theory. Prerequisite: MATH 360. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. per sem.

MEDIA STUDIES

Media Studies is a comprehensive program that provides students the opportunity to study journalism, radio and television production, and film as a method of interpreting culture. Analytical, technical, and practical skills are gained through academic course work, hands-on studio application, and internships with local media outlets.

ENGL 111 is a prerequisite for all media studies courses except MEDA 145, 240, 275, and all radio and television production courses.

MEDA 110 Radio Production I
This is a basic techniques course for the disc-jockey, newscaster, interviewer, and commercial announcer. Hands-on training provided with broadcast quality consoles, turntables, microphones, cartridge and open reel tape machines, patch panels; a survey of FCC rules and regulations required for many entry-level positions in radio. Studio lab hours assigned. Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 115 Fundamentals of Television Production
A theory, practice and production course in which students learn the basics of television production in a multi-camera, television studio setting. Discussed are the history and origination of TV, the organizations and business environment in which TV occurs, such as the FCC, networks and affiliate relationships, "above" and "below the line" personnel; program and script formats, basic aesthetic and technical lighting and sound principles, introduction to lenses and the basic principles of shot composition and framing. Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 120 Television Studio Production
Through lecture, demonstration and practice, a survey of the principles and techniques of television production and the application of this knowledge through 2–4 minute scenes produced by students; feedback and evaluation of videotapes by peers and teachers. Lectures, planning sessions, and studio hours; roles of producers and directors; control room, cameras, lighting, audio and other technical apparatus; roles of crew members; script writing; graphics; set design; television acting; practical application of lecture material in the form of program tapings. Prerequisite: MEDA 115. Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 130 News Reporting I
This is a basic course dealing with the fundamentals of news reporting and writing, covering the work, goals, skills, and responsibilities of the professional journalist. Emphasis is placed on news structure, writing leads, and news style. Attention is also given to feature writing and techniques of interviewing. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 132 Copy Editing and Layout
A course designed to familiarize students with the skills of a copy editor, including editing for accuracy, news value, style, and grammar. Attention is also given to newspaper layout, headline and caption writing, and photo scaling and cropping. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
MEDA 134 The Feature Article I
This course covers the fundamentals of writing feature articles of newspaper length. Close attention is given to organization, style, human interest, the use of quotes, leads, etc., as applied to profiles, sidebars and service articles. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 145 Media in America
This is a course that traces the history and development of newspapers, wire services, magazines, radio, television and broadcast networks. Students discuss the trends and current problems in media as well as the role of advertisers, media owners and the public in affecting the content of the media. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 145 (COMM 154) Publicity Writing
This course covers the variety of persuasive writing forms and techniques used by the public relations professional to invite media coverage of corporate/client events and activities, to promote awareness and use of products and services, and to encourage consumer/audience support of corporate issues. Students will learn how to prepare press releases, pitch letters, press kits, public service announcements and copy for brochures and promotional materials.
Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 200 television Performance
This is a course that emphasizes interviewing on camera, talk show hosting, acting for television commercials, ad-libbing and the production of a television audition tape. 3 sem., hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 201 Interviewing Techniques for Today's Media Students will learn interviewing strategies for self-evaluation and critique. Lessons and assignments focus on interviewing techniques used by reporters in radio, Television, print and Internet information gathering. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 209 Film and Culture
An overview; what is film? Is it a product of the film industry or an expression of a collaborative team of creators? What can we learn from history? There will be a discussion of who made the movies and who censored them; introduction to ethnic, class and gender perspectives on the movies. Introduction to the development of film genres and the traditions associated with special types of storytelling. There will be an introduction to the basics of writing about film and attention given to formal analysis. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 210 Advanced Radio Production
Development of skills in recording and editing techniques, preparing and airing shows, timing and formats. Emphasis on developing capable and responsible communicators, producers, and engineers; interpretation of radio copy; remote broadcasting, microphone principles, and the radio broadcast team; auditions for possible assignment to “on-air” shifts and staff positions in production, engineering and management at the campus radio station. Studio lab hours assigned. Prerequisite: MEDA 110. Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 211 The Language of Film
The poetics of film: Close reading techniques; advanced study and application of the essential vocabulary of film study. Advanced study in reading and interpretation of the film frame, editing strategies; formalists and realist codes of cinematic expression. Attention to the history/development of filmic vocabulary and techniques. Attention to cultural variations. *Prerequisite:
ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 212 Violence and the Quest for Freedom in Hollywood Western
This course is dedicated to one of the first and most representative American film genres. Horses, Indians, cowboys, guns, and epic fights: why do we love them? The will be an examination of the aesthetic, psychological, gender and semiotic implications of the genre; introduction to major texts, directors, and stars central to its creation. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
MEDA 213 Studios, Stars, and Spectacle in Hollywood’s golden Age, 1930–1950
This course offers an in-depth study of the formative years of Hollywood as the film capital of the world; the rise of institutional glamour, the star system, the “Hollywood” story and the Hollywood production system. This in-depth historical study is of the major directors, stars, and genres and developments in cinematic language and technique of the period; may include the work and influences of Greta Garbo, Humphrey Bogart, Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, and Frank Capra. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 214 The Dark Genres: Film Noir, Science Fiction, Horror, and the Gangster Film
Who knows what evil lurks in the hearts of men? Hollywood developed a number of special kinds of storytelling traditions that answered the question. Suspense, outer space, the supernatural, and crime all became metaphors for our worst secrets and nightmares. Study the psychology, aesthetics, gender and racial issues involved in the traditional Hollywood choices of image, stars, music, and stories for its dark genre. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 215 Video Editing Workshop
Developing and producing videotape programs. Electronic Field Production (EFP) with post-production editing in studio; emphasis on creative approaches to assigned projects and on development of major skills of planning, writing, and advanced arrangements for remote set-ups. Prerequisite: MEDA 115. Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 220 Advanced Television Production
A more detailed study of the areas introduced in Television Studio Production. Set design, lighting, script writing, engineering, hardware, costumes, make-up, props, special effects, graphics and film for television. Prerequisite: MEDA 120. Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 221 Masters of Film: Griffith, Welles, and Hitchcock
An introductory investigation of the careers and works of three giants of film history: D.W. Griffith, Orson Welles, and Alfred Hitchcock. Attention will be paid to the historical era of each director and to how each contributed to the dominant cinematic style of their own day; their influences upon contemporaries as well as filmmakers who followed; their personal artistic visions and the implications of their works for psychological, gender, genre and cultural studies. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 222 Newspaper Publication Practicum I
This course is dedicated to the ongoing development and assembly of materials intended for publication of the College newspaper. Students will introduce story ideas, report, write, and edit stories intended for this purpose. Students will contribute to the layout process, overall organization of items as they would appear in the publication, and budgeting needs. Prerequisites: MEDA 130 News Reporting I or MEDA 134 Feature Article I. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 231 Propaganda
This course focuses on the development, principles, techniques, and results of mass persuasion from its beginnings in ancient civilizations to its transformation in the modern technological society. Students study mass persuasion and political propaganda in war and peace, with emphasis on its impact on current-day political affairs. Through readings, viewing of films, and emphasis on its impact on current-day political affairs; through readings, viewing of films and videotapes, examination of graphic and print materials and class discussions, our objective is to hone our critical reasoning to identify semantic and perceptual techniques used for mass persuasion. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 232 News Reporting II
A continuation of the basic news reporting techniques learned in Reporting I, but with an emphasis on drills, fieldwork, and more advanced concepts. Students learn how stories are planned and then write news copy under newsroom conditions. The course also provides practical experience in preparing for, arranging, and conducting an interview. In addition to reporting techniques, attention is given to journalism ethics and responsibility. Prerequisite: MEDA 130. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
MEDA 233 Film and Gender
Is there a woman in this movie or just a cultural fantasy? Is the hero forceful or sadistic? Selected film that highlight gender issues. Attention to the gender implications of cinematic language (film frame, sound, shot patterns, narrative structure); introduction to the major texts of gender criticism from, Laura Mulvey, 1977, to the present. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 234 The Feature Article II
Using the basics learned in The Feature Article I, students research and write more advanced nonfiction articles with an emphasis on having their work published. In addition to refining writing style and technique, this course studies the magazine marketplace and the method of selecting the right article idea for the right magazine. Prerequisite: MEDA 134. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 235 Screen Comedy and Clowns
The first films ever made included comedies; the world needs to laugh, but comedy gives more than pleasure; it is also a cultural escape valve, allowing us to “joke” about forbidden subjects; study of stars and directors who made the world’s great films comedies; screening of great comedies from the golden days of silent films, through screwball comedy, the social comedies of the 1940s and 1950s, and the liberation comedies of the 1960s and 1970s to present. Discussion of the way comedy permits us to talk about race, gender, and class; discussion of the relationship between comedy and the unconscious. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 240 Magazine Editing and Production
A course designed to develop skills in all aspects of editorial and art magazine production. It includes practical training and instruction in editorial work such as editing, proofreading, makeup, type-spec, and headline and caption writing. Attention is given to the art side of production: the interrelationship between art and editorial, choosing art, design, print and layout. This class also examines the historical development of magazines in America. Prerequisite: MEDA 130. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 246 (SPCM 246) Elements of Theatre
Students are taught to appreciate the many elements that come together to create the total theatre experience. Beginning with the cultural impulses toward theatrical expression, through the development of written texts, the spoken word, acting and movement, the use of color, lighting, and the stage space and extending to the aftermath of performance to reviews, students will recognize the multi-dimensional, multi-layered nature of the theatrical event. They will be introduced to the responsibilities of the actor, the director, and the critic in this exploration of theatre production and its all-important audience. Attendances at professional and amateur performances supplement the classroom experience. 3 sem.; hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 251 Sports Reporting
This is a specialized course in sports writing and reporting. Students learn the mechanics in covering sporting events and in preparing articles for a newspaper format. Attention is also given to certain dynamics in sports reporting; the relationship between reporter and sports personality; the function of the “beat” reporter; and the reporter’s responsibilities in dealing with the business arm of the sports establishment. Prerequisite: MEDA 130. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 252 The Practice of Public Relations
A course designed to provide an understanding of public relations in our society: how it is planned, produced and evaluated. The key types of communication required for productive public relations are examined. Weekly writing assignments are required to develop familiarity with the practices of professional public relations. As a final project, students will develop a campaign program, create appropriate materials for the press, and become familiar with the scope of communication channels available for effective public relations. Prerequisite: MEDA / COCM 154. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 253 European Trends in Film
This class offers the rich traditions of the national film industries across the Atlantic; analysis of the complication love-hate relationship between French, British, Italian, German, Russian, Spanish, Scandinavian cinema and Hollywood. (Other European works may be included.) There will be an introduction to historically important directors, stars, and films. Prerequisite: ENGL 111.3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 255 Creative Advertising
A hands-on course that first examines the functions of advertising and how advertising is created, then has students write, develop, and produce advertising scripts for television and radio. The course also provides students with a behind-the-scenes look at corporate advertising. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 258 Fundamentals of Writing for Film and Television
This course is about the basic craft of storytelling for the screen; traditional dramatic structure in a visual medium. Issues addressed include the premise, dialogue, characterization, and narrative plot structure. Class work will include workshop discussion of short writing exercises, the examination of professional scripts, and discussion of exemplary professional films. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 261 (LAWS 261) Free Speech, Media and the Law
This course explores the shifting relationship between free expression and media technologies. From a philosophical and legal foundation, it immerses students into the technological, social and cultural issues surrounding the First Amendment, including privacy rights, pornography, copyright and libel. The course challenges students by posing a critical question: Are there any forms of free speech that should be restricted? If so, which ones - and who decides? 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 262 (SPCM 262) Introduction to Acting
Students explore the basis of acting in the reality of doing. The course aims to facilitate an encounter between the student-actor and those personal impulses that happen within the collaborative framework of the classroom-theater. Emphasis is placed upon gaining an understanding of the actor’s primary instrument for performance, himself, while developing a basic technique for working within the context of a theatrical performance. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 263 (SPCM 263) Scene Study
Provides opportunity for students to learn and practice the skills actors need in order to live truthfully, moment-to-moment in the given imaginary circumstances of a scene. Scenes from the classics and from contemporary dramatists will be studied. Prerequisite: SPCM262/ MEDA 262 or permission of instructor. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 275 (ARTT 275) Photojournalism
This course consists of two principal components: a historical or topical survey of approaches to photojournalism in newspapers and magazines from the time of the perfection of the halftone process to the present; field assignments involving coverage of local events and, where possible or appropriate, part-time work on a local newspaper or magazine. Students must supply their own digital cameras. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 282 (SPCM 282) Play Directing
Students experience first-hand the process of directing theatrical productions from conception through completion while assimilating the principles that control the manner of their art and craft. 3 sem.; 3 crs.

MEDA 295 Topics in Media Studies
A special course offered on an occasional basis in response to special student and faculty interests in the field of film/culture, journalism and radio and television. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 303 Broadcast Journalism
Introduction to television news with emphasis on writing and producing “news packages” as seen on television news programs: on-camera stand-ups; sound on tape interviews (S.O.T.S.); reporter voice-overs; B-Roll; journalistic ethics; documentaries; editorials; interviews; formats; television; and cable newscasting technique. Prerequisites: ENGL 110, MEDA 215. Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 310 Media Ethics
This course asks students to make decisions about the myriad of ethical problems that confront professional journalists as they seek to report the news. Using a philosophical base, the ideas of Aristotle, Kant, Bentham and Mill, an array of ethical problems are posed - problems dealing with journalistic deception; right of privacy; conflicts of interest — and ethical strategies devised by which students can understand and then resolve these problems. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 311 Radio Journalism
This is a creative writing course for preparing and evaluating copy; spots, commercials, public service, promotion, drama, editorials, and documentaries. Prerequisites: MEDA 110, MEDA 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 321 Television Field Production
A course designed to have students work in teams to cover a variety of assignments in the field. The student will learn how to operate field equipment while working under specific deadline pressures. Prerequisite: MEDA 215. Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 333 Newspaper Publication Practicum II
Students will be expected to further develop and practice news reporting and feature writing skills while focusing on complex story assignments. Students are expected to integrate textbook reading, lab work, current events, class lecture and discussion into a cohesive understanding and practice of the reporting process. In addition, students perform layouts, sectional editing, sports, news, entertainment, etc. Students are responsible for updating the online version of the Impact. Prerequisite: MEDA 222. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 345 Journalism for the Web
Students will develop writing and reporting skills for Internet-based journalism. This course will challenge students to think analytically, to evaluate content based on printed material, and evaluate images and spoken words while considering journalistic styles and recognizing the demand for specialized internet-based news content. Students will learn how Internet journalism contrasts with radio, television and print journalism. They will assess the impact of Internet Journalism in comparison to methods and outcomes in traditional media. Prerequisites: MEDA 134 and MEDA 130. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 350 Video Documentary
An advanced-level production course that is a compilation of video editing, broadcast journalism, television field production and advanced television studio production. Students will study documentary making and produce documentaries in class. Prerequisites: MEDA 220 or MEDA 320. Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 359 Advanced Writing for Film and Television
This course is about storytelling for the screen; the use of basic visual and dramatic techniques to create short scripts. Issues addressed include use of the step outline and the treatment in drafting half hour film and television scripts. Class work will include workshop discussion of student scripts, examination of professional scripts. Prerequisite: MEDA 258. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 370 Understanding Media technology
This non-production media course focuses on the technology utilized in media communication. Designed for non-technical students, the course offers a comprehensive view of the technologies both past and present that enable today’s media: radio, television, satellite communications, and broadband. Through analytical reading, library and Web based research students will organize and write product and media production system overviews and present their work in class. Prerequisite: nine credits required in radio and/or television production. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 380–381 Workplace Experience in Media Studies I and II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students include corporations, non-profit organizations, magazines, radio and TV stations. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Career Services department approval required. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 385 Honors Media Studies: the Communication Revolution
The central question this course poses is: How has the Electronic Revolution affected American culture? Media Ecology examines modern media from various theoretical perspectives while tracing the origins of language and writing to the electronic age. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 386 Seminar in Media Criticism
This advanced course is based on the premise that our cultural values and system are largely shaped by media technologies. Students will examine the relationship between culture and media, as presented by popular and academic critics such as H.L. Mencken, Neil Postman, and George Orwell. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 387 the Problems of American Journalism
By stripping away the myths and assumptions made about “the news,” we may come to a deeper understanding about the way in which the journalist perceives the world and selects and writes the news. Using case studies, this seminar examines the problems of American Journalism from four perspectives: professional; historical; political; and technological. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 397 Independent Study in Media Studies
A self-directed course initiated, designed, and carried out by the student with the consultation and guidance of a faculty member to pursue some special interest in the media. 3 crs.

MEDA 399 Internship in Media Studies
The student is given the opportunity to supplement classroom studies with on-the-job experience in the field of media. The student works at a newspaper, radio station, or other media facility under employer supervision and reports regularly to a faculty member. Up to three internships are allowable totaling no more than nine credits. Prerequisite: 18 credits in Media Studies courses and permission of the Media Studies program director. 3–6 crs.

MEDA 400 Senior Seminar
Capstone course: advanced studies in theory. This course allows the intensive exploration of the problematic, profound rifts among the different schools of film theorists. This is an application of theorists to current first-run films and to problematic films in cinema history. Each student will produce a senior dissertation. Prerequisites: MEDA 209 and MEDA 211. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MUSIC

MUSI 101 Elements of Music
Students study the rudiments of music notation, basic musical vocabulary and beginning piano technique. Theoretical concepts include: intervals; major & minor scales; and the fundamental structure of music (melody, rhythm, harmony, form and texture). Open only to MTEC majors. 3 crs.

MUSI 103 Theory & Musicianship I
Students study scales, chord construction, harmonic progression and voice leading, while applying these concepts on the piano and through the analysis of the popular, jazz and classical music repertoire. Prerequisite: A basic understanding of music notation or MUSI 101. 3 crs.

MUSI 104 Theory & Musicianship II
A continuation of MUSI 103 with an introduction to composing and harmonizing a melody. Seventh chords, secondary dominant function and borrowed chords from the parallel key are introduced. Variations of minor key harmony are explored. Students apply these concepts on the piano with through simple compositions, voice leading exercises and analysis of various styles of music. Prerequisite: MUSI 103. 3 crs.

MUSI 107 Music Appreciation
This course serves as an introduction to the diverse styles and traditions of music of the world, drawing selectively on the United States, Western Europe, and other areas of the globe. It is within this context that the course aims to teach the fundamentals of listening, the basic elements of music, and the capacity to think critically about the nature of music in its vast cultural diversity. Directed listening, lectures, videos, and readings. 3 sem. hrs. Prerequisite: ENGL 110. 3 crs.

MUSI 195 Topics in Honors Music
This course will vary from year to year depending on student interest and concurrent honors program offerings. Subjects to be studied might include issues in the international music scene, comparisons of “art” music and popular music, western and non-western music, or music and political censorship. May replace General Education course MUSI 107. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MUSI 201 Theory & Musicianship III
A continuation of MUSI 104 with an introduction to more advanced compositional techniques. Concepts include: re-harmonization; harmonic sequence and modulation; modes; pentatonic scales; suspended chords; extended and altered chords; passing diminished chords. Students apply these concepts through piano exercises, short compositions and analysis. Prerequisite: MUSI 104. 3 crs.

MUSI 203 Theory & Musicianship IV
A continuation of MUSI 201 with an emphasis on applied composition and keyboard harmony. Students will analyze compositional techniques and the melodic and harmonic language that distinguishes various musical genres. Students will study arranging and orchestral techniques and compose a larger scale composition project based on their skill level and area of interest. Prerequisite: MUSI 201. 3 crs.

MUSI 218 History of Jazz
A survey of the major movements in jazz from Dixieland through Bop, including the avant garde movement of the late ’60s and early ’70s. Focus on the major jazz artists: Louis Armstrong, Charlie Parker, Miles Davis, and John Coltrane. A consideration of the social and psychological implications of jazz. Lectures, recordings, readings, and performances when possible. (Required for Jazz Specialization.) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MUSI 260 American Popular Music
A survey of American popular music since 1900 with an emphasis on the influence African Americans and Hispanics have had on its development. Analysis of musical styles and trends including their social and political significance and impact on society worldwide. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MUSI 295 Topics in Music
This course will vary from term to term, dealing with a subject not covered by existing courses. Topics can range from the intensive study of a single composer or work to the examination of a whole musical genre or milieu. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MUSIC INDUSTRY AND TECHNOLOGY

MTEC 100 Music Business I
An overview of the business aspects of creating, producing, distributing and marketing a musical product. Topics include copyright, publishing, licensing, royalties, performance rights organizations, producers, recording and production deals, recording studios and radio stations. Prerequisite: ENGL 111. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 101 Audio Production I
An introduction to fundamental audio theory and concepts including the physics of sound, analog to digital conversion, multi-track and hard-disc recording, signal flow, console operation and mixing. Students complete assigned mixing and recording projects in the Audio Lab. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 105 Introduction to Music Technology
A primer for those interested in the latest tools for music production. Students complete creative musical projects on individual workstations using the latest version of Apple’s GarageBand, and are also introduced to Apple Logic Pro and Pro Tools LE software. Topics include: acoustics, microphones, digital audio conversion, audio file formats, effects processing, and MIDI recording and editing within the software environment. Open to all majors. No musical experience necessary. No prerequisites. (Critical Inquiry, CINQ 101, and Intro to Computers, CISC 120 recommended), 3 crs.

MTEC 110 Electronic Music I
An introduction to the fundamental concepts and techniques of MIDI-based music production. Students learn basic techniques of computer-based MIDI sequencing and interfacing of related hardware using Emagic’s state-of-the-art Logic software. Students complete assigned projects in the Electronic Music Lab. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 200 Music Business II
A continuation of MTEC 100, this course provides the student producer, engineer or artist with a more detailed study of the various processes and legalities involved in the production and release of a musical product. Special attention is placed on starting a company and developing associated Web-based promotion and distribution. Prerequisite: MTEC 100. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 201 Audio Production II
A continuation of MTEC 101, students further develop their theoretical foundations and complete mixing and recording projects in the Digital Audio Lab. In addition, students are introduced to Digidesign’s Pro-Tools software. Prerequisite: MTEC 101. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 210 Electronic Music II
A continuation of MTEC 110, students continue to develop skills with MIDI sequencing using more advanced features of Logic software. In addition, students learn basic sound design editing skills using synthesizers in the Electronic Music Lab. Prerequisite: MTEC 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 220 Recording Studio Workshop I
Students develop skills associated with recording engineering in a recording studio environment. Topics include: studio acoustics, microphone techniques, headphone cue systems, alternate recording signal paths, external processors, set-up procedures, studio documentation, mixing and general recording studio protocol. Prerequisite: MTEC 201. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 225 Sound Reinforcement
This class explores the technical requirements, processes, and procedures necessary for remote recording and sound reinforcement. Topics include: pre-production, problems with varying acoustic environments, equipment set-up and power requirements for various location applications. Prerequisite: MTEC 220. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 230 Audio System Design and Installation
Students are introduced to audio system design and configuration including basic electronic theory and equipment maintenance. Topics include: audio system interfacing, studio wiring and installation. Prerequisite: MTEC 220. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 295 Topics in Music Technology
This course addresses special and specific topics beyond that which is covered within ordinary courses. The course will be offered on an occasional basis with varying topics as determined by student interest. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 301 Audio Production III
An overview of digital audio theory and applications. Students learn the principles of digital audio and develop skills in digital editing and processing using Digidesign’s Pro Tools software. Prerequisite: MTEC 201. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
MTEC 302 Audio Production IV<sup>(cc)</sup>
A continuation of Digital Audio Systems I, students further develop skills in digital editing and processing using Pro Tools software. Prerequisite: MTEC 301. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 310 Electronic Music III
Students explore advanced applications in computer-based music production. Topics include the integration of digital audio recording and processing with MIDI in Logic, and other MIDI software tools such as Propellerhead’s Reason software and Cycling ’74’s MAX/MSP. Students complete assigned projects in the Electronic Music Lab and prepare works for concert presentation. Prerequisite: MTEC 210. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 315 Electronic Music IV
Students study the theory and practice of sound synthesis. The course covers common types of synthesis, including subtractive, frequency-modulation, wavetable and granular synthesis methods. Students complete assigned projects in the Electronic Music Lab and prepare works for concert presentation. Prerequisite: MTEC 210. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 320 Recording Studio Workshop II
A continuation of Recording Studio Workshop I, with an emphasis on more complex recording and mixing techniques explored through full-length recording projects. The course includes a review of all audio concepts covered in previous classes in preparation for a comprehensive exam. Prerequisite: MTEC 220. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 325 Audio for Video
Overview of the theory and practice of audio production for video and other related visual media. Topics include: creative and practical concepts of sound design, the production process, multiple media formats and conversion, audio synchronization and time-code, techniques for creating, editing and mixing sound effects, dialogue and music for visual media using Pro Tools software. Prerequisite: MTEC 201. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 330 Recording Studio Production Techniques
An advanced course that focuses on the effective and creative use of the recording studio as a tool for music production. Topics include: advanced mixing, record mastering, signal processing, and special effects used for specific styles of music. Additional topics include project planning and time management in the recording studio. Students develop a portfolio by completing album-quality projects using facilities and techniques appropriate to their projects. Prerequisites: MTEC 301, 220, and 210. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 335 Survey of Music Production Styles
The course provides the student with an overview of the history and techniques used in music production of pop music since 1955. Special attention is paid to the principal record producers and innovative engineers, as well as landmark recordings of the era. Students write assigned papers and give short oral presentations of their research. Prerequisites: MTEC 201 and MTEC 210. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 340 Techniques of Underscoring
Students are introduced to the art of composing music for film and television. Topics include: a survey of music in film, the dramatic and psychological impact of music, stylistic considerations, timing and synchronization, acoustic and synthesized instruments, technology and production, the business aspects and licensing music for other visual media. Students score film scenes using MIDI workstations. Prerequisites: MTEC 210, MTEC 325 and MUSI 201. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 350 – Advanced Mixing and Editing
Students will develop advanced-level skills in aesthetic and technical aspects of music mixing and editing using Avid Pro Tools software integrated with studio hardware. This course will provide students with a deeper comprehension of mixing and editing tools and techniques applied to various styles and genres. Advanced concepts are covered related to a variety of signal processors, such as equalization, compression/limiting, reverb, delay, building tempo maps, plug-in automation, and multi-band processing. Students will learn to apply critical listening skills and equal emphasis will be placed on aesthetic and technical qualities of their mixes.

MTEC 397 Independent Study in Music Technology
This course is designed to allow highly self-motivated students to develop special skills and conduct advanced research in topics beyond those found among the regular course descriptions. Working closely with a faculty mentor, students pursue subjects in their particular field of interest via guided readings, research and project assignments. Prerequisite: GPA of 3.0, successful completion of at least 75 credits toward their degree, and approval of the program director. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MTEC 399 Internship in the Music Industry
Students perform supervised work at a company involved in the music industry. Students are required to keep a written log to document the tasks they perform and the skills they acquire. Upon culmination of the internship, students submit the log and a paper summarizing the experience. Prerequisite: GPA of 3.0, successful completion of at least 75 credits toward their degree, and approval of the program director. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

NURSING

NURS 200 Fundamentals of Nursing
This course introduces the student to basic nursing concepts. The emphasis is placed on scientific nursing practice, basic human needs, and the care of clients with diverse needs. Students are encouraged to examine issues central to contemporary nursing practice such as: wellness, health promotion, disease prevention, effective communication, ethical and holistic approach to nursing care. The nursing process is the organizing framework for the care provided to meet human needs. Students will develop a strong baseline of nursing knowledge and skills for future nursing practice. 6 credits; Lecture – 3 credits; Clinical/Simulation – 1 credit; Lab – 2 credits

NURS 220 Pharmacology for Nurses
This course examines pharmacotherapeutic agents used in the treatment of illness and the promotion, maintenance and restoration of wellness in diverse individuals across the lifespan. Emphasis is on the principles of pharmacokinetics, pharmacodynamics and pharmacogenetics in the treatment of selected illnesses. The focus is on concepts of safe administration and monitoring the effects of pharmacotherapeutic agents. Lab Description: This course will include lab experiences that will focus on concepts of safe administration and monitoring the effects of pharmacotherapeutic agents. Students will participate in case studies and hands on experiences to enhance the understanding and knowledge by applying the content. 3 credits; Lecture – 2 credits; Lab – 1 credit.

NURS 225 Pediatric & Parent Child Nursing
This course focuses on evidence-based nursing care of infants, children, adolescents and women, parents and newborns. Information from liberal arts, information technology and all courses in the nursing curriculum are applied to pediatric situations. Current therapies and interventions will be discussed and evaluated. Patient outcomes will be used to determine effectiveness of nursing care. Lab Description: This course will include lab experiences that will apply the concepts of evidence-based nursing care of infants, children, adolescents and women, parents and newborns. Students will participate in case studies and on experiences to enhance the understanding and knowledge by applying the content. 6 credits; Lecture – 3 credits; Clinical/Simulation – 2 credits; Lab – 1 credit

NURS 240 Medical Surgical Nursing I
This course focuses on selected health needs of adult clients and integrates physiologic, sociocultural and behavioral alterations throughout. A broad, scientific knowledge base is presented, with emphasis on prevention, caring, empowerment and critical thinking. Current nursing therapies for managing care of adults with pathophysiologic alterations are presented.
The nursing practicum is designed to provide students with opportunities to apply the nursing process in acute care settings. Lab Description: This course will include lab experiences that will apply the concepts of evidence-based nursing care of adults. Students will participate in case studies and hands on experiences to enhance the understanding and knowledge by applying the content. 6 credits; Lecture – 3 credits; Clinical/Simulation – 2 credits; Lab – 1 credit

NURS 241 Medical Surgical Nursing II
This course continues to focus on evidence-based nursing care of adult and geriatric clients. Information from liberal arts, information technology and all courses in the nursing curriculum are applied to complicated medical-surgical situations. Current therapies and interventions will be discussed and evaluated. Patient outcomes will be used to determine effectiveness of nursing care. Lab Description: This course will include lab experiences that will apply the concepts of evidence-based nursing care of adults. Students will participate in case studies and hands on experiences to enhance the understanding and knowledge by applying the content. 6 credits; Lecture – 3 credits; Clinical/Simulation – 2 credits; Lab – 1 credit

NURS 250 Psychiatric & Mental Health Nursing
This course focuses on human behaviors and alterations in those behaviors. Using theories to understand behaviors as well as communication and therapeutic use of self, students have the opportunity to learn in both didactic and clinical/lab settings. Lab Description: This course will include lab experiences that will apply the concepts of evidence-based nursing care of human behaviors and alterations in those behaviors. Students will participate in case studies and hands on experiences to enhance the understanding and knowledge by applying the content. 5 credits: Lecture – 3 credits; Clinical/Simulation – 2 credits

UPPER DIVISION NURSING COURSES

NURS 361 Contemporary Concepts in Professional Nursing
This course is designed to assist the practicing RN transition to the role of baccalaureate nursing student. Issues relevant to professional development and contemporary nursing practice are covered including: professional values; role development; ethical decision making; legal and regulatory processes; entry into practice; and historical perspectives. Students develop proficiency in academic essentials required for success in nursing education including: information literacy; critical thinking; organized writing; and delivering oral presentations. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

NURS 362 Transcultural Nursing (only required for some RN to BS completion students)
This course examines cultural aspects of health care. Transcultural issues include (but are not limited to) culture, religion, socioeconomic status, gender and sexual orientation. Examination of cultures includes the understanding that each encounter includes at least 3 cultures: that of nursing, the institution, and the client. An emphasis is placed on recognizing contemporary challenges and developing skills needed for the practice of professional nursing. Students develop the knowledge needed to provide culturally appropriate care. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

NURS 363 Nursing Research for Evidence-Based Professional Nursing
This course focuses on the research process in nursing as a component of evidence-based nursing practice. Students explore the research process and critique research studies for quality and application to professional nursing practice. Prerequisite: NURS 371. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

NURS 364 Nursing Informatics
This course examines information management and technological advances for practice of professional nursing care. The history of nursing informatics, health care information systems, patient privacy and financial considerations are examined. This course explores future directions in computerized integrated health care delivery system for the future. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.
NURS 365 Introduction to Health Policy
This course provides an overview of health policy and health economics. The legislative process and its impact on the development of policy at the local, state and national level will be discussed. Health economics are explored through discussions of financing. Students examine public and private payers both for-profit and not-for-profit. Uninsured and underinsured as well as impact of social class and culture as examined. International health policy and economics are discussed as a point of comparison and contrast. Key health policy issues are explored. 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs.

NURS 366 Leadership and Management
This course examines leadership concepts in the health care delivery system. Theories regarding leadership, management, power, chaos, change, influence, delegation, communication and empowerment are analyzed. Strategies for effective multidisciplinary collaboration are explored. Learning activities are directed toward the professional nurse’s development in developing power and expanding one’s sphere of influence. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs. This is a core course and it must be taken at Mercy College.

NURS 367 Pathophysiology and Clinical Reasoning for Nursing
Basic principles and processes are introduced early in the course, including descriptions of cellular biology; genes and genetic diseases; forms of cell injuries; fluids and electrolytes and acids and bases; immunity; and tumor biology. Knowledge of these processes is applied to the pathophysiology of common diseases. The presentation of each disease/disorder entity includes relevant risk factors, pathophysiology, clinical manifestations and a brief review of treatment. Clinical reasoning will be augmented by applying models for nursing clinical judgment to clinical case studies. Prerequisite: BIO 130, BIO 265. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

NURS 368 Health Assessment and Health Promotion
This course focuses on health assessment and health promotion. Students will develop the health assessment skills necessary for professional nursing practice. Weekly readings allow the student to synthesize theory and practice. Health promotion and disease prevention strategies are analyzed for use with various populations. Barriers to health communication are explored and students examine the issues that affect health behaviors. Case study methods are used. Prerequisite: NURS 367. 3 hrs. lect. 3 crs.

NURS 371 Statistics for Nurses
This course is an introduction to the major statistical methods used in summarizing, understanding and interpreting numerical data and research in nursing practice. The course covers a full range of descriptive and inferential statistics including: frequency distributions; measures of central tendency and variability; probability theory; the normal curve model; correlation; and a wide range of statistical tests such as the T test, F test, analysis of variance, and Chi-square. Prerequisite: Math 116. 3 crs.

NURS 397 Independent Study in Nursing
This course allows students to pursue an area of research or clinical practice. Permission of program director or designee required. 1–3 crs.

NURS 401A (RN-BS Completion and RN-BS-MS Programs): Community Health Nursing: Advocacy for Population Health
This course emphasizes advocacy of populations and addresses issues, trends, and patterns of health at local, national and international levels. By doing a thorough community assessment at assigned clinical sites, students will identify community problems and concerns. In collaboration with key persons at their clinical site, students will plan, implement, and evaluate an intervention specific to their clinical community. Nursing activities that promote the health of populations and that advocate for the marginalized will be stressed. Theories and principles of public health national policy and public health nursing will be analyzed and incorporated in both the didactic and clinical components of the course. This course includes 120 clinical hours. 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. clinical. 6 crs. Prerequisites: Must take at least three of the following courses at Mercy College: NURS 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, or 371.
NURS 401B (Generic Program): Community Health Nursing: Advocacy for Population Health
This course emphasizes advocacy of populations and addresses issues, trends, and patterns of health at local, national and international levels. By doing a thorough community assessment at assigned clinical sites, students will identify community problems and concerns. In collaboration with key persons at their clinical site, students will plan, implement, and evaluate an intervention specific to their clinical community. Nursing activities that promote the health of populations and that advocate for the marginalized will be stressed. Theories and principles of public health national policy and public health nursing will be analyzed and incorporated in both the didactic and clinical components of the course. This course includes 120 clinical hours. 3 hrs. lect., 3 hrs. clinical. 6 crs. Prerequisites: NURS 361, 362, 363, 365

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY ASSISTANT
No student may take an occupational therapy assistant course without first being admitted to the program.

OCTR 201 Occupational therapy Practice for the Assistant: An Overview
The foundations of the practice of occupational therapy will be explored via didactic and activity-based learning. Areas discussed include the history of the profession, occupational therapy philosophy, scope of practice, ethics, standards of practice and the Occupational Therapy Framework as well as cultural diversity and its impact on health care. Role delineation between the occupational therapy assistant and the occupational therapist are defined and students are introduced to the concept of professionalism. (Offered in Fall Semester only at Dobbs Ferry campus) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

OCTR 203 Occupational Therapy Practice for the Assistant: Therapeutic Modalities I
A practicum in the most current treatment modalities and standardized testing measurements commonly used with children and adolescents to ameliorate dysfunction and maximize occupational performance in play, school, self care skills, leisure activities and social participation.
Prerequisites: OCTR 201, OCTR 204. Corequisites: OCTR 201, OCTR 204, OCTR
260. (Offered in Fall Semester only at Dobbs Ferry campus) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

OCTR 204 Occupational Therapy Practice for the Assistant: Medical Conditions
This course focuses on developing an understanding of the basic medical conditions affecting individuals throughout their life-span. Medical conditions are examined from the perspective of pediatrics, adolescence, adulthood and maturity over the course of the semester from the perspective of the occupational therapy assistant. These medical conditions are examined from the point of view of how they affect occupational performance and how occupational therapy intervention may improve the function and quality of life of the client. Prerequisite: BIOL 130. Corequisites: OCTR 201, OCTR 203, OCTR 260. (Offered in Fall Semester only at Dobbs Ferry campus) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

OCTR 206 Occupational therapy Practice for the Assistant: therapeutic Modalities II
A practicum in the most current treatment modalities and standardized testing measurements commonly used with adults and the elderly to ameliorate dysfunction and maximize occupational performance in rest and sleep, social participation, work, leisure, and activities of daily living. Prerequisites: OCTR 201, OCTR 203, OCTR 204, OCTR 218, OCTR 260. Corequisites:
OCTR 207, OCTR 214, OCTR 218. (Offered in Spring Semester only at Dobbs Ferry campus)
3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

OCTR 207 Occupational therapy Practice for the Assistant: Synopsis Concepts relevant to the operation of occupational therapy services will be explored via didactic and activity-based learning as well as through independent group and individual resource review. Topics included in this course are: evidence based treatment; human resource functions; program evaluation and quality improvement. In addition, management and leadership topics and legal issues will be addressed. Students will also gain valuable information about regulatory agencies, professional organizations, research and wellness. Prerequisites: OCTR
201, OCTR 203, OCTR 204, OCTR 218, OCTR 260. Corequisites: OCTR 206, OCTR 214, OCTR
218. (Offered in Spring Semester only at Dobbs Ferry campus) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
OCTR 209 and 210 Occupational therapy Practice for the Assistant: Advanced Clinical Education I and II
Supervised full time internships in various clinical and community settings following the completion of all Occupational Therapy Assistant Program didactic coursework. Prerequisites: OCTR 201, OCTR 203, OCTR 204, OCTR 206, OCTR 207, OCTR 214, OCTR 218, OCTR 260. (Semester offered depends on fieldwork site placement) 3 crs. per fieldwork.

OCTR 214 (PSYN 214) Occupational Therapy Practice for the Assistant: Adulthood and Maturity
The study of the developmental stages of adulthood and maturity. This course addresses the normal aging process, the health-related disorders commonly associated with these stages and the roles of the occupational therapy assistant in serving adults and the elderly in order to achieve maximum independence in occupational performance. One credit is given to Fieldwork I placement. Prerequisites: OCTR 201, OCTR 203, OCTR 204, OCTR 218. OCTR 260 Corequisites: OCTR 206, OCTR 207, OCTR 218. (Offered in Spring Semester only at Dobbs Ferry campus) 7 sem. hrs. 6 crs. + 1 cr. (Fieldwork I.)

OCTR 218 (PSYN 218) Occupational Therapy Practice for the Assistant: Interaction Skills
Through experiential and didactic learning, this course will explore human interaction from solitary activities, simple one-to-one experiences and group experiences. (Offered in Spring Semester only at Dobbs Ferry campus) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

OCTR 260 (PSYN 260) Occupational Therapy Practice for the Assistant: Childhood and Adolescence
The study of the developmental stages of childhood and adolescence. This course addresses the normal aging process, the health-related disorders commonly associated with these stages and the roles of the occupational therapy assistant in serving pediatric and adolescent clients in order for them to achieve maximum independence in occupational performance. One credit is given to Fieldwork I placement. Prerequisites: OCTR 201, OCTR 204. Corequisites: OCTR 201, OCTR 203, OCTR 204. 7 sem. hrs. (Offered in Fall Semester only at Dobbs Ferry campus) 6 crs. 1 cr. (Fieldwork I.)

PARALEGAL STUDIES*
For Legal Studies majors, LAWS 130 is a prerequisite or corequisite for all PARA courses numbered 202 or above or consent of program director. ENGL 111 or the equivalent is a prerequisite for all PARA courses numbered 300 or above.

PARA 201 Family Law
This course will survey the law, procedures and documents involved in domestic relations law practice. Areas covered: cohabitation; marriage; divorce and separation; maintenance; equitable distribution; family offenses. (Previously Titled: Domestic Relations Law) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PARA 202 Business Organizations
This course trains the student to manage the practical aspects of business organizations. A review of the lawyer’s role in the formation of business entities with a survey of the fundamental principles of law applicable to each entity and the preparation of the documents necessary to the organization and operation of each. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PARA 206 Substantive Law and Document Drafting
This course will introduce the student to the law of torts, agency, contracts, commercial transactions, tax and bankruptcy. The student will learn how legal documents are structured and the art of drafting them, and will draft documents pertinent to the substantive areas of law covered in this course. Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
PARA 260 Legal Research and Writing I
An introduction to the study of law that acquaints the students with an analysis and synthesis of cases and other legal materials. The course develops research techniques and basic writing skills designed to put the law into a usable form. The students will develop a familiarity with various methods of legal research including indexes, digests, Shepard’s citations, encyclopedias and the West Key Number System. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PARA 295 Contemporary Issues
A discussion of current topics concerning the paralegal profession: elder law; workmen’s compensation laws; securities law; use of computers; and legislative updates. Specific topics to be covered will be announced by the department. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PARA 300 Legal Research and Writing II
An in-depth study of legal research and writing which prepares a student to develop a mastery of legal writing techniques. The student will learn to prepare and draft various legal documents including law office and trial memoranda, a trial court brief and an appellate brief. Prerequisite: PARA 260. (Previously Numbered: PARA 200.) Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

Moreover, the student will be introduced to the basic conceptual aspects of estates and trust law covering such topics as the law of wills, family rights, perpetuities, fiduciary powers, guardians and accountings. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PARA 380–381 Workplace Experience in Paralegal Studies, I and II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in paralegal studies include attorney offices, courts and governmental offices. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Career Services department approval required. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PARA 400 Law Office Management
The student will learn how a law office is organized and managed, and will study the impact of the automation revolution on the operation of the law office. The course will also focus on the importance of preventing malpractice, conflict of interest and other ethical issues that arise in day to day law office situations. The use of software tutorials will be included in this course. Prerequisite: PARA 206. Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
PARA 410 Advanced Seminar in Paralegal Studies
This course is the capstone course for paralegal majors that will assist the student in integrating his/her knowledge of ethical issues, theoretical concepts with the practical applications of legal research, writing and document drafting. Each student will be challenged to take the skills that he/she has learned throughout the paralegal studies major and apply them to assignments presented by the faculty that simulate law office situations. Prerequisites: PARA 300, PARA 206. Additional course fee may apply. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

*All courses listed under this section are legal specialty courses as defined by the guidelines of the Standing Committee on Paralegals of the American Bar Association.

PHILOSOPHY

PHIL 110 Introduction to Philosophy
An introduction to philosophy through readings of contemporary and historical philosophers, with focus on major issues in metaphysics, the theory of knowledge, and ethics. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHIL 112 Logical Thinking
An introduction to logic, both deductive and inductive, with emphasis on ways logic is most commonly useful: identification of arguments in context; common fallacies in argument; deductive validity; categorical propositions and their interpretation; categorical syllogism in standard form and its interpretation; disjunctive and hypothetical syllogisms and other common argument forms; the nature of inductive argument; reasoning from analogy; Mill’s canons; scientific method. Prerequisite: Satisfactory completion of ENGL 109 or placement at the ENGL 110 level or higher. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHIL 190 Honors Philosophy I
Selected topics in philosophy, addressing contributions of historically important thinkers, or views of the human condition, or perennial questions of philosophy, in metaphysics, epistemology, or ethics. Admission by permission of the director. May replace General Education course PHIL 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHIL 191 Honors Philosophy II
Study of special topics in philosophy, drawing on its methods, traditions, and central problems.
May replace General Education course PHIL 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHIL 207 Business Ethics
This course examines ethical questions that arise in business and professional activity, such as consumer protection, employee benefits, environmental policies, and corporate responsibilities.
Students identify appropriate ethical theories and apply them to the case study approach in considering ethical questions and in critiquing contemporary solutions. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHIL 294 Live Issues in Philosophy
An investigation of some topic of philosophical interest under current discussion (and not the an investigation of a topic of philosophical interest under current discussion (not the focus of an existing course); topic(s) are announced specifically when the course is offered.
3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHIL 317 (PSYN 317) Perspectives on Death
An interdisciplinary approach to death as known and unknown phenomenon: what science can tell us about death; what philosophers have said about death; recent research on needs of the dying person, bereavement experiences of survivors, and children’s understanding of death; significance of death as it relates to human dignity and autonomy. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHIL 397 Independent Study in Philosophy
Readings and research individually arranged with an instructor. 3 crs.
PHYSICAL SCIENCE

PHSC 110 Introduction to Geology
A study of the basic concepts in physical science and scientific methodology as exemplified in the study of the fundamental concepts in physical and historical geology, origin and geological history of earth and life; geological land formation. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHSC 111 Introduction to Astronomy
A study of basic concepts in physical science and scientific methodology as exemplified in the study of the fundamental concepts in astronomy, the universe, modern theories of stellar evolution, techniques of astronomical observation, physical characteristics of planets, satellites, and comets. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHYSICS

PHYS 110 Introduction to Physics
A concepts-based survey of the basic physical principles that are applicable in everyday situations: motion, force, energy, sound, light, electricity, magnetism, atomic and nuclear physics. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHYS 120 Physics of the Human Body
Introductory physical concepts that underlie human biomechanics and human physiology will be explored, with a focus on how to optimize function in daily activities and exercise. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHYS 160 Physics for the Life Sciences I
This is the first in a two-semester sequence of introductory physics with integrated laboratory. Algebra-based introduction to general physical principles in the areas of mechanics, energy, thermodynamics with conceptual and quantitative applications to phenomena in the life and health sciences. Prerequisite: MATH 201 or the equivalent. 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. lab. 4 crs.

PHYS 161 Physics for the Life Sciences II
This is the second in a two-semester sequence of algebra-based, introductory physics with integrated laboratory. The physical principles in the areas of fluids, oscillations, waves, magnetism, electricity, quantum and nuclear physics, with conceptual and quantitative applications to phenomena in the life and health sciences. Prerequisites: MATH 201 or the equivalent; PHYS 160. 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. lab, 4 crs.

PHYS 180 Calculus-Based Physics for the Life Sciences I
A calculus–based introduction to the general physical principles in mechanics, oscillations, thermodynamics and fluids, and their application to living systems. Laboratory and biologically relevant problem solving techniques are integrated. Prerequisite: Math 260, Co-requisite: Math 261, or the equivalent; High school physics or the equivalent; 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. lab per semester. 4 crs. per semester.

PHYS 181 Calculus-Based Physics for the Life Sciences II
A continuation of PHYS 180. calculus–based introduction to the general physical principles in waves and optics, electricity and magnetism, modern and nuclear physics, and their application to living systems. Laboratory and biologically relevant problem solving techniques are integrated. Prerequisite: PHYS 180. 3 hrs. lect. 3 hrs. lab per semester. 4 crs. per semester.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

POLS 101 Political Power in America
The use of political science theory and method to investigate American political institutions: executives, legislature, judiciaries, bureaucracies, mass media, parties, interest groups, elites, and publics; comparisons with foreign political institutions, including their relationship to American institutions as manifested in foreign politics and international relations; the importance of political institutions, American and foreign, to the lives of students. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

POLS 190 Honors Political Science
Selected topics in political science, studied in terms of how they illuminate themes basic to an understanding of political processes: i.e., the various ways power is employed to influence the allocation of values in the public domain and the consequences of such employment. Admission by permission of the director. May replace General Education course POLS 101. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

POLS 255 (LAWS 255, PSYN 255, SOCL 255) Managing Human Conflict I
This course introduces the student to the field of conflict analysis and resolution through the examination of theory and role-play. Major theories of conflict studies are considered and the student will explore whether these theories are useful in the resolution of conflict. The student will be introduced to the resolution of conflict. The student will be introduced to the various forms of conflict resolution such as negotiation, mediation and arbitration. Prerequisite: SOCL 101 or PSYN 101. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

POLS 256 (LAWS 256, PSYN 256, SOCL 256) Managing Human Conflict II
This course continues the study of the theories utilized in conflict resolution. The language of conflict management will be explored and the active listening skills of the student will be developed. The theory and application of negotiation will be studied and applied through role-play. Prerequisite: LAWS/PSYN/SOCL/POLS 255. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

POLS 282 Comparative Politics
An exploration of selected Democratic, Communist, and Third-World political systems, showing both the great variations in the ways nations are governed and the practices that all share. The course will compare legislative, executive, bureaucratic, and judicial institutions and processes, and the behavior of parties and interest groups in various countries, such as England, France, Russia, China, Mexico and Tanzania. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

POLS 295 Topics in Government
This offering will vary from term to term, allowing for the coverage of new subject matter, or the opportunity to make available an instructor’s special knowledge. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

POLS 301 (CRJU 301) Constitutional Law and Criminal Justice
Analysis of the leading U.S. Supreme Court and State Court decisions impacting Criminal Justice. The historical development of the Bill of Rights and its application to the states through the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. Consideration of theories and research findings with respect to physical growth, sensorimotor, emotional and intellectual development, and cultural influences in the individual prior to adolescence. Developmental, psychoanalytic, and cognitive theories are emphasized. Not open to students who have taken PSYN/EDUC 228 or the equivalent. (Previously numbered PSYN 130.) Not open to students who took PSYN 233 or 228 or equivalent. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
PSYN 255 (LAWS 255, POLS 255, SOCL 255) Managing Human Conflict I
This course introduces the student to the field of conflict analysis and resolution through the examination of theory and role-play. Major theories of conflict studies are considered and the student will explore whether these theories are useful in the resolution of conflict. The student will be introduced to the resolution of conflict. The student will be introduced to the various forms of conflict resolution such as negotiation, mediation and arbitration. Prerequisite: SOCL 101 or PSYN 101. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 256 (LAWS 256, POLS 256, SOCL 256) Managing Human Conflict II
This course continues the study of the theories utilized in conflict resolution. The language of conflict management will be explored and the active listening skills of the student will be developed. The theory and application of negotiation will be studied and applied through role-play. Prerequisite: LAWS/PSYN/SOCL/POLS 255. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 257 Psychology of the Exceptional Child
A study of the adjustment and needs of exceptional children, including gifted children and children with intellectual, emotional or physical disabilities. Cognitive and emotional disorders arising in childhood and adolescence will be discussed, as well as problems of etiology and treatment. Prerequisites: PSYN 101. (Previously titled: PSYN 257 Psychology of the Special Education Child; Psychology of Students with Disabilities.) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 262 (BHSC 262, SOCL 262) Alcohol, Drugs, and Behavior
Principles of pharmacology, neural transmission, behavior, and psychological assessment will be discussed. Specific psychopharmacologic issues will be presented with sedative-hypnotic, benzodiazepine, opiate, stimulant, and antipsychotic drugs as primary examples. Other discussion areas include behavioral toxicology, inhalant drugs, drugs and schoolchildren, nutritional and legal aspects to drug use, cigarette smoking, and the effects of drugs on the developing organism (e.g., fetal alcohol syndrome.) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 263 Psychology of Adolescence
A study of human development and behavior during adolescence; emphasis on anatomical and functional interrelationships as well as cultural influences and their significance for psychosocial development. (Previously numbered PSYN 131) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 264 (CMDS 264) Normal Speech and Language Development
A study of normal language development including phonological, morphological, syntactic, semantic, and pragmatic features; examination of the physical, psychological, and biological contexts of language; exploration of the cognitive-linguistic-communicative process. Prerequisite: SPCM 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 267 (BHSC 267, SOCL 267) Strategies for Child Care Providers
An introduction to the challenges and opportunities involved in the delivery of child care services in the community and in institutional settings. Emphasis is placed on stimulating awareness, interest and inquiry into the historical trends, issues, controversies and realities of providing meaningful programs for substance clients. Attention will be given to the following issues: cultural diversity, bioethics, interdisciplinary teams in child care settings, case management, family relationships, functional assessment, client abuse, and environmental impact on functional capacity in work with this population. (Previously numbered: SOCL/BHSC/PSYN 323.) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 280 (BHSC 280, SOCL 280) Philosophy and the Social Sciences
This course examines the nature of explanation in the social sciences; objectivity and value judgments, human behavior and actions; methods of investigation and the construction of theories about the human world. This course emphasizes the role of organizations in society. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Only open to organizational management students.)
PSYN 295 (BHSC 295, SOCL 295, SOWK 295) Contemporary Issues
An analysis of current questions in behavioral science, psychology, sociology, and social work. Specific topics are announced each semester by the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 300 (CMDS 300) Language Disorders
Examination of language disorders associated with aphasia, mental retardation, and emotional problems; discussion of language disorders of children with learning disabilities; exploration of restricted linguistic codes and resulting speech patterns. Prerequisite: SPCM 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 310 Career/Life Assessment and Ethics
This course establishes the philosophy of the EDGE program. It links the concept of ethics to career/life assessment and organizational mission. It shows how individual careers are enhanced by adhering to an ethical model. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Only open to organizational management students.)

PSYN 311 Psychological Disorders of Childhood and Adolescence
Behavioral, emotional, developmental and learning disorders of childhood and adolescence are discussed. The topics will include: autism spectrum disorders, attention deficit/hyperactivity disorders, conduct problems, anxiety disorders, mood disorders, substance abuse and eating disorders. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 312 Abnormal Psychology
Causes, symptoms, treatments and prevention of abnormal behavior are surveyed. Different theoretical and cultural perspectives are examined, along with the problems of diagnosis and research. Other topics treated include: history of mental illness, ethical and legal problems, and new approaches to therapy. (Previously numbered: PSYN 212) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 315 Aging and Mental Health
Critical problems of old age: retirement, failing health, loss of others through death; mental illnesses and confused states: symptoms, diagnosis, treatment and prevention. Mental health and the future of gerontology. (Previously numbered: PSYN 215) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 317 (PHIL 317) Perspectives on Death
An interdisciplinary approach to death as at once a known and an unknown phenomenon: what science can tell us about death; what philosophers have said about death; the examination and critique of recent research concerning the needs of the dying person, the bereavement experiences of the survivors, and children’s understanding of death; the significance of death as it relates to human dignity and autonomy. Prerequisites: PHIL 110 or RELG 110. (Previously numbered: PSYN/PHIL 217) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 320 Psychobiology
This course is designed to introduce the human being as a biological organism with special emphasis on neural and hormonal interactions in the initiation and maintenance of behavior. A study of the structure and functional organization of the brain as well as the effect of drugs on behavior will be discussed in relation to learning, language, motivation, therapy, and other human systems and behaviors. (Previously numbered: PSYN 224) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 340 Psychology of Crisis
Examination of the theoretical concepts, research results, and specific mechanism for coping with crisis. The course attempts to bring together the points of view of various disciplines in an effort to organize what is known about psychic trauma and its pathological consequences. Such questions as the “typical” reaction to disaster, the factors influencing emotional shock, and the long-term effects of crisis are considered. (Previously numbered PSYN 240) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
PSYN 345 Industrial Psychology
An introduction to I/O or industrial and organizational psychology. The course will discuss how a business and its organization impacts employee behavior. Topics include: employee relations and motivation, environment, occupational health, team work and leadership and psychological assessment in the work place. In addition, personnel decisions and union/management issues will be discussed. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 355 (LAWS 355, SOCL 355, POLS 355) Mediation Theory and Practice
This course examines the theory and practical application of mediation. Integration of ethical affect management is an important component of this course. Prerequisite: LAWS/PSYN/SOCL/POLS 255. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 360 (LAWS 360, SOCL 360, POLS 360) Practicum in Conflict Resolution
This course assists students in bringing together the theoretical and practical skills developed in the program through case studies and field projects. Co/Prerequisites: LAWS/PSYN/SOCL/ POLS 256 or PSYN/SOCL/POLS 355. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 370 (BHSC 370, SOCL 370) Statistics for the Social and Behavioral Sciences
A review of the major statistical methods used in summarizing, understanding, and interpreting numerical data and research use of the computer. The course covers a full range of descriptive and inferential statistics including: frequency distributions; measures of central tendency and variability; probability theory; the normal curve model; correlation; and a wide range of statistical tests such as the T test, F test, analysis of variance, and Chi-square. Prerequisites: Math 105 or placement at the Math 115 or Math 116 level or equivalent. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 371 Research Design and Statistics
An introduction to research design, experimental method and thesis development, including: the logic and nature of research design; the basic concepts in the experimental process, such as hypotheses, sampling, control and statistical analyses. Literature review and the statistical method are applied to independent projects, as are data collection, data description and data analysis (with statistical software, e.g., SPSS for Windows), presentation skills, use of on-line professional data-bases, and use of the Internet. Students are sensitized to the rights of participants in research. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Permission of McNair Scholars Program Director Required

PSYN 372 Experimental Psychology I: Methodology
An introduction to experimental methods in psychology, including: the logic and nature of experimental investigation; the basic concepts in the experimental process, such as hypotheses, sampling, bias, and control; a review of simpler experimental designs that statistical methods applied to each design; psychophysical methods and research use of the computer. Students are sensitized to the rights of subjects in research and in particular to concerns of minorities. Prerequisite: ENGL 110 or equivalent, and completion of PSYN/BHSC/SOCL 370. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 380–381 Workplace Experience in Psychology I, II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in Psychology include residential treatment centers, after-school programs, shelters, substance abuse programs and hospitals. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the Workplace experience. A maximum of six credits of workplace credits may be applied to the major. Career Services department approval required. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
PSYN 399 (BHSC 399, SOCL 399) Internship in the Social and Behavioral Sciences
Practice experience, program planning and/or research provide the student with an opportunity to interact with children, adolescents, adults, and the elderly and become acquainted with the complexities of administering programs in the human service professions. Field placements will be available in a wide variety of locations such as preschools, day care centers, residential and outpatient drug treatment centers, social service agencies, senior centers, nursing homes, municipal housing projects, community outreach services, and hospitals. A minimum of 120 hours of fieldwork for the semester is required for six credits. A maximum of six credits of cooperative education or internship credits may be applied to the major. Students meet in small groups with faculty on a regular basis. 3–6 crs.

PSYN 426 (BHSC 426, SOCL 426) Classics in the Social and Behavioral Sciences
A guided reading seminar in the social and behavioral sciences utilizing primary source material with critical analysis of such authors as: Allport, Durkheim, Freud, James, Jung, Marx, Skinner, Weber. Prerequisite: PSYN 210 or BHSC/SOCL 348 or must have completed 12 credits in the major. (Previously numbered BHSC/PSYN/SOCL 326.) 3 sem. hrs. 3–6 crs.

PSYN 497 Independent Study in Psychology
Readings and research in a specific area of psychology under supervision of individual faculty members. 3 sem. hrs. 3–6 crs.

PSYN 498 Practicum in Instructional Methods in Psychology
The practicum provides the advanced student with an opportunity to serve, under the close supervision of a faculty member, as a teaching assistant in an undergraduate psychology course. Permission of the Chairperson required. 3 sem. hrs. 3–6 crs.

RELIGION

RELG 109 Introduction to Religions
The course is an introduction to the academic study of religion. The initial part of the course takes up definitions and theories. A wide variety of the world’s religions are then discussed, including Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. Emphasis is placed on each religion’s origins and historical development, concepts of the divine, worldview, sacred texts, main doctrines, and modes of teaching and worship. The course utilizes a number of approaches, namely, the philosophical, the theological, the historical, and the anthropological. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

RELG 111 Judaism, Christianity, Islam
This course introduces students to the central beliefs and practices of three world religions: Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, which are also known as the Abrahamic religions. These religions deeply share in the faith of the Patriarch, Abraham, and this affinity encourages a comparative approach. The course covers each religion’s origins and historical development, concepts of the divine, worldview, sacred texts, main doctrines, and modes of teaching and worship. The course also takes up the diverse cultural contexts of each of the three religions, and the ways in which they have produced remarkable traditions of God, scripture, ethical codes, authority and ritual practices. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

RELG 112 Far Eastern Religions
The living religions of the Far East in classical and contemporary forms: Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Taoism, and Shintoism. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

RELG 294 Contemporary Issues in Religion
An investigation of some topic of religious interest that is currently much discussed, but not the focus of an existing course; topic(s) are announced specifically when the course is offered. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

RELG 397 Independent Study in Religion
Reading and research individually arranged with an instructor. 3 crs.
SCIENCE

SINC 110 The Principals of Science I
The Principals of Science I course is designed for prospective elementary school teachers emphasizing content from the major science disciplines of earth science, biology, chemistry, and physics. This course is intended for non-science majors to enhance their general knowledge, skills, and confidence associated with teaching science in the elementary school. Two semesters will be required in order to adequately cover the basic information, concepts and materials associated with each of the sciences mentioned. Some problem solving is necessary and participants should be familiar with the simple or basic math taught in the elementary grades. The laboratory component will consist primarily of “hands-on” investigations and activities appropriate for inclusion (with modification) into any grade at the elementary level. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SINC 111 The Principals of Science II
The Principals of Science II course is designed for prospective elementary school teachers emphasizing content from the four major science disciplines of earth science, biology, chemistry, and physics. This course is intended for non-science majors to enhance their general knowledge, skills, and confidence associated with teaching science in the elementary school. Two semesters will be required in order to adequately cover the basic information, concepts, and material associated with each of the sciences mentioned. Some problem solving is necessary and participants should be familiar with the simple or basic math taught in the elementary grades. The laboratory component will consist primarily of “hands-on” investigations and activities appropriate for inclusion (with modification) into any grade at the elementary level. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SINC 161 Forensic Science I
This is the first in a two-semester sequence of interdisciplinary science courses that apply the principles of physics, chemistry, and biology to the forensic analysis of evidence. This course is taught in three modules, focused respectively on physical, chemical, and biological analysis of evidence. Topics include impact and injury, ballistic trajectories and blood spatter, death and decomposition, and drugs and toxicology. Laboratory activities exploring the scientific analysis of forensic evidence will be integrated within the modules. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SINC 162 Forensic Science II
This course is a continuation of Forensic Science I and is taught in two modules. Topics include fingerprint analysis, forensic serology, DNA analysis, and forensic autopsy. A variety of laboratory techniques used to analyze physical and biological evidence will be explored. Laboratory components that will be integrated within the modules include DNA analysis by polymerase chain reaction and cadaver dissection. Prerequisite: SINC 161. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCIAL WORK

SOWK 201 (BHSC 201) Introduction to Social Work
This course is an introductory survey of the social work profession. It provides an overview of principal social work values, codes of ethics, practice and research methods, fields of social work practice, and social welfare policy issues. The course emphasizes the unique experiences of diverse and at-risk population groups facing various social challenges. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOWK 295 (BHSC 295, PSYN 295, SOCL 295) Contemporary Issues
An analysis of current questions in behavioral science, psychology, sociology, and social work. Specific topics are announced each semester by the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOWK 311 Human Behavior and the Social Environment I
The first course of a two-semester sequence in which theory, knowledge and research findings are presented regarding the factors affecting human development and functioning. The course sequence focuses on the biological, psychological, social, and cultural factors that influence normal development and differences in development. The impacts of social systems are presented as they interact and shape individual behaviors. This course introduces the study of the life cycle. Prerequisites: PSYN 101 and SOCL 101. Non-majors must obtain permission of the director of the Social Work Program. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOWK 312 Human Behavior and the Social Environment II
The second course of a two-semester sequence continues its focus on the biological, psychological, social, and cultural factors that affect human development and functioning and the impact of social systems in shaping individual and collective behaviors. This course also focuses on the study of the full life cycle and life issues, including differences in bio-psychosocial functioning, disorders, and conditions. Prerequisite: SOWK 311. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOWK 314 Issues of Diversity in Social Work Practice
This course is designed to provide students with an understanding of the impact of race, ethnicity, class, gender and sexual orientation on life styles, options and choices. Students will also learn how oppression, discrimination, stigma, racism and sexism create and affect diverse populations. Implications will be drawn for service delivery and social work practice with and on behalf of clients. Prerequisite: Non-majors must obtain permission of director of the Social Work Program. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOWK 322 Social Work Practice I
This course introduces students to social work practice. The focus will be on generalist practice and the different roles and methods practitioners assume in providing service to individuals, families, groups, communities, and organizations. Students will learn about the helping process, its application to work with different populations and problems, and about the ethics and values underpinning practice. Students will be assigned for field experience to a community agency for 20 hours during the semester. Prerequisites: Junior standing, SOWK 311, or consent of director of Social Work Program. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOWK 332 Social Work Research
This course provides a basic introduction to methodology. Topics covered include: developing a researchable question; the values, ethical and political issues involved in developing the question; conducting a literature review; issues of design, measurement techniques, data collection and analysis. Attention paid to linking research to social work practice and the evaluation of service delivery systems. Pre or Corequisite: CISC/MATH 120. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOWK 342 Social Welfare Policy and Services
Students are introduced to the development of social work as a profession. The course focuses on major social welfare policies and programs and the philosophical, economic, social, and political forces that shape their development. Students will explore contemporary approaches to social problems, such as health and welfare issues facing families, children and older adults; poverty; unemployment; homelessness; AIDS; mental illness; and developmental disabilities. The course highlights issues of social and economic justice and the inequities that exist and affect ethnic and racial minorities, women, and other at-risk populations. Prerequisites: Non-majors must obtain permission of director of Social Work Program. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOWK 423 Social Work Practice II
Students will be introduced to theories, concepts, research findings, and skills common to professional practice. Specific attention will also be devoted to those skills required for working with individuals, and collectives (family, groups, communities) and for intervening in the client’s environment. Students will examine the phases of the helping process, starting with the initial phase and assessment and consider their application in different life situations, especially with at-risk populations. Students will be taking this course concurrent with their fieldwork placement. Prerequisite: SOWK 322. Open only to majors. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOWK 424 Social Work Practice III
This course builds on the content introduced in Social Work Practice II. Students will continue to examine the helping process concentrating on the ongoing and ending phases. The focus will be on using assessment to determine opportunities for multiple levels of intervention and the use of different helping approaches for problem solving. Students will deepen their knowledge of generalist practice concepts and skills for providing service to individuals, families, groups, and communities and their application in work with different populations, especially those at-risk. The course also emphasizes specific strategies for representing clients’ needs and securing resources through environmental interventions and in carrying out case management and interdisciplinary team activities. Students will learn the skills for practice evaluation. This course is taken concurrently with fieldwork. Prerequisite: SOWK 423. Open only to majors. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOWK 426 Social Welfare Policy II: Influencing Communities, Organizations and Social Policy
This course builds on SOWK 342, Social Welfare Policy and Services by providing students an opportunity to explore in-depth knowledge, values and skills that are required to identify social problems and to assess and influence communities, organizations and social policies that affect their clients’ lives. The focus will be on locating dysfunctional structures, processes, and policies that create unjust and oppressive conditions and on developing strategies to influence change. Professional dilemmas or obstacles encountered in that pursuit will be examined. Prerequisites: SOWK 342 and SOWK 423.

SOWK 431 Field Practicum I (cc)
Students are assigned to social agencies or social work programs for 20 hours a week (a minimum of 275 hours a semester.) These settings provide students with assignments to acquire skills in social work practice and with the opportunity to apply theories and principles learned in the classroom to work in the field setting. Students receive individual weekly supervision from a professional social worker and attend periodic field seminar meetings at the College. This course is taken concurrently with SOWK 423. Open only to majors. 6 sem. hrs. 6 crs.

SOWK 432 Field Practicum II
A continuation of Field Practicum I. Students remain in the same field placement for 20 hours weekly (a minimum of 275 hours a semester) and attend periodic field seminar meetings at the College. This course is taken concurrently with SOWK 424. Prerequisite: SOWK 431. 6 sem. hrs. 6 crs.

SOWK 435 Social Work with Children and Adolescents
This course focuses on the settings that provide services to children and adolescents. Students explore special problems that children and adolescents experience and how these problems affect them and their families. Students learn intervention strategies and techniques, specific to work with this population. Ethical issues and the impact of legislation and policy on practice and resources are considered. Prerequisite: SOWK 322. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOWK 436 Social Work in Health and Mental Health Services
This course provides an overview of health and mental health settings and the current policies that affect the delivery of services. Emphasis is placed on the major roles carried out by social workers in work with clients and with interdisciplinary staff. Students are familiarized with the range of problems that affect this population and their families and learn strategies and methods for offering help. Prerequisite: SOWK 322. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOWK 497 Independent Study in Social Work
Independent study is designed for students interested in areas beyond scheduled courses. Studies are mentored by a faculty member. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 101 Introduction to Sociology
Introduction to the scientific study of human behavior as related to group membership. Major areas of study in sociology: basic structure of human society and of smaller groups; transmission of culture and regulation of behavior; acquisition of the social self; violation of norms; stratification by class, race, ethnicity, sex, and age; major social institutions; populations dynamics; and sociocultural change. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
SOCL 110 (IRDP 110) World Cultures: Diversity, Politics, and Tolerance
This is an introductory course to the anthropology and political aspects of cultural and linguistic difference. A spectrum of issues concerning human origins and expansion, regional and linguistic differences, and tolerance and diversity are addressed. Use of anthropological and linguistic understanding in relation to international affairs and diplomacy are discussed. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 120 (BHSC 120, PSYN 120) Career and Life Planning
This course is designed to assist students in matching their college experience to their personal and professional development. Topics range from guidance in selecting a college curriculum to choosing and getting a job. Through processes and group interaction, students learn to assess their workplace competency and are encouraged in their pursuit of career and life planning. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. (Elective credit only.)

SOCL 101 or the equivalent is a prerequisite for all sociology courses numbered 121 or above.

SOCL 201 Law, Order, and Justice
Comparative analysis of legal systems; their relations to social structures and processes; investigation of social evolution as reflected in changing patterns of law; various theoretical perspectives in writings of Durkheim, Weber, Timasheff, Kelsen and others; the development, maintenance, and change of American legal institutions. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 202 (BHSC 202) Ethics and the Family
A philosophical examination of the rights and responsibilities of parents and children, and of the rights and responsibilities of the state toward both, drawing on legal and non-legal case materials, as well as on classic and contemporary philosophical sources, and including a consideration of child abuse, foster care and adoption, divorce, and women’s liberation and its effect on the family. Not open to students who have taken PSYN/SOCL 222 Family in Transition. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 205 (LAWS 205) Aging and the Law
This course will introduce students to legal issues affecting older adults. Some of the topics to be covered are: health care proxies, living wills, Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security benefits, elder abuse, conservatorships, nursing homes and long term estates planning. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 206 Sociology of Violence
This course analyzes violence problems challenging contemporary societies and their different kinds of possible manifestations. This covers a wide range from old forms of urban/rural violence to the new and re-defined aspects of terrorism, including institutional/police violence; violence among generations, religions, gender and races. It takes into account the varied and multicultural meanings of the violence; its sources and results. Moreover, the course addresses violence as a global phenomenon. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 212 (CRJU 212) Criminology
The nature and causes of criminal behavior as they relate to effective means of prevention and rehabilitation, theories of criminal behavior focused on the individual, the family, the neighborhood, and society as the primary causal factors; various interdisciplinary schemes also considered. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 215 (BHSC 215, CRJU 215) The Juvenile Justice System
Origins, philosophy, and objectives of the juvenile justice system; measures of delinquency; theoretical perspectives on delinquency; legal processes; roles of the actors and current trends within the juvenile justice system. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 222 The Family in Transition
A cross-cultural examination of family patterns viewed within the context of cultural variation throughout the world; relations of the family to other institutions; role of the family in the development of personality. Not open to students who have taken PSYN/BHSC/SOCL 202 Ethics and the Family. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
SOCL 226 (BHSC 226, PSYN 226) Computers for the Social and Behavioral Sciences
An introduction to computers as a professional tool in the social and behavioral sciences. Topics include data collection, data description and data analysis (with statistical software, e.g., SPSS for Windows), presentation packages, use of the Internet, use of on-line professional databases, computers in teaching and learning, and computerized techniques in psychological testing. Prerequisite: CISC/MATH 120 or equivalent. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 231 Sociology of Religion
This course examines the sociological analysis of religion’s relation to politics and the state, at home and abroad. With the War on Terrorism, the fate of Afghanistan and Iraq, and the religious conflicts raging in places like India, Israel, Northern Ireland or the former Soviet Union, there are critical issues that need to be addressed. Religion in its various forms will be subject to myriad interpretations in such contexts as: immigration, globalization, race, religious freedom, tolerance, democratization and gender politics. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 234 (PSYN 234) Perspectives on Parenting
The course examines the parenting process and the tasks parents carry out as they raise children from birth through adolescence. The focus will be on effective parenting skills with the responsibility of fostering a stimulating learning environment and open channels of communication. Current family issues will be addressed. (Previously numbered: SOCL 173) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 236 Social Deviance
This course analyzes the causes and control of deviant behavior. There is a survey of social problems along with an analysis of the causes and nature of these problems. Topics include: how definitions of deviance change, how people become deviant, how deviant groups are organized, and how transactions among deviants occur. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 237 (PSYN 237) Human Sexual Behavior
This course examines physiological, psychological and cultural factors in human sexuality. Topics include: socialization of the sexes through the life cycle; normal and deviate sexual behavior; sexual dysfunction and therapy. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 238 (PSYN 238) Gender Role Dynamics
Cultural and demographic factors in the definition of gender roles, “femininity,” and “masculinity.” Topics include: socialization of the sexes in childhood, adolescence, and adulthood; current redefinitions of roles; and projections for the future. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 241 Urban Sociology: City and Community
This course will examine research and theory that explores the sociological aspects of the metropolis. Topics include: urban history, communities, suburbia, immigration, social networks, spatial studies, studies that connect specific places to general forces, urban movements, virtual communities, and studies that examine the core concepts of “place” and “community.” 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 244 (BHSC 244, PSYN 244) Social Psychology
A study of behavior, attitudes, and emotions shaped by interpersonal influences and social structures. Topics include: aggression, altruism, persuasion, leadership, the self, conformity, human relations, and group processes. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 246 (CRJU 246) the Death Penalty in America
This course will discuss the various issues surrounding the death penalty as a punishment in the United States. Areas covered will include the history of the death penalty and legal and Constitutional questions. Social, psychological, and philosophical issues will also be explored. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 249 (BHSC 249) Race, Culture, and Ethnicity
This course examines the historical development of ethnic and race-based cultural complexes, the emergence and persistence of stereotypes, the character of ethnic, racial and religious beliefs, and current problems in groups in American society. There is an emphasis on understanding individual attitudes and behaviors in relation to the structure of social institutions. 3 sem.
hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 252 (IRDP 252) Globalization
This course is an introduction to the process of rapidly increasing globalization, its impact on the role of the state, and the process of increasing inter-connectedness between societies — where events in one part of the world have increasing effects on people and societies far away. Advances in market integration, information technology, cultural diffusion and homogenization, and the growth of power among non-state actors have all contributed to the emergence of global communities, issues, and actions. The course focuses on shifting centers of power — changing roles of state institutions and interactions among states, individuals, the private sector, and civil society — and consequences for the world’s economic, social, and political structures and actors. A spectrum of issues is addressed, including perspectives on forces and dynamics underlying globalization — relative to governance, migration, and the environment — and the impact of globalization on the economy, culture, and society. The course explores globalization’s costs, benefits, and challenges on the levels of local communities and international relations. Prerequisite: SOCL 101 Introduction to Sociology. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 255 (LAWS 255, POLS 255, PSYN 255) Managing Human Conflict I
This course introduces the student to the field of conflict analysis and resolution through the examination of theory and role-play. Major theories of conflict studies are considered and the student will explore whether these theories are useful in the resolution of conflict. The student will be introduced to the resolution of conflict. The student will be introduced to the various forms of conflict resolution such as negotiation, mediation and arbitration. Prerequisite: SOCL 101 or PSYN 101. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 256 (LAWS 256, POLS 256, PSYN 256) Managing Human Conflict II
This course continues the study of the theories utilized in conflict resolution. The language of conflict management will be explored and the active listening skills of the student will be developed. The theory and application of negotiation will be studied and applied through role-play. Prerequisite: LAWS/PSYN/SOCL/POLS 255. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 261 (BHSC 261, SOWK 261) Computer-Assisted Data Analysis
This course is designed to teach students how to use statistical computer packages to perform complex statistical data analyses. Students conduct a study and use statistical packages to perform and understand complex statistical analyses, e.g., correlation, cross-tabulation, analysis of variance, multiple regression, and path analysis. Mathematical theory is neither a prerequisite nor a component of this course. Prerequisite: SOCL 248. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 262 (BHSC 262, PSYN 262) Alcohol, Drugs and Behavior Principles of pharmacology, neural transmission, behavior and psychological assessment will be discussed. Specific psychopharmacologic issues will be presented with sedative-hypnotic, benzodiazepine, opiate, stimulant and antipsychotic drugs as primary examples. Other topics include behavioral toxicology, inhalant drugs, drugs and schoolchildren, nutritional and legal aspects to drug use, cigarette smoking and the effects of drugs on the developing organism (e.g., fetal alcohol syndrome.) 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SOCL 267 (BHSC 267, PSYN 267) Strategies for Child Care Providers
An introduction to the challenges and opportunities involved in the delivery of child care

SPCM 263 (MEDA 263) Scene Study
Provides opportunity for students to learn and practice the skills actors need in order to live truthfully, moment-to-moment in the given imaginary circumstances of a scene. Scenes from the classics and from contemporary dramatists will be studied. Prerequisite: SPCM 262 (JOUR 262) or permission of instructor. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SPCM 265 (ENGL 265) Introduction to Play Writing
This course will offer a step-by-step practical guide for the budding playwright from idea or scenario through to a finished one act play. We will focus on developing full characters within articulate environments and illustrating concepts through dramatic situations. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SPCM 268 (MEDA 268) Play Directing
Students experience first-hand the process of directing theatrical productions from conception through completion while assimilating the principles that control the manner of their art and craft. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SPCM 397 Independent Study
Practical "experience-oriented" projects in theatre or film. Students may elect to study acting, directing, set-design, lighting, costume design, construction, film production, writing for film or theatre, publicity and management of theatre, fund-raising and producing the play or film, or in-depth study of outstanding theatrical or film personalities (director, authors, performers). Independent study projects may also be done in conjunction with Mercy College Players, and in certain instances a written and/or oral report may be required by the instructor to supplement the work done in performance by the student. 3 crs.

VETERINARY TECHNOLOGY

Students in the undecided – veterinary technology or veterinary technology major concentration must earn a minimum letter grade of C or better in all veterinary technology and natural science courses, ENGL 111 Written English and Literary Studies I and MATH 116. Students must maintain a 2.5 cumulative GPA in Veterinary Technology courses for admittance into clinical courses VETC 241, VETC 241A, VETC 247, VETC 247A, VETC 260, VETC 395, VETC 396, VETC 399 and VETC 445.

Students in the undecided – pre-veterinary medicine or veterinary technology major concentration with a specialization in pre-veterinary medicine must earn a minimum grade of B or better in all natural science and veterinary technology courses, ENGL 111 Written English and Literary Studies I and MATH 116. Students must maintain a 3.2 cumulative GPA in veterinary and natural science courses for admittance into clinical courses. Recommendations and/or evaluations will not be given for pre-veterinary medicine majors with a minimum cumulative GPA of less than 3.2 in veterinary technology and natural science courses.

Students enrolled in the undecided – veterinary technology, the undecided – pre-veterinary medicine, the veterinary technology or the veterinary technology with the pre-veterinary medicine specialization major concentrations may not repeat a course required in the curriculum more than once.
Students who receive an unsatisfactory evaluation in any category, including but not limited to professional and ethical behavior, or required skill in clinical courses VETC 241, VETC 241A, VETC 247, VETC 247 A, VETC 260, VETC 395, VETC 396 or VETC 445, or who are dismissed from any externship site, will have their records reviewed by the Veterinary Technology Faculty. The faculty will determine if the student will be given the opportunity to repeat the experience in a future semester, and/or be placed on probation, or be dismissed by the Program.

VETC 101 Introduction to Veterinary Science
This course is an introduction to the veterinary profession. It provides students with an overview of veterinary science and technology. Subjects pertinent to all the veterinary sciences are discussed, with brief introductions to medical terminology, anatomy, physiology, pharmacology, behavior, exotics and pathology. Prerequisite: Placement at the ENGL 111 level. Corequisite MATH 116. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

VETC 140 Veterinary Management
This course introduces students to management theory applicable to clinical veterinary practice and the research laboratory. Management techniques, inventory procedures, medical records, personnel management, safety, regulatory matters, laws and ethics, and the psychology of client relations are covered. Prerequisite: VETC 101. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

VETC 220 Pharmacology and Toxicology
A study of the fundamental principles of pharmacology and toxicology. Students are acquainted with the clinical application of drugs in current veterinary practice, including mechanisms of action, therapeutic uses, contraindications, common adverse effects and drug interactions. Emphasis is placed on regulations and safety; weights and measures; medication orders; dosage calculations; administration routes and methods; and preparing, labeling and dispensing medications. Prerequisites: VETC 101, VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 261; BIOL 160; BIOL 160A; BIOL 161; BIOL 161A; CHEM 160; CHEM 160A. 4 sem. hrs. 4 crs.

VETC 224 Clinical Laboratory Techniques
This course examines clinical laboratory techniques, particularly relating to blood chemistry, hematology, urinalysis, and parasite identification. Emphasis is placed on understanding and interpretation of both normal and abnormal laboratory results. Corequisites: VETC 224A; BIOL 265; BIOL 265A. Prerequisites: VETC 101; VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 261; BIOL 160; BIOL 160A; BIOL 161; BIOL 161A; CHEM 160; CHEM 160A. 4 hrs. lect., 4 crs.

VETC 224A Clinical Laboratory Techniques Laboratory
This laboratory course is designed to complement concepts taught in the VETC 224 lecture course. Corequisites: VETC 224; BIOL 265; BIOL 265A. Prerequisites: VETC 101; VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 275; BIOL 160; BIOL 160A; BIOL 161; BIOL 161A. 3 hrs. lab. 1 cr.

VETC 225 Animal Handling and Restraint
In this course, students acquire knowledge of and gain hands-on experience in the safe and effective handling and restraint of animals. Appropriate techniques are demonstrated and performed using live animals, including dogs, cats and exotic species. Lecture includes husbandry requirements and theory related to the safe handling of a number of species. Prerequisites: VETC 101; VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 275; BIOL 160; BIOL 160A; BIOL 161; BIOL 161A. 3 sem. hr. 3 cr.

VETC 241 Small Animal Diseases: Principles of Treatment and Nursing
Nursing skills required of the veterinary technologist are taught. Principles of medical nursing, including emergency and critical care are discussed. This course includes a general study of diseases, their definition, etiology, pathogenesis, clinical signs, diagnosis, prevention and treatment. Prerequisites: VETC 220; VETC 224; VETC 224A; VETC 225; VETC 256; VETC 256A VETC 261. Corequisites: VETC 241A; VETC 247; VETC 247A; VETC 445. 3 hrs. lect., 3 crs.
VETC 241A Small Animal Diseases: Principles of Treatment and Nursing Laboratory
This laboratory course is designed to complement concepts taught in the VETC 241 lecture course. Medical nursing instruction features hands-on experience with live animals and models.
Prerequisites: VETC 220; VETC 224; VETC 224A; VETC 225; VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 261.
Corequisites: VETC 241; VETC 247; VETC 247A; VETC 445. 3 hrs. lect., 1 cr.

VETC 247 Surgical Nursing and Radiography
Nursing skills required of the veterinary technologist are taught. Principles of surgical nursing, including routine surgical procedures and equipment, asepsis, positioning and surgical assistance are covered. This course provides instruction on fundamentals of anesthesia and analgesia, including preoperative, intraoperative, and postoperative care. Basic principles of radiography, including digital, are presented with emphasis on radiation safety measures and proper maintenance of radiographic equipment.
Prerequisites: VETC 220; VETC 224; VETC 224A; VETC 225; VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 261. Corequisites: VETC 241; VETC 241A; VETC 247A; VETC 445. 3 hrs. lect., 3 crs.

VETC 247A Surgical Nursing and Radiography Laboratory
This laboratory course is designed to complement concepts taught in the VETC 247 lecture course. Practicums feature hands-on experience with live animals and models.
Prerequisites: VETC 220; VETC 224; VETC 224A; VETC 225; VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 261. Corequisites: VETC 241; VETC 241A; VETC 247; VETC 445 3 hrs. lab. 1 cr.

VETC 256 Anatomy of Domestic Animals
This course provides students with a sound working knowledge of mammalian anatomy. Topographical, applied and clinical anatomy of the cat and dog are presented with emphasis placed on the relationship between anatomical structure and function. Functional adaptation in mammals will be explored by comparative study of common domestic animals: cat, dog, cow, and horse. A review of avian species will provide further understanding of structure and function. A group trip to the Museum of Natural History in New York City will be a required component of the curriculum.
Prerequisites: VETC 101; BIOL 160; BIOL 160A; BIOL 161; BIOL 161A. Corequisite: VETC 256A. 3 hrs. lect., 3 crs.

VETC 256A Anatomy of Domestic Animals Laboratory
This course is designed to complement concepts taught in the VETC 256 lecture course. Students study skeletal materials from domestic animals and complete dissections of the cat. Organs from other species may be dissected as well.
Prerequisites: VETC 101; BIOL 160; BIOL 160A; BIOL 161; BIOL 161A. Corequisite: VETC 256, 3 hrs. lab. 1 cr.

VETC 260 Principles of Large Animal Medicine
This course introduces students to fundamental large animal nursing skills and husbandry. Students learn to properly restrain, conduct a physical examination, and administer medication to farm animal species. Registration with the permission of the Program Director.
Prerequisites: VETC 220; VETC 224; VETC 224A; VETC 225; VETC 241; VETC 241A; VETC 247; VETC 247A; VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 261; VETC 445. 4 crs.
Note: Preference for registration in this course will go to graduating seniors. Students should anticipate taking the didactic portion of this course online during the spring semester followed by a one-week, hands-on portion at SUNY-Delhi in the summer.

VETC 261 Physiology of Domestic Animals
A comparative study of the physiological mechanisms, functions, and metabolism of the organ systems within the body. A regional approach is used to study the various classes of domestic animals including canine, feline, equine, ruminants, and swine.
Prerequisites: BIOL 160; BIOL 160A; BIOL 161; BIOL 161A; CHEM 160; CHEM 160A; VETC 101. 4 sem. hrs. 4 crs.

VETC 275 Applied Animal Behavior
In this course, students learn techniques of animal training, including proper selection and socialization of animals. Behavioral problems, causes and approaches to treatment will be discussed. Students learn to read emotional and aggressive signs in dogs and cats with safety as a priority.
Prerequisite: VETC 101. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
VETC 305 Global Veterinary Experiences
In this course, students acquire knowledge of and gain hands-on experience in the care and rehabilitation of a variety of animals in a global setting. Students will learn how to properly handle and examine different animal species. They will perform daily treatments and assist in the rescue and rehabilitation of injured animals. This experience will immerse them in a different culture, exposing them to a variety of animal species and providing them with an opportunity to become engaged global citizens. Lectures include husbandry requirements, normal physical exam criteria and theory relating to the treatment and rehabilitation of these animals. This course involves travel. All travel expenditures are the responsibility of the student. Prerequisite: BIOL 160; BIOL 160A; BIOL 161; BIOL 161A; VETC 101; VETC 256; VETC 261; MATH 116. 3 sem hrs, 3 crs.

VETC 380–381 Workplace Experience in Veterinary Science I, II
This course is designed to link college with the professional world by students obtaining meaningful, academically relevant workplace experiences. Possible workplace sites for students in Veterinary Sciences include veterinary practices and laboratory animal facilities. Professional development is enhanced through meetings with a faculty advisor and structured assignments based on the workplace experience. Prerequisites: VETC 101; VETC 225; VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 275; BIOL 160; BIOL 160A; BIOL 161; BIOL 161A; CHEM 160; CHEM 160A. Career Services department approval required. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

VETC 395 Externship I
The student participates as a veterinary technology extern in an approved small animal practice for a minimum of 45 days, consisting of eight hours each, or a total of 360 hours. The student is to achieve competency in skills and decision-making abilities commensurate with the Committee on Veterinary Technician Education and Activities (CVTEA) requirements. Twenty-seven contact hours with the instructor are scheduled for lecture, demonstration and student participation. Registration with the permission of the program director. Prerequisites: VETC 101; VETC 220; VETC 224; VETC 224A; VETC 225; VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 261; VETC 241; VETC 241A; VETC 247; VETC 247A; VETC 275; VETC 445. 6 crs. per sem.

VETC 396 Externship II
Following satisfactory completion of VETC 395 Externship I, the student participates as a veterinary technology extern in a specialty/referral practice for a total of 360 hours. Options may include advanced surgical nursing and anesthesia, emergency and critical care, imaging, internal medicine, neurology, oncology, ophthalmology and physical rehabilitation. Alternatives may include zoo animal medicine, laboratory animal medicine and equine practice. The student is to achieve competencies in skills and decision-making abilities commensurate with the Committee on Veterinary Technician Education and Activities requirements. Twenty-seven contact hours with the instructor are scheduled for lecture, demonstration and student participation. Registration with the permission of the program director. Prerequisites: VETC 101; VETC 220; VETC 224; VETC 224A; VETC 225; VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 261; VETC 241; VETC 241A; VETC 247; VETC 247A; VETC 275; VETC 395; VETC 445. 6 crs. per sem.

VETC 399 Externship III
This externship may be arranged on a competitive basis for exceptional students pursuing a specific career track who desire advanced specialty training in their chosen area. Registration with the permission of the program director. Prerequisites: VETC 101; VETC 220; VETC 224; VETC 224A; VETC 225; VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 261; VETC 241; VETC 241A; VETC 247; VETC 247A; VETC 275; VETC 395; VETC 396; VETC 445. 3–6 crs. per sem.

VETC 445 Fundamentals of Animal Research
The study of laboratory animals as integral parts of biomedical research. Rats, mice and rabbits are studied in regard to husbandry, sex identification and reproduction, handling and restraint, drug administration, injection and blood collection methods, anesthesia, common diseases and necropsy. A major emphasis of the course is an overview of laws and regulations governing animal research and a thorough understanding of the proper care and use of research animals. Course given at New York Medical College, Valhalla, NY. Prerequisites: VETC 101; VETC 220; VETC 224; VETC 225; VETC 256; VETC 256A; VETC 261; BIOL 265; BIOL 265A. Corequisites: VETC 241; VETC 241A; VETC 247; VETC 247A. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
Special Academic Opportunities

HONORS PROGRAM

College-Wide Program
The Mercy College Honors Program is a College-wide program that provides opportunities for high achieving students to achieve a superior education. Classroom experiences are used as a launching pad for involvement in undergraduate research, international travel experiences, cultural opportunities and community service projects. Through individualized attention and scholarly and civic engagement, Honors students pursue enriching academic and cultural experiences and participate in a variety of experiential and service learning activities.

School Honors Programs
Students must be admitted to the College Honors program prior to admission to any school honors program.

Honors Program Benefits
Small Classes: Honors classes have average enrollments of less than 20 students, allowing for in-depth interaction with Mercy College faculty.

Priority Registration: Honors students may select and enroll in their courses a week in advance of the general undergraduate student population.

Scholarships & Awards: Mercy College Honors Scholarships are awarded on the basis of superior academic performance.

Conference Participation: Honors students have the opportunity to showcase their research at the National Collegiate Honors Council Conference and at the Northeast Regional Honors Council Conference.

Co-curricular activities: Honors students participate in a range of engaging cultural and professional activities—including the popular Professors & Pastries events, where faculty members meet with students to discuss their areas of research and the process of doing research. Additionally, students in the Honors Program have participated in Kaplan Test Preparation seminars and Graduate School workshops, and have toured museums and attended Broadway shows. Honors students are also involved in a variety of important service learning activities.

Joining the Honors Program
Admission to the Mercy College Honors Program is competitive and by invitation only. There are two mechanisms by which students are admitted to the program.

1. Qualified entering freshmen and transfer students may be nominated or selected during the Mercy College application process. Nomination is based on high academic achievement, leadership and community service. Letters of invitation are offered following acceptance to Mercy College. Transfer students bringing between 30 and 89 credits must transfer 20% of those credits from equivalent honors courses to be eligible for the program. Students transferring less than 30 credits are not required to transfer honors credits in order to be eligible. (Transfer students bringing 90 or more credits are not eligible for admission to the Honors program.) Honors Program admissions standards will otherwise be applied to eligible candidates. The College will accept up to 18 honors transfer credits towards the Honors program for honors courses completed with an earned grade of B or above at another institution provided the courses have been identified as equivalent to Mercy courses in an articulation agreement or have been evaluated by an Honors faculty member and deemed equivalent.

2. Full time students not invited into the Honors Program at time of admission to the College and who have accumulated between 15 and 30 Mercy credit hours, having earned a GPA of 3.2 or above from those credits, will be invited to apply to the Honors program. Students must complete an application (available from the director of the Honors program), which must be endorsed by a full-time Mercy faculty member. The Honors Advisory Council reviews applications for admission to the program. (No computer equipment is awarded during this late admission process to the Honors program.) During the application process, students may petition to have prior credits completed in Mercy Honors courses converted to Honors program credits.

Honors Requirements

To remain in the Honors program and continue to receive related scholarships students must:

- Maintain a 3.2 overall and Honors course grade point average (GPA).

- If entering as a freshman, complete 24 Honors credits before graduation. If entering as a student transferring 75 or fewer credits to Mercy, complete 18 Honors credits—or, as a student transferring over 75 credits before graduation, complete 15 Honors credits.

- Attend 2 Honors Events each semester.

- Complete a minimum of 20 hours of community service per year.

Honors credit is generally earned by taking Honors courses. Under special circumstances Honors students may receive Honors credits in a non-Honors course by completing additional specially designed academic tasks as defined in an Honors contract. Students must fill out a form requesting permission to take a non-Honors course with an Honors contract. If approved, the student and faculty member must agree, by signing the contract, on additional work required to receive Honors credit. The instructor makes ultimate decisions regarding issuance and completion of an Honors contract. Upon completion of the agreed-upon work, the student is responsible for contacting the faculty member to ensure that the proper form is submitted indicating successful completion of the Honors contract. All forms can be obtained from student advisors or by emailing honors@mercy.edu.

Satisfactory Progress Requirement

Honors students must make adequate progress in achieving program expectations to remain in the College Honors program. At least six of every thirty credits an Honors student attempts annually must be from an Honors course or taken as an Honors contract. In addition, the student must provide to his/her advisor at the conclusion of each spring term evidence of satisfying the program requirements. If adequate progress is not maintained, a student will be put on probation for the Honors program for one semester and may be dismissed from the Honors program thereafter.

To make sure that Honors requirements are met by the time an Honors student graduates, it is highly advisable that 1-2 Honors courses be taken each term, and it is highly recommended that Honors students meet with their Honors advisor before registering for Honors courses.

HONORS COURSES:
Honors courses are generally reserved for students admitted to the Honors Program and by virtue of their priority scheduling get first admission to the courses. However, students who have completed at least 15 credits at the College and who have a Mercy GPA of 3.2 or higher may enroll in Honors courses, if space is available. These courses will appear as Honors courses on their transcripts but will not be recognized toward Honors credit in the College Honors program. Students subsequently admitted to the College’s Honors program may count such courses towards Honors program requirements.

The following is a list of courses from which Honors students may choose in order to meet Honors credit requirements. At least two Honors courses taken must be upper-level Honors courses. For more information about the Honors Program contact the Honors Program Director at honorsdirector@mercy.edu

This is an evolving list and new Honors courses are periodically developed. Check the course bulletin each term for Honors courses offered at that time.

ARTT 190 Honors History of Art I
This course studies issues in the history of art in a more detailed and in-depth fashion than in ARTT 107. The class takes full advantage of the College’s proximity to New York City, incorporating museum trips as part of the curriculum. Students will understand art as a vital part of history that links our modern culture with earlier eras. We emphasize the sociological, historical, religious and other cultural meanings of art as well as focusing on the formal aspects. Admission by permission of instructor. May replace General Education course ARTT 107. Prerequisite: For Honors students only 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ARTT 191 Honors History of Art II
Particular topics of specialized interest in the history of art are the main material of the course. Students participate in a series of museum trips and are expected to make connections between material learned in other Honors courses and information presented in this course. Students get an enriched experience in understanding art as part of a wider worldview. Admission by permission of instructor. May replace General Education course ARTT 107. Prerequisite: For Honors students only 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIOL 190 Honors Biology
A seminar approach to basic biological concepts and scientific methodology. Topics range from current trends in biotechnology to human evolution and environmental issues. May replace a general education biology course numbered 113 or below.
Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

BIO 195 Honors Environmental Science
The study of a variety of present-day environmental problems and their effects on humans is the focus of this course. The particular focus of study varies according to faculty area of expertise and specialization. Students participate in a variety of experiential learning activities. Equivalent to BIOL 112.
Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ECON 190 Honors Economics and Public Policy
This course introduces students to the ways different economists view the free market economy in America and to economic policies and their impact on public issues. Economic approaches to public policy questions ranging across the political spectrum help students critically evaluate the diversity of opinion on today’s economic issues. This is an interactive course in which students analyze the economics of social and political issues. In an open classroom forum students present, discuss, and defend their positions. May replace General Education course ECON.
Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

ENGL 191 Honors English I
A close reading of selected literary texts that have interpreted human experience through a variety of world views. Includes field trips to museums and other cultural events. Development of skills in writing expository prose, including the research paper. May replace general education requirement ENGL 111 or ENGL 112.
Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs.

ENGL 192 Honors English II
Further readings of masterpieces of Western culture from the Renaissance to the present. Includes field trips to museums, concerts, plays, and lectures. A research paper is also required. May replace general education requirement ENGL 111 or ENGL 112.
Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FORL 190 Honors Foreign Languages
An introduction to various languages not regularly available at the College. In the past, the Honors Program — by student request — has offered Latin, German and Chinese.
3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

FRSM/CINQ 101 Honors Freshman Seminar/Critical Inquiry
Critical Inquiry is a General Education course in which critical reading, critical thinking, and information literacy competencies are introduced, reinforced, and assessed. Each section focuses on a particular topic. Students analyze assigned readings, prepare and respond to arguments related to the topic, and complete projects that require research and assessment of relevant print and online sources. In Honors Critical Inquiry students demonstrate skills through multi-media projects that require higher-level reading, additional research, and annotated bibliographies. Students document and reflect upon their learning achieved throughout the course in an ePortfolio. May replace general education requirement FRSM/CINQ 101.
Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HIST 195 Honors History
Select historical occurrences are studied in terms of how they illuminate themes basic to an understanding of historical processes. Admission by permission of the director. May replace General Education History requirement. Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

HONR 295 Advanced Research & Writing
The McNair Scholar’s project gives students the opportunity to explore in-depth an area of special interest and to make a contribution to learning in that area. Each McNair Scholar works with a faculty advisor in designing and implementing an independent research project. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs. Permission of McNair Scholars Program Director is required.

HUMN 298 Honors Topics in Humanities
Intensive study of a theme or topic, which lends itself to a humanistic, interdisciplinary approach. Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

JRSM 301 Honors Junior Seminar
The Junior Seminar is designed as a general education capstone course to be taken by all Mercy College students as a requirement for graduation. Its purpose is to ensure that students have achieved acceptable performance in the practical application of skills taught in the basic courses: 1) critical reading, 2) critical thinking, 3) critical writing, 4) information literacy, 5) quantitative analysis, and 6) public speaking. Honors Junior Seminar students engage in projects ranging from intensive research and essay-writing, to digital storytelling, to service learning. Students document, self-assess, and showcase their learning achievement in an ePortfolio. Students can register for the course after completing 60-90 credits (prerequisites: ENGL 112; SPCM 110; MATH 115 or 116) and must be in the Honors Program may replace General Education JRSM requirement. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MATH 190 Honors Math
This course is intended for business, computer, mathematics, and natural and health science majors. The emphasis of this course is the improvement of problem solving skills and extended understanding of mathematics. Topics include linear and quadratic equations, inequalities, graphing, polynomials, factoring, operations with rational and irrational expressions, systems of linear equations, functions and others. May replace general education requirement MATH 116. Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MEDA 385 Honors Media Studies: The Communication Revolution
The central question of this course is: How has the Electronic Revolution affected American culture? Media Ecology examines modern media from various theoretical perspectives while tracing the origins of language and writing to the electronic age. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

MUSI 195 Topics in Honors Music
This course varies from year to year, depending on student interest and concurrent Honors program offerings. Subjects to be studied may include issues in the international music scene, comparisons of “art” music and popular music, Western and non-Western music, or music and political censorship. May replace General Education course MUSI 107. Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHIL 190 Honors Philosophy I
Selected topics in philosophy, addressing contributions of historically important philosophical thinkers, or views of the human condition, or perennial questions of philosophy, in metaphysics, epistemology, or ethics. Admission by permission of the director. May replace General Education course PHIL 110. Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PHIL 191 Honors Philosophy II
Study of special topics in philosophy, drawing on its methods, traditions, and central problems. May replace General Education course PHIL 110. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

POLS 190 Honors Political Science
Select topics in political science, studied in terms of how they illuminate themes basic to an understanding of political processes, that is, the various ways power is deployed to influence the allocation of values in the public domain—and the consequences of such development. Admission by permission of the director. May replace General Education course POLS 101. Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

PSYN 195 Honors Introduction to Psychology
This course encompasses the PSYN 101 Introduction to Psychology. In addition, the course includes a wide range of readings focusing on contemporary and historical issues of interest in psychology. Students may have the opportunity to participate in an experiment. May replace general education course PSYN 101. Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

*PSYN 198 Honors Human Conflict I
In this course students learn the language of conflict management and learn to handle disputes through reading, critical thinking, training, and practice on the micro and macro levels. Students identify the advantages and disadvantages of negotiation, mediation, and arbitration, as well as the constructive and destructive environments of conflict. Equivalent to PSYN 255. Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

RELG 190 Honors Religion
This course introduces students to a range of religious traditions in their classical formulations and contemporary practices, and deepens their understandings of religious traditions such as Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. The course is experientially engaging, with visits to religious sites or worship spaces. May replace General Education Course RELG 109 Prerequisite: For Honors students only.
3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

*SPAN 190 Honors Spanish
This upper-level Spanish course is designed for Honors students who are native speakers of Spanish or have high competency Spanish language skills. The purpose of this course is to develop students’ reading and writing skills in Spanish through a study of critical Latin American issues. This is carried out through a variety of media, such as literature, film, journalism, and historical texts. Prerequisite: For Honors students only.
3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.

SPCM 190 Honors Speech
This course examines the physical and physiological features of voice and speech production and factors related to active listening. The course provides practice in, and organizing and presenting speeches for, various purposes such as persuasion.
Aristotelian principles of rhetoric are applied to contemporary controversial issues, and identified and analyzed by students. May replace general education requirement SPCM 110. Prerequisite: For Honors students only. 3 sem. hrs. 3 crs.
GRADUATE STUDIES

Graduate Advisement
Students who are interested in applying to graduate schools should seek the assistance of their department chairperson or program head, as well as their PACT or COP mentor. Students may also utilize the reference library maintained by the Career Services Center, which provides graduate school data and catalogs and which assists students in applying for graduate fellowships and assistantships.

Graduate Studies for Seniors
Undergraduate students who are not registered for a dual degree program and have completed at least 90 credits with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above and who satisfy other admissions requirements may enroll in one graduate course at Mercy College per semester, for a total of six credits during their senior year. Graduate courses may not count towards the residency requirement for the major or for program honors. Students who meet the eligibility requirements must get approval from the graduate program director and department chairperson. An Authorization Form is available from the office of each School Dean.

Full-time undergraduate students who receive permission to take graduate courses will be charged the undergraduate tuition rate for the graduate courses. If the student is part-time, the graduate rate will be charged for graduate courses and the undergraduate rate for undergraduate courses. Students receiving financial aid in the form of grants and/or loans should confirm that the additional charges will be covered by their aid by speaking to a Student Services Counselor.

Dual Degree Programs
Undergraduate students in a variety of majors may pursue a dual degree BS/MS program. Master’s degrees available through dual degree programs are in Accounting, Business, Education, Nursing, Health Sciences, Cybersecurity, or Psychology. Some programs allow undergraduate students to take graduate credits in their junior and senior years, to make early progress towards the Master’s degree.

Students who major as undergraduates in Psychology or Behavioral Science may receive, upon completion of the Master’s program in the School of Education, teacher certification in Childhood or Early Childhood Education. Students who major as undergraduates in English, Science (Biology), Mathematics, or History may receive, upon completion of the Master’s program in the School of Education, teacher certification in Adolescence Education, Childhood Education or Early Childhood Education.

Mercy College Intensive STEM Teacher Initiative (MISTI)
Mercy undergraduate students in math and biology who are interested in the 4+1 BS and MS dual degree program are eligible to apply for participation in the Mercy College Intensive STEM Teacher Initiative (MISTI) program, the Mercy College implementation of the NSF Robert Noyce Teacher Scholarship Program. For further information, please see "Programs of Special Interest”.

For additional information concerning Graduate Programs at Mercy College, please refer to the Mercy College Graduate Catalog.
CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

Admission
Certificate Programs are designed to meet the career needs of self-directed, mature students who are interested in acquiring knowledge and skills that will promote their professional objectives. They are open to all qualified applicants whose academic preparation and/or appropriate work experience indicate potential for successful completion of the program.

Applicants seeking admission to Certificate Programs must have a high school diploma.

Applicants seeking admission to Certificate Programs in Computer Science, General Business Administration, Accounting, Management and Marketing must also pass the Mathematics Placement examinations at the MATH 105 level.

Applicants seeking admission to Certificate Programs should contact the Office of Admissions. Matriculated students need only submit a formal application. A student who has completed the requirements for a Certificate may not apply for that Certificate after graduation.

Registration
Upon admission to the program, applicants for Certificate Programs may register for courses on a part-time basis at any of the College's campuses.

Requirements for the Certificate Program
All students, both matriculated and non-matriculated, must apply for admission into the Certificate Program. All students are required to maintain a minimum GPA of 2.0 in the Certificate Program being pursued. Upon successful completion of the specific curriculum requirements for a given program, students must apply for the actual certificate.

All credits earned in a Certificate Program are applicable toward the associate and bachelor’s degrees. A maximum of six credits in transfer will be allowed toward a certificate. Ordinarily students pursuing a degree program in a related area will not be allowed to use the courses taken in such a program to satisfy the requirements for a certificate.

Certificate Program Fees
- Application Fee (Non-Matriculated students only) $10.00
- Certificate Completion Fee (per Certificate) $16.00

Certificates are issued in February, May and August.

Certificate Programs Offered
All certificate programs are offered at the main campus in Dobbs Ferry (DF). In addition, certain certificates are offered at the branch campuses in Yorktown Heights (YH), the Bronx (BX) and Manhattan (MT).

Effective July 1, 2011, the United States Department of Education requires colleges and universities to disclose information about their Gainful Employment programs. Gainful Employment programs include any Title IV financial aid eligible certificate program that “prepares students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation.”
Mercy College’s Gainful Employment programs include only the certificate programs: Management Accounting, Public Accounting, Child Care, General Business Administration, Gerontology, Health Services Management, Management, Marketing and Substance Abuse Counseling. Information about the Gainful Employment programs offered at Mercy College can be found at https://www.mercy.edu/academics/degrees-and-programs/certificate-programs/.

College Opportunity Programs
The mission of the College Opportunity Program is to provide academic, social, and personal support to historically underrepresented students in a nurturing and academically focused environment. The goal is to empower motivated students and our engaged colleagues to achieve their highest level of success.

Several federal and state funded programs fall under the umbrella of College Opportunity Programs (COP). In support of our nation’s commitment to provide educational opportunity for all persons, the United States Congress established a series of programs to assist eligible individuals to enter college and successfully graduate. These programs are known as the federal TRIO programs (Upward Bound, Student Support Services, and McNair).

TRIO Programs
Upward Bound Program
Upward Bound provides fundamental support to participants in their preparation for college entrance. Upward Bound serves eligible high school students from the Union Free School District of the Tarrytowns, who are preparing to enter post-secondary education. Academic assistance is provided to participants during their school day, after school, on Saturdays and during a six-week summer program. Services include tutoring, regents review sessions, SAT preparation, college exploration, and cultural enrichment. For more details on the Upward Bound Program, please contact the Director of Upward Bound and Student Support Services Project, Mercy College, 555 Broadway, Dobbs Ferry, NY 10522, 914-674-7239.

Student Support Services Project
The Student Support Services Project (SSSP) provides opportunities for academic development and assists students with basic college requirements and serves to motivate students towards the successful completion of their post-secondary education. The goal of SSSP is to increase the College retention and graduation rates of its participants. Student must meet the federal eligibility guidelines that include first generation, low-income and have academic need for acceptance into the program. SSSP also invites applications from transfer students who were enrolled in SSSP at a previous college or university. Application for SSSP is made available through the College Opportunity Program Office. For more details on SSSP, contact the Director of Upward Bound and Student Support Services Project, Mercy College, 555 Broadway, Dobbs Ferry, NY 10522, 914-674-7239.

New York State Department of Education Programs
STEP, CSTEP, and HEOP share a common overall purpose, namely, to expand the educational opportunities available to various historically disadvantaged populations.

Science and Technology Entry Program (STEP)
STEP is designed to increase participation of students from under-represented populations in science and technology oriented fields. The program provides academic enrichment for students in grades seven through twelve from northern Westchester communities. STEP offers students a more intensive exploration of mathematics and the sciences during its Summer Academic Camp. For more details on the Science and Technology Entry Program, contact the Director of STEP, CSTEP, and HEOP, Mercy College, 555 Broadway, Dobbs Ferry, NY 10522, 914-674-7204.

Collegiate Science and Technology Entry Program (CSTEP)
CSTEP is funded by the New York State Education Department to provide academic enrichment, internships and research experiences for students who are economically disadvantaged and historically under-represented in scientific, technical, health-related or licensed professions. The CSTEP student must demonstrate an interest in, and potential for, a CSTEP-targeted profession. CSTEP students must be enrolled full-time and be in good academic standing in an approved scientific, technical, health-related, pre-professional or professional undergraduate or graduate program of study. For more details on the Collegiate Science and Technology Entry Program, contact the Director of STEP, CSTEP, and HEOP, Mercy College, 555 Broadway, Dobbs Ferry, NY 10522, 914-674-7204.

Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP)
HEOP is funded by the New York State Education Department to provide supportive services and supplemental financial aid to eligible New York State residents. Students are eligible for this program if they are both economically disadvantaged and academically under-prepared. High school graduates may be eligible if they were not in a college preparatory program in high school. Individuals may also be eligible if they possess a General Equivalency Diploma (GED) or if they have neither a high school diploma nor a GED and they are 18 years of age or older. Transfer students are eligible if they were enrolled in EOP, HEOP, College Discovery, or SEEK at a previous college. Application for HEOP is made available through the College Opportunity Program Office. For more details on the Higher Education Opportunity Program, contact the Director of STEP, CSTEP, and HEOP, Mercy College, 555 Broadway, Dobbs Ferry, NY 10522, 914-674-7204.

Undergraduate Research Opportunities
The Ronald E. McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program
The purpose of the McNair Program is to provide enriching experiences that prepare eligible students for doctoral study. The program was established by the United States Department of Education in 1989 and named for astronaut and Challenger crew member physicist, Dr. Ronald E. McNair. The McNair Program at Mercy College targets low-income, first-generation students and those from groups under-represented in graduate education.

One of the most exciting aspects of the McNair Program is the opportunity for undergraduate students at the junior and senior levels to participate in research experiences. Program participants receive a stipend to conduct research and engage in other scholarly activities with faculty mentors from the areas in which they hope to pursue graduate study. McNair Scholars also attend professional conferences with their mentors, go to graduate school fairs, prepare for graduate school entrance exams, receive guidance for the graduate school application process and obtain information on securing fellowships, graduate assistantships, and loans. Participants learn about graduate school life, advanced library skills, and effective ways to present their work.
At the completion of the research projects, McNair scholars make formal presentations of their research to faculty and peers at local and national conferences and submit papers summarizing their work, for publication in the Mercy McNair Program journal, “The Challenger.” For more details on the McNair Scholars Program, contact the McNair Program Office, Mercy College, 555 Broadway, Dobbs Ferry, NY 10522, 914-674-7766.

The Robert Noyce Teacher Scholarship Program - Mercy College Intensive STEM Teacher Initiative (MISTI)

Mercy students in math and science can pursue a rewarding career path as a math or science teacher in K-12 schools through the MISTI Program. Under this program, sponsored by the National Science Foundation’s Robert Noyce Teacher Scholarship Program, MISTI Scholars earn significant scholarships and stipends during their five years of participation. Each participating undergraduate student studies math and science and completes the steps to become an effective math or science teacher, earn a bachelors and Master’s degree, and complete New York State Teaching Certification.

MISTI Scholars enter the program as college juniors, continue their math or science studies, begin observations in K-12 schools, and participate in a pedagogical seminar with other MISTI Scholars. These activities continue during their senior year, along with hands-on teaching experiences. Following their senior year, Scholars participate in a summer engineering experience for teachers, developing integrated STEM lessons. During their Master’s year, MISTI Scholars engage in a yearlong clinical residency in a local K-12 school, supported extensively by master teachers and Mercy College faculty. In their first two years of teaching, they receive continued support from Mercy College faculty and their community of peers from the cohort. For details on the MISTI Program, contact Professor Meghan Marrero at mmarrero3@mercy.edu.

Workplace Experience

The Workplace Experience program is an educational program designed to provide students with an opportunity to earn up to six academic credits while gaining practical workplace experience. Students interested in this program will secure a workplace site, meet with their Academic Advisor to confirm course requirements and meet with the Workplace Experience Coordinator to register. Participants in the program receive guidance from a faculty mentor and a site supervisor to maximize their learning experience. For more information about this program interested students may stop by Career Services at the campus of their choice or call to set up an information session 914-674-7203.

Mercy Online www.mercy.edu/mercyonline

Mercy College was one of the first in New York State to venture into teaching and learning via the Internet and currently uses Blackboard as its learning management system. The College has offered online courses since 1991 with graduate and undergraduate students occupying 4,000 seats in almost 360 separate Web-based courses each semester. Mercy Online offers more than forty undergraduate and graduate degree programs entirely online, each having received the approval of the New York State Education Department and the Middle States Association, the College’s regional accrediting agency. See https://www.mercy.edu/mercyonline/onlinedegrees for a current listing of online degree programs. In addition, students may complete the General Education requirements toward all Mercy College degrees through Mercy Online.
The Idea of Online Learning
Quality learning is accessible, flexible and convenient with Internet access. Web-based courses through Mercy Online are equivalent to their on-site counterparts. Students receive the same high-quality instruction as they would in the classroom — only delivered online. Studies may be completed wherever students have broadband access to the Internet. Instructors expect regular participation and contact from online students. Online learning courses typically contain web pages of course content and require asynchronous online discussion. Faculty moderate discussions and provide questions that direct student participation in written and research assignments that are similar to those given on campus. In addition, real time chat, slide presentations, audio and video often are added to a course to enhance the learning experience. Students find that most courses use textbooks, purchased through the online bookstore. Mercy Online provides a myriad of supplementary student service including online tutorials, tutoring in various subject areas, academic advising, personal counseling and career counseling.

Making the Choice
The most successful Mercy Online students are self-directed and self-motivated. They understand that taking an online course is convenient, but no less challenging or less rigorous than the same course taught in the classroom. Students must take an honest look at their past performance and determine if they have the potential to succeed in Mercy Online. Those students who are strong and self-motivated may be ready to participate in an intensive and quality learning environment.

Technical Requirements
At minimum, students enrolling in online courses must have access to a computer, and basic computer skills that include using a word processor, the Internet and email. Specific programs may require additional skills. Broadband Internet access (cable, DSL, FiOS) and recent versions of Internet Explorer or Firefox are required. Students must have their own Internet Service Provider. While not required, a sound card, web camera and speakers or headphones are recommended.

Guidelines for Online Participation
Before taking any online courses, Mercy Online students should complete an Online Student Orientation at the following link: www.mercy.edu/blackboard-orientation. For each course, students are expected to participate no less than three times each week. (For accelerated programs, students are expected to participate more frequently.) Participation includes reading course material, contributing to discussions, completing assignments, etc. Most courses require students to compose and post at least four substantive messages per week, more for accelerated programs. Some courses may have additional requirements. Failure to meet these requirements could affect the final grade for the course.

Exams and Testing
Professors have different exam, testing and grading requirements for their courses. Courses may require a visit to a Mercy College campus for proctored mid-term or final exams. Non-regional students are required to identify proctors for these exams. Proctors must be approved by Mercy Online, and it is the responsibility of the student to reimburse proctors for their services. Detailed information about the exam process... can be found on the Mercy Online website. For additional information about Online Learning, please contact Mercy Online at 914-674-7521 or visit our website at www.mercy.edu/mercyonline.

Libraries and Information Science

The program offers open elective courses for credit in Library and Information Science. Some of these courses are of an interdisciplinary nature and can be taken by students who meet the prerequisites to complement the courses in their major concentration. The division does not offer a major concentration in Library and Information Science. Courses will also complement the existing catalog description of the information literacy competency by equipping students with the necessary skills to:

1. Recognize and articulate the need for information.
2. Access information from appropriate sources.
3. Critically analyze and evaluate information and its sources.
4. Organize and process information.
5. Apply information for effective and creative decision-making.
6. Generate and effectively communicate information and knowledge.
7. Develop skills in using information technologies.
8. Understand and respect the ethical, legal and sociopolitical aspects of information and its technologies.
9. Develop attitudinal objectives that lead to the appreciation of lifelong learning.

Libraries and Information Science

Students may choose the following electives:

- LISC 101 Information Use and Library Research
- LISC 260 Using Electronic Resources for Research
- LISC 295 Topics in Information Studies

Karol Marcinkowski University of Medical Science

Mercy College and the Karol Marcinkowski University of Medical Science have an articulation agreement whereby matriculated students at Mercy College majoring in biology and are interested in going to medical school are secured placement at the Karol Marcinkowski University of Medical Science in Poland. Students must complete 90 credits of undergraduate course work at Mercy College and must maintain a B average (3.0) throughout their matriculation at the College. Upon completion of the undergraduate course work, students begin a four-year medical program at the University in Poznan, Poland. All courses taken at the University are taught in English. For information regarding admission to the program please contact the chair of the Natural Sciences department.
Study Abroad
Mercy College encourages students to enrich their educational experience by studying abroad in approved programs. Study abroad affords students opportunities to learn in a foreign country while earning credits towards their Mercy College degree. While living and studying in another country, Mercy students experience first-hand new cultures, people, and places. In the study abroad experience—whether inside or outside the classroom—students discover what it means to be a global citizen; develop global perspectives on academic subjects and real-world issues; gain deep exposure to a foreign language; grow personally; and develop vital career skills, such as independence, critical thinking, expanded world-view, communication, self-confidence, and the ability to learn in unfamiliar settings.

Study abroad is open to any student at Mercy College who has successfully completed at least twenty-four (24) credit hours at Mercy College (the equivalent of two full-time semesters) and has a minimum GPA of 2.75 at Mercy College. Academic credit is given for a program of foreign study that is planned prior to departure, approved by Mercy College, and is successfully completed (with a grade of C or better). Grades earned abroad are not calculated into a student’s Mercy College GPA.

In addition to the semester-abroad model, short-term study abroad experiences of two to eight weeks are also available. In addition, some faculty lead international travel courses over semester breaks.

Mercy College has exchange programs with numerous foreign universities. These agreements facilitate study abroad through reciprocal acceptance of credits among the foreign universities and Mercy College. For the Academic Year 2015-2016, these universities include:

- American University of Antigua – Coolidge (Antigua)
- University of Teacher Education of Vienna (Austria) Vienna University of Technology (Austria)
- University of Graz (Karl Franzens University) (Austria) University of Education Upper Austria – Linz (Austria) University of Vienna (Austria)
- University College of Teacher Education, Lower Austria – Baden (Austria) FH Campus Wien University of Applied Sciences (Austria)
- American Business School of Paris (France) Berlin University of Applied Science (Germany)
- Catholic University of Eichstaett-Ingolstadt (Germany)
- Deree, The American College of Greece – Athens (Greece) Achva Academic College - Northern Negev Region (Israel)
- Rikkyo University – Tokyo (Japan)
- VU University Amsterdam (The Netherlands)

MATHEMATICS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (3 crs.)
Choose CISC/MATH 120 if required for major or additional MATH class 115–231

CRITICAL INQUIRY (3 crs.)
CINQ 101
Waived for transfer students with 30+ credits
Must substitute an additional Liberal Art course

SCIENTIFIC PERSPECTIVES (3 crs)
Choose from BIOL 110–161, BIOL 200, 222, 226, CHEM 110–161, PYHS 110–161, PHSC 110, 111, SINC 110

JUNIOR SEMINAR (3 crs.)
JRSM 301 Junior Seminar
Students will register for the course after completing 60 credits and before attaining 91 credits. Waived for students with a prior Bachelor’s degree. Must substitute an additional Liberal Arts course. Prerequisites: ENGL 112; SPCM 110; MATH 115 or 116

SOCIAL PERSPECTIVES (3 crs.)
Choose from PSYN 101, SOCL 101 ECON 115, 120 or other approved course

LITERATURE AND COMMUNICATION (3 crs.)
Choose one course from ENGL 217, 220, 239, 268, 275, 295 SPCM 144, HUMN 216
THE ARTS (3 crs.)
Choose ARTT 107, MUSI 107, MUSI 103, 104, 107, 218, 260, 271, 272, or MEDA 209, 211

LANGUAGE AND CULTURAL PERSPECTIVES (3 crs.)
Choose one intermediate level language course SPAN 116, FREN 116, ITAL 116 or any other foreign language or AMSL 116 (American Sign Language) or SPAN 225 or SPAN 275

ADDITIONAL LIBERAL ARTS (6 crs.)
Under advisement choose additional liberal arts courses from any of the areas above.

ADDITIONAL OPEN ELECTIVES (12 crs.)
Choose 12 credits of open electives

Requirements for an interdisciplinary studies major with an Individually Approved Program — Students must file a proposal for an interdisciplinary studies major in conformity with the following conditions:

1. The student must state the objectives of the proposed program of studies and the reason why these objectives cannot be met through existing programs.

2. The proposed major must be made up of a coherent program of studies of at least 36 credits involving course work in at least two different departments.

3. The major must include no more than nine credits of independent study, a major portion of which should be of an integrated nature, i.e., contribute to the interrelationships of the disciplines studied. Off-campus experience undertaken as part of the program and with supervision from members of the faculty is encouraged.

Procedure to be followed by students wishing to pursue an interdisciplinary studies major:

1. Complete at least 30 credits of college work and not more than 75 credits.

2. Develop a proposal conforming to the requirements above.

3. Secure the approval of at least two faculty members from different departments offering courses included in the proposal, one of whom agrees to act as the student’s major advisor.

4. Submit the signed proposal to the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs for review and referral to the Interdisciplinary Studies Committee for approval.

5. Upon completion of the proposed major, submit to the same committee the following:
a. A request that the student be approved for the degree.

b. Either a portfolio of work prepared during the course of studies (included in major); such a portfolio might include examinations, papers, and other projects, which will manifest the development of the central theme of the major.

or

c. Major paper or project, which represents a culminating experience and an effort to synthesize in an interdisciplinary manner various aspects of the theme which have been pursued. Three credits can be assigned to this project. Such credits are considered independent study.

OR

Student may consult one of the existing models formulated between various departments such as American Studies, Women’s Studies, Ethnic Studies and Third-World Studies.

Changes in Program: Changes that do not substantially alter the nature of the program may be approved by the Faculty Advisor. Substantial changes, i.e., those changes that alter the direction or theme of the major, must be approved by the Interdisciplinary Studies Committee.
Matriculation and Credit
A student may register for courses without being matriculated, but in the event of subsequent matriculation, the student may not apply any degree requirements from catalogs issued previous to his/her matriculation. Interruption of study other than Leave of Absence will result in loss of matriculation.

Credit Hours
Mercy College’s policy on assignment of credit hours is modeled after the Carnegie unit system and applies to all graduate and undergraduate courses in all schools, regardless of modality of instruction. Under this policy, there is a standard meeting time of 50 minutes per credit hour per week. Standard meeting patterns are established at either one meeting per week or two meetings per week. Standard academic terms span either 15 weeks (for semester and trimester-based programs) or 10 weeks (for quarter-based programs). It is recommended that Mercy College students are assigned two-hours of homework for every hour of in-class instruction. At the time of course creation and approval, credit hours are assigned (at the school level by the appropriate academic unit head and endorsed by the Registrar) based on the accrediting body credit hour requirements and/or NYSED regulation. Online courses are subject to an approval process similar to that of traditional in-person courses to ensure credit hour criteria are met.

Registration
The regular registration periods are designated precisely for each semester, term, and session. Additional times are designated as periods for late registration. It is preferable, both for students and the College, to have students register early in order to avoid being closed out of courses. Students may register for courses each semester via the Web at www.mercy.edu. Registration is subject to academic procedures published by the Registrar, and billing procedures published by the Office of Student Accounts. All program changes and late registrations are contingent upon approval from the student's COP or PACT mentor. Policy of some academic departments may preclude a student from entering a course after its first meeting.

Prerequisites
Some courses in the catalog have other courses as prerequisites. Permission to take a course without indicated prerequisites must be obtained from the chairperson/program director of the department offering the course.

Auditing a Course
Students may enroll in a course on an audit basis. The audit fee is 50 percent of the current per credit tuition rate. A student does not receive a grade or credit for the course he/she audits. Students must fill out an Audit Form available in the Office of Enrollment Services at each campus within the first two weeks of a term.

Course Load
Matriculated students may normally register for no more than a total of five courses in a given 16-week daytime semester, or five courses during a 16-week evening semester, or two courses in an eight-week B or C term. Permission to register for an additional course (for a total of six courses) must be obtained from the Registrar. Guidelines for six courses include a minimum 3.0 GPA in the previous two full-time terms at Mercy College. Permission to register for seven courses in any combination of terms must be obtained in writing from the Office of the Provost. Guidelines for approval for seven courses include the following: minimum GPA of 3.8, successful completion of six courses in one term (no withdrawals, Fs, or Ds), and assessment by the Office of the Provost. Non-matriculated students may not register for more than five courses in any given 16-week term. A student may register for fewer than five courses, and some students may be recommended or required to take a reduced program in cases of academic deficiency. In summer sessions, no student may register for more than two courses per session, or more than a total of four courses in three sessions extending over a 12-week period.

Core Courses
NYS regulations require that a student must take a minimum of one three-or-more credit course at the campus at which the degree program is approved by the state education department. Each program has detailed a core course within the major, which is only offered at the program’s ‘home’ campus, for this purpose. Students may take other core requirements and electives at other campuses, but they must complete the core course at the home campus in order to complete their degree. Core courses are designated throughout the catalog with the superscript (CC); the list of programs by approved campus is set out in the Registered Programs (by campus) section of this Catalog.

Scheduling Options
Mercy College offers a wide range of flexible course options. Web registration is available to all students, and encouraged. A complete listing of course offerings for each location is available online three times a year for the fall, spring and summer terms. Day classes are offered at all campuses in a traditional 16-week semester. Evening classes are offered at all campuses with 16-week semesters and eight-week terms available. Weekend classes are offered in a 16-week semester during the day on Saturday at the Dobbs Ferry, Bronx and Yorktown Heights campuses. Summer classes are available at the main and branch campuses offering five and 10-week terms, as well as several additional specialized terms. All courses may require a student to complete online components to satisfy the course requirements.

Tutorial Courses
A tutorial course is a substitute for a regular course offering that is not scheduled to be given during the last year of a student’s residence and is needed to complete his/her requirements for graduation. It is not meant to be used as a scheduling convenience, but, rather, as a last resort after all other scheduling alternatives have been exhausted. The tutorial will always be worth the same number of credits as the catalog course.

1. The tutorial will ordinarily be given in the student’s senior year and only if the required course will not be offered during that year.
2. The student must obtain the approval of an instructor, who will submit to the department chairperson an outline of the course, a bibliography, an assignment plan, and a procedure for evaluating the student’s performance. The plan must be submitted to the school dean for approval.

Independent Study Projects

An independent study project is an original course of study planned by the student in conjunction with a faculty member for the purpose of covering material not offered as a regular course. The student must be at least a junior and have a cumulative GPA of no less than 3.0. To initiate the independent study, a student must fill out the required form, attach to it a written proposal for the course of study to be undertaken, and obtain the approval of his/her mentor and the school dean. The school dean will send it to the registrar for processing.

A student may take no more than nine credits in independent study in his/her major area and no more than a total of 15 credits toward his/her degree. No more than one independent study may be taken in any semester.

Evaluation

Students are evaluated in the majority of their courses by the commonly used grading system in which:

- A  4.0  excellent
- A-  3.67  very good
- B+  3.33  very good
- B   3.0   good
- B-  2.67  good
- C+  2.33  satisfactory
- C   2.0   satisfactory
- C-  1.67  passing but unsatisfactory
- D   1.0   passing but unsatisfactory
- F   0.0   failure
- FW  0.0   failure due to unofficial withdrawal
- P   acceptable work
- NC  work not acceptable for credit
- AU  the student is auditing the course

The grade of I is given for a course in which the student has not completed all course requirements and the faculty has agreed to extend the deadline for submission of course materials. All incomplete work must be completed and delivered to the faculty or to his/her designated representative no later than 30 calendar days following the final day of the term in which the course was offered. The instructor shall take such work into consideration in assigning a final grade. If the instructor judges that all the student’s work taken together does not justify the change from I to a passing grade, or the student fails to submit course material, the I shall automatically become an F on the day by which resolution of I grades is required.
Students who have at least sophomore standing and a C average or better may have the option of taking courses ordinarily graded under the conventional system, under the P/NC system with the following restrictions:

1. A course taken optionally for P/NC grading may not be used to fulfill any major or minor requirements, or any general education requirement except under the heading Open Elective.

2. No student may take more than one course graded P/NC optionally during the time period of any given semester and total credits taken with the P/NC option may not exceed 24 credits.

3. Students must make formal application on forms provided for this purpose in the Office of Enrollment Services. The application must be signed by the student’s PACT or COP mentor and the course instructor, and must be submitted to the Office of Enrollment Services prior to the end of the add/drop period for the term in which the course is scheduled. Once submitted, the request stands and the student may not petition for a change to a letter grade in the course. Some courses are offered, by way of an exception to general practice, for only a P/NC grade. Such courses are not subject to the restrictions described above.

The final grade in a course is the instructor’s estimate of the student’s achievement; it is based upon quality of performance in addition to regularity of attendance and class participation.

Instructors are required to keep a complete grade record of each class for one full year after the end of the semester or term in which the course was taught. Questions regarding a grade received in a course must be addressed within this time frame and should be addressed first with the instructor. The school dean, in turn, may be consulted by either party to ensure fairness.

Withdrawal from a Course

A student who has decided that he/she will be unable to complete the work of a course satisfactorily may withdraw from the course up to the 12th week of a 16-week term and up to the fifth week of an eight-week term. Course withdrawals may be processed online via MercyConnect, or in person at the Office of Enrollment Services at your campus of choice. It is wise to consult your COP or PACT mentor. The student is advised to meet with an Enrollment Services Counselor regarding refund policies and the effect of the withdrawal on continuing eligibility for federal, state and institutional financial aid. Withdrawal from a course is indicated on a student’s transcript by W.

Please note that a student who stops attending a class but does not officially withdraw by completing a withdrawal process, either in person or online before the withdrawal deadline, will receive a FW grade. The FW grade will be calculated in the same manner as an earned F in the GPA.

Late Registration or Late Add

Late registration ends one week after the first day of class for any given term. Any student who wishes to register after that time, and has made the appropriate payment or payment arrangement, must show written permission signed and dated on the registration form the department chair or program head, the appropriate school dean (or suitable designee) and an academic advisor. If the student has missed more than one meeting of the class, the student must also get written permission from the instructor.
of that course or written proof that the student has been attending the class before the academic advisor may give approval. If the class is closed, the student must get a permit from the school dean before the academic advisor may sign the late registration form.

Late Withdrawal

It is important to note that all withdrawals are based upon tuition commitments for the full semester in accordance with the published refund schedule. The effective date of withdrawal is the date when the student withdrew using Mercy Connect or the date the withdrawal was processed in the Office of Enrollment Services. Failure to attend classes does not constitute an official withdrawal.

Exception to Registration and Refund Policies

Mercy College is committed to providing motivated students with the opportunity to succeed in the classroom. The College recognizes that there may be extraordinary circumstances under which attendance in class is rendered impossible. For these reasons, the College has instituted the following exception policy.

Students with the following extraordinary circumstances may be eligible to request an exception to the registration and refund policies:

Personal Illness. This applies to a student who is unable to attend class due to a prolonged hospital stay of 14 calendar days or more. All cases of personal illness, as defined above, must be documented with an original copy of the physician’s diagnosis and recommendation, and if working, disability papers.

Military Service. This applies to any student required to discontinue attendance of classes due to military service. A copy of the orders to report to active duty must accompany the request.

If a student believes that he or she fits into either of the categories of exceptions as stated above, a formal request for an exception must be made in writing to the student’s academic advisor immediately following his or her withdrawal from classes, or no later than 14 calendar days from the date of withdrawal. Any request filed after this time period will not be accepted. This written request must be made by using the “Request to the Committee for Special Consideration” form, which can be found on Mercy Connect. The form must be accompanied by a letter explaining his or her extenuating circumstances. Any supporting documentation, as stated above, must accompany the form and explanation letter. The student’s exception documents will be given by the PACT or COP mentor to The Committee for Special Consideration which will review each case within 30 calendar days of receipt. The student will receive the decision of the committee via mail from the Vice President of Enrollment Services on behalf of the Committee for Special Consideration.

A student who is denied an exception by the committee may appeal the committee’s decision to the Office of the Chief Operating Officer via the Vice President of Enrollment Services. Appeals must be submitted within seven calendar days from receipt of the committee’s decision and all documentation should be sent to the Assistant to the Vice President of Enrollment Services. All decisions on appeal are final.
Students who have applied for and received a refund from a loan may not apply for special consideration until the loan refund is fully repaid to the College. In addition, federal guidelines require the College to return either full or partial grant and/or loan money depending on the student's last day of attendance. In this case, all costs/arrears will be the responsibility of the student.

If a student is granted an exception and has already paid some or all of his or her tuition bill for the semester, the student will not receive a refund, but will be able to apply these funds towards future semesters of study at Mercy College.

Attendance Policy

It is assumed that a student will attend all classes for which he/she is registered. Ceasing to attend classes for three consecutive class meetings without contacting the instructor will result in the issuance of a grade of FW, which indicates “stopped attending.” This grade of FW will be calculated into the student’s GPA as an F and may result in dismissal. In addition this status will be reported to The Office of Enrollment Services and may result in a reduction of financial aid monies.

Leave of Absence

A student in good standing may request a leave of absence from the College, for a maximum of two consecutive semesters, without prejudice to his/her standing. If the student does not return for the third semester he/she must re-apply to the College for admission and follow the rules and regulations of that catalog year. A leave of absence may be obtained by written request from a PACT or COP mentor at the campus where the student is taking courses or online via Mercy Connect under School Resources on the right side of the academic advising tab.

Good Academic Standing

In order to be in good academic standing a student must meet minimum satisfactory academic progress toward the completion of a degree. The minimum standard per cumulative credits total varies for an associate’s degree candidate and a bachelor’s degree candidate. In both cases, a cumulative GPA of 2.0 is required for graduation; however, minimum GPA standards for the first two years of study are somewhat lower in recognition of the transition into college-level work.

The following minimum GPA must be attained based upon the number of credit hours attempted (not necessarily achieved) for a candidate’s degree:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Associate Degree</th>
<th>Bachelor’s Degree</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>0–15 credits</td>
<td>150 GPA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16–30 credits</td>
<td>175 GPA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>31 + credits</td>
<td>200 GPA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0–30 credits</td>
<td>150 GPA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>31–60 credits</td>
<td>175 GPA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>61 credits or above</td>
<td>200 GPA</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

At the end of each semester, the Committee on Academic Standing reviews the records of all matriculated students whose GPA is below 2.0. A student who did not attain the minimum GPA for the number of credits he/she has attempted as stated in the above charts are placed on academic probation. To show satisfactory academic progress, the student who is placed on academic probation must achieve the minimum GPA as stated above for the number of attempted credits for the following term of enrollment. If the term GPA is below that minimum, the student will be dismissed.
Those students who have made acceptable progress during their first semester on probation will be permitted to continue on probation for one additional semester until the cumulative GPA for their range of credits is achieved. If the cumulative GPA for the student’s range of credits is not achieved by the end of this second semester, the student will be dismissed.

Students receiving funds from TAP and Title IV must follow the Guidelines for Academic Progress stated in the Financial Aid section of this catalog.

Academic Dismissal

A matriculated student who, after being placed on Academic Probation, fails to achieve good academic standing will be dismissed from Mercy College and will not thereafter be allowed to register for any courses at Mercy College.

A student who has been academically dismissed for the first time has the right to make a formal appeal to the Committee on Academic Standing. If the student is readmitted, he/she is placed on one-semester probation during which time he/she must meet the conditions specified by the Committee or be subject to final dismissal.

Academic Eligibility for Financial Aid

In order to maintain their eligibility for financial aid, all students who receive financial aid from the federal and / or state government are required to meet specific standards of academic progress (total number of credits passed and the student’s GPA in a specific semester). The Office of Enrollment Services maintains current records on all students receiving financial aid and thereby monitors their ongoing eligibility for such aid. More detailed information about these standards is available through the Office of Enrollment Services.

Scholastic Index

The scholastic index shows the average grade attained in a set of completed courses. The scholastic index for a given set of courses is determined by dividing the total number of quality points earned in those courses by the total number of credits that would be conferred by the successful completion of those courses. The number of quality points earned through completion of a given course is determined by multiplying the number of academic credits the course may confer by the coefficient corresponding to the grade received. The scale of coefficients is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Coefficient</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>4.0 (A)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A-</td>
<td>3.67 (A-)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B+</td>
<td>3.33 (B+)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>3.0 (B)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B-</td>
<td>2.67 (B-)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C+</td>
<td>2.33 (C+)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>2.0 (C)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>1.0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>0.0</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Example: If a student completes five courses, each conferring three credits, grades A, B+, C+, C, he/she can compute his/her scholastic index as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Credits</th>
<th>Coefficient</th>
<th>Quality Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>X</td>
<td>4.0 (A) = 12.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>X</td>
<td>3.33 (B+) = 9.99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>X</td>
<td>2.33 (C+) = 6.99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>X</td>
<td>2.33 (C+) = 6.99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>X</td>
<td>2.0 (C) = 6.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

\[
\text{Scholastic index } = \frac{41.97}{15} = 2.798
Courses taken under the Pass/No Credit system, courses for which a student has received a W, and courses taken at other colleges do not affect the student’s scholastic index.

Grade Suppression
If a student repeats a course, the lower grade will be suppressed from his/her GPA. The original course and the repeated course must be taken at Mercy College. The lower grade will remain on the transcript but will not count in the overall GPA. Students receiving financial aid should check with their counselor to understand how repeating a course may affect their aid.

Change of Grade Policy
A change of grade after the close of any grading period, other than to rectify a grade of Incomplete, is approved only if a mistake was made in determining the final grade.

Any grade change, other than for an incomplete, must be approved by both the program director and the school dean.

Transcripts and Grade Reports
Students may obtain their grades via Mercy Connect.

Transcripts are only processed and printed at the Office of Enrollment Services in Dobbs Ferry. However, transcript requests may be made online or at any campus for pick-up at a later date. No transcript is issued for a student whose financial account is not settled.

Dean’s List
A student whose semester GPA is 3.7 or above is eligible for inclusion on the Dean’s List. The student must be matriculated and carrying a full program of studies (12 credits per semester).

Academic Appeals Policy
The purpose of the Academic Appeals Policy is to provide a process for the equitable resolution of formal complaints made by a student, faculty member or administrator over academic issues including grade disputes, cheating, plagiarism and the application of academic policies, except for dismissal review. The following steps constitute the process; before proceeding to a higher-level step, all lower-level steps must first be completed and documented in some form. The College continues to recommend and encourage the informal resolution of complaints, believing that effective communication is also part of the educational process. To the extent that a faculty member, academic unit head or dean are unavailable, a designee may be appointed for purposes of resolving such issues in a timely manner.

Step One: Faculty.
At this step the process remains informal. Within four weeks of the end of the semester, term, or quarter (the “academic period”) in which the disputed matter occurred, the student and faculty member must meet in person or by phone to discuss the issue. After the meeting, the faculty member must make a decision within one week and communicate it in writing to the student. If the student is dissatisfied with the outcome of this meeting, a formal written appeal must be submitted by the student to the relevant academic unit head.
Step Two: Academic Unit Head.
Any formal written appeal of the decision in Step One must be filed with the academic unit head no later than six weeks after the end of the academic period in which the issue of the appeal occurred. Within two weeks of receipt of the formal written appeal, the academic unit head will, depending on the situation, meet separately or jointly with the student and faculty member involved. Meetings may be in person or via telephone. During these meetings each party will submit all information and supporting documentation to the academic unit head; a written decision should be sent to both parties within two weeks of the meeting. If the faculty member involved is also the academic unit head, the parties may agree to allow another faculty member in the department to review the appeal or proceed directly to Step Three.

Step Three: School Dean.
Within one week of the decision in Step Two, an appeal may be made in writing by the student to the relevant school dean. The school dean will, depending on the situation, meet separately or jointly with the student and faculty member, and, as necessary, the academic unit head involved within two weeks of receipt of the formal written appeal. Meetings should be in person, to the extent practicable. The school dean will review the written appeal and previous actions on the appeal, along with any additional information and substantiating documentation submitted by each party, and will render a decision in writing to all parties within two weeks of the meeting.

Step Four: Academic Appeals Committee.
In the event that the issue has not been satisfactorily resolved in Steps One, Two or Three, a final appeal may be made to the Academic Appeals Committee. Such appeal must be made in writing to the Committee, to the attention of the Associate Provost, within four weeks of the decision by the school dean. Appeals should be accompanied by any substantiating documentation. The Academic Appeals Committee will hold a meeting, as described below, and shall render a decision in writing to both parties within two weeks of the conclusion of the meeting.

The Undergraduate Academic Appeals Committee consists of the Associate Provost and up to three faculty members, two administrators, and two students. The chair of the Committee is the Associate Provost. The Committee meets at regular intervals.

All parties to the appeal will be permitted to participate in the meeting with the Committee. The student may be accompanied by one person who is not professional legal counsel. The Committee will hear from both parties and may call on any witnesses to the matter and review any supplementary documentation. The Committee may ask questions throughout the meeting and may, if necessary, adjourn the meeting to obtain additional information. The Committee will review whether it is more likely than not that the alleged conduct occurred. In the case of a grade dispute, the Committee does not have the authority to make a grade change; rather, the Committee will review whether it appears the original grade was fairly awarded.

The decision rendered by the Academic Appeals Committee is final; no additional appeals will be permitted.
Cheating and Plagiarism

Cheating and plagiarism are contrary to the purpose of any educational institution and must be dealt with severely if students’ work is to have any validity. An instructor who determines that a student has cheated on a test or assignment will, at a minimum, give a zero for that item and may give a failure for the course. Normally the matter is handled between the instructor and the student, but the department chairperson may be consulted by either party to ensure fairness.

Plagiarism, which is the appropriation of words or ideas of another without recognition of the source, is another form of cheating. An instructor who determines that a student has plagiarized will give a zero for the paper or project and may give a failure for the course.

Both cheating and plagiarism are grounds for dismissal from the College.

Any action taken regarding cheating or plagiarism is subject to the Academic Grievance Policy outlined in above and in the Student Handbook.

Transfer of Credit from Other Institutions

Students who are matriculated at Mercy College are encouraged to complete their programs at the College. Students who, for extenuating reasons, need to take courses at other colleges with the intention of transferring the courses to Mercy College must obtain written approval from the appropriate school dean. Students must obtain approval prior to enrolling in a course at another institution in order to ensure that the course is equivalent in content to the comparable course at Mercy College. Please note that students can obtain the transfer credit form through the Office of Enrollment Services or from the dean of the school. If written preapproval is not obtained the course may not be accepted in transfer. Students must complete the course with a grade of C (2.0) or higher. Transferring courses to Mercy College can in some cases make the student ineligible for graduation honors. Students should check the section on Graduation Honors for further information.

For a full explanation of transfer procedures, see Admissions Requirements.

Credit by Examination

Mercy College will accept up to 30 credits worth of credits by examination, 18 of which may be earned through general examinations. Testing credits will be included in the maximum number of allowable transfer credits accepted by the College. Credits by examination that are not deemed equivalent to a Mercy College course can be used as open or liberal art elective credit.

Students interested in credits by examination should consult with a PACT or COP mentor. For further information, contact the Mercy College testing office at 914-674-7358.
Credit for Life Achievement

Many adults, although they have not attended college, or at least have not completed the requirements for a bachelor’s degree, have held positions or engaged in activities that, as educational achievements, may be considered comparable in value to some of the academic experiences that a college affords. Consequently, Mercy College has established a policy of granting college credit for such achievements, subject to the following conditions:

Up to 30 credits may be granted learning achievements, which the College judges to be of such quality as to be comparable to educational achievement at the College level. Professional and paraprofessional work, political activity, volunteer work, and other employment that can be related to academic disciplines are among the kinds of experience that may have this quality. Applicants are judged on both the quality and length of their achievement, and must have spent usually at least five years in the employment of activities for which credit is sought to be eligible to receive the full 30 credits. Life Achievement credit is given only in the category of Open Electives; it does not count toward the residency requirement at the College and may not replace general education or major level course work. The applicant must register for the Life Achievement e-Portfolio course.

A student who meets all of the following criteria is eligible to apply for credit for life achievement: (A) matriculated at Mercy College; (B) at least 25 years old; (C) completed at least 30 academic credits at Mercy College before submitting the portfolio; (D) successful completed ENGL 112 either at the College or in transfer; (E) a minimum of one year’s relevant experiences to receive the minimum credit for life achievement (three open elective academic credits); and (F) a minimum of five years’ relevant experiences to receive the maximum credit for life achievement (30 open elective academic credits).

Any student interested in applying for life achievement credit should consult their COP or PACT mentor.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

Bachelor’s Degree

To be eligible for graduation with a bachelor’s degree, a student must successfully complete at least 120 academic credits, and these credits must fulfill one of the major curricular distributions in the College catalog. The student must follow the curriculum requirements of the catalog under which he/she matriculates or of any successive catalog during his/her continued matriculation prior to graduation. He/she may not use combinations from two or more catalogs to satisfy these requirements.

It should be noted that for the Bachelor of Arts degree, 90 of 120 credits must be completed in the liberal arts and sciences and for the Bachelor of Science degree, 60 of the 120 credits must be completed in the liberal arts and sciences. Curricular distributions should be interpreted accordingly.

Further, to be eligible for graduation with the bachelor’s degree, a student must fulfill the following conditions:
1. A minimum average of C in course grades represented by a cumulative scholastic index of not less than 2.0 in courses taken at Mercy College.

2. A minimum average of C in course grades represented by a cumulative scholastic index of not less than 2.0 in courses taken at Mercy College in the major field of study.

3. A minimum of at least 30 credits taken in residence at Mercy College. Graduate level courses are not included in the 30-credit residency requirement.

4. A minimum of one half of the credits in the area of the major concentration taken in residence at Mercy College. The minimum for each major concentration is listed under the major concentration requirements.

5. Residency is defined as courses offered by Mercy College for academic credit. Courses offered by other institutions or in cooperation with Mercy College do not fulfill residency requirements.

Specific requirements for each major concentration are listed at the beginning of each department’s course offerings.

Double Major

Occasionally a student wishes to specialize in two discrete areas of study to prepare for his/her intended career. In such a case the student may want to apply for a double major. The student will complete a single set of core and elective requirements and complete two sets of major requirements, one for each major desired. Where the same course is required in each major, the student may apply a maximum of 12 credits to satisfy both major requirements.

Overlap credits in excess of 12 must be substituted by major courses with the approval of the respective program directors. If a major does not have sufficient courses for substitution, then those two majors cannot be completed as a double major.

Double Degrees

Occasionally a student wishing to specialize in two discrete areas of study (e.g., Business Administration and Computer Science) will complete a double major. The New York State Education Department has issued guidelines stating that under such circumstances the award of two separate degrees would be inappropriate. In rare cases, however, where the two specializations are clearly widely separated (e.g., Business Administration and Music), and the student might need separate credentials attesting to his/her achievement in each area, separate degrees may be awarded. Students wishing to pursue two separate degrees should consult with the registrar early in their academic career.

Programs of study leading to the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree are available with the following major concentrations (Hegis Codes indicated):

- Behavioral Science (2201)
- Interdisciplinary Studies (4901)
- Mathematics (1701)

- Social Work (2104)

Program of study leading to the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree is available in the following major concentration (Hegis Code indicated):

- Computer Arts + Design (1009)

Specific requirements for each major concentration are listed at the beginning of each department’s course offerings.

Associate Degree

To be eligible for graduation with the Associate degree, a student must successfully complete 60 or more academic credits, and these credits must fulfill one of the curricular distributions by the College.

It should be noted that for the Associate in Arts degree, all 60 credits must be completed in the liberal arts and sciences; for the Associate in Science degree, 48 of 60 credits must be completed in the liberal arts and sciences.
Further, to be eligible for graduation with the associate degree, a student must fulfill the following conditions:

1. A minimum average of C in course grades represented by a cumulative scholastic index of not less than 2.0 in courses taken at Mercy College.

2. A minimum of one year’s work in residence, i.e., at least 30 credits taken at Mercy College.

Note: Enrollment in other than registered or otherwise approved programs may jeopardize a student’s eligibility for certain student aid awards.

Associate Degrees
The following associate degrees are offered at Mercy College:

- Occupational Therapy Assistant (5210) (A.A.S.) (DF)
- Liberal Arts & Sciences (5649) (DF, BX, YH, MT)

Curricular Distributions for all the Bachelor’s Degrees and Associate Degrees in Liberal Arts: General Rules and Definitions

English
Based on one’s high school transcript or result on the English Placement Examination, all students are required to take a sequence of two to four English courses beginning with ENGL 109, ENGL 110, ENGL 111, and culminating with ENGL 112.

All students are required to complete ENGL 111 and ENGL 112 or the equivalent. ENGL 109, and ENGL 110 do not count toward fulfilling the general education requirement in English.

LIBERAL ARTS AND SCIENCES ELECTIVES
These are courses selected in the area of the liberal arts and sciences. The College offers courses in these areas under the following headings (check individual course listings):

Graduation Honors
To be eligible for academic honors (summa cum laude, magna cum laude, and cum laude) and major program honors, a student must be a candidate for a baccalaureate degree and complete a minimum of 36 credits in residency at Mercy College. Required indices for honors are as follows:

- Summa Cum Laude: 3.8
- Magna Cum Laude: 3.6
- Cum Laude: 3.4

To be eligible for major program honors, a student must have an overall GPA of 3.0 and a 3.5 GPA in courses meeting requirements for their major program in the semester prior to the beginning of the semester their commencement takes place.
To be eligible for the President’s Medal and major program honors, which are awarded annually, and to have his/her honors appear in the published commencement program, a student must complete a minimum of 36 credits in residency at Mercy College prior to the beginning of the semester in which his/her commencement takes place.

Candidates for the Associate degree are eligible for honors if they have completed at least 36 credits at Mercy College and a minimum GPA of 3.4 for courses completed at Mercy College in the semester before their commencement takes place. Transfer credits are not included in the calculation for graduation honors.

Honor Societies

Mercy College has established chapters of a range of national honor societies. One of these, Alpha Chi, is an honor society promoting general academic excellence and character. Departments that have established chapters of honor societies are:

- Biological Sciences — Beta Beta Beta
- Business, Accounting — Delta Mu Delta
- Criminal Justice — Alpha Phi Sigma
- Education — Kappa Delta Pi
- English — Sigma Tau Delta
- Foreign Languages — Phi Sigma Iota
- Gerontology — Sigma Phi Omega

Minor Concentrations

Students may group a set of elective courses as a minor concentration. Minor concentrations are noted on a student’s transcript as a way of recognizing that he/she has, over and above the required major program, also concentrated to a lesser degree in one or more other areas. The rules governing a minor concentration are the same for all areas except Social Work and are as follows:
A minor concentration is constituted by a group of courses (numbered 120 or above) amounting to at least 15 credits in one of the following areas:

Biology
Business
Chemistry
Communications Disorders
Communication Studies
Computer Information Science
Computer Science
Criminal Justice
English
History
Humanities
Legal Studies
Mathematics
Media Studies
Music Industry + Technology
Psychology
Social Work*
Sociology
Spanish
Speech

* Requires 15 credits of social work theory with no more than three credits in social work practice.

The following conditions should be noted:
1. At least nine credits to be used toward a minor concentration must have been taken at Mercy College.
2. A student must have a 2.0 cumulative scholastic index in an area for it to be recorded as a minor concentration.
3. Courses already counted toward a major or the general requirement cannot also constitute part of the minor concentration.

General Education Curriculum

The General Education Curriculum has two distinct but interrelated purposes. First, it is designed to ensure that students have a certain breadth of knowledge. That knowledge is drawn from the liberal arts and sciences, and extends beyond the specialization of a major field. Second, the General Education Curriculum is designed to ensure that students develop the basic competencies that support continued growth and achievement in careers and in the professions. To achieve these goals, the General Education Curriculum has been designed with the following components:

Liberal Arts Core / Competency Skills .......................................................18 credits

CINQ 101 Critical Inquiry
ENGL 111 Written English and Literary Studies I
ENGL 112 Written English and Literary Studies II
SPCM 110 Oral Communication
MATH 115 Mathematics for the Liberal Arts or MATH 116 College Algebra or a higher-level math course
JRSM 301 Junior Seminar
Liberal Arts Disciplinary Groupings ................................................................. 24 credits

Choose three credits from each of the eight groupings:

- Literature and Communication
  - Literature, Speech, Communication
- Language and Cultural Perspectives *
  - World Languages
- Ethical Perspectives
  - Philosophy, Religion
- Historical and Global Perspectives
  - History, Political Science, Geography
- Mathematics and Information Technology
  - Mathematics, Computer Information Science
- Scientific Perspectives
  - Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Geology, Astronomy, Exercise Science
- Social Perspectives
  - Sociology, Psychology, Economics
- The Arts
  - Art, Art History, Music, Theatre, Film

Choose 18 credits with advisement from any combination of the eight groupings .................................................................................................................. 18 credits (Note: Some 200-level major prerequisite courses may be used to fulfill this requirement).

Total ........................................................................................................... 60 credits

* For Language credit a student must have the equivalent of an intermediate (level 116 or higher) course. Credit for any language course may be earned through traditional coursework, transfer credit or through an authorized proficiency exam.
Advising, Student Affairs and Student Life

Student Affairs at Mercy College promotes student learning and holistic development by providing intentional opportunities for engagement outside the classroom. Through these programs and services, Mercy College supports students’ academic development, inspires personal growth, and fosters interpersonal connections and collaboration to prepare students for success in our diverse community and beyond.

Every undergraduate student at Mercy College is assigned a PACT or College Opportunity Program mentor.

A more detailed view of student life is provided in the Mercy College Student Handbook.

PACT Program

Mercy College believes in a student-first philosophy, which means individualized attention, uniquely tailored opportunities and innovative educational programs. The Mercy College Personalized Achievement Contract (PACT) exemplifies our commitment to our students and is dedicated to supporting them academically, personally and professionally.

The PACT program maximizes personal success through a comprehensive collaboration between the student and Mercy College. PACT students are provided professional mentors who facilitate integrated support for academic, career and personal growth. Each mentor is trained in the areas of academic advising, student life, financial aid, career preparation and leadership skills. Together, student and mentor create a customized plan designed to enhance the student’s overall long-term success.

From the start, PACT mentors work with accepted students and their families to assist with the enrollment process, including financial aid, course registration and housing to foster a seamless transition to college. The mentor continues to build a close relationship with the student, serving as the student’s point person for all aspects of campus life from enrollment to employment. The customized plan and personalized guidance provided to PACT students assists in keeping them focused on academic achievement, campus engagement and career readiness, preparing each PACT student to be the best candidate for graduate school or the career of his or her choice. To learn more, call a PACT mentor at 914-674-PACT (7228) or visit our website at www.mercy.edu/student-affairs/pact.

New Student Orientation

Students entering Mercy College for the first time are invited to an orientation held over the summer. Separate orientation programs generally are planned for first-year students, transfer students, residence hall students and international students. At Orientation, new students meet members of the administration, staff and faculty and learn about services and opportunities that are vital elements of life at Mercy College. For online students, there is an online orientation that walks the student through the taking of an actual online course. Transfer students who have previously participated in the collegiate experience are given information about those programs and services that are unique to Mercy College.

Residential life
An on-campus residence hall opened at Mercy College in September 1995. The Residence Hall, with meeting rooms, community rooms and 210 beautiful rooms, overlooks the majestic Hudson River. The College also houses students at nearby hotels in the area. Call the Admissions Office or Residential Life to arrange a tour.

The Residential Life Program is designed to provide students with living facilities and activities that enhance and extend their formal classroom education. The program is structured to promote students’ social, cultural, personal and intellectual development. Living in a residence hall offers a structured environment in which students can live independently and develop a greater sense of personal identity within a community setting.

For further information, or to apply for a room in the Residence Hall, contact the Residential Life Office, 914-674-7277 on the Dobbs Ferry Campus or visit our website at www.mercy.edu.

Athletics
Mercy College sponsors intercollegiate competition in baseball, men’s and women’s basketball, men’s and women’s lacrosse, men’s and women’s soccer, field hockey, softball and volleyball.

Mercy College’s teams continue to attract a great deal of attention regionally and nationally. Recently, the men’s lacrosse team ranked seventh in the nation, amongst Division II, while each program continues to build a strong foundation and improve in the very competitive East Coast Conference. Besides Field Hockey, which is independent, all of Mercy’s teams are members of the ECC and square off nationally ranked opponents. Coaches at Mercy continue to compose star-studded rosters and bring in student athletes that are not only difference-makers on the field and the court, but are also proud ambassadors of the College.

The Mercy College athletic teams (at the Dobbs Ferry Campus only) are members of the following:

- East Coast Conference.
- National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division II.

Students may arrange to make recreational use of all the College’s athletic facilities, which include separate fields for baseball and softball, outdoor handball and basketball courts, several playing fields, and soccer field, as well as the gymnasium, fitness center, and tennis courts. Club sports and intramurals are run throughout the year, both for indoor and outdoor sports.
Career Services

Career Services at Mercy College teaches career readiness with the goal of each student developing lifelong, self-directed, career management skills. We provide the tools, training and exposure to opportunities that empower you to take ownership of your career success.

Through workshops, online resources, career events, job and internship fairs, and individualized counseling, we empower you to thrive in an ever-changing and exciting workplace. Open to all students across all campuses and online, our programs leverage the most advanced technologies available through our state-of-the-art Vitale Life Skills Lab, providing you access to career information and job and internship opportunities.

Career Maverick

Mercy College’s Career Maverick system is your online gateway to a host of tools and resources that will be of value to you throughout your college career and beyond. Registration is free and available exclusively to members of the Mercy College community at https://mercy-csm.symplicity.com. Through Career Maverick you will gain access to exclusive full-time and part-time job and internship opportunities specifically targeting members of the Mercy College community. You will also be able to access the NACElink Network, the largest career network of career services and recruiting professionals in the world.

All Career Services are free of charge to students and alumni. To schedule an appointment to meet with a counselor at the campus of your choice call 914-674-7203 or email: careerservices@mercy.edu. We’re here to help you!
College Bookstore and Textbooks
Textbooks are available for student purchase at the campus bookstores located at the Dobbs Ferry and Bronx campuses, as well as online at www.mercy-dobbs.bkstr.com for Dobbs Ferry, Manhattan, Yorktown Heights and Online students; or www.mercy-bronx.bkstr.com for Bronx students.

Textbook pricing information, including the International Standard Book Number (ISBN) and retail price, for required and recommended materials for each class is available on the bookstore website.

Student Government Association
The Student Government Association is dedicated to social and organization activities for the student body. The purpose of the organization is to represent students' views within the College and sometimes on local and national issues. It is also responsible for providing a variety of services to students. Students can get involved in its management, through numerous and varied committees, councils and general meeting, or become one of its elected officers.
Other Student Policies

Student Conduct and the Judicial System

Part of any educational process is instilling an understanding of civic values and of the standards of conduct and behavior that individuals expect of each other. Our policies reflect the values of our college and also incorporate a number of legal requirements. These policies address many of the difficult intersections between private conduct and societal rules, including alcohol and drug use and abuse, sexual assault and harassment, discrimination and hate crimes, and public speech. In developing policies that deal with these areas, the College seeks to educate our students as well as regulate activity. The responsibility for understanding and abiding by these policies, and any related laws, rests within each individual student. Students have the obligation to become familiar with the College’s policies and should reflect thoughtfully on their conduct in these areas.

Complaint/Grievance Procedures

Students with a complaint are encouraged to discuss their concerns informally with the appropriate office or individual. For academic concerns, students must communicate with their instructors and/or academic advisors early in the semester to resolve concerns and to allow time for appropriate actions and referrals.

Students wishing to file an official grievance should do so in writing. For academic concerns, the grievance should be addressed to the Office of the Provost. Please refer to Academic Grievance Policy in the Academic Regulations and Procedures section. Non-academic concerns should be addressed to the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs.

Non-Discrimination Policy

Mercy College, both historically and currently, is committed to a policy of promoting equal access to educational programs, employment opportunities, and all other college activities. Such equal access is extended to all persons, without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, ethnicity, ancestry, religion, age, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth and related conditions), sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, marital status, partnership status, disability, genetic information, alienage, citizenship, military or veteran status, unemployment status, or any other legally prohibited basis in accordance with federal, state and local laws.

It is also the College’s policy to provide reasonable accommodations when appropriate to individuals with disabilities, individuals observing religious practices, or employees who have pregnancy or childbirth-related medical conditions.

This Policy also prohibits retaliation for reporting or opposing discrimination, or cooperating with an investigation of a discrimination complaint.

Information concerning non-discrimination policies, including complaint procedures, may be obtained from the following individuals.

- For Students Assistant Dean of Student Affairs
- For Faculty, Administration, and Staff: Director of Human Resources.
- For Accessibility Services: Director of ACCESSibility
Policy on Alcohol and Illegal Drugs
The abuse of alcohol and illegal drugs can have a significant adverse effect upon the Mercy College community, compromising interpersonal relationships and undermining the educational mission of the College. In response to these concerns, and pursuant to the Drug-Free Schools of Communities Act Amendments of 1989, the College has developed a comprehensive program to prevent the use of illegal drugs and the abuse of alcohol. The College reviews its program biennially to determine its effectiveness, to implement any necessary changes, and to ensure that the required disciplinary sanctions are consistently enforced. Refer to the Student Handbook for detailed information concerning:

1. Mercy College’s policies on substance abuse and alcoholic beverages.
2. College sanctions for violation of these policies.
3. Criminal sanctions for the illegal possession or distribution of drugs and alcohol.
5. Places where one can receive help concerning the abuse of alcohol and drugs.

Notification Under FERPA of Student Rights Concerning Education Records and Directory Information
The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. See Section “5” below on your right to prevent the disclosure of directory information. The FERPA rights of students are:

1. The right to inspect and review your education records.
2. The right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate, misleading or otherwise in violation of the student’s privacy rights under FERPA.
3. The right to consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in your education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent;
4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the College to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA are:

   Family Policy Compliance Office
   U.S. Department of Education
   400 Maryland Avenue, SW
   Washington, D.C., 20202-5920

5. (The College will make the following “directory information” concerning current and former students available to those parties having a legitimate interest in the information: the student’s name, local and permanent address, email address, telephone number; age; photograph; major field of study; participation in officially recognized activities and sports; weight and height of members of athletic teams; enrollment status; dates of attendance at Mercy College; degrees, honors, and awards received and their dates; and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended. Any student who wishes any or all of his/her directory information to remain confidential may inform the Office of Student Services of his/her request in writing, at any time.
Detailed information concerning each of the points cited above can be found in the Mercy College Student Handbook, or can be obtained by inquiring with the Office of Registrar.

New York State Department of Health Bureau Immunization Program

All students born after January 1, 1957, are required to show proof of immunity against measles, mumps, and rubella. Please see page 306 for details.
Student Support Services and Resources

Campus Safety and Security
The Office of Campus Safety and Security will provide, upon request, all campus crime statistics as reported to the United States Department of Education. The Campus Safety (Clery Act) Report may be found on the Mercy College website. This information is also available, in a hardcopy format, from the Mercy College Office of Campus Safety and Security. To receive a copy, contact the Director of Security, at 914-674-7225.

Students may sign up to receive emergency campus alerts through the NY Alert website (https://users.nyalert.gov). For more information about preparing for or responding to a campus emergency, download the “In Case of Crisis” Application in the Apple or Google Play app stores.

Students wishing to report an emergency should call 914-674-9999 or 911; for general security assistance in a non-emergency situation call 914-674-7225.

Learning and Assessment Services
Learning and Assessment Services is the umbrella for the Vitale Center for Academic Excellence and Innovation (composed of Learning Centers on Mercy College’s four campuses), and the Testing Office. The overall purpose of these services is to provide Mercy College students with the academic support necessary to meet the challenges of higher education.

The Learning and Assessment Services are an outgrowth of Mercy College’s mission to support the academic development of students with their full range of diversity in language, scholastic background, levels of communications skills and general academic sophistication. The services of these offices are available to all undergraduate students who want to improve or enhance their learning skills. Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to take advantage of the available resources, and to discuss issues related to their classes.

The Vitale Center for Academic Excellence and Innovation
The four campus Learning Centers are designed to support teaching and learning at the College. They offer assistance in English and writing across the curriculum as well as most content-specific areas including mathematics, statistics and the computer sciences; biology, chemistry and physics.

Many qualified peers, graduate students and faculty members are on staff to help students succeed. Group, supplemental instruction and individual tutoring are available, as well as workshops on a variety of study skills.

Hours of offerings vary at each location. Mercy College students have access to all Centers regardless of home campus. Students interested in taking advantage of this service should call 914-674-7402.
Testing Office
The Testing Office coordinates all placement examinations for incoming new and transfer students. Examinations are administered by proctors and offered on all campuses. Placement examinations are used to determine the appropriate introductory level courses for incoming students in mathematics and English. This Office also administers the Introductory Computer Information Science (CISC 120) waiver exam and the College Level Examination Program (CLEP) exams. Students can contact the Office by calling 914-674-7358.

Health Information and Services
The Student Counseling Center offers psychological evaluation and brief treatment. On the Dobbs Ferry Campus, the Health Services Office is located in Room 115 of the Main Hall. The Office is staffed by a nurse who serves students with health problems, illnesses, and/or accidents during its posted hours. The office also provides information on family planning, weight control, sexually transmitted diseases, blood pressure and similar routine matters.

There are no fees for the services of the Health Office. If the services of a physician are necessary, and the student does not have a family physician, the nurse can provide a referral to a physician or to a community health agency. Students are urged to consult the nurse before serious symptoms of illness develop and before their schoolwork is affected by problems with their health. Students with medical problems that require special attention or care are also urged to contact the nurse. At campuses other than Dobbs Ferry, medical referral information is available. Personally identifiable health information is treated as confidential in compliance with the law. For more information, please contact the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs at 914-674-7622.

Counseling and Similar Support Systems
The Mercy College Student Counseling Services office offers psychological evaluation and brief treatment typically lasting from one to six sessions. Students in need of more intensive treatment are referred to local hospitals and clinics for long-term psychotherapy and/or medication, if necessary.

College students come to the Counseling Services office with mental health issues including increased stress, depression and anxiety as well as concerns about their academic progress, daily living, adjustment to college, or relationships with others. Counseling can be an opportunity to talk about issues that are of concern to students with an objective person who can help them develop skills and view situations in ways that may enable them to be more effective in managing life’s challenges down the road.

For more information or to schedule an appointment, please call 914-674-7233 (Dobbs Ferry, Manhattan, Yorktown campuses) or 718-678-8775 (Bronx campus).

This service is for Mercy College students ONLY. Full- and part-time faculty, administrators, and staff may contact the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) to obtain psychological services.
Students with Disabilities

The Office of ACCESSibility provides Accommodations, Collaboration, Consultation, and Educational Support Services for students with disabilities. The office works to collaborate with and empower students who have disabilities to obtain equal access to an education and college life. ACCESS provides opportunities and resources that will facilitate the development of self-advocacy, self-efficacy, and adaptive skills in students to overcome barriers a disability may present.

Students whose disabilities may require some type of accommodation must self-identify, complete an “Application for Accommodations” and provide supplemental documentation, as requested. The review of requests and documentation is a collaborative process; requests is handled on a case-by-case basis.

Students are encouraged to register with ACCESS as soon as possible upon admission to the College to ensure timely provision of services. Students should also visit ACCESS at the beginning of each semester to obtain up-to-date documentation of their accommodations. For more information, contact the Office of ACCESSibility, Main Hall, Room 108, (914) 674-7523 or accessibility@mercy.edu.

The Speech and Hearing Center

The Speech and Hearing Center offers diagnostic and remedial services for children and adults who have speech, language, and/or hearing disorders. In addition, the center serves as a laboratory for students studying speech, language, and hearing disorders and working toward New York State Provisional Certification as Teachers of the Speech and Hearing Handicapped.
Admission Requirements
Degree-Seeking Students (Matriculating)
Mercy College provides educational opportunities for applicants who demonstrate motivation, desire and the potential to benefit from, and contribute to, its programs of study. Qualified applicants are admitted without regard to race, religion, national or ethnic origin, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, age or physical disability.

First-Time Freshman
First-time student candidates for admission must submit the following to the Office of Admissions:

1. A completed Application for Admission, accompanied by a non-refundable application fee of $40. Mercy College accepts applications online and in paper format. Online Applications are available through the Common Application or from Mercy College’s website at www.mercy.edu/applyonline.

2. An official, final high school transcript (mailed by the high school directly to the College), which includes all secondary school grades, class rank and date of graduation. Students whose transcripts are unavailable should consult with an admissions counselor. Or, the applicant can provide a High School Equivalency Diploma, if applicable, with corresponding score sheet.

Matriculating Transfer Students
Transfer candidates must submit the following to the Office of Admissions:

1. A completed Application for Admission, accompanied by a non-refundable application fee of $40. Mercy College accepts applications online and in paper format. Online Applications are available through the Common Application or from Mercy College’s website at www.mercy.edu/applyonline.

2. Official, final transcript(s) from each college or university previously attended and official translation if necessary; and

3. An official, final high school transcript (mailed by the high school directly to the College), which includes date of graduation. Students whose transcripts are unavailable should consult with an admissions counselor. Or, the applicant can provide a High School Equivalency Diploma, if applicable, with corresponding score sheet.

Major Concentrations with Supplemental Admissions Requirements
The following major concentrations at Mercy College require supplemental admissions items: Computer Arts and Design, Music Industry & Technology, Occupational Therapy Assistant, Social Work, and Veterinary Technology Program with Specialization in Pre-Veterinary Medicine. For further information, refer to the relevant program page in this Catalog, the College’s website, or contact the Office of Admissions.
Additional Admissions Information

Mercy College takes a holistic approach in reviewing each student’s application. In the admission decision, we review a student’s transcript and academic record, including the courses taken and the grades attained. Other factors considered include the written essay, letter of recommendation, leadership potential, extracurricular and service-related activities, and the ability to contribute positively to the campus community. We do not believe that one test score is an indicator of a student’s success, therefore we are SAT/ACT optional.

All material for the application file is reviewed upon receipt. Mercy College applications for all three semesters (fall, spring and summer) are received on a rolling basis.

Acceptances are based upon completion of all admissions requirements and forms. The official, final high school transcript and any other forms and material that may be required are due on or before enrollment. If the high school transcript and the other required forms and materials are not submitted by that date, admission may be denied.

Upon notification of acceptance by Mercy College, applicants are requested to contact the Office of Admissions to submit the Intent to Enroll form and complete their registration. Full immunization compliance is required for registration. Please see Immunization Compliance Requirements at the end of this section.

Students who do not meet the minimum criteria for admission into the regular Mercy College program may be eligible for admission to one of the special programs under the umbrella of the College Opportunity Programs.

Application is made with the understanding that admission, matriculation and graduation are subject to the academic policies of Mercy College and that acceptance implies the obligation to abide by the rules and regulations of the College. The College reserves the right to request the withdrawal of any student who does not meet the above stated requirements.

Additional Information for Transfer Students

Transfer candidates applying for advanced standing will receive credit in transfer upon matriculation at Mercy College. Credit is usually transferable for all courses in which the applicant has obtained a grade of C (2.0) or higher. If a student has an Associate’s degree and an average of C in courses taken for that degree, he/she will ordinarily receive full credit for all the courses successfully completed in earning that degree. If a student has an associate’s degree, with a minimum of 48 credits in liberal arts and sciences, and an average grade of C in courses taken toward that degree, he/she may receive full credit for having completed the general education requirements for the bachelor’s degree at Mercy College with the exception of any general education courses that are prerequisites for the major. The evaluation of transcripts for the purpose of determining transferable credit is done on an individual basis. Matriculating students must successfully complete at least 30 semester-hours of credit in residence, 15–21 credits of which must be in their major concentration, in order to receive their degree from Mercy College.
A maximum of 75 credits may be accepted upon transfer from accredited two-year colleges. A maximum of 90 credits may be accepted upon transfer from accredited four-year colleges. Combined transfer credits from two- and four-year colleges may not exceed 90 credits. All final official transcripts with completed coursework must be submitted before the end of a student's first semester at Mercy College, and before any financial aid may be disbursed to the student.

Campus Visits and Information Sessions
Prospective applicants are encouraged to visit the College and to schedule an appointment with an admissions counselor to discuss academic and career goals, admission requirements, financial aid availability, and registration procedures. Appointments may be made with an admissions counselor at any of Mercy College’s campuses. Applicants can also visit our website at www.mercy.edu.

SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF ADMISSIONS

Accelerated Students
Accelerated students who have completed the requirements for a high school diploma after three years of high school may matriculate at Mercy College. Such students should apply for admission during their junior year in high school. Exceptional students may matriculate and study full-time under supervision at Mercy College without completing formal work for the high school diploma. Such students are accepted by Mercy College in accordance with the Early Admission Guidelines set forth by the New York State Education Department.

Advanced Placement
Students who have taken college-level courses in high school and who have received satisfactory scores on the College Board Advanced Placement Examinations are exempt from taking corresponding courses at Mercy College and are eligible for advanced standing. Students may also obtain advanced placement by achieving satisfactory scores on tests administered by the College Level Examination Program and the Regents College Exam. Credits earned in this way may be used to satisfy general requirements. Credit may also be awarded for Life Achievement following submission and evaluation of a portfolio. For more information, please refer to the Life Achievement section of this Catalog.

Advanced Study
High school seniors (or those about to enter their senior year) who wish to register for a course as a non-matriculate student may do so provided they meet certain requirements. This is an enrichment program — not for students who need to make up credits because they have failed high school classes. High school students are not eligible to take remedial courses under this program.

- High school students must take the English Placement Test and score at the 110 level. If they are taking courses that require it, they must also take the Mathematics Placement Test. The placement tests can be waived under special circumstances.

- High school students must submit a letter of permission from an appropriate high school official (varies upon school — guidance counselor, principal, assistant principal etc.)
High school students may register on a space available basis on the first day of the term at a reduced tuition rate.

High school students should complete the College’s registration process. Please contact the Office of Admissions for more information at 877-MERCY-GO.

Adult Students

Mercy College offers qualified and motivated adult students the opportunity to pursue an undergraduate degree. Adult students who do not meet Mercy College’s undergraduate admission requirements may gain entrance into most undergraduate degree programs based on an the review of alternative admission materials. To qualify for such a review, students must (a) be age 24 or over, (b) be out of school (high school or college) for five or more years, and (c) have three or more years of professional work experience. Students must submit a current resume or CV and complete Mercy College’s English and math placement tests. An admissions interview may be required on a case-by-case basis.

Students applying for admission to undergraduate programs in Computer Arts & Design, Music Industry & Technology, Nursing (R.N. to B.S.), and Social Work will be required to submit supplemental documents or proof of licensure. Undergraduate programs in Generic Nursing, Veterinary Technology, Occupational Therapy Assistant, and Health Science are not eligible for alternative admission. Adult students applying to these programs must meet regular admission requirements. For more information, contact the Office of Admissions at 1-877-MERCY-GO or email admissions@mercy.edu.

Dual Degree Programs

Mercy College offers over ten Dual Degree Programs which enable you to earn a bachelor’s and master’s degree in the fields of Accounting, Business, Education, Nursing, Health Sciences, Cybersecurity or Psychology. Many of these programs allow students to take graduate credits in their junior and senior years, and these credits can be used towards satisfying their bachelor’s as well as master’s degree requirements. Combining undergraduate and graduate degree programs streamlines the certification process in many of the related professions thus reducing the time and costs associated with obtaining a master’s degree.

International Students

International applicants who plan to attend Mercy College under F-1 non-immigrant student status should contact the International Students Office and request the I-20 Eligibility Form, other immigration and admissions related materials, and assistance with visa procedures.

The International Students Office provides academic support and immigration advisement for holders of F-1 non-immigrant status in the U.S. Individuals who may be considering a Change of Status (COS) to F-1 International Student, or need information about their eligibility to study in their current immigration status, should contact the International Students Office for support. The office assists members of the Mercy College international community by providing direct support with academic, career, employment, immigration, personal, cross-cultural and financial matters as it serves as a referral source to other college offices and academic departments. The office will advise on immigration matters including, general information on students’ rights and responsibilities, assistance with procedures required for transferring institutions, extensions of stay, permission to work and practical training experiences. All F-1 international students must report within 15 days of arrival to the International Students Office of Mercy College with their travel and immigration documents. International students may contact the International Students Office at (914) 674-7284 or international@mercy.edu.

Official transcripts from foreign institutions must be evaluated by NACES, AICE, or AACRO members, or internally, and sent directly to the Admissions Office at Mercy College. International applicants whose primary language is not English are required to submit scores from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or IELTS (International English Language Testing System). For more information regarding English proficiency requirements, please contact the Office of Admissions at 877-MERCY-GO or write to admissions@mercy.edu

Members of the Armed Forces and Veterans
At Mercy College, the past and present sacrifices made by student veterans in service to our nation are deeply appreciated. For active-duty service members and military veterans who want to advance their education and career in the midst of a rigorous lifestyle, Mercy College enables students to earn an undergraduate and/or graduate degree from more than 90 degree choices. Mercy College degree programs are designed to meet the needs of even the most demanding military schedule in an affordable, flexible, and individual approach with special emphasis on distance learning, service relevant programs, and second career paths.

Mercy College is an official U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs Yellow Ribbon School, and a G.I. Jobs Top Military Friendly School. It is also recognized as a Service Members’ Opportunity College (SOC), providing educational assistance to active-duty service members; a joint member of the Department of Defense Concurrent Admissions Program; and an approved college for the National Guard Tuition Grant Program.

Mercy College offers the following benefits for members of the armed forces and veterans:

1. Use of admissions procedures that insure access to higher education for academically qualified military personnel
2. Evaluation of learning gained through military experiences and academic credit awarded where applicable to the service member’s program of study
3. Evaluation of non-traditional learning and awarding of academic credit for such learning where applicable to the service member’s program of study
4. Evaluation of requests for inter-institutional transfer of credits and acceptance of such credits whenever they are appropriate to the service member’s program and are consistent with the College’s curriculum
5. Flexibility to service members in satisfying residence requirements by making adjustments for military students who transfer when there are other assurances of program balance
6. Education and student support services for veterans
7. Adherence to U.S. Department of Defense Tuition Assistance (TA) program requirements for all Active Duty members.
Facts about the Post-9/11 GI Bill®
Mercy College's designation as a Yellow Ribbon school combined with Post-9/11 GI Bill® benefits virtually eliminates any education costs throughout a student's college career. In addition, the Post-9/11 GI Bill® may provide up to $9,000 toward living expenses every semester to eligible Mercy College students. Transitioning from military service to academic life has never been easier, thanks to Mercy College and the GI Bill®.

- The education benefit of the Post-9/11 GI Bill® can now be used for undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral degrees.
- There are increased benefit limits — including a housing cost allowance that is paid directly to the veteran.
- The tuition benefit is paid directly to Mercy College — 100 percent eligible veterans will have no out-of-pocket tuition costs.
- In certain cases, veteran GI Bill® benefits can be transferred to an immediate family member.

For further information regarding VA Benefits Certification, please contact the Office of Business Operations at 914-674-3104.

Non-Degree-Seeking Students (Non-Matriculating)
Students who wish to enroll in courses for college credit on a non-matriculating (non-degree) basis may register for those courses by completing a simple non-degree application for admission to Mercy College. Placement testing and submission of prior transcripts may be necessary depending on the prerequisites of the chosen courses. Applications for non-matriculating students are available online and in the Office of Admissions at each campus location. Undergraduate students may only take up to 24 credits as a non-degree seeking student and are encouraged to apply for regular admission.

Senior Citizen
Senior citizens (age 62 and older) may register on a space available basis on the first day of the term at the reduced tuition rate. Senior citizens should complete the College's registration process, and should be prepared to show proof of age.

New York State Department of Health Bureau Immunization Program
All students attending colleges and universities in New York State are required to show proof of immunity against measles, mumps, and rubella. Students born before January 1, 1957, are exempt from this requirement. Failure to show proof of compliance with this regulation may prohibit students from attending classes. In addition, students are required to submit a record of meningococcal meningitis immunization within the past ten years, or an acknowledgement of meningococcal disease risks and refusal of the immunization signed by the student.

For further information about the New York State Department of Health immunization requirements, please contact the Mercy College Office of Student Services.

College-Related Costs

Students are advised that they should anticipate certain expenses over and above tuition expenses. While Mercy College cannot guarantee that each student will incur the same expenses, or that these expenses will remain constant throughout the student’s years at Mercy College, the following may assist the student in making financial plans.

Payment Policy

Tuition, fees and all other charges are due as follows by academic term:

- Summer: Three weeks prior to the first day of the term
- Fall: Three weeks prior to the first day of the term
- Winter: Upon registration
- Intersession: Upon registration
- Spring: Three weeks prior to the first day of the term

You will be required to complete a Student Acknowledgement Statement and Method of Payment Information Form prior to registering for classes each term. The forms are available online via MercyConnect. This information will be used to assist you in completing your payment arrangements each term.

Arrangements for payment in installments may be made with specific monthly payment plan providers or directly with Mercy College. For additional information regarding payment plan options, please contact either the Office of Student Accounts or the Office of Enrollment Services. These arrangements must be made as of the above outlined timeline. Payment may be made by MasterCard, VISA, AMEX, Discover or debit cards with appropriate credit card logos. All tuition and fees are subject to change without prior notice. Any student who has an overdue balance will be subject to late fees, and will not be eligible to participate in the registration process, receive transcripts, or remain in residence at the College or use college services or facilities. Students are responsible for balances incurred due to the loss or reduction of financial aid or other credit originally anticipated due to her/his ineligibility, lack of attendance, incomplete paperwork or for any other reason.

Many Mercy College students may be eligible for Financial Aid in the form of Scholarships, Grants, Loans, and Work Study from Federal, State, Institutional, and/or Private sources. Tuition payment may be deferred based upon anticipated receipt of the awards that have been processed by the Office of Enrollment Services prior to billing due dates and in accordance with related deadlines. All financial aid awards are conditional upon the successful and timely completion of all related and required paperwork. Therefore if, for any reason, financial aid awards are not disbursed, the full balance of tuition and fees is due and payable upon demand to Mercy College. Should it be necessary to place a delinquent account with a collection agency, all fees, including reasonable attorney fees, become the responsibility of the student.

Resident students should be aware that the due dates for their financial arrangements are different from the dates for the at-large student population. Please read the housing agreement carefully.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this catalog, the College administration expressly reserves the right, whenever it deems advisable: (1) to change or modify its schedule of tuition and fees, and (2) to withdraw, cancel, reschedule, or modify any course, program of study, or degree, or any requirements in connection with any of the foregoing.

For questions regarding billing or payments please contact the Enrollment Services Support Center at (888) 464-6737.

Refunds

When a student officially withdraws from any course or courses by filing a formal withdrawal notice (Drop/Add Form) with the Office of Student Services, refund of tuition will be made according to the below outlined schedule. See the course bulletin for specific refund dates. The date of withdrawal is the date upon which the formal withdrawal notice is received. Withdrawal may be processed at the Office of Student Services or via the Web at MercyConnect. Fees are non-refundable once courses begin.

This refund policy may not apply to international students who enter the U.S. under the terms of their international contract with Mercy College or to students receiving discounted tuition.

Students who have elected to pay on the installment plan are responsible for completing all payments if they withdraw during or after the fifth week of the scheduled course meeting for the fall or spring semester, and during or after the second week of scheduled course meeting for the eight-week sessions and summer sessions.

Financial Assistance

The general College policy for processing financial assistance for our students is to do so in an efficient, equitable and accurate fashion for all students. Specifically, the Office of Enrollment Services strives to provide access to the maximum number of resources at the maximum value possible for a student to fund his/her education.

In addition, the Office of Enrollment Services always strives to process all types of financial aid (federal, state, and institutional) in accordance with the U.S. Department of Education (DOE), the NYS Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC), and all other governing association mandated policies and procedures.

Mercy College utilizes the U.S. Department of Education Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to determine federal and institutional aid eligibility for a given academic year. Eligibility for state funding is determined by the NYS HESE Electronic TAP Application (ETAP).

All students requesting financial aid must file the previously mentioned FAFSA Application. The College recommends that students file this application electronically at www.fafsa.ed.gov. You must include the federal code for Mercy College to ensure that your application is forwarded to both the College and to HESC. The federal code is 002772.

Once the application has been filed with the DOE, the processed application, the resulting Institution Student Information Record (ISIR), is forwarded to the College and to HESC electronically. Upon receipt of the ISIR record, the College will generate a comprehensive financial aid package. This information, along with supporting information will be sent to each student in the form of an official Notice of Award for the academic year. This information will also be available via MercyConnect.

Students MUST file a FAFSA Application EVERY year to be eligible for financial aid in a given academic year. The priority filing dates are as follows:

- February 15 for the Academic Year: fall, spring, summer
- February 15 of the fall term only
- October 1 for the spring and summer terms

Meeting the priority filing dates ensures the ability of the Office of Enrollment Services to complete all the required processes to generate a comprehensive financial aid package in a timely manner. Failure to meet the above priority deadlines may result in the loss of federal, state, and/or institutional aid. Financial aid funds are credited to a student’s account when eligibility requirements are satisfied for the given term (generally the fourth or fifth week of the term).

The U.S. Department of Education randomly selects FAFSA applications for a mandated Verification Process. This process requires the College to request, collect and review specific data elements of the received ISIR record. The Verification Process may result in a revision to a prior comprehensive financial aid package. A revised Notice of Award will be generated and sent to applicable students.

The Office of Enrollment Services will notify selected students in writing for verification. This notice will detail all required documents that must be submitted to the College within two weeks of the date of the notice. Failure to comply with the Verification request will result in the loss of all financial aid (federal, state, and institutional) funding. The student will then be responsible for the full balance due on the account.

To maintain eligibility for financial aid in subsequent academic years, a student must meet the following criteria:

1. Re-file the FAFSA and the ETA within the priority deadline.
2. Maintain minimum Satisfactory Academic Progress as defined by the federal and state agencies (detailed further later).
3. Maintain minimum academic requirements for academic scholarships.
4. Maintain minimum enrollment criteria for respective aid programs.
5. Complete and submit all required verification processes (if requested).

FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS

The FAFSA application is required to determine potential eligibility for all federally funded financial aid programs, including grants, loans and work study. Additionally, a student must meet the following criteria:

1. Be a U.S. Citizen or an eligible non-citizen (permanent resident).
2. Have a valid Social Security Number.
3. Be enrolled as a matriculated student in an eligible degree-granting program.
4. Have either a high school diploma or a General Equivalency Development Certification (GED).
5. Be registered for the Selective Service (if applicable).
6. Demonstrate need (as defined by the DOE) for the grants, work study and student loan programs.
7. Not be in default or in an overpayment situation for any federal grant or loan program.
8. Maintain the minimum academic requirements (as detailed later).
The academic eligibility requirements for financial aid are as follows:

1. Maintain a cumulative grade point index during each academic year at or above the minimum standard as outlined in the below detailed chart.

2. Complete the minimum number of degree credits (or greater) as outlined in the below detailed chart.

3. Register for courses that are applicable to the matriculated degree; course work not applicable to the matriculated degree are not eligible for consideration in determining a student’s eligibility for aid.

Students matriculated in either an associate’s degree program or a bachelor’s degree program must meet similar academic progress standards. However, the maximum number of semesters of aid eligibility for an associate degree is six.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

For purposes of determining financial aid eligibility under Title IV of the Higher Education Act (HEA) of 1965, all institutions, including Mercy College, must establish reasonable standards for measuring whether a student is maintaining satisfactory academic progress (SAP). On October 29, 2010, the Secretary of Education published final rules aimed at improving the integrity of programs authorized under Title IV of the HEA. Effective July 1, 2011, institutions must comply with the published regulations that impact SAP. The Office of Enrollment Services has implemented its satisfactory academic progress policy to comply with said regulations.

Mercy College students who do not make satisfactory academic progress towards their degree will not be eligible for the following federal Title IV aid programs:

- Federal Pell Grants.
- Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (SEOG).
- Federal Work Study Program.
- Federal Direct Loan Programs, both Subsidized and Unsubsidized loans.
- Federal Direct Parent Plus Loan Program.

In addition, students who do not meet satisfactory academic progress will not be eligible to receive institutional (Mercy College-based) grants and scholarships. NOTE: Students receiving academic scholarships must also meet the criteria outlined in the initial scholarship notification letter.

The Office of Enrollment Services will review academic records annually after each spring term to monitor that students are making progress towards degree completion. Students are required to maintain qualitative and quantitative standards, and may not exceed the maximum time frame for their program.

Qualitative Measure Standards

To maintain the qualitative standards of satisfactory academic progress, students must meet the cumulative GPA at the end of each academic year, as outlined in the charts below. The ‘end’ of an academic year is defined as the end of the spring term of each academic year, regardless of the term an individual student began his/her studies with the College in a given academic year.

Quantitative Measure Standards

Cumulative Progress
To quantify academic progress, students must successfully earn credits toward their degree greater than or equal to 67 percent of the credits attempted. For example, if a student has attempted 24 credit hours, he/she must earn 16 credits of those attempted (16 earned credits / 24 attempted credits x 100 percent = 67 percent).

Maximum Time Frame
The number of credit hours for which a student may receive federal financial aid may not exceed 150 percent of the credit hours required to complete the academic program’s published length. For example, if a student is enrolled in a bachelor’s program that requires 120 credit hours for completion, then 180 hours is the maximum number of attempted hours permitted relative to federal student aid eligibility (150 percent x 120 credit hours). For a student enrolled in an associate’s program, he/she may receive aid for up to 90 attempted credit hours (150 percent x 60 credit hours).

Determination of Attempted Credits and Earned Credits
The College includes all courses attempted at Mercy College plus course work accepted as transfer credit towards the student’s declared major in the quantitative measurement in determining successful SAP. This also includes courses taken via a Consortium Agreement. Earned hours include all courses which a passing grade was received (A, B, C, D). All withdrawn courses (W, FW) and failed courses (F) are counted as unearned hours in the calculation. Repeated courses are counted in the attempted hours and are taken into consideration for the maximum allowed hours for completion toward the degree.

1. Remedial Courses
   Since remedial courses and the remedial component of developmental and compensatory courses do not carry degree credit, enrollment in these courses will not result in the inclusion of the non-credit portion as cumulative attempted credits.

2. Withdrawals
   Withdrawals as part of the program adjustment period will not be included as cumulative attempted credits. Withdrawals that are recorded on a student’s permanent record will be included as cumulative attempted credits and will have an adverse effect on a student’s capability to meet the appropriate standard.

   NOTE: Retroactive “non-punitive” administrative withdrawal activity may result in the requirement for the student to repay any assistance received as a result of the student’s enrollment at the time of receipt of the student assistance funds.

3. Incomplete Grades
   Courses with incomplete grades are included as cumulative attempted credits. However, these courses cannot be used as credits earned toward the degree since successful completion is the criterion for positive credit accumulation. Incomplete grades will be treated as an F when calculating a student’s cumulative GPA for the purpose of determining whether a student has maintained the qualitative standards of satisfactory academic progress.

If the student fails to meet the appropriate standard for credit accumulation due to the lack of successful completion grades for these courses, the recording of successful completion grades within a term which brings the accumulated credit level to the appropriate standard will restore eligibility for the term and subsequent terms within the academic year.

4. Repeated Courses
Successfully completed courses can generally be accepted toward degree requirements once. However, each time a student attempts a course, it is included as part of the cumulative attempted credit record. Therefore, repeated courses, regardless of the prior grade, reduce a student’s capacity to meet the appropriate credit accumulation standard.

Treatment of Non-Standard Situations

1. Readmitted Students
Upon readmission after at least a one-year period of non-reenrollment, the student will receive assistance for the terms in the academic year of readmission and will be evaluated for future eligibility at the end of the spring term against the appropriate standard for the degree program for which the student is enrolled. The student’s previous academic history will be included as part of the calculation. If a student is readmitted after less than one year of non-enrollment, the academic record will be evaluated for satisfactory academic progress under these standards as the record stood at the end of the last term of attendance.

2. Transfer Students
Transfer students shall have their status initialized for purposes of satisfactory academic progress measurement by using the number of credits determined to be acceptable toward the degree as both the students’ cumulative attempted credits and cumulative earned credits.

3. Second Degree Students
Students enrolling for a second degree, either baccalaureate or graduate, shall have their status initialized for purposes of satisfactory academic progress measurement by using the number of credits determined to be acceptable toward the degree as both the students’ cumulative attempted credits and cumulative earned credits.

4. Change of Major or Degree
A student that changes majors within the same degree must complete the program within the maximum time frame allowed for the new program. Students must be mindful not to exceed the 150 percent maximum time frame when changing majors.

Evaluation and Notification of Federal Title IV Aid Ineligibility
The Office of Enrollment Services will review all students’ academic records annually at the conclusion of the respective spring term. Students who are not making satisfactory academic progress towards their degree will immediately lose eligibility for future Title IV aid. Students will be notified of their ineligible status via postal mail from the Office of Enrollment Services.
Note: If a student has a grade change or correction to their academic record subsequent to the review process, he/she should notify their respective PACT or COP mentor in writing to request a re-evaluation of their Title IV academic progress.

Satisfactory Academic Progress for Federal Title IV Aid Appeals

Although federal regulations do not mandate institutions to offer an appeal process, Mercy College has established a Title IV SAP appeal process. Students who have unforeseen extenuating circumstances that prevented them from making SAP may submit an appeal in writing to the SAP Appeals Committee.

A student may initiate the SAP appeal process by preparing and submitting a written Title IV Satisfactory Academic Progress appeal with all substantiating documentation to his PACT or COP mentor. The appeal must include (1) a detailed explanation regarding: (a) why the student failed to make SAP (examples of appeal worthy circumstances are: serious physical or mental illness of the student, serious physical or mental illness of a student’s immediate family member, death of a student’s immediate family member and other extreme circumstances) and (b) what has changed that will allow the student to make SAP at the next evaluation, and (2) a SAP Academic Plan, made in conjunction with the student’s PACT or COP mentor, that outlines the specific plan/corrective action to improve academic progress.

The SAP Appeals Committee will meet and review the students’ submitted documentation. A determination will be made whether the students appeal will be approved or denied. All appeal decisions are final.

Result of Appeal/Reinstatement of Title IV funding

A student whose appeal has been granted will receive federal financial aid, but will be expected to meet the terms of his Academic Plan to assure that the student is fully meeting the minimum SAP requirements by the end of the academic year. The approval of an SAP appeal is related to the renewal of federal and institutional need based aid only. Students must meet the renewal criteria of NYS and institutional scholarships for their respective renewal of funding.

A student whose appeal has been denied or who has lost eligibility by not meeting the standard without appeal may regain eligibility by leaving the institution for at least one year. Upon readmittance, the student will receive assistance for the terms in the academic year of readmittance and will be subject to SAP evaluation of eligibility at the end of that year.

Students who choose to remain enrolled at Mercy College without the receipt of Title IV Federal Student Assistance may request a review of their academic records after any term in which they are enrolled without such benefits to determine whether the appropriate standards for the degree programs in which the students are enrolled have been met. If the standards are met, eligibility is regained for subsequent terms in the academic year.

Students who choose to remain enrolled at Mercy College without the receipt of Title IV Federal Student Assistance or institutional aid are responsible for all debts owed to the College, including any fees or tuition that may have been incurred during the review process.
Census and Aid Disbursement Requirements
The College faculty is required to complete a census of their respective classes by the end of the add/drop period of each session within a given term. The census information is utilized to confirm that a student has attended his/her registered courses. This information is then utilized during the Financial Aid Packaging Reconciliation Process to confirm financial aid eligibility. Financial Aid eligibility may be adjusted upon the census information. Financial Aid funds will NOT post to respective student accounts until both the Census and Packaging Reconciliation Processes are completed (generally the fourth or fifth week of the term).

Withdrawal and Federal Return of Financial Aid Policies (as mandated by DOE)
Mercy College is required to prorate financial aid funding to students that withdraw from the College. This process is required for students who withdraw officially (either in person via the Office of Enrollment Services or on-line via MercyConnect) or unofficially (by ceasing to attend).

Students who officially withdraw prior to attending 60 percent of the term are subject to the prorated calculation. The percentage of aid retained will be applied to all institutional charges. The Return of Funds calculation may result in a balance owed to the College by the student. This balance is the full responsibility of the student.

Students who are determined to have unofficially withdrawn from the College during the end of term grading processes will have the Return of Funds calculated as of the midpoint of the term as outlined by the DOE. This Return of Funds calculation may result in a balance owed to the College by the student. This balance is the full responsibility of the student.

Federal Pell Grant
Eligibility for the Federal Grant Program is determined by the FAFSA application and current enrollment status in a degree-granting program. The value of the Federal Pell Grant is $581 to $5,775 for the 2015–2016 Academic Year. A student must be registered for a minimum of three credits and making SAP.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant: SEOG Grant
Awards are made to Federal Pell Grant eligible students demonstrating exceptional need (as defined by the DOE). Awards range from $200 to $4,000 per academic year. Limited funds restrict the number and the value of the awards in a given academic year. A student must be registered for a minimum of six credits and making SAP.

Federal Work Study Program
On-campus Federal Work Study positions are available at each campus. Additionally, a small number of students may be eligible to work off-campus at an approved not-for-profit organization through the community service component of the Federal Work Study Program. Students working in these positions generally work 12–20 hours per week. To be eligible, the student must show financial need, per the FAFSA application process. Students who have been approved for work-study as part of their aid award may contact the Office of Career Services for more program information.
Tuition, Expenses and Financial Assistance / 313

Federal Aid to Native Americans
Full-time matriculated students that are one-forth or greater Native American Indian, may be eligible for additional federal grants. Students must be members of tribes served by the U.S. Bureau of Indian Affairs, must presently reside or have resided on the reservation, and must demonstrate financial need (as defined by the DOE).

Applications may be obtained from the U.S. Department of the Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Syracuse, NY 13210.

Veterans Administration Education Benefits (VA Benefits)
There are a variety of Education Related Benefits available to veterans of each of the military branches and their dependents. Mercy College is approved to conduct college level programs to Veterans and their dependents. Benefits generally cover tuition, fees, and education related expenses. Detailed information is available from the Offices of the Veterans Administration.

The Robert C. Byrd Honors Scholarship Program and the Paul Douglas Teacher Scholarship Program
The Robert C. Byrd Honors Scholarship Program and the Paul Douglas Teacher Scholarship Program are federally funded programs administered by the state. For additional information and application forms, contact the New York State Education Department, State and Federal Scholarship and Fellowship Unit, Cultural Education Center, Albany, New York 12230.

National and Community Service Program
The National and Community Service Program is available to students with a high school diploma or a GED currently or formally enrolled as a matriculated student in a degree granting program. Students may earn up to $4,725 a year working either before, during or after college. The funds can be utilized to either pay current education expenses or to repay prior federal student loans. For additional information, call 800-942-2677 or write to The Corporation for National and Community Service, 1100 Vermont Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20525.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program (DL Loan Program)
The DL Loan Program consists of the following loans products for undergraduate students: Federal Subsidized Stafford Loans, Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loans, and Federal Parent PLUS Loans. Federal Stafford Loans, both Subsidized and Unsubsidized Loans, are loans in the name of the student. Federal PLUS Loans are loans in the name of the parent, for the student’s educational expenses.

Students must demonstrate need (as defined by the DOE) to be eligible for Federal Subsidized Stafford Loans. The DOE pays the interest of the Subsidized Stafford Loan while a student is enrolled minimally half-time. Students that do not demonstrate need are also eligible for Federal Unsubsidized Stafford Loans. The value of the Federal Stafford Loan is determined by the student’s grade level (as determined by the total number of cumulative credits toward the matriculated degree). The Federal Stafford Loan values for the 2015-2016 Academic Year are detailed below:

Dependent Students (as defined by the DOE)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Sub/Unsub (plus $2,000 Unsub)</th>
<th>Total</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Freshmen</td>
<td>$3,500</td>
<td>$5,500</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sophomores</td>
<td>$4,500</td>
<td>$6,500</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Juniors</td>
<td>$5,500</td>
<td>$7,500</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Seniors</td>
<td>$5,500</td>
<td>$7,500</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The aggregate federal loan limit for a dependent undergraduate student is $23,000 in Subsidized funds (up to $31,000 including the additional $2,000 Unsubsidized funds, as defined by Congress).

Independent Students (as defined by the DOE):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Sub/Unsub (plus $6,000 Unsub)</th>
<th>Total</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Freshmen</td>
<td>$3,500</td>
<td>$9,500</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sophomores</td>
<td>$4,500</td>
<td>$10,500</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Juniors</td>
<td>$5,500</td>
<td>$12,500</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Seniors</td>
<td>$5,500</td>
<td>$12,500</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The aggregate federal loan limit for an independent undergraduate student is $57,500 (Subsidized and Subsidized combined, as defined by Congress).

The DOE may deduct an origination fee of up to three percent for each loan. Repayment of any federal loan begins either six months after leaving school or once a student enrolls less than half time.

The Office of Enrollment Services will automatically determine eligibility for the Federal Stafford Loan Programs upon receipt of the FAFSA application. Eligibility will be communicated to the student via the comprehensive Financial Aid Notice of Award; the information will also be available via Mercy Connect.

The student may accept the offered loan amount by signing and returning one copy of the Financial Aid Notice of Award. Additionally, the student must complete a Master Promissory Note (MPN) and a Loan Entrance Interview (both are included with the Financial Aid Notice of Award packet). Both of these documents can also be completed electronically via www.mercy.edu (via the Enrollment Services Web page).

Federal Loans must be disbursed minimally in two installments (whether the loan is for one term or multiple terms in an academic year). Additionally, Federal Loan funds for newly enrolled students at the College are eligible for disbursement thirty days after the first day of the term (as required by the DOE).
Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan
Parents may borrow up to the cost of education less any financial aid each academic year for a dependent undergraduate student. The interest rate is determined by Congress. Repayment commences 60 days after the final disbursement of the loan in an academic year.

Any parent requesting a Federal PLUS on behalf of his/her student must notify the Office of Enrollment Services of approval of the Federal PLUS Loan and the value of the loan requested. Additionally, the parent must complete a Master Promissory Note (MPN) and submit a copy of the MPN to the College.

Please be advised that Federal PLUS Loan approvals are based upon credit checks. Additionally, Federal PLUS Loans are subject to the same origination and default fees as the Federal Stafford Loans. Finally, Federal PLUS Loans are subject to the same disbursement regulations as the Federal Stafford Loans (as mentioned earlier).

NEW YORK STATE FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS

NYS Tuition Assistance Program (TAP)
Initial application for TAP is made by completing the FAFSA application and listing Mercy College’s Federal School Code (002772) in the first slot of the FAFSA application. NYS Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC) will then notify students via email that an Electronic TAP Application (ETA) is available at www.hesc.org for completion. HESC will not finalize the TAP Application (ETA) without the student logging onto the website to review and electronically sign the ETA.

Students that did not list Mercy College in the first slot of the FAFSA application, yet subsequently enrolled at the College, MUST complete a NYS TAP College Change Form to be eligible for a TAP award at Mercy College.

TAP awards range from $250 to $5,165 in an academic year for NYS residents. Students must be matriculated in an approved bachelor’s or associate’s degree granting program, be registered full-time, and maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) as outlined by HESC.

SAP for NYS Tuition Assistance Awards is measured by Program Pursuit (completion of minimum percentage of credits in a given term) and Cumulative GPA. Details of both the Program Pursuit and Cumulative GPA are available on the Mercy College website www.mercy.edu.

To be eligible for TAP in any one semester, students must take a minimum of 12 credits applicable to their degree. For example, if a student takes four courses, but only three of the courses are applicable toward the degree and the other is for personal enrichment, that student would be counted as a part-time student for TAP purposes for that term.

Courses that are replacing a degree requirement that has already been satisfied are not counted towards full-time enrollment for TAP purposes. For example, if a student transferred in 15 credits worth of electives and their degree requires 18 credits of electives in total, they only have three credits remaining to meet that requirement. A student taking two core courses and two electives for a term would not be counted as full-time for TAP purposes; only one of those electives count towards the degree, the other is extraneous.

A student may only repeat a course and have the course count as part of the minimum full-time or part-time course load for financial aid purposes if credit was not previously earned for the course. If an F or a W was received in a course, credit was not earned for the course. Therefore, a student may repeat courses in which F or W grades were earned and have them count towards full-time or part-time study requirements. There are certain other circumstances when a student may repeat a course and have it count as part of the minimum course load, including when: (1) the grade earned is passing at the College but not considered passing in a particular curriculum. For example, a student receives a D in a nursing course. D is a passing grade; however, any grade lower than a C in a nursing course is considered a failing grade. Thus, the nursing course in which you earned the D may be repeated as part of the minimum full-time or part-time course load; or (2) The course can be repeated and credit earned each time, such as certain physical education or language courses.

With regard to the effect on full-time and part-time status, a repeated course in which you earned a passing grade may not be used to meet the pursuit of program requirement (completing a certain percentage of the minimum full-time or part-time course load in each term an award is received) for maintaining good academic standing. In other words, a course that a college does not require you to repeat in order for you to earn credit toward a degree cannot be considered in determining whether you have satisfied the pursuit requirement for a New York State award.

NYS regulations require that a student must take a minimum of one three-or-more credit course at the campus at which the degree is approved by the state education department. Each program has detailed a core course within the major, which is only offered at the program’s ‘home’ campus, for this purpose. Students can take core requirements and electives at other campuses and qualify for NYS aid, but they must complete the core course at the home campus in order to complete their degree. See the program pages for detail of the specified course for that program.

Loss of TAP Eligibility

Any student that fails to meet the renewal criteria for a TAP award will lose eligibility for a TAP award for the following semester. Options available to a student in this situation are as follows:

1. Request a TAP Waiver. A TAP Waiver is NOT automatic and is granted only for reasons of EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES. For further information, please contact the Office of Enrollment Services.

2. Remain out of school for a least one full year after losing eligibility. Students who have used four semesters of TAP, but have a CGPA of below 2.0, must obtain a CGPA of 2.0 at Mercy College to regain eligibility.

3. Transfer to another college.

4. Continue in college using funds other than TAP to finance educational costs. Eligibility will be regained when the student again meets the academic criteria.

NYS Aid for Part-Time Study (APTS)

The NYS APTS program is a grant program financed via HESC providing funding for qualified part-time undergraduate students that are NYS Residents. The APTS grant awards range from $100 to $2,000 in an academic year. Contact the Office of Enrollment Services for more information about eligibility requirements and application processes.

Higher Education Opportunity Program (HEOP)

Students must meet both academic and economic criteria to be eligible for the HEOP Program. Generally, students must prove both academic and economic disadvantage. Upon admittance to the HEOP program, students may receive supplemental financial and educational assistance from the College.

Financial aid is calculated on an individual basis and is calculated to include the cost of tuition, fees, books, supplies, transportation, etc. A comprehensive financial aid package will be generated for all students upon admittance to the program and receipt of the FAFSA application. Students must also complete the ETA from HESC. Students must complete the College application process with the Offices of Admission and HEOP.

Regents Awards for Children of Deceased and Disabled Veterans

Awards for children of deceased or disabled veterans are available to the children of veterans who die or who have a current disability of 50 percent or more resulting from U.S. Military service. The amount of the award is up to $450 per year. Applications are made through the NYS HESC via www.hesc.org.

For further information regarding VA Benefits Certification, please contact the Office of Business Operations at 914-674-3104.
Regents Awards for Children of Deceased Police Officers, Firefighters and Corrections Officers

These awards provide up to $450 per academic year for children of police officers, firefighters, and corrections officers of NYS who have died as a result of injuries sustained in the line of duty. Applications are made through NYS HESC via www.hesc.org.

Regents Awards for Children of Deceased State Corrections Officers and State Civilian Employees of a Correctional Facility.

This Regents Award provides financial aid to children of NYS Corrections Officers or Civilian Employees of a NYS correction facility who dies as a result of injuries sustained in the line of duty during the September 1971 Attica uprising. Individuals cannot be eligible for both this award and the Regents Award for the Children of Deceased Police Officers, Firefighters, or Corrections Officers. The awards are for full-time undergraduate study and are equal to the sum of annual tuition and average room and board charges specified by the State University of New York. Applications are made through NYS HESC at www.hesc.org.

New York State Aid to Native Americans

New York State Aid to Native Americans is an entitlement program with neither a qualifying examination nor a limited number of awards. A student may be eligible for an award of up to $1,000 per academic year for a maximum of four years of full-time study. Applications are made through NYS HESC at www.hesc.org.

MERCY COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP AND GRANT PROGRAMS

Mercy College Scholarships are awarded primarily on the basis of superior academic performance, demonstrated financial need, and the student’s potential contribution to the intellectual life of the College. Need-based funding and scholarship disbursement requires the filing of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (the FAFSA) by February 15th of each year. Scholarships are generally available to new incoming freshmen, transfer students and continuing students.

To apply for any of the Mercy College-funded scholarship programs, please go to our Prospective Students section at www.mercy.edu.

Mercy College Assistance Grant

Mercy College offers need-based tuition grants to supplement federal and state aid. Application is made by completing the FAFSA application. Based on the Estimated Family Contribution (EFC), full-time students may be allocated funds to assist them in meeting their financial obligations to the College. Students who receive non-need based grants from the college and/or from sources outside Mercy College may have their MCAG award reduced and/or cancelled.
Mercy College Presidential Honors Scholarship
Scholarships may be awarded to outstanding entering freshmen students who have demonstrated academic merit. Scholarship awards are renewable for up to four years as long as the recipient meets the conditions outlined via the Scholarship Agreement Form.

Athletics
Mercy is a Division II NCAA member and offers intercollegiate competition in men’s baseball, basketball, cross-country, lacrosse, track and field, soccer, tennis, and golf. Women’s intercollegiate sports include basketball, cross-country, track and field, lacrosse, soccer, softball, and volleyball. Athletic scholarships are available to students who meet the eligibility guidelines as specified by the NCAA and are selected as scholarship recipients.
E.L. Franz County Scholarship Program
Scholarships awarded annually to adult students demonstrating need who have not recently been in a “normal schooling pattern” and are not normally eligible for scholarship funding from Westchester County and the Bronx.

E.L. Franz Scholarship Fund
Scholarships awarded annually to a student receiving full financial aid in order to reduce dependence on employment income and enhance opportunity for academic success.

Joel Halpern Memorial Scholarship
Scholarship created to perpetuate the spirit of Mr. Halpern, in recognition of his contributions to the enrichment of the cultural and educational environment of Westchester County. Awarded annually to a student from Westchester County; renewed in the sophomore, junior and senior years, provided the recipient continues to qualify for financial aid according to college guidelines.

Frances T.M. Mahoney Scholarship Fund for Students
The Frances T.M. Mahoney endowed scholarship fund supports a student with a GPA of 3.0 or higher who is in need of financial aid. Please contact the Office of Institutional Advancement for more information.

Links-LeMelle Scholarship
The Links-LeMelle scholarship is a partial scholarship awarded annually to defray travel expenses anywhere in the world to undertake a study project preferably at a major university or educational institution, in preparation for a professional or graduate career. The competitive scholarship is awarded to a female African-American student who has completed a minimum of 50 credits. The scholarship is offered through a fund generously contributed by the Westchester Chapter of LINKS to honor and perpetuate the ideas of its president, Wilbert John LeMelle.

Mortimer Levitt Scholarship Fund
This scholarship is awarded annually to a female member of the student body to help defray travel expenses anywhere in the world, preferably to a major university or educational institution, while undertaking an approved study project. The scholarship(s) will be awarded on a basis of a competition involving the submission of project essays. The scholarship was founded by Mortimer Levitt, founder and president of The Custom Shop.

Mortimer Levitt Gifted Student Fund
These partial scholarships are awarded to a freshman, a sophomore, and a junior based on academic merit. Each student must be on the Summa Cum Laude track and be nominated by a Mercy faculty. The award is renewable with continued academic excellence. Scholarship funding is made available by Mortimer Levitt.

Steven Gans Memorial Award
A partial scholarship awarded annually to a continuing undergraduate who has demonstrated creativity and academic achievement in his/her pursuit of an undergraduate degree. Students should be nominated by the faculty in the field of computer science, mathematics and related sciences on the basis of academic excellence, creativity, community service and financial need.
Sal Argento Memorial Fund
A monetary award, based on financial need, may be awarded to any student pursuing a four-year undergraduate degree at Mercy College. The College acknowledges that the donor requests that the aid be used to meet the financial need of a student who is a first generation higher education degree-seeking student.

Anne Rice Endowed Scholarship
A partial scholarship awarded annually to a student in the natural sciences who has maintained academic excellence.

Gioietta and Alberto Vitale Scholarship
Established by Mercy College Trustee Alberto Vitale and his wife, Gioietta, partial scholarships are available to incoming Honors students who demonstrate extraordinary academic ability and who have an interest in business or health science.

Linda Christof Guglielmo Scholarship Fund
Established in honor of Mercy College alumna, Linda Christof Guglielmo, the scholarship is designated to a female student having completed her freshman year (if full-time) or the equivalent number of credits if part-time. Award is made based on a combination of financial need and academic achievement. To qualify, the recipient must have a minimum of a B average with no grade less than a C. Recipient must maintain those academic standards for each academic year in order to qualify for grant continuance. The general intent of the award is to support those who will pursue a teaching career. Recipients must be enrolled in an education-related undergraduate major. The award amount shall be $500 per academic year or per that period it takes a part-time student to complete credit requirements equal to one full academic year. In no event shall one student receive more than three awards.

Luzette Ceneus Scholarship Fund
This fund is awarded to a female or male Haitian student pursuing a degree in business.

Lucie Lapovsky Award
Partial scholarship award, based on financial need, may be offered to any student pursuing a four-year undergraduate degree at Mercy College. The College acknowledges that the donor requests that the aid be used to meet financial need and has expressed a particular interest in the needs of transfer and part-time students.

Matero Scholarships
Two partial scholarships are awarded to one full-time and one part-time student who are members of a union or have an immediate family member who is a member of a union. Eligible students must pursue a degree in industrial relations or business and have a record of academic achievement.

Carol Burnett Scholarship
Partial Scholarship offered to a student who has exhibited academic achievement and has an interest in the Arts or Humanities, especially the Performing Arts. The scholarship derives from a generous contribution to the College by Carol Burnett.
The Eva Ellis Travel Scholarship Fund
The Eva Ellis Traveling Scholarship Award has been established for a student in the Mercy College Honors Program to travel to Honor Semesters sponsored by the National collegiate Honors Council.

John Sullivan Fund
Fund established to support a student in need. Please contact the Scholarship Office for more information.

Juan Miguel Roldan Scholarship
A partial scholarship awarded annually to an undergraduate student majoring in Music Industry and Technology with a GPA of 3.2 or higher.

Rockland Community College Transfer Scholarship
Awarded annually to an outstanding Rockland Community College graduate majoring in Business. The student is selected by Rockland Community College faculty.

Westchester Community College Transfer Scholarship
Awarded annually to an outstanding Westchester Community College graduate majoring in Business. Students are selected by Westchester Community College faculty.

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Scholarship for Communication Disorders
Scholarships are available for disadvantaged students through a grant from the United States Department of Health and Human Services. Funding is available for students who have been accepted into the bachelor’s degree program in Communication Disorders.

Michael I. Muro Scholarship
This is an annual scholarship for a student entering his/her senior year and majoring in history. Recipients must be Yonkers residents and shall be chosen on the basis of academic excellence, community service, and financial need.

Neillis Memorial Scholarship
This partial award is given to a financially disadvantaged student majoring in the natural sciences who has attained academic merit. This scholarship was established in memory of the former chairperson of the Natural Sciences Department, Dr. Jeanne Marie Neillis.

The J. Mae Pepper Memorial Fund
Two partial scholarships are awarded annually to one undergraduate and one graduate student majoring in nursing. This award is given to a student who has demonstrated qualities of scholarship, leadership, integrity, and a love for the profession characteristic of Dr. Pepper, the late Chair of Nursing. Established in memory of the former chairperson of the Nursing Department, Dr. Jessie Mae Pepper.

Charlotte Newcombe W. Foundation Scholarship
Awarded annually to "mature women students" — over the age of 25 — who have earned at least 60 credits toward a bachelor’s degree and are in need of additional financial support to complete their course work.
Steinitz Memorial Fund
Founded by Dr. Eva F.S. Ellis, the Steinitz Memorial Award is presented annually to the most outstanding student in the Teacher Education Program who plans to enroll in a Mercy College graduate program in Education.

Barbara Ross Sullivan Memorial Fund
This fund is used to generate a monetary award to be presented to the most deserving graduating senior at the Bronx campus who is entering a graduate school to pursue an advanced degree in Library Science.

Daddy Short Legs Scholarship
This scholarship supported by an anonymous donor is intended for Mercy College seniors who are in jeopardy of dropping out of school due to financial struggles. Funds may cover transportation, childcare and other expenses. A faculty or staff member of Mercy College must refer students to the Scholarship Office. The president of Mercy College makes the final selection.

CAMPUS EMPLOYMENT
Through the on-campus employment program, full-time students, who are not eligible to participate in the Federal Work Study Program, may be eligible to work on-campus through departmentally sponsored positions. Students work 12–20 hours per week at the prevailing rate of pay. Students who are interested should contact the Work Study Program coordinator at 914-674-3084.

TUITION REIMBURSEMENT PLANS
Many employers offer tuition reimbursement plans. Contact your employer regarding available assistance.

Consumer Complaints

Consumer Complaints
Mercy College, as an institution authorized to provide postsecondary education in the State of New York, is committed to full compliance with New York State and federal laws requiring that an institution make available to a student or prospective student contact information for filing complaints with its accreditor and with its state approval or licensing entity and any other relevant State official or agency that would appropriately handle a student’s complaint. As such, the College provides the following information to all current and/or prospective students:

Complaint Process
The first course of action for a student with a complaint concerning the College must be to attempt to resolve the complaint directly with the appropriate member of the College’s administration. Mercy College seeks to resolve all student concerns in a timely and effective manner. To that end, this complaint process serves as an ongoing means for students to discuss concerns or register formal complaints that pertain to alleged violations of State consumer protection laws that include but are not limited to: fraud and false advertising; alleged violations of State laws or rules relating to the licensure of postsecondary institutions; and complaints relating to the quality of education or other State or accreditation requirements.

The Student Handbook, found on the Mercy College website, www.mercy.edu., outlines the specific administrative means to address and resolve most, if not all, of the questions and concerns students may have through the complaint process. It is expected that students will fully utilize any/all of Mercy College’s administrative procedures to address concerns and/or complaints in as timely a manner as possible. If, however, a student believes that these administrative procedures have not adequately addressed his/her concerns, the following independent procedures are available:

A complaint that concerns educational programs or practices of Mercy College should be directed to:

New York Office of College and University Evaluation
New York State Education Department
5 North Mezzanine Albany, NY 12234
http://highered.nysed.gov/ocue/spr/COMPLAINTFORMINFO.html

Complaints concerning programs in fields leading to professional licensure (e.g., nursing) should be directed to:

Office of the Professions
Professional Education Program Review
Education Building, 2 West
Albany, NY 12234
Complaints of consumer fraud on the part of Mercy should be directed to:

Office of the New York State Attorney General Justice Building
Empire State Plaza
Albany, New York 12223
https://www1.consumer.state.ny.us/cpb/CauComplaintForm.html

Complaints about state student financial aid matters should be directed to the Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC) Customer Communications Center at 1-888-NYS-HESC.

For students who reside out-of-state and are taking Mercy online distance courses, please contact the agency within your state that handles these complaints. A list can be found at: http://www.sheeo.org/sites/default/files/Complaint%20Process%20Links%202012-2012.pdf

Complaints involving discrimination based on race, color, national origin, age, disability and sex, including sexual harassment, should be filed with the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights:
