This section underneath the title is about grading. You can grade, post and using the bell send reminders. You can also download submissions by clicking the page with the down arrow

This section underneath is about the assignment set up. First you will see your due date and if you accept late work, then you will see how many points the assignment is out of, category, attempts, and any exceptions or accommodations.

The goal is to provide you an easier way to remind yourself of the set up of this particular assignment.
