

Grading a Test or Quiz with Multiple Attempts

1 Click "Overview" in the Gradebook

2 Click on the name of your test or quiz.

3 Click the students name who has a complete a second attempt.

1 of 11 SUBMITTED

1 TO GRADE

Search by student name

Student Status: All Student Statuses

Grading Status: Needs Grading

<input type="checkbox"/>	Student	Student Status
<input type="checkbox"/>	Wednesday Addams 2 attempts (1 late)	Submitted

4 Ensure you have graded all your Essay Questions and reviewed any fill in the blank questions. To provide a score click on the oval and type the score.

1 FILL IN THE BLANK (Auto-graded) 5/5

The three-dimensional shape of a protein that determines its function is its Tertiary structure.

Correct
Acceptable answer for BLANK-1 is tertiary
Responses must match exactly

2 ESSAY 5/5

Discuss the concept of complete vs incomplete proteins and how complementary proteins work in a plant-based diet. Provide two practical meal pairings that illustrate complementary proteins without requiring them to be eaten at the same meal.

Answer
nine essential amino acid

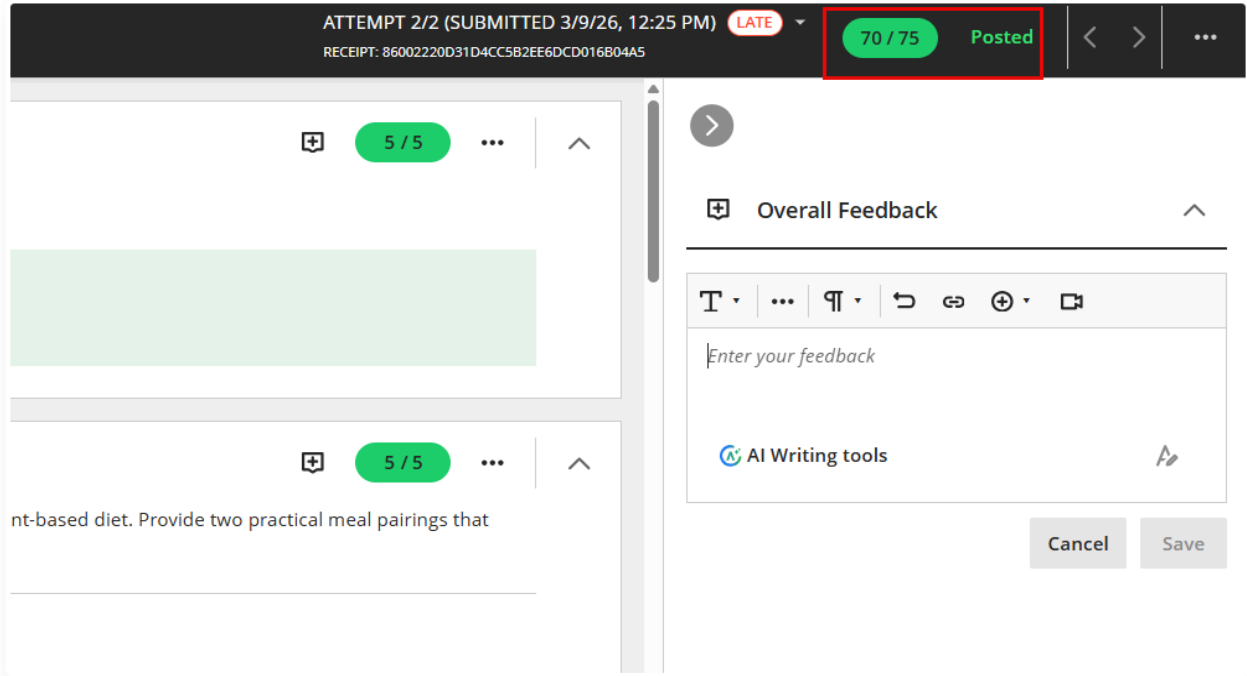

Example of a correct response

3 JUMBLED SENTENCE (Auto-graded) 5/5

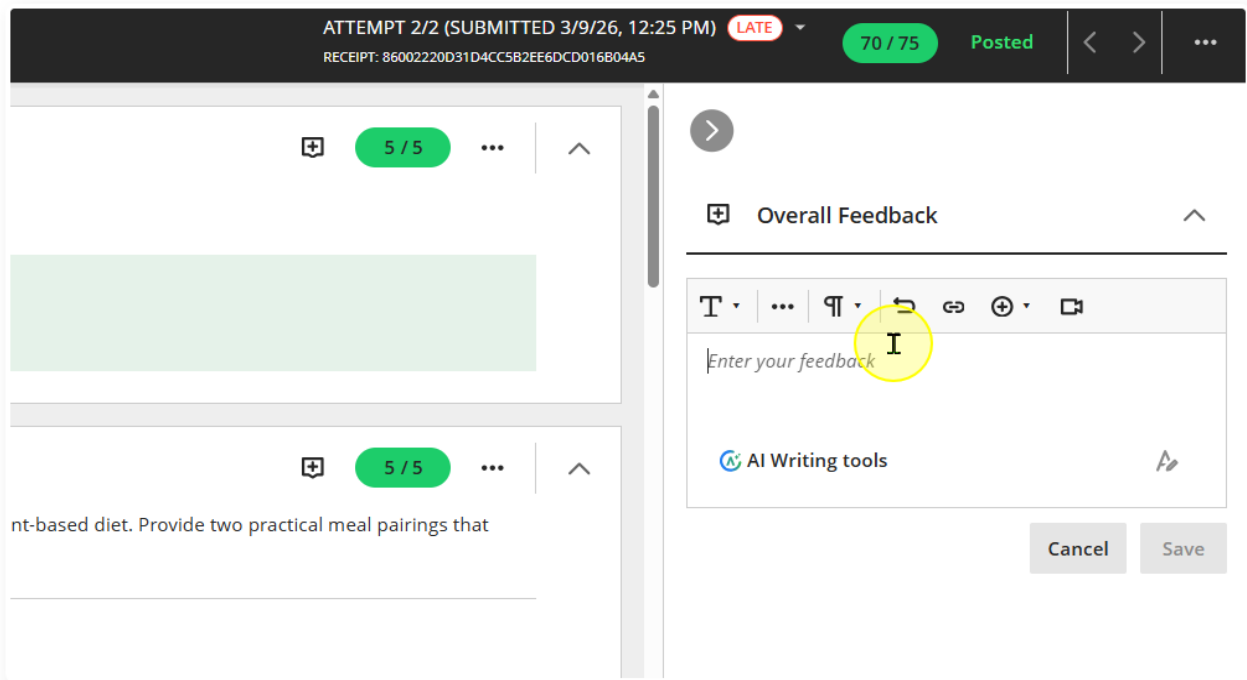

In protein digestion, the four structural levels of protein are primary, secondary, tertiary, and quaternary.

Correct
Answer for BLANK-1 is primary
Answer for BLANK-2 is secondary
Answer for BLANK-3 is tertiary

5 Once all questions have a score, in the top right, you will see the students score.

6 Click "Enter your feedback"

- 7 Add your feedback either using your text box or the audio video studio. Hit save when done.

- 8 Click "X" in the top left to close out of the students submission.

