Leadership Certification for Applicants from Other States

Per <http://www.highered.nysed.gov/tcert/certificate/teachercotherls.html>:

Certificates for School Building Leader, School District leader and School District Business Leader are issued on the basis of completion of a New York State approved program or through the acceptance of a comparable school administration program from another state. Certification is possible under the following scenarios:

- The applicant has completed a comparable state-approved program at the appropriate level and scope, and that program includes the following minimum academic requirements:
 - For SBL, at least 21 semester-hours of graduate level coursework in school leadership in addition to an internship.
 - For SDL, a minimum of 27 semester-hours of graduate level school leadership coursework in addition to an internship. Applicants for the SDL certificate must also have a combined total of at least 60 semester-hours of graduate level coursework.
 - For SDBL, a minimum of 27 semester-hours of graduate level school leadership along with business and financial management coursework in addition to an internship. Applicants for the SDBL certificate must also have a total of at least 60 semester-hours of graduate level coursework.

A master's degree is required for all leadership certificates. Transcripts of applicants from other states must be reviewed to determine if the program completed is comparable to approved school leadership programs in the appropriate title offered in New York State. In all cases, final authority regarding acceptability remains with the New York State Education Department. For additional information about the school leadership examinations is available - go to <http://www.nystce.nesinc.com>.

Prior to enrollment, candidates should contact their home state's department of education to determine if Mercy University's Education Administration programs will meet their home state's requirements for certification, licensure, or otherwise advancing a student's internship credentials prior to enrollment. **
